The King being engaged and peremptorily resolved to go in person into Flanders to ayde the Earl against the French, thought it expedient before his departure out of England to endeavor to reconcile all domestick differences then between him his Prelates, Clergy, Nobles and Commons; for which purpose [e] Parliamentum factum est Londonis in festo Sancti Petri ad vincula, ubi in primis Rex recepit Archiepiscopum in gratiam suam (the prime author of the Clergies, Nobles, Commons oppositions and insurrections against him) omnibus qui ejus erant restitutis eidem usque ad ultimam quadrantem (by the [f] premised Writ) Deinde præcepit Magnatibus qui tunc aderant, ut fidelitatem filio suo facerent, ipsumque regni hæredem et suum futurum recognoscerent Dominum. Rex vero de exactionibus in regno factis, per necessitates guerrarum diversarum se erga populum excusavit. Comes vero Marescallus & Herefordensis se subtrahentes, cum veniretur ut sua officia transeundo in Flandriam exercerent, se super hoc per Nuncios excusabant. [g] Eodem tempore admisso Archiep. Hæc ſunt nocumenta quæ Archiepiſcopi, Epiſcopi, Abbates et Priores, Comites et Barones, et tota terræ Communitas monſtrant Domino noſtro Regi, & humiliter rogant eum, ut ea ad honorem ſuum et ſalvationem populi ſui velit corrigere et emendare. Inprimis, videtur toti Communitati terræ, quod præmonitio facta eis per breve Domini Regis non erat ſufficiens, quia non exprimebatur certus locus, quo debebant ire, quia ſecundum locum oportebat facere proviſionem, et premuniam habere. Et ſive deberent ſervitium facere, ſive non ; quia dictum eſt communiter, quod Dominus noſter vult transfretare in Flandriam, videtur toti communitati, quod ibi non debent aliquod ſervitium facere, quia nec ipſe, nec prædeceſſores ſui ſeu progenitores unquam fecerunt ſervitium in terra illa. Et quamvis ita eſſet, quod deberent ibi ſervitium facere, ut alibi, tamen non habent facultatem faciendi, quia nimis afflicti ſunt per diverſa Tallagia, auxilia, priſas, videlicet, de frumentis, avenis, braſſio, lanis, coriis, bobus, vaccis, carnibus, ſalſis, ſine ſolutione alicujus denarii, de quibus ſe debuerant ſuſtentaſſe. Propter hoc dicunt, quod auxilium non poſſunt facere propter paupertatem in qua ſunt, propter Tallagia et priſas antedictas, quia vix habent unde ſe ſuſtentent ; et multi ſunt qui nullam ſuſtentationem habent, nec terras ſuas colere poſſunt. Propter hoc tota terræ communitas ſentit ſe valde gravatam, quia non tractantur ſecundum leges et conſuetudines terræ, ſecundum quas tractari antecеſſores ſui ſolebant habere, ſed voluntarie exeluduntur. Sentiunt etiam ſe multi gravatos ſuper hoc, quod ſolebant tractari ſecundum articulos contentos in Magna Charta, cujus articuli omnes ſunt omiſſi, in majus damnum populo univerſo. Propter quod rogant Dominum Regem, quod velit iſta corrigere ad honorem ſuum et populi ſui ſalvationem. Propter hæc communitas terræ ſentit ſe nimis gravatam de aſſiſa Foreſtæ, quæ non eſt cuſtodita ſicut conſuevit, nec Charta Foreſtæ obſervata, ſed fiunt attachiamenta pro libitu extra aſſiſam, aliter quam fieri conſuevit. Præterea tota communitas ſentit ſe gravatam de vectigali lanarum, quod nimis eſt oneroſum, videlicet de quolibet ſacco quadraginta ſolidos, et de lana fracta de quolibet ſacco ſeptem marcas : lana enim Angliæ aſcendit fere ad valorem medietatis totius terræ. Quia vero communitas optat honorem et ſalutem Domino noſtro Regi ſicut tenetur velle, non videtur eis quod ſit ad bonum Regis quod tranſeat in Flandriam, niſi plus eſſet aſſecuratus de Flandrenſibus pro ſe et pro gente ſua, et ſimul cum hoc propter terram Scotiæ, quæ rebellare incepit ipſo exiſtente in terra, et æſtimanti quod pejus facient cum certificati fuerint, quod Rex mare tranſierit. Nec ſolum pro terra Scotiæ, ſed etiam pro terris aliis quæ non ſunt adhuc modo debito ſtabilitæ.

Has petitiones cum Rex apud Odemar juxta Wynchelſyam recepiſſet, reſpondit, ſe talibus ſine ſuo conſilio non poſſe reſpondere, cujus pars aliqua jam tranſit in Flandriam, pars verò aliqua Londoniis eſſet relicta. Rogavit autem per eoſdem nuncios præfatos Comites, quod ſi ſecum tranſire nollent, ſaltem ipſi vel regno ſuo in ſua abſentia non nocerent ; ſperabat enim (Deo favente) reverti, & regnum ſuum modo debito

* Tho. Walsingham Hist. Angl. p. 43.

From these last recited Histories, Records and Parliamentary proceedings, concerning the violations and confirmations of the great Charter and Articles thereto annexed, we may observe. First, that the Archbishops, Bishops and Clergy who originally occasioned, excited, fomented all the premised insurrections and seditions against the King, were the greatest losers, sufferers of all others by them; whence * Thomas Walsingham thus concludes his History of this year, Transit annus iste Clero Angliæ importabilis, quia de protectione Regia est exclusus, et per Regem nichilominus depravatus. 2ly. That Parliaments and Convocations refusals or delays to grant our Kings competent necessary speedy ayds of monies and provisions to defend their rights, Crowns, Kingdoms against invading enemies, do usually enforce them to exercise forcible illegal courses, rapines, purveyances, seisures of their monies, goods, chattels, to the great oppression, discontent and grievance of their subjects. 3ly. That our Kings violations of the great Charters, laws, liberties and properties of their subjects, and abuses of their prerogative or regal power, to supply their necessities in cases of extremity, do commonly occasion great insurrections, seditions against them, alienate their Nobles, Clergies, Commons hearts and affections from them, deprive them of their military assistance,

* Hist. Angl. pag. 41.

armes,

armes, when they moſt need them, to their great detriment, danger, diſappointment, and give great advantage and encouragement to their forein enemies. 4ly. That inſurrections and commotions on ſuch occaſions frequently end in the Kings diſhonour, loſs, being ſeldom cordially and finally allayed, but by the Kings publick acknowledgements, recantations of ſuch exorbitances, and paſſing new Charters, Oaths, Acts, Excommunications & other ſecurities to their ſubjects, for their greater ſecurity againſt ſubſequent grievances, exorbitances, oppreſſions of like nature; as all our ſucceſſive Grand Charters, with their ſeveral confirmations, additional Articles, reiterated ſentences of Excommunication againſt the infringers of them, and new Oaths for their defence, accompanied with Acts of general Pardon, indemnity and oblivion to their greateſt opponents, in this Kings, his predeceſſors and ſucceſſors reigns abundantly evidence. Which ſhould caution Kings, their Counſellors and State-Officers carefully to avoid all ſuch impolitick oppreſſing extravagancies, and to remember that ſacred Maxim of the wiſeſt of Kings, * It is an abomination for Kings to commit wickedneſs, for the throne is eſtabliſhed by righteouſneſs. 5ly. That Kings may juſtly diſplace their greateſt Eccleſiaſtical, Military and Civil Officers, Prelates, Peers, when they contemptuouſly oppoſe, or neglect their duties to them, and put them out of their Royal protection. 6ly. That our Archbiſhops and Biſhops have no legal authority to denounce any publick Excommunication againſt the Kings ſubjects for any miſdemeanors or offences, but when and in ſuch caſes only as they are ſpecially required, authoriſed by the King, Lords, and Acts of Parliament to do it; whoſe preſcribed bounds they have been alwayes prone to exceed, to enlarge their own Juriſdiction. 7ly. That the premiſed Charter of Pardon to Humfrey de Bohun and others, and the Statute de Tallagio non concedendo, were made, granted in the 25 year of King Edward the 1. not in the 34 of his reign, as all our printed Statute-books, and † Sir Edward Cook very groſly miſtake: which the premiſed Hiſtorians, the Statute-Roll in the Tower, the dates of paſſing them in England, of confirming them at Gaunt and York, the Subſidy granted by the Nobles, Commons, and Clergy for their confirmation, the Excommunications denounced againſt the infringers of them, (all in the 25 year of Edw. 1.) with the deaths of Humfrey de Bohun Earl of Hereford and Eſſex, Gulielmus de Bello campo Earl of Warwick, and Guilielmus de Luda Biſhop of Ely, Anno 1298. 26 E. 1. (as * Matthew Weſtminſter and others ſtory) mentioned in this Charter, Statute, as parties named, concerned in, or Witneſſes to them, infallibly evidence beyond contradiction. Which I deſire our Students of the Law, and publiſhers of Statute-books, when reprinted, to take notice of, to rectifie their former miſtakes.

PRONUNTIATIO BONIFACII.

In Turre London An. 25 E. 1. This award is mentioned & in part recited in ſundry other Records I found in the White Tower; but intirely compriſed only in this.

IN Nomine Domini Amen. Anno Domini Milleſimo ducenteſimo nonageſimo octavo, Indictione undecima, Pontificatus Domini Bonifacii Papa octavi anno quarto, Die viceſimo menſis Junii, ſanctiſſimus Pater & Dominus Dominus Bonifacius divina providentia Papa octavus arbitrium, laudum, diffinitionem arbitralem ſententiam, amicabilem compoſitionem, mandatum, ordinationem, & alia infraſcripta recitavit, legi fecit, dedit, & protulit in hunc modum. Dudum inter chariſſimos in Chriſto filios, Philippum Francorum ex una parte, & Edwardum Angliæ Reges illuſtres ex altera, (ſuggerente inimico humani generis pacis æmulo) ſuper diverſis articulis materia diſcordiæ ac diſſentionis exorta, tandem iidem Reges per ſpeciales nuncios & procuratores ipſorum, ad hoc ab eis mandatum habentes, in nos Bonifacium divina providentiæ Papam octabum, tanquam in privatam perſonam, et Dominum Benedictum Gaitan. tenquam arbitrum, arbitratorem, laudatorem, diffinitorem, arbitralem, ſummatorem, amicabilem compoſitorem, præceptorem, ordinatorem, diſpoſitorem et pronunciatorem ſuper reformanda pace et concordia inter ipſos Reges, ac ſuper aliis quæ ad pacem pertinent, et ſuper omnibus et ſingulis diſcordiis, guerris, litibus, controverſiis, cauſis, rationibus, damnis et injuriis, petitionibus et actionibus realibus, perſonalibus, atque mixtis, quæ fuerant et erant ſeu vertebantur, et eſſe vel verti poſſent inter ipſos Reges, occaſione quacunque de alto et baſſo, abſolute ac libere compromittere curaverunt, prout in Compromiſſorum Inſtrumentis publicis inde confectis plenius continetur. Nos igitur Bonifacius Papa

prædictus

prædictus, qui finem imponere litibus affectamus, ſed præcipuè inter Reges prædictos, quorum quietem indeſinenter appetimus, & tanto ferventius fælices cupimus vigere ſucceſſus, quanto pleniori eos affectione proſequimur, & puriori complectimur charitate, hujuſmodi Compromiſſis receptis, & nobiſcum deliberatione præhabita diligenti, vocatis quoque Nunciis & Procuratoribus ſupradictis ad arbitrium, laudum, mandatum, & arbitralem ſententiam audienda, eiſque coram nobis ad hoc ſpecialiter conſtitutis ad laudem omnipotentis Dei qui eſt pacis Actor & ſalutis amator, & glorioſæ Virginis matris ejus, ſicut Arbiter, Arbitrator, Laudator, & amicabilis Compoſitor, ac ſicut * pribata perſona, et Benedictus Gaitanus, ex virtute ac forma Compromiſſorum prædictorum, et omni modo et jure quo melius poſſumus viam arbitratoris, laudatoris, et amicabilis Compoſitoris, dicimus, arbitramur, laudamus, diffinimus, ſententiamus, mandamus, ordinamus, diſponimus et pronunciamus hac vice, quod inter eoſdem Reges fiat et ſit perpetua et ſtabilis pax; et quod Treugæ vel ſufferentiæ voluntariæ, dudum inde initæ ac firmatæ inter eos, eo modo et forma, ac omnibus et illis perſonis et terris ſub illis pœnis, conditionibus, et temporibus ſub quibus indictæ, initæ, ac firmatæ fuerunt inviolabiliter obſerventur. Ad hanc autem Pacem confirmandam, roborandam atque ſervandam infra tempus quod duxerimus moderandam, præfatus Rex Anglia Margaretam ſororem prædicti Regis Franciæ recipere ac ducere, cum dotalitio Quindecim millium librarum Turron. aſſignando per ipſum Regem Angliæ in locis competentibus, de quibus inter partes fuerit concordatum, vel ubi partes ipſæ non concordarent per nos arbitratum fuerit, in uxorem. Et idem Rex Franciæ eandem Sororem ſuam eidem Regi Angliæ in uxorem dare ac tradere cum diſpenſatione Sedis Apoſtolicæ teneatur. Quodque Iſabella filia prælibati Regis Franciæ, quæ infra annum ſeptempnem dicitur conſtituta, ſuo tempore Edwardo prædicti Regis Angliæ filio, qui jam 13 ætatis ſuæ annum exegit, cum ſimili diſpenſatione matrimonialiter, cum dotalitio decem & octo Millium librarum Turron. ſimiliter aſſignando per eundem Regem Anglia pro dicto filio ſuo in competentibus locis, de quibus concordaverunt ipſæ partes, vel de quibus nos duxerimus arbitrand. ſi ſuper hoc inter eos non proveniret concordia, copuletur. Idque firmetur atque valletur exnunc modis inferius annotatis, videlicet: quod idem Rex Anglia pro filio ſuo, idemque filius pro ſe (qui ad hoc ſufficientem habet ætatem) contrahant Sponſalia prædicta eorundem Regis et filii juramentis firmanda; et Rex Francia nomina filiæ ſuæ prædictæ contrahat hujuſmodi ſponſalia pro eadem, Quæ ut valida fuerit & firma, volumus, dicimus, & arbitramur, quod Rex Franciæ promittat per juramentum pro ipſo in animam ſuam præſtandum, ſe tradere dictam filiam ſuam prædicto Edwardo nuptui tempore quo extiterit concordatum inter ipſos, vel per nos arbitratum fuerit vel laudatum. Pro quibus attendis firmiter & fideliter adimplendis, dicimus, laudamus, & arbitramur, quod pœna de qua inter partes fuerit concordatum, vel ubi partes ipſæ non concordarent per nos arbitrand. et tranda firmetur, et ab utraque parte præmiſſa balletur, ſolvenda parti parenti a parte non parente, per quam pœnam negotium iſtud in tuto ponatur; & partes ad ejus finalem executionem efficacius inducantur: Cujus pœnæ promiſſionem et obligationem efficaciter valere volumus et decernimus ac tenere; Non obſtantibus juribus quæ pro libertate matrimoniorum pœnas inhibent, quæ ex certa ſcientia pro tanto bono tollimus in hac cauſa; Addentes nihilominus, quod Reges prædicti aliquos de Baronibus ſuis notabiliores per juramenta faciant obligare ad deſponſalia prædicta et matrimonia procuranda, et ad tollenda impedimenta pro viribus, quæ poſſent circa hoc vel contra hoc inveniri. Quia vero Sponſalia prædicta tanto amplius deſideramus habere felicem effectum & efficacem eventum, quanto per hæc probabiliter credimus pacem prædictam firmius & fidelius obſervari, pro tanto pacis bono decernimus authoritate Apoſtolica, quod terra Regis illius, cui culpa vel malitia ſteterit quominus contrahantur prædicta Sponſalia, et matrimonium conſummetur, Eccleſiaſtico ſubjaceat Interdicto, niſi ſuper requiſitus prædict. ejus effectu correxerit infra menſem. Item, dicimus, laudamus, arbitramur ſeu etiam diffinimus, quod de omnibus bonis mobilibus vel ſe moventibus ablatis, vel aliàs malè ſubtractis, & de omnibus dampnis datis hinc indè ante tempus motæ vel ortæ guerræ præſentis, primò de omnibus quæ exſtant & conſumpta non ſunt, præſertim de Navibus & aliis quibuſcunque bonis

This Award and Decree I find briefly mentioned in ſundry other Records in the White Tower; as likewiſe in [a] Mat. Weſtminſter, and [b] Thomas Walſingham, who relate: Anno 1297. in vigilia quoque Apoſtolorum Petri & Pauli, Romæ Papa Bonifacius ſubmiſſionibus Regum receptis, pacem & concordiam per Dominum Papam Bonifacium inter Regem Angliæ & Franciæ ordinavit, ita ut Rex Angliæ ſororem, & filius ejus filiam Regis Francorum ducerent, certis pro utriſque dotibus deſignatis; et quod Ducatus Aquitaniæ in manus Domini Papæ redderetur; & quod Rex Angliæ naves ſuperſtites cum navibus de illis quæ rapta fuerant reſtituerit. Sed ſuper his duobus articulis intercedit magna dilatio, Rege Francorum partem quam in Waſconia occupaverat tradere renuente; by reaſon whereof, pax non fuerat totaliter ſolidata. Dominica ſecunda Quadrageſimæ, citatis Magnatibus regni apud Weſtmonaſterium, fecit Rex Edwardus recitari formam pacis bullatam per Papam Bonifacium, tanquam arbitrium inter Regem Angliæ et Franciæ ordinatum, et alias Bullas ſtatum ſuum tangentes: Cui aſſenſum præbuit plebs omnis et Clerus.

What Proteſtations Philip King of France made againſt the latter clauſes of this Popes award, when preſented to him by his Legates, before it was read, to prevent all Uſurpations upon his Supremacy in the Temporal Government and Rights of his Crown, I find thus reported by [c] John de Serres, Grimſton out of him, and [d] Peter de Pithou. Pope Boniface inclined to the peace of Chriſtendome (as the Lord Haillan writes) more puft up with glory and vanity, then good zeal to the peace of Chriſtian Princes, he commanded Philip by his Nuncioes, to reſtore to the Engliſh and Flemins what they demanded; and for not obeying, he cites him to appear at Rome upon pain of Excommunication. Philip a wiſe and valiant Prince, although he were diſcontented with this courſe, yet he ſent an honourable Embaſſage to Rome by the Archbiſhop of Rhemes, and the Earl of St. Paul, to lay open his right before the Deputies of the King of England and Earl of Flanders, who were then at Rome to complain as being wronged. All parties being heard, Boniface decrees, that Philip as the fountain and cauſe of all the miſeries and inconveniences that had happened, ſhould yield to King Edward and Earl Whiles this Pope for his own premiſed ends was making theſe Truces and a Peace between theſe two Kings and their Confederates, he was very active in raiſing rebellions and wars againſt the Emperor Adolphus in Germany, to depoſe him, and ſet up another in his ſtead; which Matthew Weſtminſter and others thus ſtory.

And as this turbulent Pope perſecuted this Chriſtian Emperor in Germany, ſo at the ſame time he degraded and perſecuted with armed ſouldiers ſome of his own Cardinals at Rome, as [c] Walſingham, [d] Matthew Weſtminſter, and [e] others thus relate. Per hoc tempus Cardinales de Columpna, per Papam Bonefacium depoſiti, ad urbem ſe conterunt Nepeſinam; contra quos damnatos tanquam ſciſmaticos et excommunicatos Papa viros bellatores in Italia cruce ſignabit; as if they were Turks or Saracens. Illis etiam diebus, Dominus Papa fidei et orationum quæ erant beati Petri oblitus, aſſumens quæ non erant ejus, tam aurum videlicet de viduis et orphanis, quam argentum, non viduis et orphanis, ſed militibus bellicoſis illis erogare curabit contra ſciſma quorundam Cardinalium, eos denique degradando, et contra Regem Siciliæ guerram movendo. Sed dicti Regis exercitus de galeatis turmis Domini Papæ multa millia necaverunt: Who thereupon to recruit his Treaſure, Forces, cheated, robbed the Franciſcan Freers of no leſſe than forty thouſand Florens of gold; and ſold the confirmations, tranſlations, and his proviſions of Engliſh, Scotiſh, and Iriſh Archbiſhopricks, Biſhopricks, to thoſe who would give moſt money for them: nulling the elections of thoſe who were duly choſen to them, if they came not up to his Simoniacal rates demanded for them, or to reſigne them into his hands to diſpoſe of at his pleaſure.

By which it is apparent, that the Kings Chief Juſtice in Ireland, and the King and his Counſil in England had then a legal power to examin and determine the legality of Biſhops elections, with all cauſes about, and objections againſt the reſtitution of their Temporalties, after their elections confirmed.

Upon a Certiorari iſſued in the 1. year of King Edward the 2. to remove the Record of a Judgement given in Ireland in the caſe of the Biſhop of Doune, An. 25 E. 1. I finde this memorable Judgement given againſt the Biſhops encroachments upon the Kings prerogative Royal in two particulars, expreſſed at large in the record and Certificate thereupon made to the King.

poſtea Breve Regium de ipſis Radulpho et Emma ſic Excommunicatis, tanquam claves Eccleſiæ contemnentibus capiendis; eiſdem Vic. poſterit (ut dicitur) in Coronæ et dignitatis Regis læſionem, Curiæ Regis contemptum, et ipſorum Radulphi et Emmæ diſpendium non modicum et gravamen, prout ex gravi querela ipſorum Radulphi et Emmæ accepit Dominus Rex. Et quia tanta contemptum et malitia (ſi commiſſa fuerunt) tranſire nolumus impunita; præceptum fuit Vicecomiti Kanc. quod ſi prædicti Radulphus & Emma, &c. tunc attach. prædictos Archiepiſcopum et alios, quod eſſent hic ad præfatum terminum Sancti Martini, ad reſpondendum tam nobis quam prædictis Radulpho et Emmæ de prædictis tranſgreſſione et contemptu, &c. An. 25 & 26 Edw. 1.

Magiſter Johannes de Harington attachiatus fuit ad reſpondendum Roberto de Rothewell de placito, quare ipſe ſimul cum Radulpho de Rothewell Capellano, Thoma Vicario Eccleſiæ de Cokewell, et Saero le Perſonſeriamut ſecutus fuit placitum in Curia Chriſtianitatis de catallis et debitis, quæ non ſunt de Teſtamento vel Matrimonio, contra prohibitionem, &c. Et unde queritur, quod cum idem Magiſter Johannes coram Magiſtro Nicholao de Wytchirch, Magiſtro Waltero de Wetton, & Magiſtro Henrico de Weingworth, Comiſſar. Official. Archidiaconi Lincoln. in Curia Chriſtianitatis traxiſſet ipſum in placitum, exigendo ab eo triginta ſolidos, qui non ſunt de Teſtamento vel Matrimonio: ac idem Robertus die Sabbati proxima poſt feſtum Sanctæ Trinitatis, anno regni Regis nunc viceſimo tertio apud Northr. in Eccleſia omnium Sanctorum, in præſentia Simonis Scot et Gilberti de Hedon, detuliſſet ei Regiam prohibitionem, ne placitum illud ulterius in eadem Curia ſequeretur. Idem Magiſter Johannes, ſpreta Regia prohibitione prædicta, nihilominus in eadem Curia ſequebatur placitum illud in tantum, quod idem Robertus ſuſpenſus fuit ab ingreſſu Eccleſiæ, et poſtea Excommunicatus, ad ſectam ipſius Magiſtri Johannis. Unde dicit quod deterioratus eſt, et dampnum habet ad valentiam quadraginta ſolidorum. Et inde producit ſectam, &c. Placita de An. 25 E. 1. m 37.

REX dilecto Clerico ſuo Malculmo de Harleye Eſcaetori ſuo citra Trentam ſalutem. Cum ſacroſanctæ Romanæ Eccleſiæ Summus Pontifex electionem in Eccleſia Conventuali de Fiſcamp nuper factam de fratre Thoma de ſancto Benedicto Monacho ejuſdem domus in Abbatem loci prædicti confirmaverit, et ipſum Thomam dicto Monaſterio præfecerit in Abbatem, ſicut per literas bullatas ſedis Apoſtolicæ ſtolicæ nobis conſtat. Nos confirmacionem et præfectionem prædictas acceptantes cepimus fidelitatem ipſius Abbatis, & Temporalia domus prædictæ infra regnum noſtrum, prout moris eſt, reſtituimus eidem. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod temporalia Abbaciæ prædictæ infra ballivam veſtram per mortem fratris Willielmi de Piccot nuper Abbatis ejuſdem loci prædeceſſoris prædicti Thomæ in manum noſtram capta, eidem Thomæ tanquam Abbati Abbaciæ prædictæ ſine dilacione liberetis. In cujus, &c. Teſte Rege apud Fulham 16 die Aprilis. An. 26 E. 1.

Et mandatum eſt Militibus, &c. Teſte ut ſupra.

The King iſſued this Writ for the ſpeedy collecting and paying the money granted by the Clergy of the Province of York, to reſiſt the Scots who invaded England, to the Archbiſhop elect thereof.

REX venerabili in Chriſto patri H. eadem gratia Ebor. electo, ſalutem. Quia de pecunia ad expenſas Comitum, Baronum, et aliorum de regno noſtro, qui in inſtantem expeditionem noſtram contra Scotos inimicos et rebelles noſtros regnum noſtrum hoſtiliter invadentes, et mala quamplurima ineſſanter perpetrantes, ad dictum regnum defendend. et ipſorum Scotorum maliciam reprimend. ſunt proſecturi, oportebit celeriter provideri. Vos affectuosè requirimus & rogamus, quatinus conſiderantes pericula quibus dictum regnum et maxime partes boreales per dictorum Scotorum invaſionem et nequiciam ſubjacent his diebus, totam pecuniam provenientem de Subſidio quod a Clero veſtræ provinciæ in defenſionem dicti regni dicitur nunc concedi, cum omni celeritate quam fieri poterit, levari, et eam Waltero de Agmodeſham Clerico per præfatos Magnates ad denar. pro defenſione dicti regni contra inimicos noſtros prædictos expendendos deputato, faciatis ſine dilatione qualibet liberari; Ita quod dictæ expeditionis noſtræ negocium pro defectu pecuniæ nullatenus retardetur. Teſte Rege apud Weſtm. 8: die Decembris. Clauſ. 26 E. 1. m. 17. De pecunia a Clero Provinciæ Eborum Regi contra Scotos conceſſa Waltero de Agmodeſham liberanda.

The Monks of Battle Abbey by antient Charters having the Cuſtody of the Abby and Lands during the vacancy upon their Abbots death; the King iſſued this Writ to reſtore them to their Cuſtody.

REX dilecto Clerico ſuo Malculmo de Harleye Eſcaetori ſuo citra Trentam ſalutem. Quia per cartas prædeceſſorum noſtrorum Regum Angliæ conceſſum eſt Monachis de Bello, quod cedentibus vel decedentibus Abbatibus ejuſdem loci ipſi Monachi habeant cuſtodiam Abbaciæ ſuæ et omnium terrarum et tenementorum ad ipſam pertinencium, et liberam adminiſtracionem de rebus et poſſeſſionibus ad eandem Abbatiam pertinentibus. Mandamus vobis, quod ipſos Monachos cuſtodiam Abbaciæ ſuæ in hac vacacione ſua, & omnium terrarum & ten. ejuſdem Abbatiæ & liberam adminiſtracionem de omnibus rebus & poſſeſſionibus ad ipſam pertinentibus habere permittatis, ſicut prædictum eſt, nec de cuſtodia prædicta vel aliquibus ad ipſam pertinentibus vos intromittatis contra conceſſionem prædictam. Et ſi quæ inde poſt captionem dictæ Domus in manum noſtram per vos percepta fuerint, ea eis ſine dilatione reſtituatis. Teſte, &c. apud Weſt. 28 die Novembr. Ibid. m. 22. Pro Monachis de Bello.

The King ſent this Letter to the Archbiſhop to excuſe the attendance of one of his Clerks in Chancery at his Viſitation.

REX venerabili in Chriſto Patri R. eadem gratia Cantuar. Archiepiſcopo, tocius Angliæ Primati ſalutem. Cum ſicut accepimus citari feceritis dilectum Clericum noſtrum Thomam de Capella Rectorem Eccleſiæ de Sevenok, ut in certo termino compareat perſonaliter coram vobis, ac idem Clericus noſter noſtris in Cancellaria noſtra intendat obſequiis, propter quod in eodem termino juxta veſtræ citacionis edictum non abſque noſtri & populi regni noſtri incommodo ſe non poteſt veſtro conſpectui præſentare. Paternitatem veſtram requirimus & rogamus, quatinus ipſius Clerici noſtri abſenciam in præfixo ſibi termino excuſatam habentes; velitis eundem in his quæ ipſum coram vobis contingat prætextu viſitacionis prædictæ favore proſequi gracioſo. Teſte Rege apud Karliolum, 12 die Septemb. Ibidem m. 6. dorſo. Pro Thoma de Capella.

Galfridus le Campium per Attornatum ſuum optulit ſe quarto die verſus Willielmum de Wellewyk, de placito, quare ſecutus eſt placitum in Curia Chriſtianitatis de catallis et debitis quæ non ſunt de teſtamento vel matrimonio, contra prohibitionem, &c. Et ipſe non venit; et præceptum fuit Vicecomiti ſicut aliàs, quod non omittat propter libertatem Beverlacy quin attachiet eum, &c.

Although the Biſhops, their Courts Chriſtian and Clergie did thus uſurp upon the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts and Subjects liberties, by holding, proſecuting theſe manifold ſuites of which they had no Juriſdiction; yet they were very carefull to remove all Layforces out of Churches by the Kings Writs, which might hinder the exerciſe of their own Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction in them; as is evident by this memorable Writ this year De vi Laica amovenda, in the White Tower, to omit others.

The Pope this year sending the Bishop of Vicense as his Legate and Nuncio into France, to compleat and execute his *premised award between the Kings of France and England, and hear and determine the differences between them concerning it, which they could not accord of themselves; thereupon Prince Edward and his Father issued these Patents of Procuration under their Seals this year, appointing and authorizing new Proctors to compleat, perform, and ratifie the Popes former award as a private person only, touching the Princes espousals with the Lady Isabella, and to deliver the Kings Lands in France into the Popes and his Legates hands, to settle a firm peace, and end all differences concerning the provisions therein expressed; thus recorded in the Almain Roll in the Tower. * Here, p. 758, 759.

John

John Bayliol late King of Scots, by large bribes, and clandeſtine ſolicitations of the King of France his confederate, procured Pope Boniface to commiſſion this Biſhop and Legate amongſt other things, to importune King Edward at his ſpecial inſtance and requeſt, to deliver his perſon into his hands and cuſtody; which the King condeſcended to, upon the conditions therein expreſſed, and the Popes engagement to him, that it ſhould not be any way prejudicial to him or his Realm; the manner and form whereof is thus recorded in a ſpecial Record made thereof, which I lately found in the White Tower Chappel. An. 27 E. 1.

Poſthæc & alii captivi à Regibus detenti, hinc inde ſecundum conditiones in Trengarum conceſſione poſitas, liberantur.*

The King having ratified the election of his Chancellor John de Langeton to the Biſhoprick of Ely the [a] year before, elected only by the minority of the Covent and Chapter, rejected their Prior choſen by the majority, whereupon there was an Appeal to Rome by the Chancellor, whom the King not only licenſed to repair to Rome in perſon to proſecute his undue election, but likewiſe writ Letters of credence to the Pope in his favor, wherein he highly extols his great ſervices, fidelity, and expreſſed his cordial deſire that he might ſpeedily effect his buſineſſe, and return to his preſence to advice him in the grand affairs between him and the King of France; as theſe Records aſſure us.

Yet notwithſtanding theſe Letters, his own preſence and bribes, he miſcarried in this ſuit; for the Pope by a quadruple Uſurpation on the Kings Prerogative and Royalties, tranſlated the Biſhop of Norwich to Ely, created the Prior elected Biſhop of Norwich, the Archdeacon of Canterbury Archbiſhop of Dublin, and beſtowed the Archdeaconry on the Chancellor to ſtop his mouth, by his own Proviſions, to gain quadruple rewards to himſelf, and Fees to his Officers, by this their ambitious conteſt for Ely; thus related by * *Mat. Weſtminſter. An. 1198. p. 412. Godwins Catalogue of Biſhops p. 218.

The Chancellor not ſatisfied with this Archdeaconry, and his former Eccleſiaſtical preferments, procured Pope Boniface (to gratifie both the King and him, whom he had diſappointed and diſguſted in this buſineſſe of the election to Ely) to grant him a licenſe to hold all the Eccleſiaſtical Benefices and Promotions he had before, either with or without Cure, and likewiſe to receive two more Benefices with Cure, if he ſhould canonically procure them; which priviledge and indulgence of the Pope the King approving, ratified by this enſuing Patent, wherein he highly extols his Chancellors merits.

By which diſpenſation of the Pope we may obſerve, 1. How little regard he had either of the peoples ſouls, Gods worſhip, ſervice, or of the Canons and Decrees of former Councils, Popes, Prelates, or his own made againſt Pluralities from time to time, which he diſpenſed with for money and favour, beyond all bounds of moderation to this great Officer of State, who neither could reſide upon, nor officiate in any of them: 2ly. This Chancellors unconſcionable avarice in procuring diſpenſations for ſuch a multiplicity of Benefices with Cure for filthy luchre, which he neither did, nor poſſibly could reſide on, nor diſcharge his paſtoral duty in them to Gods honour, or the edification or ſalvation of peoples ſouls, which he never minded, but only the augmentation of his own annual revenues: 3ly. That the Popes diſpenſations to hold pluralities of Benefices with Cure, in England, were held invalid in that age, without the Kings approbation and confirmation of them.

Pope Nicholas the 4th. having by his Proviſion conferred the Prebendary of Maſſam, belonging to the Kings donation by reaſon of the Temporalties of the Archbiſhoprick of York, in his hands, on John de Columpna, which Proviſion Pope Boniface the 8th confirmed, and at his ſolicitation iſſued two ſucceſſive Mandates to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and alſo to ſpecial Delegates to induct him into poſſeſſion thereof, and to admoniſh the King's Clerk after two years peaceable poſſeſſion, either peaceably to acquit the poſſeſſion thereof to this Italian, or elſe perſonally to appear before the Pope within a prefixed time; againſt his Crown and Royal dignity; the King thereupon to preſerve the rights and prerogative of his Crown againſt this Papal uſurpation, iſſued theſe two Prohibitions to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury and the Popes Delegates, and likewiſe ſent this enſuing Letter to the Pope, to revoke his Proviſion and Mandates to the diſinheriſon of his Crown and ancient right, which he neither would nor ought to ſuffer or connive at, and if he ſhould, yet his Nobles would by no means ſuffer it.

Moſt of ſuch Royalties and Priviledges granted to our Archbiſhops and Biſhops, were procured from our Kings whiles the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of thoſe Sees were their Chancellors, Treaſurers, or other grand Temporal Officers, to the great impairing of the Rights, Royalties, and Revenues of the Crown, as the Charter and Patent Rolls abundantly evidence.

The King likewiſe by his Eccleſiaſtical Prerogative, authorized this Biſhop to encloſe the Clauſe of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield with a Wall and Battlements, by this Patent, for the reaſons therein expreſſed.

Dorſo. Jeo ay fet crier, publier, garnir e amoneter permy ma Baillie toutes les bonez genz de armes que ſunt, auxi come de commun ſuffizauntz e de value, qe il vignent a noſtre Seigneur le Roy a Kardoil a ſes gages Lendemayn de la Gule de Auſt, ſolom ceo qe le bref demaunde.

The Sheriff of Lincoln endorſed this larger return on the Writ directed to him;

Par my ma Baillie ay faite crier, publier, e amoneſter in Citees, Burghs, Vyles marchaundes, e par tut ma dite Baillie, e taunt ſoient come jeo vy qil fuſt afaire, qe totes les bones gentz des armes qe ſunt, auſy come de Commune, e ſufficiauntz, e de value, qe il ſoient a vous a Cardoyl lendemeyne de la Gule Auſt, en la forme qe eſt contenue in ceſty bref, a demurrer a vos gages e a voſtre ſoude, e qe ceo ne leſſent, ſicome il ayment voſtre honur, e de la Coronc Dengleterre, e la profite, e la ſauvement de tut le Reaume, e de auxy meiſmes.

An. 27 E. I. The King having then diſcontented his Nobles and Commons, by delaying the Perambulations and ſetting out the bounds of the Foreſts as they deſired; to regain their affections and ready aſſiſtance againſt the Scots, ſent Writs to the Sheriffs of every County to proclaim to the Commonalty thereof in all Cities, Burroughs, Market Towns, and other convenient places, that he had appointed Commiſſioners to meet at Northampton, at the feaſt of St. Michael then next enſuing, without further delay to proceed in the perambulation.

Bundela Brevium in Turre London, An. 27 E. I. E*Dwardus* Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, & Dux Aquitaniæ, Vicecomiti Hereford ſalutem. Mittimus tibi quaſdam literas noſtras patentes directas Communitati Comitatus prædicti, per quas mandamus eidem Communitati, quod illi quos ordinavimus ad faciendam Perambulationem Foreſtæ, erunt apud Northampton in feſto Sancti Michaelis proximo futuro, cum plenaria poteſtate procedere ad Perambulationem illam faciendam abſque dilatione majori, prout in literis illis plenius continetur: Tibi præcipientes, quod aſſumpto tecum aliquo probo viro Religioſo de balliva tua, qui teſtificari poterit factum tuum; Literas Patentes in Civitatibus, Burgis, Villis Mercatoriis, et locis aliis infra Ballivam tuam, ubi melius videris expedire, omni dilatione poſtpoſita, legi et publice clamari, et univerſis et ſingulis de Balliva tua, prout melius fieri poterit, ſciri facias illarum literarum tenorem. Et cum id ſic feceris, nobis inde ſub ſigillo tuo & ſigillo viri prædicti diſtinctè & apertè conſtare facias indilatè. Et hoc nullatenus omittas. Teſte meipſo apud Lewes 25 die Junii, Anno regni noſtri 27.

On which Writ the Sheriff endorſed this return; Dorſo, Aſſumpto mecum Radulpho de Foreſta Priore Sancti Guthlaei Hereford. mandatum veſtrum executus ſum prout in hoc brevi plenius continetur.

The Return of the Sheriff of Salop and Stafford, is thus endorſed on his Writ, Aſſumpſi mecum Philippum Priorem de Bombrugge de Balliva mea, & in Civitatibus, Burgis, Villis mercatoribus, & locis aliis infra Ballivam meam, ubi melius viderim expedire, legi & publice clamari feci, & univerſis & ſingulis de Balliva mea (prout melius fieri poterit) ſcire tenorem literarum patentium mihi inde directarum.

And becauſe ſome people had then reported, that the King would not keep nor obſerve the Great Charter of Liberties, nor of the Foreſt, nor permit the perambulation to be made according to his promiſe, (by reaſon of his former violations of them, and delayes in doing it) he iſſued out this further Proclamation to all Sheriffs to diſprove theſe falſe reports, inform his people of the reaſons why he was enforced to delay it, and aſſure them that he would really obſerve theſe Charters, and make the perambulation at the time appointed at Northampton.

From whence we may obſerve; That it is a very difficult matter for Kings to pacifie or ſatisfie the minds of their diſcontented people, or induce them to believe their publike proclamations to them to keep and maintain their Great Charters and Liberties, when they have formerly violated, or delayed the real performance or execution of them from time to time, upon real or pretended emergences. In purſuance of this proclamation, * in principio Quadrageſimæ Rex Angliæ Parliamentum tenuit Londoniis; ubi rogatus à Comitibus ſæpedictis, ut Chartarum confirmationem renovaret, ſecundum quod in Scotia promiſerat; poſt aliquas dilationes inſtanciæ eorum adquievit, hac additione, ſalvo jure Coronæ noſtræ, *in fine adjecta. Perambulatio Foreſtæ, conceſſa eſt per Angliam tribus Epiſcopis, totidem Comitibus, Baronibuſque eodem numero; ut ipſi Deum habentes præ oculis executionem faceret, et ſi quæ emergerent dubia, illa ſecundum Deum et juſtitiam declararent. * Tho. In a Bundle of Petitions, Letters and Writs I found in the White Tower, there is this memorable Remonſtrance and Petition of the Biſhop of Bangor, concerning the contempts and oppoſitions made by the Kings Officers and others of that Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction which he and his Officials claimed, in the probate of Teſtaments, Mortuaries, Excommunications, and in ſome Temporal matters, for which he prayed remedie from the King, as Supreme Judge next under God in all Eccleſiaſtical as well as Temporal cauſes.

MOnſtrat Epiſcopus Bangoren. ſuo illuſtriſſimo Domino, Domino Edwardo Dei gratiæ Regi Angliæ, quod ipſe ſentit ſe et libertatem Eccleſiæ ſuæ gravatum in articulis ſubſcriptis. Bundela Brevium & Petitionum in Turre London. de annis 26 & 27 E. 1.

Primò, quod non creditur literis ſuis de Teſtamentis probatis coram ipſo ſeu Offic. ſuis.

Secundò, de Mortuariis et Veſtibus et Palefredis decedentium ab inteſtato tam Clericorum quam Laicorum, de quibus habere conſuevit temporibus retroactis. (without claiming the Adminiſtration or diſtribution of the Inteſtates goods to pious or other uſes; which is obſervable.)

Tertiò, de Excommunicatis capiendis; viz. quod excommunicati capientur de cætero, ſicut capi conſueverint temporibus Principum, maxime Wallenſes.

Quartò, quod quidam Miniſtri veſtri male obſervant Cartas Libertatum, quas veſtra magnifica benevolentia eidem Epiſcopo et Eccleſiæ ſuæ conceſſit.

Quintò, quod Vicecomes de Caern. prohibuit, quod homines veſtri venirent ad Mercatum ſuum apud Bangor. ad vendendum nec emendum mercaturas, ſicut facere conſueverint.

Et quia idem Epiſcopus eſt ſenex, & valetudinarius, nec habet ad alium refugium, niſi ad Deum, et ad bos, (not to the Pope) petit pro ſalute animæ veſtræ ſuper hiis et articulis aliis per veſtram benignam dominationem remedium adhiberi.

Petit etiam, quod homines ſui habeant communem Paſturam in terris veſtris ſicut habere conſuerunt temporibus Principum.

Item petit, quod Officiales ſui non impediantur facere correctiones in billis veſtris nobis apud Conowey, Caern. & Bellum. Mariſcum et aliis billis, ſicut hactenus fecerunt, et adhuc faciunt; licet aliqui Miniſtri veſtri minantur eiſdem.

What anſwer the King gave to theſe his Petitions, I finde not.

The King writing to the Sub-Prior and Covent of Trinity in London to admit one Thomas Hanſted into their Fraternity, which they could not do, becauſe one

An. 27 E. 1. claimed him as her husband, and they afterwards expelling him for defiling their house by adultery; he complaining of his removal to the King, they returned this Certificate of the cause of his expulsion.

MAgnifico Principi Domino Edwardo Dei gratia illustri Regi Angliæ, Domino Hiberniæ, & Duci Aquitanniæ, ejus fideles, humiles & devoti, Subprior & Conventus Sancti Trinitatis London, cum omni reverentia et honore, salutem in eo per quem Reges regnant. Literas Magnificentiæ vestræ per Thomam de Hausted dudum recepimus, ut eundem Thomam in Confratrem nostrum, et Conversum Domus nostræ admitteremus; quem in Domo nostro admisimus; volentes (ut moris est) ipsius probare mores & perseverentiam. Verum quia quædam mulier asserens ipsum Thomam cum ea matrimonium contraxisse, ipsum petit in virum et benedicavit, ipsum in Confratrem nostrum & Conversum admittere non potuimus: sed ob reverentiam precum Majestatis vestræ eundem Thomam in Domo nostrâ in omnibus necessariis exhibuimus, quousque locum nostrum sacrum idem Thomas per adulterium polluisset. In quo nocturno tempore infra sepia Domus nostræ cum quadam fatua muliere in lecto suo nudus cum nuda exstitit deprehensus: super quo crimine diu ante fuerat in domo nostra & extra inter vicinos nequiter diffamatus: propter quod eundem Thomam a Domo nostra amovimus: Et nihilominus ob reverentiam Magnificentiæ vestræ, ipsum extra Domum nostram existentem singulis diebus in necessariis exhibuimus, quousque intrudit se in Domum nostram, & quandam Cameram infra sepia Domus nostræ ingrederetur, volens in eadem per vim et contra voluntatem nostram morari et manere. Et tunc demum occasionibus antedictis suam sibi subtraximus liberationem. Postmodum autem literas Majestatis vestræ recipientes, ut de causa & modo subtractionis necessariorum ejusdem Thomæ in Domo nostra, vos redderemus certiores; Causas prædictas & modos Regiæ Dignitati vestræ significamus, humiliter supplicantes & devotè, quatenus dictas causas quæ veræ sunt, & notoriè in illis partibus London. ubi sita est Domus nostra, placeat Regiæ Excellentiæ vestræ nos in hac parte habere excusatos. Valeat Regia Magnificentia vestra per tempora longiora. Dat. London. in Capitulo nostro in Craltino Sancti Jacobi Apostoli, Anno Dom. 1299.

The Bishop of Chichester pretending, that the Prebendaries of the Kings Free Chappel of Hastings were under his Jurisdiction, and all the Prebends ought to be presented to and admitted by him, as they were to his predecessors, against the priviledge of all other the Kings Free Chappels; the King thereupon issued this Writ to the Warden of the Cinque-ports to inquire of and certifie the truth of the premises to him at the next Parliament to which he had adjourned the Bishop, and to cause all the Prebends then to attend, to defend his and their own priviledges.

Hiis Teſtibus, &c. Dat. apud* Kenington per manum noſtram viceſimo die Maii, Anno Regni Domini Regis patris noſtri quinquageſimo quarto. — Undè petit judicium, ſi debeat eidem Domino Regi inde reſpondere? Et quia Juſticiarius hic plenius vult aviſiari ſuper Jure Regis, tàm quoad has tres Eccleſias, quàm quartam, quæ in hac Carta non continetur, datus eſt dies prædicto Epiſcopo coram, &c. à die Sancti Michaelis in 15 dies, ubicunque, &c. Et tunc veniat Johannes de Ponte, qui pro Domino Rege Brevia illa ſuſcitavit, &c. Poſtea ad diem illum apud Dublin. venit prædictus Epiſcopus. Et prædictus Johannes qui ſequitur pro Rege ſimiliter venit.

Et Dominus Rex per prædictum Johannem petit verſus prædictum Epiſcopum Advocationes Eccleſiarum prædictarum, ut Jus, &c. Et unde dicit, quod Dominus J. Rex, Avus Domini Regis nunc, fuit inde in ſeiſina ut de feodo & jure tempore pacis, &c. et ad Eccleſiam de Kaylmohanok præſentavit quendam Galfridum Clericum ſuum, & ad Eccleſiam beatæ Mariæ del Nard præſentavit quendam Johannem Clericum ſuum; & ad Eccleſiam de Nochynwall quendam Robertum Clericum ſuum; & ad Eccleſiam Sancti Petri de Dungarvan præſentavit ipſe quendam Willielmum Clericum ſuum, &c. qui ad præſentationem ſuam fuerunt admiſſi & inſtituti in eiſdem, &c. et ceperunt inde explet, ut in oblationibus & obventionibus & aliis ad valentiam, &c. Et, quod tale ſit jus ipſius Domini Regis, offert verificare pro Domino Rege ſicut Curia conſideraverit, &c.

Et Epiſcopus defendit Jus ipſius Domini Regis quando, &c. Et quoad Advocationes Eccleſiarum beatæ Mariæ del Nard & Kylmohannok, & Sancti Petri de Cork dicit, quod Dominus Rex nihil Juris clamare poteſt in Advocationibus illis. Dicit enim, quod Dominus Rex nunc, antequam fuit Rex in vita Patris ſui, dum fuit Dominus hujus terræ, per prædictam Cartam ſuam conceſſit & quietam clamavit prædicto prædeceſſori ſuo prædictas Advocationes, et petit Judicium.

Et quoad Eccleſiam de Nochynvall. defendit Jus ipſius Domini Regis; & ſeiſinam Domini Regis J. & totum, &c. Et ponit ſe in Juramentum patriæ loco magnæ Aſſiſæ Domini Regis; & petit Recognitionem fieri, utrum ipſe majus jus habeat in prædicta Advocatione, ut de Jure Eccleſiæ ſuæ Sanctæ Mariæ de Cork, aut Dominus Rex?

Et quoad miſam, &c. datus eſt eis dies coram, &c. in Octabis Sancti Hillarii, ubicunque, &c. Et tunc venerunt quatuor homines, &c. Et quoad prædictam Cartam prædictus Iohannes dicit pro Domino Rege, quod prædicta Carta ei non debet nocere, quia dicit, quod tempore confectionis prædictæ Cartæ, nichil Juris deſcendebat prædicto Domino Regi; ex quo Dominus H. Rex pater Domini Regis nunc tunc fuit in plena vita; & prædictus Dominus Rex nunc, nichil habuit tunc in hac terra, niſi tantum ex dono patris ſui, &c. Unde petit Judicium pro Domino Rege. — Dies datus eſt eis coram, &c. ad præfatum Terminum, &c.

He likewiſe writ this Letter to a Cardinal, to promote the buſineſſe of Arnaldus Lupy de Tilio his Clerk, in the Court of Rome.

VEnerabili in Chriſto Patri Domino M. Dei gratia Sanctæ Mariæ in Portica Diacono Cardinali; Edwardus eadem gratia, &c. ſalutem cum dilectione ſincera. Placita & utilia obſequia nobis per Clericum noſtrum Magiſtrum Arnaldum Lupy de Tilio multipliciter impenſa condignè merentur, ut circa ea quæ ejus commodum reſpiciunt & honorem opem & operam impendamus. Cum igitur idem Arnaldus quædam negotia habeat in præſenti in Romana Curia promovenda, Paternitatem veſtram requirimus cum affectu, quatinus perſonam ejuſdem Arnaldi cum ad vos venerit commendatam habentes, velitis dicta negotia cum vobis inde conſtiterit, quatinus cum honeſtate fieri poterit promovere in tantum, ut rogatum noſtrum ſibi fructuoſum ſentiat in hac parte. Dat. apud Weſtm. 22 die Aprilis, Anno Domini 1299. Clauſ. 27 E. 1. m. 15. dorſo. Pro Magiſtro Arnaldo Lupi de Tilio.

How buſineſſes were then tranſacted by the Pope and Court of Rome, more by favour, friendſhip, rewards, and the Popes will, then the rules of juſtice, theſe Letters then writ from thence (which I found in the White Tower Chappel) will in part diſcover.

Ibidem.

The Popes Bulls and proceedings in the great Conteſts and coſtly Appeals between the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Abbot and Monks of St. Auguſtines this year, will moſt fully demonſtrate the Bribery and Injuſtice of this Pope, his Cardinals, Officers, together with the pride, ambition, violence, turbulency of the Archbiſhop, Abbot and Monks of Canterbury in that age; thus regiſtred to poſterity by a Monk of that Monaſtery.

From which Relation, Bulls and Proceedings we may observe: 1. That the contests between the Archbishops, Abbots and Monks of Canterbury, about Exemptions, Priviledges and Jurisdiction, was a principal cause of advancing the Popes usurped Jurisdiction over them both, and over the Rights, Prerogatives of the Crown, and Church of England. 2ly. The insolency, injustice, corruption, and preposterousness of this Boniface and other Popes, in exempting the Abbots, Monks of Canterbury, and all their Lands, Hospitals, Churches, Impropriations, Priests, Tenants from all Archiepiscopal, Episcopal, and other Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction whatsoever, and subjecting them solely and immediately to the See of Rome; as likewise in subjecting the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishops of London and Rochester, to the imperious commands, censures of the Abbots of Westminster, Waltham, and St. Edmunds. 3ly. The pride and insolency of the Abbots, in erecting Deaneries, Officials, Ecclesiastical Consistories, and prescribing Oathes of Canonical obedience upon the Priests and Curates of the Churches belonging to their Monastery. 4ly. The strange injustice and contradiction of Popes Bulls, nulling, repealing each other by Non-obstantes, with all former Priviledges granted by themselves, and contracts, compositions, agreements made or ratified by others, through bribery and corruption: Whence

Proceſſus coram Papa inter Archiepiſcopum & nos

* Anno igitur Domini 1303. volens Dominus Papa uno dierum partes inibi conſtitutas audire, fecit eos vocari in privato Conſiſtorio 15 Kal. Februarii. Et fuerunt tunc pro parte Archiepiſcopi advocati Dominus Fornya, & Robertus de Caſula, Romani, & duo Monachi Eccleſia Chriſti procuratores, & duo juris Civilis profeſſores Anglici. Pro parte vero Abbatis fuerunt Domini Jacobus de Caſulis, & Benenutus de Puſyo advocati Curiæ Romanæ, & duo Monachi, ſcilicet Robertus de Fekenham, & Adam de Rydenne procuratores, & Magiſter Johannes de Sancto Claro, Anglicus. Conſtitutis igitur partibus in præſentia Domini Papa juſſit partem Archiepiſcopi proponere primò; Qua propoſuit, quod privilegium fuit impetratum per falſi ſuggeſtionem; & quod privilegia eorum antiqua fuerunt falſa; ſimiliter Abbas & Conventus exceſſerunt nimis per abuſum, juriſdictionem exercendo, capitula celebrando, Clerum etiam & populum ab obedientia & juriſdictione Archiepiſcopi nequiter ſubtrahendo. Objecit etiam, quod ipſi conſtituerunt Decanos rurales & etiam alios Officiales ad exercitium hujuſmodi juriſdictionis contra conſuetudines & libertates Archiepiſcopi & Eccleſiæ ſuæ antiquas. Pro parte vero Abbatis fuit propoſitum de gravaminibus ipſi & eorum ſubditis per Archiepiſcopum & ſuos Commiſſarios illatis, eos videlicet ſuſpendendo, excommunicando, et demum eorum captionem apud regiam poteſtatem procurando, contra privilegium eiſdem a Domino Papa indultum. Et propter iſta & multa alia gravamina ipſis Religioſis illata, petita fuit inſtanter dicti Archiepiſcopi vocatio perſonalis & ſuorum Commiſſariorum. Poſtquam verò fuerat, ut dictum eſt, pro utraque parte ſic propoſitum, dixit Dominus Papa; Ego plantavi, Apollo rigavit. Ego, ſupple Gregorius Papa; Ego, ſedes iſta Romana plantavi illam Eccleſiam Sancti Auguſtini; Apollo rigavit, hoc eſt beatus Auguſtinus per Chriſti gratiam & ſuam prædicationem Anglos baptizavit; Deus incrementem dedit per beatum Thomam martyrem. Et adjecit, Utraque Eccleſia nobilis eſt; & ita benè novimus jura & libertates utriuſque Eccleſiæ ſicut illi Monachi qui ibi ſtant, erigens faciem ad Monachos procuratores ſuperius nominatos. Una inquit Eccleſia utitur jure communi, alia gaudet privilegio ſingulari. Et ideo in ſignum ſuſceptæ libertatis ab Eccleſia Romana in adventu Legati ad illam terram debet Abbas mittere unum Monachum obviam illi uſque ad medium maris, qui portabit secum Crucem, et ibi erigent eam, et incipient cantare, Te Deum Laudamus. Ipſe verò Monachus portabit Crucem erectam ante Legatum, dummodo fuerit in illa terra. Ad hoc quod vos dicitis, quod privilegium fuit impetratum per falſi ſuggeſtionem, & quod privilegia eorum antiqua ſunt falſa, non eſt verum. Nos dedimus ipſis illud privilegium. Præterea nos inſpeximus privilegium beati Bonifacii quarti, ſatis amplum pro ſuo tempore, et nos illud corroboravimus; et ſi adhuc eſſet dandum, adhuc eiſdem daremus; et ſi non eſſet eorum Monaſterium exemptum de novo erimeremus. In fine dixit partibus, quod ipſi ponerent in ſcriptis ea quæ voluerunt proponere & probare; & ſibi liberarent. Sicque receſſerunt à Conſiſtorio. Acta fuerunt hæc coram Domino Papa & Cardinalibus in privato Conſiſtorio. * Ibid. col. 1986.

Item ad magis gravandum dictos Religioſos, excitavit adverſus eos plures adverſarios, citando in Eccleſiis in quarum Parochiis ipſi Religioſi penſiones vel portiones habebant, ac etiam in aliis ubi nichil perceperunt omnino, quod omnes quorum intereſſet coram ipſo Archiepiſcopo comparerent ſe ipſis Religioſis in hujuſmodi penſionibus efficaciter oppoſituri, ita quod à dicta pereceptione expelli poſſent in poſterum & excludi. * Anno quo ſupra per ſpacium temporis, videlicet Idus Martii, vocata fuit pars Abbatis & Conventus per ſe in ſecretiori Thalamo coram Domino Papa, qui dixit quaſi increpando; Non ſecundum voluntatem noſtram, ut intelleximus, fecerunt ipſi Abbas & Conventus in Eccleſiis juris patronatus eorum, qui inſtituerunt & deſtituerunt in eiſdem. Reſponſum fuit; Pater Sancte, Non: ſed poſuerunt ibi perſonas idoneas, ut ipſis deſervirent quouſque aliud ſcirent de veſtra voluntate. Quantum ad pulſationem contra Archiepiſcopum, negatum fuit expreſſè quod unquam fuit prohibitum, quin pulſaretur contra eum. Tertio inquirebat de Eccleſiis appropriatis quid ſentirent. Ad illud fuit allegatum de præſcriptione & de ſtatu Monaſterii antiquo, ad quem reducti fuerunt per ſuum privilegium. Tunc dixit Dominus Papa; Non ponatis vos in talibus, quia talia poſſunt eſſe privilegia quæ juriſdictionem populi ſimul cum appropriatione Eccleſiarum ſapiunt, & alia quæ non. Ad illud quod objecit de exceſſu quoad inſtitutionem & deſtitutionem, reſponſum fuit; Pater Sancte, conſervatores privilegii veſtri viſo ſtatu Monaſterii antiquo injunxerunt Abbati, quod ipſe reſumeret omnem ſtatum antiquum quoad exercitium juriſdictionis; & ipſe hoc fecit ſub proteſtatione tali, Quod ſi contingeret illum aliud facere, quàm quod de veſtra procederet voluntate, paratus eſſet cum ſibi conſtaret reſumpta revocare. Hiis dictis, juſſi ſunt recedere. Et continuò vocata fuit pars Archiepiſcopi & din tractavit cum eis: Denuò vocata fuit pars Abbatis. Conſtitutis verò partibus coram Domino Papa, objecit pars Archiepiſcopi illa quæ ſuperius ſunt oſtenſa. Tunc dixit Dominus Papa, Tacetis; non curamus de talibus, quia totum negotium ad tria puncta reſtringimus, videlicet, ad juriſdictionem, pulſationem, & proceſſionem; & de iſtis volumus deliberare & ordinare, ſicut nobis videbitur expedire; ſicque totum negotium ibi prima vice reſervabit; deinde locutus eſt Procuratoribus Archiepiſcopi, dicens: Nos audivimus de illo Cantuarienſi, quod male ſe habuit in Parliamento Lincolniæ, quia ipſe ſeminavit zizania inter Regem et Barones; et niſi fuiſſet ſapientia Regis, terram ſuam imperpetuum amiſiſſet; ipſe corruet et finaliter ipſe corruet, et * per Deum bene vindicabo Regem de eo. Reſpondit Magiſter Johannes de Ros Procurator Archiepiſcopi; Pater Sancte, niſi fuiſſet ſua conſtantia et prædicatio, multa majora ſcandala fuiſſent in illo regno exorta. Papa reſpondit; Tu mentiris, tu mentiris, bene ſcimus veritatem. Tunc juſſa ſunt amba partes recedere.

Poſt aliquot verò dies, * pecunia mediante Epiſcopali, traditum fuit dictum negotium ad Notarium, ut expediretur. Perpendit autem pars Abbatis, quod nota non fuerat benè concepta pro parte ipſorum, & vehementer inſtabat, quod poſſet habere acceſſum ad Dominum Papam. Tandem intervenientibus amicis ingreſſi ſunt, ſupplicantes ſibi pro Dei miſericordia, quod ſibi placeret habere pietatem de Monaſterio ſuo; & reſpondit, Eccleſia beati Auguſtini eſt antiquior in illo regno; & ideò magnum vituperium eſſet Curiæ Romanæ, ſi non eſſet exempta ex quo plura Monaſteria ſunt ibi exempta; nec decet quod ſit pejoris conditionis quàm aliæ Eccleſiæ, quæ fuit prima inter eas. ut faceret finem negotii. Tandem dictum fuit eis, quod irent ad Notarium, & inſpicerent quandam notam, quam Dominus præcepit fieri ut dicebatur. Inſpectâ verò nota, diſplicuit per omnia, eo quod ex toto fuit eis contraria. Placuit tamen Procuratori Archiepiſcopi, qui inſtanter egit, ut imbullaretur. Venerunt igitur Procuratores Abbatis ad Referendarium, dicentes: Pater, quid eſt quod intenditis facere? Si illa nota tranſeat, imperpetuum confuſi erimus nos et domus noſtra, nec auſi erimus redire ad propria. Magnum certe peccatum eſt, quod tantum a *Domo noſtra extraximus pecuniæ, nec quicquam conſecuti ſumus ampliorîs gratiæ. Qui reſpondit, Quid igitur vultis ut faciam vobis? Nonne ſufficere poteſt vobis, quod habeatis ſtatum aliorum exemptorum? Reſponſum fuit, Pater, ſufficit. Et dixit, Requiratis ergo ſtatum eorum, & Dominus faciet vobis bonam gratiam. Unde requiſita fuit copia privilegii S. Albani, & ad Curiam ſub manu publica delata. Interea pendente negotio ſub diſſimulatione infecto, Procuratores Archiepiſcopi impetrarunt plures literas contra Rectores, Vicarios, et alios ſubditos ipſorum Abbatis et Conventus: Quibus Procuratores Abbatis contradixerunt. Et cum multa eſſet pro hujuſmodi hinc inde controverſia, dixit Auditor contradictoriarum Procuratoribus Abbatis, Concedo vobis terminum uſque ad publicum Conſiſtorium, ut poſſitis conſulere Dominum, ſi hæ literæ debeant tranſire, vel non.

In proximo igitur Conſiſtorio publico, ſcilicet die Sancti Adriani, inter cætera propoſuit pars religioſorum coram Domino Papa & Cardinalibus, quod Procuratores Archiepiſcopi impetrarunt literas in audientia contra privilegium novum conceſſum. Tunc reſpondit Dominus Papa, Nos ob reverentiam beati Auguſtini dedimus eis illud privilegium, & ſtatum illius Monaſterii corroboravimus & renovavimus: veruntamen ipſi Monachi non ſunt contenti finibus ſuis; & adjecit de Cauſa qua fuerat in dubio coram Cardinali, alloquens ipſum Cardinalem, dicens ſic, Johannes fili, audis tu iſtam Cauſam? Qui reſpondit, Pater ſancte, Vocati fuerunt coram me, et propoſuerunt in Scriptis excipiendo quod vos reſervaſtis veſtræ audientiæ: & ſuper hoc petebant Procuratores prædicti inſtanter veſtram Sanctitatem conſuli, eo quod vos non agebatis in remotis. Qui reſpondit, Ego tibi præcipio ne amplius iſtam cauſam audias, nos enim illam nulli omnino hominum committimus nec committemus: ſed nos iſtud negotium cum omnibus ſequelis ſuis volumus terminare. Et ſub iſto modo iſtam Cauſam ſibi ſecundò reſervavit. Conſiſtorio celebrato, venerunt Procuratores Abbatis nunciantes Auditori contradictoriarum, quæ dicta fuerant à Domino Papa; Qui reſpondit, Volumus conſulere Dominum, & quia Procuratores Archiepiſcopi valdè fuerant infeſti Auditori quod prædicta litera tranſirent, fecit Auditor partes citari. Quibus coram eo in judicio conſtitutis, poſt multas allegationes hinc inde factas, Dixit Auditor. Quia nos non habemus cognoſcere de veritate precum, nos iſtas literas diſcernimus abſolvi, ſub iſta tamen conditione, Quod ſi illæ Eccleſiæ ſeu perſonæ, de quibus agitur in prædictis literis, pertinent ad illud Monaſterium pleno jure, vel ſunt membra ipſius Monaſterii, vel ſi ſint Eccleſiæ vel perſonæ de quibus omnibus cauſa pendet coram Papa, literæ non procedant contra Abbatem ſeu aliquas alias perſonas ipſi Monaſterio ſubjectas. Non multum poſt Procurator Archiepiſcopi, habito ingreſſu ad Dominum Papam propoſuit coram eo, Quod Procurator Abbatis impediebat literas communis juſtitiæ in audientiâ, quo minus tranſire poſſent: & multos alios articulos propoſuit coram eo: Papa reſpondit, Redigas in ſcriptis ea quæ probare volueris & trades nobis. Et ſi probaverimus quòd verum dixeris, nos acrius procedemus contra prædictos Religioſos: ſi autem probaverimus te falſum dixiſſe, promittimus Deo quod puniemus falſitatem tuam.

Et scito, quod illa Nota quæ dicitur fuisse concepta Anagniæ erat hæc: Habeant præsentationem Rectorum & Clericorum, tum, &c. quæ sequuntur in bulla declarationis. Contra quam notam Procuratores Abbatis rationes produxerunt efficaces in forma quæ talis est; Habeant Præsentationem, &c. Hac dictio tantum absorberet jus Monasterii, quia de jure communi alia competunt patronis quàm præsentatio sola, quia Abbas & Conventus habent custodiam vacantium Ecclesiarum de Patronatu, & percipiunt medietatem fructuum ipsarum tempore vacationis, & etiam sequestrorum. Item retinent claves ipsarum Ecclesiarum vacantium. Item pulsantur Campanæ propter reverentiam Abbatis, quando transit per loca. Et hæc competunt, & competierunt ab eo tempore quo memoria non extat, & etiam per compositiones fuerant reservata expressè. Item Archiepiscopus habeat Spiritualia in eisdem, hoc excepto, quod propter privilegia & compositionem interdicere & suspendere non potest, sicut patet per Compositiones, quinque Ecclesias in Compositione nominatas, ut superius in eadem compositione patebat. Nec aliàs quam eis ex præsenti declaratione. Hoc est limitandum quoad Spiritualem jurisdictionem, quia temporalem habuerunt & habent in prædictis ab eo tempore quo non extat memoria. Permittitur; *Ex hac concessione nihil permittitur, quod jurisdictionem sapiat. Thus this controverſie between the Archbiſhop, Abbot and Monks, (which continued near 8. years ſpace, to their vaſt expence, trouble, vexation) received this final determination. Wherein we may obſerve, 1. The deteſtable Corruption of Pope Boniface, his Cardinals, Notaries, and other Officers in the Court of Rome, in taking great bribes, rewards, and ſummes of money from both parties, and thereupon varying, nulling, repealing their Judgements, Sentences, Letters, Orders, Bulls, Bulls, Priviledges, in favour, disfavour, to the advantage or prejudice of either party, according to the greatness or prevalency of their Bribes, without any regard to justice. 2ly. Their manifold arts to procrastinate the final decision of the controversies between them, to exhaust their purses, and gain new bribes, rewards from them and their Proctors. 3ly. The strange ambitious, proud, contentious, turbulent spirits of the Archbishops, Abbots, Monks of Canterbury, in that and precedent times, evidenced by the manifold controversies, violent proceeding, costly long-lasting successive suits between them, by reason of Popes contradictory Bulls of Priviledges and exemptions granted to, and purchased by them at dear rates; which did but renue, increase, perpetuate their contests and appeals to Rome, instead of determining them. 4ly. The publike contempts, slightings of Popes Bulls, Mandates, Sentences, both by the Archbishop, Abbots, Monks, when they entrenched upon either of their claimed Priviledges or Jurisdictions. 5ly. Their gross, frequent abuses of Excommunications and Interdicts, fulminated, denounced against each other, upon every pretended contempt or violation of their claimed Priviledges or Jurisdiction. An. 29 E. 1.

After the premised Declaration of Pope Boniface in favour of the Archbishop, he proceeded so violently against the Abbot, Monks and their adherents, by Excommunications, Interdicts, and other Ecclesiastical Censures, that he enforced them to submit, and sue unto him for absolution and a friendly agreement between them, thus related by * William Thorn. Quæ quidem Declaratio sic publicata Anno supradicto, scilicet 1303. die Sancti Dunstani Archiepiscopi, in Ecclesia Christi Cant. immediatè post factam ibidem processionem, præsentibus tunc Clericis & Laicis in magna multitudine ad eundem diem specialiter vocatis & rogatis, Henricus Prior Ecclesiæ prædictæ prædicavit populo, cujus thema fuit hoc; Fili, non dimittas legem matris tuæ, non transgredieris terminos quos posuerunt patres tui; Declarationem publicavit, manifestavit, & in linguâ maternâ publicè exposuit. Postea vero Dominus Archiepiscopus, Archidiaconus et eorum Officiales compellebant omnes Parochianos nostros et tenentes, ac alios qui nobis medio tempore adhæserunt, vilissimas et importabiles pœnitentias facere, fustigantes circa Ecclesias, et per verbera, ac ad deferendum cereos ad feretrum Sancti Thomæ contra voluntatem eorum, videlicet unumquemque secundum facultatem bonorum suorum, pro eo quod medio tempore nobis et nostris fuerant intendentes et obedientes. Igitur ista publicatione factâ; omnes et singuli Rectores et Vicarii, qui prius Abbati adhærebant, se a divinis cessabant, petentes se de quærendo gratiam et præsentiam Archiepiscopi. Qui in præsentia ipsum constituti, vi et metu ducti, fatebantur se ipsos sententia majoris excommunicationis per ipsum et suos Commissarios fuisse innodatos, et petierunt reformationem status sui. Factaque sibi resignatione et cessione beneficiorum suorum, et facto juramento de stando mandatis Ecclesiæ, juxta eorum petitionem obtinuerunt. * Et sic omnia beneficia absque Pastoribus manserunt desolata, et dicti Rectores et Vicarii irregulares ibidem pronunciati per Archiepiscopum supradictum. Similiter et Capellani Parochiales et alii annalia celebrantes a divinis cessarunt, gratiam et benevolentiam ejusdem humiliter petentes, confitebantur se ipsos sententia excommunicationis fuisse ligatos, petentes reformationem status sui, præstitoque juramento de stando mandatis Ecclesiæ, optinuerunt. Et aliqui eorumdem pronunciati fuerunt ibidem irregulares, quidam deto postmodum gratiam optinuerunt. Set Rector de Brockland & Vicarius de Menstre, non reputantes se aliqua sententia fuisse ligatos, non statim submiserunt se, quia processum Archiepiscopi tunc pendentis causâ in Curia Romana *indecisa, aliquo modo credebant non posse valere. Tunc dictus Dominus Comes & alii ſecum exiſtentes Archiepiſcopum humiliter requiſierunt, quod bellet habere tractatum de bona et firma pace. Qui reſpondit, quod hoc utile eſſet, & talis tractatus benè ſibi placeret. Et dixit, quod voluntas ſua fuit, & etiam ratio & æquitas hoc prætendunt, quod prædicti Abbas et Conventus facerent ſibi emendam ſuper infraſcriptis gravaminibus; et aliter non potuit oſtendere verſus eos aliqua ſigna amicitiæ vel pacis. Quæ ſunt hæc.

Inprimis, Religioſi de Sancto Auguſtino Eccleſias parochiales Cantuarienſis Civitatis & Dioceſis, nedum quas ſibi prætendunt fuiſſe & eſſe appropriatas; verumetiam Eccleſias in quibus Jus Patronatus dumtaxat habere ſe aſſerunt, earumque Rectores, Clericos, Miniſtros & populum ab obedientia debita Archiepiſcopo quoad omnem juriſdictionem ordinariam, niſi ſunt totis viribus contra juſtitiam ſubtrahere, jus et poſſeſſiones Archiepiſcopi et Eccleſiæ ſuæ injuſte perturbando.

Item, inhibuerunt tam Clero quam populo dictarum Eccleſiarum nedum eidem Archiepiſcopo vel Miniſtris ſuis obediant in aliquo vel intendant.

Item, ut fierent in Eccleſia Cantuariæ proceſſiones Penteceſtes, quæ a Clero et Populo dictarum Eccleſiarum retroactis temporibus conſueverunt, proceſſionem eandem, necnon oblationes procurarunt fieri ad ſuum Monaſterium, ubi nunquam fieri conſueverunt.

Item

Item, in eiſdem Eccleſiis inhibuerunt campanas pulſari in tranſitu ejuſdem Archiepiſcopi, et oſtia dictarum Eccleſiarum ignominioſe claudi fecerunt honorem et ſubjectionem nequiter ſubtrahendo. An. 29 E. 1.

Item, licet nullo modo liqueat eiſdem Religioſis aliqualem juriſdictionem aliqualiter competere in perſonis aliquibus dictæ Diocæſis; Idem tamen Religioſi juriſdictionem ordinariam ſibi vendicabant et uſurpabant in Eccleſiis prædictis, earumque Parochianis conſtituerunt et præfecerunt Officiales, Decanos rurales, exteroſque Miniſtros ad exercitium hujuſmodi juriſdictionis adulterinæ.

Item, compulerunt Rectores, Vicarios et Presbyteros dictarum Eccleſiarum ipſis Religioſis tanquam Ordinariis præſtare obedientiæ juramentum, juriſdictionem Archiepiſcopi minus prudenter perturbando.

Item, Rectores et Vicarios, quorum inſtitutio ad Archiepiſcopum ſolebat pertinere, et ad quas vacantes Eccleſias ſolebant dicto Archiepiſcopo perſonæ idoneæ præſentari, idem Religioſi inſtituere et deſtituere in eiſdem temere præſumpſerunt.

Item, in Eccleſia de Faverſham ſibi appropriata per ſanguinis effuſionem polluta, dicti Religioſi celebrabant et fecerunt celebrari divina et alia Sacramenta et Sacramentalia in eadem miniſtrari, ac mortuos in Cimiterio ibidem ante reconciliationem ſepeliri.

Item, Petrum dictæ Eccleſiæ Vicarium eadem Vicaria privarunt, et privatum eſſe publice nunciarunt, ipſum a domibus dictæ Vicariæ ſententialiter amovendo.

Item, in quibuſdam aliis Eccleſiis ſibi appropriatis, et etiam ſui patronatus noſtra authoritate Eccleſiaſtico ſubpoſitis interdicto, per Monachos ſuos et alios Presbyteros authoritate noſtra majori Excommunicatione innodatos fecerunt divina celebrari, et in eis Sacramenta et Sacramentalia per eoſdem Presbyteros ſic excommunicatos, Parochianos etiam abhorrentes ipſorum excommunicatorum miſſas audire vel Sacramenta ab eis recipere excommunicari fecerunt de facto, et excommunicatos publice nunciari.

Igitur non poſt multos dies venit Abbas ad Epiſcopum Dunelmenſem qui tunc apud Winham *hoſpitatus fuit, qui & erat hnic Eccleſiæ amicus fidiſſimus. An. 29 E. I.

Ad secundum articulum, de privilegiis quantum ad familiares Clericos & Laicos, respondetur sic, quod videatur eidem, quod declaratio Domini Papæ expedit quod in isto articulo petitur.

Ad tertium articulum, de præsentatione salvanda in Ecclesiis suis rationabiliter vacantibus, respondetur, quod super hiis pendet consultatio Domini Papæ.

Ad quartum articulum, de custodiis Ecclesiarum tempore vacationis ipsarum, & pro receptione fructuum earundem durante vacatione, quoad primam istius articuli respondetur, Quod declaratio Domini Papæ ipsam primam partem expedit. Quantum ad secundum, scilicet, de receptione fructuum, respondetur, quod illud tangit Archidiaconum de quo respondere non potest.

Ad quintum, de coercione malefactorum ipsorum, respondetur, quod paratus erit facere id quod licitè potest, & de jure.

Ad sextum articulum petitur, quod intelligitur per hunc dictionem Bilage, dicunt, quod quidem usus vel consuetudo qui Bilage in partibus Kanciæ vulgariter appellatur, sic se habere consuevit. Quod cum contentio vel controversia aliqua suborta fuerit inter aliquos super finibus seu limitibus, debent Senescalli seu Ballivi partium vel alia persona fidedigna ad hoc per partes specialiter deputata, in loco de quo est contentio convenire, rem que oculis subjicere, informationeque per viros vicinos fidedignos habitu absque strepitu judiciali & figura judicii mox totam dirimere quæstionem. Ad istum articulum respondit, quod vellet facere per consilium suum & non aliter.

Ad ultimum articulum, de rebus dubitabilibus examinandis & discutiendis per consilium utriusque partis, respondetur, Quod in hiis in quibus probabilis dubietas emerserit, intendit in eventum providere quod conveniens fuerit & opportunum. Veruntamen pacis & concordia fervidi zelatores eundem Archiepiscopum, ut a vexationibus Clericis et Laicis Abbatis, ut prædictum est, inhumaniter illatis, & ab actione de demandis per prædictos Abbatem & Conventum ut pretendit pro gravaminibus sibi factis unà cum confirmatione status eorundem cum stabilitate pacis perpetua rogantes, sedulo ipsorum interventu placuit eidem Archiepiscopo ipsis Religiosis pro pacis tranquilitate quærenda & imperpetuum authore Domino confovenda concedere infrascripta.

* Chron. Wil. Thorne, col. 2001, 2002.

* Concessiones Archiepiscopi.

Inprimis, concedit idem Archiepiscopus pro se & successoribus suis, quod electis in Abbates Sancti Augustini in Monasterio eorundem cum ad hoc fuerit requisitus per Archiepiscopum impendatur munus benedictionis, sine exactione professionis ejusdem Abbatis, quam solebant recipere sui prædecessores.

Item, quod cum veniens ad dictum Monasterium pro electo benedicendo, cum processione & pulsatione receptus fuerit à Conventu, nil juris ea vice vel alia infra septa dicti Monasterii vendicabit, per quod possit ipsorum Religiosorum privilegiis in aliquo derogari.

Item, quod electus sic benedictus Mitram gerat et Abbatis insignia consueta.

Item, quod Clerici sive servientes capitales in maneriis ipsorum Religiosorum cum sint de familia Abbatis, si aliquando feciſſe dicuntur aliquid, quod excommunicationem inducat majorem vel minorem ante discussionem facti, nisi fortè factum esset notorium, vel antequam confessi, convicti, vel in opere deprehensi, aut contumaces post legitimam citationem extra septa ipsius Monasterii sibi factam, per Archiepiscopum vel suos Ministros non excommunicabuntur nec suspendentur, nec excommunicati vel suspensi denunciabuntur nominatim, dum tamen Abbas vel hic qui pro tempore præerit Monasterio extra septa taliter delinquentem, et ad ipsum Monasterium confugientem, coram dictis Ordinariis compulerit stare juri, vel ipsum expulerit de Abbatia.

Item, quod omnis jurisdictio et coercio ordinaria infra Monasterii septa cesset.

Item, cum Personam vel Vicarium in Ecclesiis dictorum Religiosorum mori contigerit, vel aliter cedere, liceat ipsis Religiosis habere retentionem clavium penes se vacationis tempore, donec ad præsentationem eorum alius instituatur in eisdem, salvo jure Archidiaconi Cantuariæ qui pro tempore fuerit, quoad jurisdictionem medio tempore in eisdem Ecclesiis exercendam, & quoad medietatem fructuum & sequestrorum interim perceptorum, ità quod claves ei qui vice Archidiaconi præsentatos inducet in corporalem possessionem, à dictis Religiosis tradantur.

Item, concedit, quod eorum Ecclesiæ, scilicet de Menstre, de Nordborn, de Chistelet, de de Faviſham, & de Middleton, cum ſuis Capellis, liberæ ſint ab omni ſuſpenſione et interdicto Ordinariorum imperpetuum; ſalva tamen Ordinariorum juriſdictione in Clero et populo earundem. An. 29 E 1.

Item, quod dictas quinque Eccleſias, non obſtantibus dictis contentionibus & litibus, eiſdem Religioſis confirmabit, ſalvis Vicariis earundem.

Item, quod fiat pulſatio campanarum in Eccleſiis ipſorum contra Abbatem, ſecundum quod fieri conſuevit.

Item, Archiepiſcopus Anacoritas non faciet de cætero in Eccleſiis dictorum Religioſorum, niſi de conſenſu Abbatis memorati.

Poſtremo proteſtatur Archiepiſcopus, quod nondum ad tractatum pacis eſt paratus, licet ſæpedicti Religioſi ut videtur aliud facere non intendant, ſet ipſius pacis dulcorem guſtare deproperans, ipſam bonis conditionibus & honeſtis quantum poterit per ſe & ſuos ſatagit procurare, et ſub tali pacis diſſimulatione nec oblata pro pacis tranquilitate ex parte Abbatis vellet admittere, vel ſuper conceſſione ſua eos permitteret aliqualiter deliberare. Set quod ſuperius conceſſit & admiſit, velut improbus et contentionum amator ſubdole denegavit; unde et ad lites et ſurgia ad tempus convolarunt. Impœnitentiam cujus negationis Monachi Cantuariæ ſuſcitarunt. So that all mediations for, and propoſitions between them for a cordial reconciliation of their ſuits and differences, vaniſhed into ſmoak, through the pride and obſtinacy of both parties, to the great diſturbance of the publick peace.

I finde by two parchment Rolls in French in the White Tower, (one ſide of which is putrified, but the other entire) that the King being at Dover, in the 30th. year of his reign the Archbiſhop of Canterbury complained to him againſt the Sheriff of Kent, the Conſtable of Dover, (Robert de Bomhers) and their Officers, that they had diverſement & en mont des maneres invaded and infringed the Liberties of the Church of Canterbury, againſt the Franchiſes thereof conferred on them by Popes & Kings themſelves; which the King commanded his Counſil to examine, and enquire the truth thereof by Commiſſion, and then to report it to him in writing, which was done accordingly, and compriſed in theſe two Rolls: The ſubſtance of his complaint againſt the Sheriff of Kent was, That whereas the Archbiſhop and his Archdeacon in the premiſed differences between the Abbot and Monks of Canterbury and him, had deprived and removed divers Vicars, placed by the Abbot in the Impropriations and Churches belonging to the Abby of St. Auguſtine, and inſtituted and inducted others in their places; the Sheriff upon the Abbots complaint, had removed them out of the Churches, Vicaridges, reſtored the former Vicars to them, and would ſuffer no victuals to be brought to his Vicars who kept poſſeſſion in ſome Churches, and attached, impriſoned others of them; and that he and the Lieutenant of Dover had entred into, and executed Writs within his Franchiſes and Liberties. To which the Sheriff anſwered, That the Archbiſhop had no right to place or diſplace thoſe Vicars, but only the Abbot; that the Vicars therein placed by the Archbiſhop being indicted for breaking the publick peace, and forcible entries into the ſaid Churches, and keeping them by Lay force, he did thereupon according to Law and his duty, by vertue of the Kings Writs, remove, attach and impriſon them for their contempt, and deſpite againſt the Kings Writs and authority, and for felonious taking away the Goods of the Vicars, which the Archbiſhop by his Archdeacon had injuriouſly ſequeſtred. As for entring into the Archbiſhops Franchiſes, the Sheriff and Conſtable of Dover juſtified it by ſundry Rolls and Preſidents, eſpecially when the Archbiſhop was a party, as he was in this conteſt between him and the Abbot of St. Auguſtines. Wherewith it ſeems the King and Counſil reſted ſatisfied. So troubleſome was this Archbiſhop not only to the Pope and Court of Rome, but to the King and his Counſil, and to the Sheriff of Kent and Conſtable of Dover, in this hot conteſt between the Abbot, Monks and him. But to leave them, I return to my Chronological ſeries, which their long-laſting ſuits have interrupted. Anno 30 E. 1. in Turre London.

How prone the Engliſhmen in this time were to pillage Italian Clerks and their Proctors, and keep them out of our Churches by armed force, this Writ will in ſome meaſure inſtruct us, iſſued upon a complaint thereof to the King and his Counſil,

You heard* before, that the King to ſatisfie his diſcontented Earls, and people (whom the Archbiſhop inſtigated and abetted againſt him) iſſued Writs and Proclamations this year, concerning his Confirmation, and the due obſervation of the Great Charters of their Liberties and of the Foreſt in all their Articles, and the Perambulations of the Foreſt to be made with all convenient expedition. For their further aſſurance whereof to remove their fears and jealouſies, he ſent theſe enſuing Writs to the Sheriffs of Lancaſter, London and all other Sheriffs of England, and likewiſe to his Treaſurer and Barons of the Exchequer, his Chief Juſtices and other Judges of the Kings Bench and Common Pleas, publickly to read, proclaim and obſerve, reciting in them at large the Articles concerning the Foreſt, which he had new granted and confirmed to them, and his reſolution ſpeedily to proceed in the perambulation.

The Writ to the Sheriff of Lancaſter is thus recorded in the Statute Roll.

In Turre London An. 28 E. 1.

The Archbiſhop of Canterbury intending this year to viſit the Kings Free-Chappel of Haſtings, and the Prebends belonging thereunto, by his Metropolitical authority, to the prejudice of his Royal Prerogative, the King thereupon iſſued this Prohibition to him, entred in the Clauſe Roll.

Clauſ. 28 E. 1. m. 14. dorſo. Prohibitio pro Capellis Regis.

REX venerabili in Chriſto Patri R. eadem gratia Archiepiſcopo Cantuar. totius Angliæ Primati, ſalutem. Cum libera Capella noſtra de Haſtinges, cum Prædendis ad eandem Capellam ſpectantibus, ſicut aliæ liberæ Capellæ noſtræ in regno noſtro ab omni juriſdictione ordinaria exempta ſit, libera penitus et immunis: Ac vos viſitationis officium in Capella noſtra et Prædendis prædictis jam intendatis, ſicut accepimus, exercere. Nos attendentes noſtræ regiæ dignitati per hoc poſſe de facili derogari; Vobis prohibemus, ne juriſdictionem aliqualem in prædictis Capella et Prædendis exercere, vel quicquam quod in noſtri ſeu Coronæ aut Regiæ dignitatis noſtræ præjudicium, ſeu libertatis prædictarum Capellæ et Prædendarum læſionem cedere poſſit aliqualiter attemptare præſumatis. Teſte Rege apud Blidham 17 die Januarii.

The Biſhop of Chicheſter challenging a Juriſdiction in and over this Free-Chappel, and its Prebends, had a day given him to declare his right in Parliament, againſt which time the Prebends were ordered to ſearch out and bring all evidences and Inquiſitions they could finde, to maintain the Kings Intereſt and Prerogative therein.

In this memorable caſe the Kings Judges reſolved, 1. That where the Kings legal Writs or commands came in competition with the Popes Mandates or Proviſions, our Archbiſhops and Biſhops (though then ſworn and devoted to the Pope) ought to obey the King, before the Pope; & not to diſpute, but execute the Kings Writs, as well as his Temporal Officers, according to St. Pauls and St. Peters reſolutions, Rom. 13. 1, to 8. 2 Pet. 2. 13, 14, 15, 17. 2ly. That their not obeying the Kings Royal Writs and Legal Mandates, is ſuch an high offence, contempt againſt the Kings Crown and Dignity, that the King by the Lawes of England might then juſtly ſeiſe and confiſcate their Temporalties during life. Biſhop * Godwin in his life hath this memorable paſſage; He ſate in all but 3. years, 7. moneths, and 10. dayes. Whether it be that few mens mindes be ſo great, as to ſuſtein the burthen of a Princes diſpleaſure, or that God who promiſeth a long life to ſuch who obey their Superiours, in his juſt judgement doth ſooneſt cut off ſuch as are backward in this duty: So ſurely it hath fallen out for the moſt part, that thoſe Biſhops who have preſumed moſt in oppoſing themſelves againſt their Princes, have leaſt time endured, and ever ſeen quickly taken away, whereof I could yeeld infinite examples.

The King this year issued this Writ to restore the Temporalties to Walter Viel Bishop elect of Dare in Ireland. An. 28 E. 1.

REX dilecto & fideli suo Johanni Wogan Justic. suo Hibern. vel ejus locum tenenti, salutem. Cum nos electioni nuper factæ in Ecclesia Darensi de discreto viro Magistro Waltero de Viel Cancellario ejusdem Ecclesiæ, in Episcopum illius loci, regium assensum adhibuerimus et favorem, & mandaverimus custodi Spiritualitatis Archiepiscopatus Dublin. ut quod suum est in hac parte exequatur; volentes eidem Electo, ut laboribus et expensis suis parcatur gratiam in hac parte facere specialem, vobis mandamus, &c. Acceptis tamen, &c. (as in other Writs of this kinde.) In cujus, &c. Teste Rege apud Novum Monasterium 5 die Januarii. Pat. 28 E. 1. m. 31. De assensu adhibito electioni, & temporalibus post fidelitatem captam restituendis.

Per ipsum Regem, nunciante W. Cov. & Lych. Episcopo.

Pope Boniface the 8. confirming the election of Richard Archbishop of Dublin, and inserting some words into his Bull to the King concerning his promotion thereunto; and the Temporalties thereof, which seemed prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Royal dignity, in the judgement of the King and his Counsil, when presented to them by the Archbishop; the King thereupon refused to restore his Temporalties, untill the Archbishop publickly renounced all clauses in the Popes Bull, openly or tacitly, directly or indirectly prejudicial and derogatory to his Crown and Royal dignity, as this memorable Patent for his restitution attests to posterity.

REX custodi suo Archiepiscopatus Dublin. salutem. Accedens ad nos venerabilis pater Richardus Archiepiscopus Dublin. literas Domini Bonifacii divina providentia Summi Pontificis, super promotione sua in Dublinensem Archiepiscopum factas, nobis præsentavit, et quia in literis illis quædam verba continebantur quæ nobis et Coronæ nostræ, nostræque regiæ dignitati præjudicialia videbantur, dictus Archiepiscopus se super hoc excusando, publice et expresse asseruit et protestabatur, Quod dicta verba in literis prædictis ad procurationem suam, aut de sua conscientia apposita non fuerunt; nec unquam intentionis suæ extitit nec extitit quicquam impetrare, facere vel prosequi, per quod nobis aut Coronæ seu dignitati nostræ Regiæ posset præjudicium aliquod generari; et ob hoc omnibus et singulis in dictis literis Apostolicis contentis, quatenus nobis aut Coronæ seu dignitati nostræ Regiæ tacite vel expresse, directe vel indirecte, præjudiciales sunt vel esse poterunt quodlibmodo, renunciavit sponte, pure, simpliciter et expresse, supplicans humiliter et devote, ut temporalia Archiepiscopatus prædicti de nostra gratia et mera liberalitate Regia sibi restituere dignaremur. Nos igitur hujusmodi excusatione et renunciatione receptis, ipsius Archiepiscopi supplicationibus annuentes, cepimus fidelitatem ejusdem Archiepiscopi, et temporalia Archiepiscopatus prædicti eidem Archiepiscopo restituimus de nostra gratia speciali. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod ipsi Archiepiscopo vel ejus certo attornato, temporalia dicti Archiepiscopatus sine dilatione liberetis, de nostra gratia supradicta. Teste Rege apud Rykehale primo die Junii. Pat. 28 E. 1. m. 14. De restitutione temporalium.

Eodem modo mandatum est Waltero de Gloucestr. Escaetori ultra Trentam, quod eidem Archiepiscopo, &c. temporalia, &c. Teste Rege ut supra.

Et mandatum est Militibus, &c. In cujus, &c. Teste Rege ut supra.

Eodem modo mandatum est Canonicis liberæ Capellæ Regis de Pencriz, quod eidem Archiepiscopo tanquam Decano suo, &c. In cujus, &c. Teste Rege ut supra.

The original renunciation of the clauses in Pope Boniface his Bull, prejudicial to the Kings Crown and dignity, made by this Archbishop, mentioned in this Patent to restore his Temporalties, I found extant under his own Archiepiscopal Seal in a bundle of Writs and Privy Seals in the White Tower, which I shall here present you with as a rarity.

UNiversis ad quos præsentes literæ pervenerint, Richardus permissione divina Dublinensis Archiepiscopus, salutem in amplexibus Salvatoris. Noverit universitas vestra, quod cum in literis Apostolicis super promotione nostra in Archiepiscopum Brevia Regis An. 28 E. 1. in Turre Lond.

An. 28 E. 1. epiſcopum Dublinenſem conſectis, & ſereniſſimo Principi Domino noſtro Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Regi Angliæ illuſtri, Domino Hiberniæ, & Duci Aquitaniæ, per ſanctiſſimum patrem Dominum Bonifacium Papam 8. dedicatis, et per nos præſentatis eidem, quædam verba continebantur quæ idem Dominus Rex et ſuum Conſilium ſibi ſuæque Regiæ dignitati Coronæ eſſe præjudicialia prætendebant, & quædam verba alia quæ in conſimilibus literis Apoſtolicis ſolita opponi ſint in præfatis literis noſtræ promotionis omiſſa. Nos publice et expreſſe dicimus et profitemur, quod nunquam noſtræ intentionis extitit vel extitit, quicquam ſuper trahere, facere vel proſequi, quod in ejuſdem Domini Regis, etuſque dignitati Regiæ, vel Coronæ præjudicium poſſet aliqualiter redundare. Unde omnibus et ſingulis in dictis literis Apoſtolicis contentis, quatenus prædicto Domino Regi ejuſque dignitati Regiæ vel Coronæ tacite vel expreſſe, directe vel indirecte præjudiciales extitunt, vel eſſe poterunt quovis modo, pure, ſponte renunciamus, atque ſimpliciter et abſolute. In quorum teſtimonium ſigillum noſtrum præſentibus duximus apponendum. Dat. apud Ebor. 31 die Maii, Anno Domini 1300.

I found this Appeal An. Dom. 1299. in the White Tower, made againſt a ſentence of Excommunication denounced by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury and his Auditors of Cauſes, by Ralph de Ebor. his Proctor, in caſe of a Preſentation to the Church of Griſton, thus exemplified under the hand of a publick Notary.

REX Custodibus passagii Portus sui Dovorr. salutem. Quia intelleximus quod quidam Milites sub advocacione dilecti & fidelis nostri Henrici de Lacy Comitis Lincolniæ, ad partes transmarinas versus Curiam Romanam pro quibusdam arduis negociis Nos et regnum nostrum specialiter tangentibus, profecturi, nituntur ad partes prædictas sine nostra licencia transfretare; Vobis mandamus, quod prædictum Comitem, ac Willielmum le Lungſ. Johannem le Espring, Milonem de Stapelton, Rogerum le Sauvage, Mauricium le Brun, Johannem de la Mare, Johannem de Molington & Bartholomæum de Badlesmere, Milites, et familiares prædicti Comitis, cum rebus, herneſ. & familia sua ad partes prædictas absque impedimento transire permittentes, alios Milites nomine ipsius Comitis licet per prædictum Comitem advocaberint transire nullatenus permittatis, contra formam inhibitionis nostræ inde factæ. Teste Rege apud Karliolum 13. die Octobris.
Per ipsum Regem, nunciante W. Cov. & Lichf. Episcopo.

During the Negotiations of the Kings Ambassadors at Rome to settle a final Peace, the Kings Proctors sent to the King of France, concluded this temporary Truce between them, wherein the French King cunningly included the late King of Scots and the Scotish Nation, as his allies, by virtue of their former League with him, which they* had publikely abjured before King Edw. and his Nobles, thus publisshed by King Philips Letters, which I found in the White Tower, with this brand of dislike præfixed to it.

duciam obtinemus, quod regalis ſublimitas verba noſtra benignè recipiat, diligenter intelligat, efficaciter proſequatur. Sanè ad Celſitudinem Regiam potuit pervenisse, & in tuæ libro memoriæ nequaquam ambigimur contineri, qualiter * ab antiquis temporibus regnum Scotiæ pleno jure pertinuit, et adhuc pertinere dinoſcitur ad Eccleſiam ſupradictam; quodque illud ſicut accepimus, progenitoribus tuis regni Angliæ Regibus, ſibe tibi feudale non extitit nec exiſtit. Qualiter etiam, claræ memoriæ Henricus Rex Angliæ, pater tuus, tempore diſcordiæ ſive belli inter ipſum & quendam Simonem de Monteforti ſuoſque fautores & complices ſuſcitatæ, à recolendæ memoriæ Alexandro ejuſdem Scotiæ Rege, ac ipſius Henrici genero auxilium ſibi petit exhiberi. Et ne hujuſmodi auxilium jure cujuſlibet ſubjectionis aut debiti petitum ſeu præſtitum notaretur, præfatus Henricus eidem Regi Scotiæ ſuas patentes durit literas concedendas, per eas firmiter recognoſcens, prædictum auxilium recepiſſe, bel ſe recepturum duntaxat de gratia ſpeciali. Præterea, cum ſucceſſu temporis præfati Regis Scotiæ, tui ſororii, tunc viventis, in tuæ coronationis ſolempniis habere præſentiam, non ex debito, ſed tantum ex gratia intendebat. Et cum etiam Rex ipſe pro Tindaliæ ac de Poynerre, terris in regno Angliæ poſitis, ſe ad præſentiam tuam perſonaliter contuliſſet, tibi fidelitatem ſolitam impenſurus, idem in præfatione fidelitatis hujuſmodi, multis tunc præſentibus, vivæ vocis oraculo publicè declaravit, quod pro terris eiſdem ſitis tantum in Anglia, non ut Rex Scotiæ, neque pro Scotiæ regno fidelitatem exhibeat eandem, quinimo ipſam extitit proteſtatus, quod pro regno ipſo tibi fidelitatem præſtare ſeu facere aliquatenus non debebat, utpote tibi penitus non ſubjecto. Tuque ſic oblatam fidelitatem hujuſmodi admiſiſti. E tua quoque non creditur excidiſſe memoria, qualiter eodem Rege de medio quondam ſublato, Margareta puella, nepte tua, tunc minoris ætatis, hærede ſibi relicta, non ad te velut ad Dominum pervenit cuſtodia memorati, ſed certi ejuſdem regni Proceres, ad ejus cuſtodiam extiterunt electi, quodque poſtmodum diſpenſatione ab Apoſtolica ſede obtenta ſuper matrimonio contrahendo inter dilectum filium nobilem virum Edwardum natum tuum et Margaretam prædictam dum viveret, ſi ad id Procerum dicti regni accederet vel haberetur aſſenſus, tu eiſdem Proceribus per tua ſcripta caviſſe dinoſceris, priuſquam vellent hujuſmodi matrimonio conſentire, quod regnum ipſum penitus liberum, nullique ſubjectum, ſeu quobiſmodo ſubmiſſum in perpetuo remaneret, quodque in præfatum ſeu talem ipſius ſtatum reſtitueretur omnino, ſi ex hujuſmodi matrimonio contrahendo liberos non extare contingeret, ac nomen et honorem, ut prius, pariter retineret, tam in ſuis ſibi ſervandis legibus et præficiendis officialibus dicti regni, quam Parliamentis tenendis, tractandis cauſis in ipſo, et nullis ejus incolis extra illud ad judicium evocandis. Et quod in *tuis patentibus literis inde confectis hæc plenius & ſerioſius contineri noſcantur. Præfata inſuper Margareta de præſenti luce ſubſtracta, & tandem ſuper ſucceſſione dicti regni Scotiæ ſuborta diſſentionis materia inter partes, ipſius regni Proceres, metuentes ſibi dictoque regno poſſe occaſione hujuſmodi præjudicium generari, non aliter ad tuam præſentiam extra ipſius accedere limites voluerunt, niſi per te patenti ſcripto caveretur eiſdem, quod id non fiebat ex debito, ſed ex gratia ſpeciali; Quodque nullum exinde ipſius regni libertatibus poſſe diſpendium imminere. Et licet (ut dicitur) ſuper ſtatu ejuſdem regni Scotiæ, ac ejus prius habita libertate, regno ipſo tunc carente præſidio Defenſoris, per ipſius regni Proceres, tunc velut acephalos, et ducis bel aurigæ ſuffragium non habentes, ſive per illum cui præfati regni regimen, licet indebite, diceris commiſiſſe, contra morem ſolitum aliqua fuerint hactenus innobata, ea tamen, utpote per bim et metum, quæ cadere poterant in conſtantem *illicita, nequaquam debent de jure ſubſiſtere, aut in ejuſdem regni præjudicium redundare. Regalem itaque Magnificentiam rogamus et hortamur attente, et obſecramus in eo, qui eſt omnium vera ſalus, quatinus ſolerter attendens, quod ex debito Paſtoralis Officii noſtris humeris incumbentis, ad conſervanda et gubernanda ſollicite bona et jura omnia Eccleſiæ ſupradictæ tenemur, quodque homini plus quam Deo deſerre non poſſumus nec debemus, prædictos Epiſcopos, Clericos, et perſonas Eccleſiaſticas, quos adhuc Carcer Regius tenet incluſos, pro Divinæ et Apoſtolicæ Sedis, ac noſtra reverentia (ſublato difficultatis et dilationis objectu) benigne reſtitui facias priſtinæ libertati, dictoſque Officiales de regno Scotiæ revoces memorato. Si vero in eodem regno Scotiæ, vel aliqua ejus parte jus aliquod habere te aſſeris, volumus, quod tuos Procuratores et Nuncios ad hoc ſpecialiter conſtitutos, cum omnibus juribus et munimentis tuis, hujuſmodi negotium contingentibus, infra ſex menſes a receptione præſentium numerandos, ad noſtram præſentiam mittere non omittas; cum parati ſumus tibi tanquam dilecto filio plene ſuper præmiſſis exhibere juſtitiæ complementum, et Jura, (ſi qua habes) inviolabiliter obſervare. Thus we ſee how over-diligent and officious this Archbiſhop was in executing the Popes imperious Antichriſtian Mandates, in high derogation of his own Kings Crown, Dignity, and Soveraign Dominion over Scotland, which this Pope laid claim to by a falſe pretended antient Right, as a part of St. Peters Patrimony, and the Church of Romes Demeſn.

The King upon the receipt of this Bull from the Pope, delivered to himſelf by the Archbiſhop, (on which I finde this Memorandum endorſed; Memorandum quod Dominus Rex tradidit Domino J. de Langeton Cancellario ſuo apud Northampton. 24 die Decembris, anno regni ſui 29. Bullam quam Archiepiſcopus Cantuarienſis tulit eidem Domino Regi apud Cartanoks in Scotia, cujus tenor Bullæ continetur hic infra;) upon his return into England out of Scotland, ſummoned a Parliament at Lincoln, in Octabis Sancti Hilarii, to adviſe with his Prelates, Nobles and Commons how to defend the Rights of his Crown, againſt this New Papal claim: In the * Writs of Summons to the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots and Priors thereunto, as well as in thoſe to the Earls and Barons, he inſerted this memorable clauſe; Darime cum ipſi ad obſervandum et manutenendum jura Regis et Coronæ noſtræ prædictæ una nobiſcum, juramenti vinculo ſint aſtricti. Moreover he iſſued ſpecial Writs to ſeveral Deans, Archdeacons, and other learned Scholars to appear at Lincoln, to adviſe with the Lawyers and others of his Counſil concerning his antient Right to the Realm of Scotland, penned in this forme.

Upon reading the Popes Bull, there were divers debates among the Kings Counſil and Parliament, how the King ſhould proceed in anſwering the Popes Bull, or whether he ſhould return any anſwer at all thereto; and how he might avoyd the perils and difficulties that might enſue upon his proceedings therein; as this memorable parchment Roll I lately found in the White Tower (then drawen up and preſented to the King and his Counſil) will inform us: containing reaſons pro & contra to 5. Quæres then propounded and debated concerning it; the firſt whereof, with the beginning of the ſecond are torn or eaten off from this remaining part, which I ſhall preſent you with. It ſeems the ſecond Quære then propounded, was; Whether the King ſhould ſend any Meſſengers to the Pope to declare and defend his right to the Realm of Scotland? to which theſe Reaſons pro & contra were propounded and engroſſed in this Roll. The Reaſons againſt it therein remaining, are theſe. In Turre London, An. 29 E. 1.

ITem, Quia (ſic) eſſet Papa Judex in propria cauſa.

Item, Rex Angliæ revocaret in dubium jus et poſſeſſionem ſuam regni Scotiæ, aggrediendo litem.

Item, ammitteret ſecundum formam literæ ſupradictæ approbare reductionem et reſervationem litium, quæſtionum, et controverſiarum ſubjectarum, quæ poſſent imposterum oriri et quacunque cauſa inter Regem et regnum Scotiæ, ad cognitionem et determinationem Sedis Apoſtolicæ, et etiam decretum ſubſequens, per quod decernit

An. 28 E. 1 decernit irritum et inane si secus, &c. per quæ videtur interdicere manum militem in subditos et rebelles regni Scotiæ, et auferre potestatem jurisdictionem, coercionem in eosdem justitiam faciendi, et sua facta et jura regalia annullare.

Item, cum Papa asserit, in libro memoriæ Regis contineri, ipsius regnum Scotiæ ad Romanam Ecclesiam pertinere pleno jure; ac etiam concludit, dictum regnum in bonis seu de bonis Ecclesiæ Romanæ esse; periculosum esset apud Sedem Apostolicam coram Papa litigare; maxime cum Rex contra Papam (qui Papa se asserit judicem et partem) nullum in Curia Romana consilium vel auxilium inveniret. Et periculosum esset ibi Instrumenta et Munimenta deferre, quæ etiam essent valida essent, ea contra se et suam assertionem forsan nullatenus approbaret.

Si verò non mittat Rex Angliæ secundum formam mandati prædicti, deliberandum est cujusmodi possent ex hoc pericula evenire. Tamen videtur quibusdam, quod si illud verbum (volumus, &c.) importat vim denunciationis, tunc erit his effectus, quod Dominus Rex Angliæ prosequatur jus suum infra tempus præfixum; alioquin cedat ab actione, ut, sicut destitutus a possessione, excludatur a jure. Si verò illa verba (volumus, &c.) cadant in vim citationis vel artationis (ut quidam opinantur) tunc creditur posse evenire, ut sic Rege non mittente juxta formam literarum prædictarum, contracta contumacia vel mittetur Ecclesia Romana in possessione regni Scotiæ, vel excluso Rege Angliæ et vendicatione juris regni Scotiæ, per decretum declarabit, regnum Scotiæ ad Romanam Ecclesiam pertinere, vel ad alias pœnas Domino Regi præjudiciales, tam spirituales quam temporales saltem, de facto usurpando jurisdictionem, potest extendere manus suas in personam scilicet vel in rem; præsertim cum Papa offerat eidem Regi plene exhibere justitiæ complementum, et jura si quæ habeat inviolabiliter observare: Unde Rege non mittente, forsan Papa reputaret Regem oblatæ sibi justitiæ et authoritatis sedis Apostolicæ contemptorem, et de observatione etiam jurium suorum similiter oblata * nullo curare.

Circatertium: An sit mittendum ad declinandum judicium, cognitionem, jurisdictionem et forum; vel ad excusandum, quare non mittat secundum formam mandati? Deliberandum est ex quibus causis competentibus Rex possit sic declinare vel excusare, et quæ possent ex hiis pericula evenire. Et videtur quibusdam, quod si Rex declinet Papam, quod non sit Judex suus in temporalibus, quia Papa non debet judicare de Laico feodo, et Papa asserat Regem Angliæ esse Vassallum suum; posset forsan esse periculum, quia Papa reputans eum negasse vassallagium suum, prorumperet in pronunciationes Domino Regi præjudiciales super feudo, quod dicit eum tenere ab Ecclesia, et forte declinationem illam non admitteret, cum asserat regnum Scotiæ ad Romanam Ecclesiam pleno jure pertinere, et sic ipsum regnum sibi subesse in jurisdictione temporali. Et si sic declinaret, quodammodo sibi attribueretur cognitio in dubio, an sua sit jurisdictio, cum unus asserat, et alius neget; nec est verisimile, quod pronunciaret contra assertionem suam vullatam, immo potius pro eadem; et ulterius ad alia deteriora et Regi præjudicialia procederet.

Item, cum Papa reducat ad se omnes quæstiones et lites exortas inter Regem Angliæ et regnum Scotiæ, et quascunque personas de regno eodem; et in præcedentibus literis Apostolicis narretur de injusta incarceratione Episcoporum, Prælatorum et Clericorum Scotiæ, et de destructione Monasteriorum et aliorum locorum Religiosorum regni ejusdem, et aliis excessibus et damnis datis, Rege comparente coram Papa per Procuratores et Nuncios ad hoc specialiter deputatos, sicut in prafatis literis Apostolicis continetur, quilibet in regno Scotiæ (ut videtur) posset contra Regem denunciare prædicta, et accusare eum de eisdem. Et sic haberet necesse omnibus de se conquerentibus respondere in Curia memorata.

Circa quartum: Si vero se excuset, quia jura Coronæ suæ non potest in judicium deducere sine consensu Procerum et Magnatum regni sui; quodammodo videretur eum reputare Judicem suum.

Item, si excuset se, quia Proceres regni sui positi ad rationem, concorditer dicunt se nolle permittere Regem jura Coronæ suæ, ad quorum conservationem et defensionem juramenti vinculo sunt astricti, contra libertates, leges et consuetudines regni Angliæ coram Papa in judicium deducere, nec jus et possessionem suam regni Scotiæ, quæ clara sunt et certa, in judicium deducere, nec in dubium ac scrupulum quæstionis ponere quoquo modo. Et quod ipsi Proceres illud idem ita scribent: Deliberetur an sit expediens; quia timetur, quod Papa reputaret istam excusationem frivolam, et procederet forsitan ad pœnas præjudiciales præscriptas spirituales et temporales, in personam scilicet et rem, supponendo se esse suum judicem competentem. An. 28 E. 1.

Circa quintum verò, videlicet de mittendo informationes correspondentes literis Apostolicis; si hic videatur Consilio expediens, deliberetur de modo mittendi; an per Nuncium cum literis de credentia, qui extrajudicialiter prædictas informationes Papæ seriatim exponat, et de periculis qui possent inde contingere. Et videtur quibusdam periculum esse, quod cum laicum sit mandatum credentiæ et incertum, per interrogationes subtiles et astutas faciendas a Papa, posset Nuncius hujusmodi injuncta sibi excedere, et aliqua præjudicialia forte fateri.

Item, cum Nuncius credentiam plenam habens, quandoque major sit omni procuratore propter generalitatem credentiæ, posset forsan compelli respondere et alia dicere quam sibi erant injuncta, quorum nulla vel difficiles valde foret revocatio in futurum.

Item, sic mittendo Nuncium cum talibus informationibus, jus quod habet in regno Scotiæ contingentibus, videretur parere quodammodo, cum ibi contineatur, quod mittat nuncios cum juribus, &c. et infra certum tempus; Nec protestationes facto contrariæ valerent.

Item, forsan Papa tali Nuncio talia proponenti præfigeret terminum, vel Regi in persona sua, ad ostendendum et probandum jura et allegata coram eo; vel forsan si proposita insufficientia et tanquam probata rejiceret et cassaret, et ulterius ad præjudicialia procederet contra Regem et regnum Scotiæ.

Item, Si mittantur informationes per literas Regias sub Regis sigillo, si videretur expediens, consilio deliberetur de periculis quæ possent accidere. Et timetur, quod Papa informationes hujusmodi et literas tanquam insufficientia documenta et munimenta reputabit; et ob hoc procedens ad alia, pronunciabit aliqua præjudicialia, ut supra. Et cavendum est summopere, ne aliquid obscurum, scrupulosum, dubium, vel præjudiciale, quod possit contra Regem interpretari, in dictis literis inserantur; pro eo quod ipsæ literæ, si mittantur ad Papam, ad perpetuam rei memoriam remanebunt.

Item, sic mittendo et informando, videtur quodammodo parere mandato et voluntati Domini Papæ, et sibi obedire in temporalibus, et ei tribuere facultatem examinandi jura sua in eisdem informationibus sibi missa; et forsan Papa decerneret Regem fore vocandum, ad docendum et ostendendum jura in hujusmodi literis comprehensa et allegata.

Item, Papa intelligens in parte esse sibi paritum et non plene, præcludet Regi viam quoquam ulterius proponendi seu probandi.

Si vero Rex Angliæ nullo modo compareat nec mittat Procuratorem, nec Nuncios, nec informationes extrajudiciales, nec se excuset, nec judicium declinet; tamen quia literæ Apostolicæ non videntur habere vim citationis nec monitionis, nec ipsum Regem artare ad mittendum, prout in ipsis literis continetur; præcipue cum Papa non reputetur Judex in Laico feudo; tamen quia etiam hujusmodi literæ asperæ, insolitæ, et inauditæ, ac juri communi contrariæ videntur continere, (in quo casu etiam, etsi Papa esset Judex competens, videretur secunda jussio expectanda) tunc forsan Papa contra Regem, tanquam contra contumacem et indefensum, ad pronunciationes, præclusiones, et juris Ecclesiæ Romanæ declarationes, et ad alia procederet præjudicialia, prout supra.

This memorable Epiſtle of the Earls, Barons, Great men, and Commons of Eng-land, ſealed with * one hundred of their ſeals, together with the premiſed Epiſtle in the Kings name, unanimouſly agreed and ſent to the Pope in a full and famous Par-liament ſpecially ſummoned upon this occaſion, is 1. A moſt remarkable evidence of the King of Englands antient indubitable Right to, and Soveraign Dominion over the Kingdom and Kings of Scotland in all ages. 2ly. An irrefragable refutation of this Popes pretended Claim, Title to, and Soveraignty over it. 3ly. A pregnant proof of his uſurped Antimonarchical Innovation, in ſummoning the King of Eng-land to declare and defend his Title to it before his Papal Tribunal. 4ly. A magna-nimous reſolute Proteſtation againſt his Antichriſtian claim, judicially to deter-mine the Right or Title of our Kings or other Princes to their Crowns or Temporal Do-minions. 5ly. A clear demonſtration of their admirable prudence in oppoſing this Antichriſtian Popes endeavoured Uſurpations over the Kingdoms, Crowns, Kings of England and Scotland, with ſo much deliberation, reſolution, magnanimity and una-nimity, which they endeavoured with greateſt care to perpetuate to poſterity, as a preſident for all ſucceeding Parliaments and Peers upon the like occaſions.

Item, quando illa via expedire non poterant, propter rationes & cauſas per dictum Angliæ Regem & Conſiliarios ejus ordinatas, & coram dicto Papa per dicti Angliæ Regis Procuratores propoſitas, inſtabant pro cognitione via ordinarii proceſſus in dicta Romana Curia habenda contra Regem Angliæ prædictum, ſuper hujuſmodi juribus terræ Scotiæ, et cæteris omnibus attemptatis ſuprædictis. Et hoc fieri petebant virtute Superioritatis et directi dominii, quæ ſuggerebant dicto Papæ ad Eccleſiam Romanam pertinere in temporalibus regni Scotiæ prædictæ, prout in Bulla dicti Papæ prædicto Regi Angliæ inde directa, plenius continetur.

Item, quando illa via expedire non poterant, propter rationes et cauſas contentas in literis per Comites et Barones, et alios Nobiles regni Angliæ dicto Papæ directis, reſpondendo pro dicto Rege Angliæ ad defenſionem juris Regii et Coronæ prædictæ, ad quædam ex contentis in Bulla ſuprædicta, inſtabant pro cognitione habenda loco quo ſuper via proceſſus ordinarii ſuper homicidiis, et Eccleſiarum et domorum Religioſarum incendiis, et omnibus dampnis datis per dictum Regem Angliæ et ſuos Epiſcopis, et aliis perſonis Eccleſiaſticis terræ Scotiæ prædictæ. Et hoc fieri petebant virtute Superioritatis quam dictus Papa habuit in perſonis Eccleſiaſticis et rebus Spiritualibus terræ Scotiæ prædictæ: Et alibi ſuper omnibus guerris in terris quibuſcunque, inter Regem Angliæ et ſuos ſubditos, confederatos et adjutores ex una parte, et alios quoſcunque Chriſtianos ex altera inchoatis, ad deſtructionem ſanguinis Chriſtiani, et ſuccurſus Terræ Sanctæ impedimentum, prout in ſupplicationibus, denunciationibus, accuſationibus, et querelis dicto Papæ factis et delatis ex parte dicti Franciæ Regis, et gentium terræ Scotiæ prædictæ, contra dictum Regem Angliæ et ſuos, ab anno gratiæ 1297. finiente, uſque ad menſem Decembris anno 1302. plenius apparet.

Fines ad quos proceſſum erat per tres vias prædictas.

In eodem Rotulo. Infraſcripti ſunt fines ad quos dictus Franciæ Rex, & gentes terræ Scotiæ prædictæ, inſtabant erga dictum Papam pro cognitione habenda in Curia Romana ſuper premiſſis, et pro ſententia ſeu arbitrio ferend. et executioni cenſura Eccleſiaſtica demandand.

INprimis, ad compellendum dictum Regem Angliæ ad ſuperſedendum in guerra ſua contra inimicos ſuos inchoata.

Item, non ſolum ad annullandum omnes hujuſmodi proceſſus factos per dictum Regem Angliæ et Curiam ſuam, ad declarandum Superioritatem immediatam quam idem Avus habuit et habere debuit ratione forisfacturæ Domini Johannis de Balliolo quondam Regis Scotiæ, propter confederationem initam inter ipſum Regem Scotiæ ex una parte, et P. Francorum Regem tunc inimicum Regis Angliæ ex altera; una cum ceteris forisfacturæ cauſis alias plenius exprimendis; ſed etiam ad annullandum omnes proceſſus per dictum Regem Angliæ factos ad declarandum et ſuperius dominium, quod ipſe Rex Angliæ et ejus anteceſſores Angliæ Reges jure hæreditario habuerunt in terra Scotiæ prædicta.

Item, ad roborandam confederationem quondam initam inter ipſum Francorum Regem ex una parte, et dictum Dominum Johannem de Balliolo, ac Prælatos et Nobiles, et Univerſitates et Communitates Civitatum et Villarum dicti regni Scotiæ, pro ipſis et eorum hæredibus et ſucceſſoribus ex altera. Et etiam ad includendum dictum Dominum Johannem et cæteros omnes terræ Scotiæ prædictos in treugis inter dictos Angliæ et Franciæ Reges initis pro ipſis et eorum hæredibus, ſubditis, et confœderatis ad fines infraſcriptos.

Item

Item, ad ſuſtinendum Prælatos et Nobiles, ac alios ſupradictos dictæ terræ Scotiæ in libertate in ſecretis tractatibus eis promiſſa. An. 29 E. I.

Item, ad adquirendum dictis Prælatis et Nobilibus ac cæteris omnibus incolis dicti regni Scotiæ, damna paſſis per Angliæ Regem et ſuos durantibus treugis ſupradictis, et eidem Francorum Regi hujuſmodi damna paſſorum nomine, Actionem contra Regem Angliæ et ſuos, ad æſtimationem damnorum prædictorum.

Item, ad adquirendum eidem Francorum Regi et ſubditis ſuis et confœderatis, bias et coleres intrandi regnum Angliæ, ac cæteras terras Domino Regi Angliæ ſubjectas, et ad complendum quaſdam ordinationes factas contra nationem Anglicanam, ad finem univerſalis exhæredationis et diſtructionis dicti Regis Angliæ et nationis Anglicanæ prædictæ, per Excommunicationis et Interdicti ſententias, et per Cruceſignationem, et invocationem brachii ſecularis. Quas quidem ordinationes et confœderationes dictus Abus et ejus Conſiliarii magis timere ſolebant inter cætera omnia pericula nationi Angliæ imminentia, et contra quas magis laborabant remedia adhibere, ordinando, proſequendo et ad finem contrarium judicialiter et extrajudicialiter operando a tempore quo ipſis conſtabat de effectu finali præditionis, propter quam T. de Turbervill. erat ſuſpenſus, prout in dictis proceſſibus & aliis, ac Procuratorum & Nunciorum ipſius Avi credentiis & Summis Pontificibus & Franciæ Regi expoſitis, & in aliis tractatibus literis & memorandis, & Nobilium regni Angliæ reſponſionibus ſuper hiis factis plenius continetur. (Of which I found ſundry Records and Memorials in the White Tower Chappel.)

Supraſcripta oſtenduntur ad præſens ad finem, quod conſideratis literis Apoſtolicis et literis Francorum Regis dicto Domino noſtro nuper directis, et articulis credentiarum Nunciorum eorundem dicto Domino noſtro expoſitis, ſi apparerat quod hujuſmodi articuli tendant ad aliquem finem ex ſupraſcriptis, vel ad aliquem alium ſimilem in effectu, idem Dominus noſter et ejus Conſiliarii uti valeant defenſionibus juris et facti, per Abum ſuum et ejus Conſiliarios quondam ordinatis et obſervatis, contra pericula imminentia ipſis et Nationi Anglicanæ in præmiſſis, quouſque defenſiones meliores inveniantur.

Item, ad finem quod Nobiles regni Angliæ, et Procuratores Communitatis Subditorum regni prædicti, admittantur per ipſum Dominum Regem ad hujuſmodi defenſiones proponend. prout eorum anteceſſores ab Avo dicti Domini noſtri erant admiſſi. Et quod Conſiliarii et Nuncii ipſius Domini noſtri conſilio et auxilio eis diligenter aſſiſtant, ſub forma tempore Avi ſui prædicti obſervata.

Item, ad quædam alia facienda et ipſorum nomina proponenda et proſequenda, quæ et certis cauſis alias ſunt ſecretius exprimenda.

I likewiſe found two other Records in the White Tower Chappel, relating to and ſeconding the premiſes, in nature of a Popular Petition to the Kings Chancellor, thus relating all the proceedings in this affair.

Cancellario Domini noſtri Regis;

Iſta Petitio eſt popularis, facta ad proſecutionem quorundam Nautarum dampna paſſarum per inimicos nationis Angliæ.

QUia pro certis cauſis contentis in Rotulo ſignato per B. & ex aliis cauſis de quibus apparet in Rotulo de defenſionibus et remediis contra tres vias procedendi ſignatos per B. videbatur Avo Domini noſtri et ejus Conſiliariis, quod dampnoſum et periculoſum eſſe poterit Epiſcopis et aliis perſonis Eccleſiaſticis proponere aliqua tendentia ad declinand. cognitionem Domini Bonifacii quondam Papæ 8. inchoatam ad inſtantiam Franc. Regis & confœderatorum ſuorum terræ Scotiæ, & aliunde ſervire Coronæ Angliæ in contingentibus terram Scotiæ prædictæ, virtute compromiſſi in ipſum Papam ſanciti per Procuratores Regum prædictorum; Et ſpecialiter aliqua tendentia ad juſtificand. guerram dicti Regis Angliæ contra gentes terræ Scotiæ prædictæ, & ad continuand. guerram ſupradictam, Dominus Robertus de Burgherſech conſtitutus erat Procurator. dicti Regis Angliæ ad proponend. Articulum contentum in Cedula præſentibus annexo, & alios articulos, tendentes non ſolum ad juſtificand. guerram prædictam, et etiam ad ipſam confirmand. contra rebelles ſuos in terra Scotiæ ſupradictæ, et ad retinend. dictam terram Scotiæ perpetuo

In Turre London, relating to An. 29, 30, &c. E. 1.

An. 29 E.1. tuo et immediate annexam Coronæ Angliæ, et patrimonio Regum Angliæ incorporatum, ita quod nunquam poni poterat extra manus Regum Angliæ prædictorum, nec a dicta Corona segregari.

Item, quia postquam ad instantiam Procuratorum dicti Regis Franciæ & confœderatorum suorum terræ Scotiæ prædictæ, dicta Papæ suggerentium, non solum superioritatem terræ Scotiæ in spiritualibus dictæ terræ set etiam in temporalibus ad Ecclesiam Romanam pertinere, processus per dictum Papam contra dictum Regem Angliæ erat inchoat. ad finem ipsum compellendi per excommunicationis et interdicti sententias ad supersedend. in guerra sua contra Scotos prædictos, necnon ad annullandum omnia judicia per Curiam Angliæ lata contra dictos Scotos super corporum et bonorum forisfactura, sed etiam ad restituend. dictis Scotis omnes eorum terras per ipsum Regem Angliæ et suos, tam tempore guerræ, quam treugarum occupatas, et ad satisfaciend. eis de omnibus dampnis eis datis tempore treugarum prædictarum, necnon ad privand. ipsum Regem Angliæ omnimoda superioritate quam habuit in terræ Scotiæ, et ad alios fines contentos in dicto Rotulo signato per B. Videbatur dicto Regi Angliæ et ejus Consiliariis, quod dampnosum et periculosum esse poterit non solum Episcopis et cæteris personis Ecclesiasticis regni Angliæ, † onus defensionis. set etiam sibi assumere. Unde per ordinationem Consilii in Parliamento Lincoln. Anno Gratiæ Millesimo Trecentissimo, omnes Comites et Barones, et cæteri Nobiles dicti Regi Angliæ ibidem præsentes, ipsorum nomine et totius Communitatis regni prædicti dictum onus assumpserunt, ut apparet per eorum literas dicto Papæ directas sub sigillo eorundem, et contentas in dicto Rotulo signato per B.

Item, quia Anno Gratiæ 1301. quandò Franc. Rex & ejus confœderati tantum confidebant de solitis singularitate & dissensione, & aliis Consuetudinibus quarundam gentium nationis Anglicanæ, et aliarum terrarum Coronæ Angliæ annexarum, et specialiter de assensu seu conniventia quarundam personarum aliàs secretius nominandarum, quod noluerunt consentire ulteriori prorogationi treugarum inter ipsos et Regem Angliæ prædictum, nisi dicti Scoti includerentur in dictis treugis, tanquam Francorum Regis confœderati, & Comites & cæteri dicti Regis Angliæ confederati de terris Flandr. Barr. & Burgund. exciperentur a Treugis supradictis, prout per literas * Francorum Regis super hiis treugis factas, Anno 1302. & nunciorum & procuratorum dicti Regis Angliæ tractatus & excusationes plenius apparet.

* Here, p 875, 876.

Item, Quia Episcopi & alii solempnes nuncii & procuratores dicti Regis Angliæ per quos & alii ipsius Consiliarii, de quorum Consilio & ordinatione compromissum fuit in Papam Bonifacium 8. super guerris & discordiis, &c. duæ primæ viæ tractandi et procedendi coram dicto Papa & aliis ad pacem reformand. inter dictos Angliæ & Franc. Reges et eorum subditos quondam ordinatæ fuerunt, & per septennium et amplius continuatæ, et informationes factæ dicto Papæ & Cardinalibus, & aliis Domini Papæ nunciis super hujusmodi guerrarum materia, et super hiis petita erant remedia primis duabus viis supradictis, in tantum reprehensi fuerunt non solum per dictum Papam, set etiam per homines Nationis Angliæ, et specialiter per quosdam conquerentes de dampnis & gravaminibus eis datis durantibus treugis, tractatibus, et processibus morosis supradictis, non solum in laboribus et expensis, set etiam onerosis et Custumarum impositionibus insolitis.

Item, dicti Episcopi & cæteri prædicti tantum timebant hujusmodi conquerentium comminaciones et guerras, resistentias & rebelliones quæ ex præmissis potuerunt in Angliam more solito provenire; et quia duæ primæ viæ prædictæ adeo erat desperatæ, ad tollendam principalem materiam guerrarum Scotorum & aliorum inimicorum Nationis Anglicanæ, seu impossibiles videbantur omnibus notitiam habentibus materiæ supradictæ, et conditionum personarum præstancium dictis inimicis auxilium & favorem contra rationem prædictam, & contra incolas terrarum Coronæ Angliæ annexarum dictæ Nationi adhærentes, & eorum confœderatos, adjutores & amicos. Et quod via denunciationis vel querelæ ratione peccati procedere oporteret, contra inimicos prædictos. Et quod hujusmodi via denunciationis vel querelæ tantum erat odiosa in Curia Romana et alibi, et periculosa esset personis Ecclesiasticis, et Comitibus et aliis Nobilibus regni Angliæ pro remediis necessariis impetrandis contra dictos inimicos prosequentibus, quod nullus ipsorum audebat onera officii Procur. et Nuncii assumere in præmissis; (Whereupon) Procuratores res Nautarum Portuum regni Angliæ, et aliarum terrarum & Inſularum Coronæ Angliæ annexarum, aſſumpſerunt de ordinatione dicti Regis Angliæ et ejus Conſilii, onus defenſionis Jurium Coronæ Angliæ in præmiſſis contra dictæ Nationis Angliæ inimicos, et eorum adjutores et confœderatos, via denunciationis et querelæ, coram quibuſdam Cardinalibus per Dominum Papam Bonifaciam aſſignatis hujuſmodi guerrarum materiam in ſcriptis proponendo, et dictis inimicis prædictam materiam imponendo, unà cum paſſagii tranſmarini impedimentis, & aliis dampnis quampluribus dicto Regi Angliæ & ſuis per dictos inimicos præſtitis & illatis per 17 Annos & amplius, contra protectionem Sedis Apoſtolicæ ipſi Regi Angliæ et ſuis ratione cruceſignationis conceſſam, et in dictæ Sedis contemptum, et totius Chriſtianitatis præjudicium. Ac dictus Dominus Papa ad hujuſmodi Procuratorum inſtantiam, contra dictum Francorum Regem et ſuos ſuper propoſitis contra ipſos inimicos, ratione peccati inchoavit proceſſum Menſe Decembris, Anno 1302. Cujus virtute, dictus Rex Franc. excommunicatus erat, et regnum ſuum interdictum, ante diem Sancti Johannis Baptiſtæ proximo ſequentem. Et eodem die appellatum erat per dictum Franc. Regem et Prælatos et Nobiles regni ſui prædicti ad hujuſmodi Excommunicationis et Interdicti ſententiis ad Generale Concilium, ad præſentationem Domini Willielmi de Neugaretto et aliorum denunciantium Crimen Hæreſis et alia crimina contra Papam prædictum; de fine vero dicti proceſſus nichil dicendum eſt ad præſens ex cauſa. An. 29 E. 1.

Item, dicti Nautæ à tempore mortis dicti Papæ Bonifacii extra adeò ſingulares fuerunt, negligentes & remiſſi ad proſequend. coram Summis Pontificibus via denunciationis & querelæ, ad finem reſumendi & continuandi proceſſum ſupradictum, vel inchoandi ſimilem in effectu contra dictæ Nationis Anglicanæ inimicos, et eorum hæredes, confederatos & adjutores, quod ex hujuſmodi eorum ſingularitate & negligentia, dictæ Nationis inimici audaciam ſumentes inſurgendi, & tam in terra quam in mare guerras movendi contra gentes Nationis prædictæ, et incolas terratum, Inſularum Coronæ Angliæ annexarum, ex quibus mala infinita pervenerunt, tâm in perſonis quàm in bonis Gentium prædictarum, et adhuc provenire non ceſſant.

Placeat Paternitati veſtræ reverendæ, inſtare erga Dominum noſtrum Regem & ejus Conſilium, quod mandetur dictis Nautis, quod conſtituant Procuratores ſufficientes ad proſequendum coram Summo Pontifice & ejus Nunciis in Anglia tunc præſentibus ante ipſorum receſſum, vel ſaltem unius eorundem, ad finem reſumptionis & continuationis proceſſus ſupradicti, & ad alios fines per dicti Domini noſtri Conſilium ordinand. & ſpecialiter ad duos fines vel tres alias ſecretius exprimendos ex cauſa.

I ſhall conclude this Hiſtory, with * Polydor Virgils Narrative. Bonifacius Pontifex à Scotis precibus fatigatus, et ſubiratus, quod Edwardo Balliolo filio Johannis non eſſent reſtitutæ poſſeſſiones, quas ille in Angliæ habebat, interdixit Edwardo Regi, ne amplius poſt hæc Scotos bello vexaret, quod id regnum antea in Romani Pontificis fidem et poteſtatem a Scotis ipſis permiſſum fuiſſet, et ideo aſſerebat, ſibi ſoli integrum eſſe cuicunque liberet dare auferreve: Edwardus accepto Pontificis reſcripto, habuit primo quoque tempore Principum Concilium, de eaque re maturè conſuluit: poſtea, tam per literas quam per Nuncios Pontificem docuit, jus prioritatis terræ Scotiæ ad ſe pertinere, ſecumq; facere, et propterea non paſſurũ ſe eo perperam privari. His cognitis Bonifacius ſtatim refrixit, ut ſcil. ſi pertinacius contenderet, ne inhoneſte cauſa caderet. Per Regem & Conſilium.

From which Writ, as we may obſerve the exceſſive malice, vexation and impiety of the Archbiſhop, in excommunicating ſo many Rectors and Vicars of Pariſh Churches at once, upon the premiſed ſuits and conteſt between him and the Abbot and Monks of Canterbury, whereby the people of thoſe places were long deprived of the ſpiritual food of their ſouls; ſo we may well inferre:

1. That it is the Kings Prerogative, Office, duty to examine, redreſſe and rectifie ſuch vexations, abuſes, and Excommunications of Rectors, Vicars, and other his Subjects,

Subjects, even by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury himſelf, much more by other Biſhops or their inferior Officers. An. 29 E. 1.

2ly. That ſuch extravagant abuſes and Excommunications are thought fit and worthy examination and redreſſe even in Parliament in that age.

3ly. That the King by his Prerogative might enlarge perſons taken upon a Capiat Excommunicatum out of Priſon upon ſecurity, without any Oath, and ſuperſedeat his Writs of Excommunication againſt others, not actually taken and impriſoned, till their cauſes were heard and determined by him in his Parliament, and that by the reſolution of the King and his Counſil in Parliament, by whoſe order this Writ iſſued forth.

This year there fell out this memorable caſe in Law touching the Kings prerogative, contained in the enſuing Writ. The King preſenting his Clerk to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury to admit him to a Benefice accruing to him by reaſon of a Wardſhip, the Archbiſhop refuſing to admit him becauſe he was under age, being contrary to the Canonons, he thereupon committed the Church to one of the Kings Chaplains till he ſhould be of age: The Archbiſhop dying, his ſucceſſor finding no perſon inducted therein, and ſo holding it voyd, admitted the Cletk of the right patron preſented to it, contrary to the Kings prerogative, *againſt whom no time nor lapſe incurrs; who thereupon commanded him to admit his firſt preſented Clerk (now of age) thereto, by this Writ. * See here, p. 331.

The like Writ iſſued to them upon a Petition of the Abbot of Peterburge in the ſame Parliament, who was bound, and ſecured by the Kings Counterbond for 500 l. more of that money which he had paid to the Popes agents, Clauſ. 29 E 1. m. 3. to omit all others.

Thus the money pretended and collected for the Holy Land after the King had made uſe of it for divers years, was exacted and purſed up by this avaritious Pope at laſt, and never employed for its pretended end. An impious Papal fraud.

The Popes Italian Agent appointed by him to demand and receive Ten thouſand markes of the money long before granted for relief of the Holy Land, which the King borrowed from the Popes Collectors upon the bonds of theſe Abbots, his ſureties, to repay it within 2. Moneths upon the Popes demand, whom the King was bound to ſave harmleſſe by his Counterbonds to them, exacting one mark in every hundred Marks for his expenſes, or elſe refuſing to give up their bonds till paid. The King upon complaint thereof iſſued this memorable Writ to him, prohibiting this his extortion, and commanding him to deliver up their bonds, the debt being his, upon payment only of the principal moneys; elſe he would take ſome other courſe for their relief againſt him.

Eccleſia utile in parte dextera exercendum, per quod & diabolus vincitur, & eidem Chriſto copia animarum adducitur. Certè ſic labor ſiniſtræ partis navigii non ſe habet: quia in eo fides titubat, dominatur triſtitia, cum quod inquirendo appetitur, minime inuenitur. Quis enim credat, ſimul et ſemel poſſe ſervire Mammonæ atque Deo? ac ſuæ voluntati placere, et carnis ac ſanguininis revelationibus inhærere, et offerre Chriſto munera digna? Et dubio procul Paſtor qui ſupra gregis ædificationem non vigilat, aliunde rugienti leoni, quærenti quem devoret, parat viam. Vide (inquam) facta inaudita nuncupativi filia Patris tui, qui bonos Paſtores a caulis obtum amovet, et ſuos nepotes, conſanguineos et parentes, alioſque nonnullos, literas ignorantes, et velut mutos et ſurdos, obium earumdem non intelligentes balatum, nec ne morſibus luporum curantes, velut mercenarios vellera auferentes, et metentes ſemina † oliorum in ipſis, non ut proſint, ſed ut præſint, conſtituit pro eiſdem, quorumque manus in copbinis ſervient, et ipſorum dorſa ab oneribus diberruntur. Ex quibus, liquet, quod Sacerdotium præterimittitur bis diebus, obſequium dibinum ſubtrahitur, et eleemoſinarum largitio adnullatur; per quod Regum, Principum et Chriſtianorum ſancta devotio evacuatur. Nonne debet in oculis omnium mirabile reputari, quod ubi * Chriſtus pro ſe & Petro Regibus ſolvi juſſit tributum, ipſe regna et regnorum Principes contra voluntatem illius, cujus dicit ſe eſſe Vicarium, qui ab ſe regna et mundi judicia abdicavit, ſuæ ſubjicere nititur ditioni, dominio ſui ſtyli, quia totum ſibi vendicat quod ſcripſerat eſſe ſuum? De te, filia, quid plus agit? Ecce a te trahit quod libet, nec tamen reputat ſe contentum, ſi partem rerum tuarum decimam a te ſumat, niſi primos fructus beneficiorum tuorum habeat miniſtrorum, ut tam pro ſe quam pro ſuo ſanguine novum conſtituatur patrimonium, de eiſdem abjectis piiſſimis voluntatibus fundatorum: et alia etiam execrabilia pro curſorum ſuorum ſtipendiis, quos tranſmittit in Angliam jam imponit, qui non tantum tuum ac tuorum victum auferat et veſturas, ſed eorum pelles ac carnes lacerant, ſicut canes. Nunquid Nebuchodonoſor Regi debeat comparari, qui templum Domini devaſtavit, & vaſis ſuis argenteis ſpoliavit? quod egerat enim ille, agit et iſte; et ille Domus Dei ſpoliavit Miniſtros, et ipſam deſtituebat auxilio: hæc et hic facit. Certe melius eſt occiſis gladio, quam fame aliqualiter interfectis; quia illi ſunt mortui ſtatim, et iſti ſunt a terræ ſterilitate conſumpti. Compatiantur tibi filia omnes tranſeuntes per viam, quia non eſt dolor ſimilis ſicut tuus: jam enim præ dolore nimio atque effuſione tua nimia lachrymarum ſuper carbones, ô facies tua denigrata ita, quod non eſt cognita amplius in plateis, in tenebroſis ſe tuus præſatus ſuperior collocavit, inebriabit te abſinthio et felle: afflictionem populi tui, ejuſque gemitum audi; vide domine et deſcende; quia cor dicti viri ſuper cor Pharaonis eſt nimium induratum, quem populum abire liberum non dimittit, niſi in fortitudine manus ſuæ, non enim ſuper terram flagitat miſerabiliter, ſed poſt mortem: quia quorumcunque Chriſtianorum bona ſub nomina tituli de Inteſtatis conſtituunt omnia, poſt deceſſum omnia deborat. Etenim Eccleſia Anglicana, qualiter retroactis temporibus Franciæ in regnum Angliæ ſuos concupiſcentiæ oculos dirigentes, machinabantur illud ſuæ ſubjicere poteſtati: ſed quod in ipſis hactenus deſuit, eſt timendum, ne ſuppleat prædicti viri nova conjecturatio nobi hoſtis: quia regni deficiente Theſauro, et ejus deſtructo ſacerdotio, efficietur bere regnum impotentius contra hoſtes. Ne igitur tu (filia) tuique Sacerdotes in miſeriam deducamini longiorem, expedit ut pro tua et vorum ſalute, quod Rex tuus Chriſtianiſſimus et regni Potentes, qui ampliſſimis beneficiis te ornaverunt, quique vos et beneficia hujuſmodi haberent in hoc caſu tueri, reſiſtant conjecturationibus, conſpirationibus arrogantiæ ac ſuperbiæ dicti viri, qui non Dei contemplatione, ſed pro præmiſſis, et pro ſuis ditando parentibus, ac pro nido ſuo, quaſi Aquilam exaltando per præmiſſa et alia impoſita per eundem, totalem pecuniam Anglicanam nobi dominii genere jam compellit, ne diſſimulata in hac parte ſimplicitas (in) regni hujus ſubverſionem auferat, velut ſuum, et adhibeatur ſero remedii tunc cautela. An. 30 E. 1. The Biſhoprick of Ely becoming void by the death of Ralph Walpool, tranſlated from Norwich thither by Pope Boniface his proviſion, the Monks of Ely by the Kings licenſe unanimouſly elected * Robert Orford their Prior, to whom the King giving his Royal aſſent, the Archbiſhop of Canterbury deferred his confirmation, for which he appealed to Rome, and before his appeal could be tendred to him he nulled his election, whereupon he appealed the ſecond time againſt him to the Pope; into whoſe hands he reſigning his right, he thereupon conferred the Biſhoprick on him by his proviſion, deſiring the King to reſtore his Temporalties by this Bull, the original whereof I found in the White Tower Chapple, reciting the whole proceedings.

* Nota.

This uſurping Pope, as he perſwaded or enforced by threats or long delayes this Biſhop and others whoſe Elections were queſtioned or oppoſed, though never ſo canonical and legal, to reſign their Elections into his hands, that ſo he might conferre the Biſhopricks on them by his own Papal Proviſions; ſo he likewiſe inſerted this new clauſe into his Proviſions, whereby he committed the Temporalties as well as the Spiritualties, Curam ſibi & adminiſtrationem ipſius Eccleſiæ in Spiritualibus & Temporalibus committimus, in derogation of the Kings Prerogative; who thereupon refuſed to reſtore their Temporalties till they * publickly renounced this clauſe, as prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Dignity.

He likewiſe ſent another Bull to the King, the date whereof is torn out, to certifie him of his confirmation of the election of Johannes de Marines, to another exempt Abby of the Order of St. Benedict within the Dioceſſe of Lincoln, the Original whereof (ſomewhat torn and mutilated) I found in the White Tower, and ſhall not inſert at large, ſince it runs almoſt in the ſame words, with that for the Abbot of St. Edmunds, differing only in the Electors and elected perſons Names, and other petty circumſtances, and praying his reſtitution of the Temporalties. An. 30 E. 1.

Pope Boniface the 8. out of a pretence to gratifie and ſupply the King in his neceſſities, for his extraordinary piety and affection toward the Church of Rome, granted him the moiety of the 3. years Diſms of all the Poſſeſſions and Livings of the Church and Clergy within England and Ireland he had * formerly impoſed on them; reſerving (like a cheating Roman Pontiff) the other moiety of it to himſelf, appointing the Treaſurers that ſhould receive and keep it, to gain the Kings royal aſſent thereto, without which he could not levy it, which he eaſily conſented to, publiſhing it to all his Subjects by theſe Letters Patents, to make it a foundation of credit to ſatisfie his Creditors by aſſignments thereof. * Here, p. 889.

By these Letters of the King we may discern; 1. The restlesse importunity of avaritious Roman Popes, Cardinals, and their Nephews, to usurp upon the rights of the Crown by appropriations, provisions of Prebendaries, Churches, to gain Church-preferments in England, to the prejudice of the King, kingdom, and peoples souls. 2ly. The Kings prudence in opposing, and putting them off with reiterated answers and excuses, or proffering them other compensations to prevent their designes, and stop their importunities.

From which memorable Caſe, and Judgement in full Parliament (the firſt I finde given upon the Statute of Weſtm. 2. c. 34. Anno 13 E. 1.) after long deliberation and debate, and the proceedings in it, I ſhall obſerve; 1. That the King and Parliament themſelves preſcribed and inflicted this penalty on Adulterous Wives, departing from their Husbands and living with others in adultery, that they ſhould loſe their Dowers unleſs they were reconciled to their Husbands, and returned to them before their deaths. 2ly. That the Biſhops and Eccleſiaſtical Courts being apt to favour Adultereſſes, and to enforce their Husbands by Eccleſiaſtical cenſures to receive and cohabit with them, notwithſtanding their adulteries with them and others, the King, Lords and Commons in Parliament ſpecially provided, that this

An. 30 E. 1. forced reconciliation ſhould not enable them to demand or receive Dowers out of their Husbands Freeholds. 3ly. That Certificates and Letters of Purgations made by ſuch Adultereſſes before the Biſhops, (which were uſually partial in the Adultereſſes behalf) were never admitted or allowed as evidences in the Parliament or Kings Courts, to acquit them from their adultery and forfeiture of their Dowers by vertue of this Act. 4ly. That where any matter of fact, crime or elopement appears evidently to the Court by the parties own plea, evidence, confeſſion, or ſhewing, it ſhall not be referred to a Tryal by Jury, or any others Certificate. 5ly. That the Husbands deed, grant and conſent to his Wives elopement and cohabitation in adultery with another, doth no way juſtifie her elopement or adultery, nor enable her to claim her Dower, againſt the proviſion of this Act. 6ly. That though our Biſhops and Eccleſiaſtical Courts then claimed and exerciſed Juriſdiction in cauſes of Matrimony and Adultery in ſome caſes, by the grant or connivance of the King or Parliaments, yet they would no wayes admit thereof in caſes of elopement, in reference to the recovery or forfeiture of Dowers, referred wholly to the Kings Temporal Courts, Judges, and High Court of Parliament: Nor of Biſhops voluntary Certificates, but where the King and his Courts commanded them to certifie by ſpecial Writs.

I shall conclude this Year and Chapter, with the memorable high publike contests which happened between King Philip of France, and Pope Boniface the 8. evidencing his Antichristian usurpations, arrogance, pride, insolency, treachery, tyranny, both by his Speeches, Letters, Nuncioes, actions, censures; thus briefly expressed by Matthew Westminster our Monkish Historian, [a] Hoc Anno (1301) orta est dissentionis materia inter Papam et Regem Franciæ, utroque confidente de sua potentia magna; ità ut Dominus Papa diceret Nuncio Regis Francorum, Petro de Flote; Nos habemus utrumque potestatem. Et ille pro Domino suo respondit; Utique Domine; Sed vestra est verbalis, nostra realis. Et in tantum exarduit ira Domini Papæ, ut diceret, movere se velle contra eum cœlum et terram. What the real cause of this deadly feud between them was, and how violently prosecuted by both parties, Walsingham, and other Historians thus relate; [b] Hoc tempore, &c. (Anno 1302) Apamensis Episcopus de conspiratione contra Regem Franciæ accusatus, et ad Regis vocatus Curiam, in custodia detinetur. Mense verò Februario ad mandatum Domini Papæ liberatus, jubetur, una cum Nuncio Domini Papæ regnum evacuare infra certum terminum a Rege præfixum. Papa talibus nobis exasperatus (who would suffer no trayterous Bishop or Nuncio to be imprisoned or banished by his Soveraign for Treason or conspiracies against him) omnes gratias a se vel suis prædecessoribus concessas Francorum Regibus revocavit, et in eundem Regem cito post Excommunicationis sententiam fulminavit. Quam tamen Regi nemo ausus est nunciare, vel in regno Franciæ publicare. Fecit etiam citari Prælatos omnes de regno Franciæ, necnon et omnes Magistros in Theologia et in Jure, tam Canonico, quam Civili, ut coram eo Romæ in Calendis Novembris comparerent. Rex vero Franciæ publico prohibuit edicto, Ne quis aurum vel argentum, seu merces quascunque asportarent de regno suo, sub fortisfactione omnium bonorum, adjuncta nihilominus pœna gravi: fecit etiam exitus et introitus utrique diligentissime custodiri: to hinder all exportation of gold, silver, other Commodities or Letters to the Pope and Court of Rome, or import any Bulls of Excommunication or Interdict from thence. Platina*, the Century Writers, John de Serres, and others story, That Pope Boniface sent Stephen Bishop of Apamiers in the County of Foix, within the Archbishoprick of Tholouse, (where he erected this new Bishoprick, and made Stephen Bishop thereof without the King of France his privity or consent) as his Nuncio to Philip King of France, (then involved in wars with the Flemings, who had newly given him a great overthrow) with a Bull, whereby he not only exhorted, but commanded him proudly and imperiously to succour the Tartar and Christians in the Holy Land, under pain of Excommunication: This Bishop coming to Philip with the Popes Bull, the King mildly represented to him the greatness and state of his affairs at home, which disabled him to obey the Popes commands; whereupon the Bishop with a bold face, cum adhortando nihil efficeret, minas addidit, threatning, That if the King would not obey the Pope, he would deprive him of his Realm. The subject, the manner, and the person (thus advanced against his will) did so move and

The Nobles of France likewiſe ſent this following Epiſtle to all the Colledge of Cardinals.

Lettre envoyie par tous les Barons de Royaume de France au College des Cardinaux, quant le Roy appella contre Boniface Pape.

Pierre de Pithou Preuves des Libertez de l'Egliſe Gallicane, c. 7. ſect. 15. p. 240, 241.

A Honorables peres lors chiers & anciens amis, tout le Colliege, & a chacun des Cardinaux de la Saincte Egliſe de Rome, li Duc, li Comte, li Baron, & li Noble, tuit du Roialme de France, ſalut, & continuel encreiſſement de charite, d'amour, & de toutes bonnes adventures a leur deſir. Seignours, vous eſpeciaulement ſcavez & chacun qui a ſain entendement, comment l'Egliſe de Rome, & li Royaume de France, li Rois, li Baron, li Clergie, & li peuples d'iceluy Royaume, ont d'ancienneté & continuellement de conſtume eſté conioints enſemble par ferme & uraye amour, & charite, & les grans miſeres, les peins, & les travaux que nos anteceſſours, & li pluſeours de nous & des noſtres, ont ſouffert, ſouffrent & ſouffreront tous jours en l'honneur de celuy qui pour nous ſouffrit paſſion & mort, pour ſouſtenir & eſſaucier la loy, & la foy Chreſtienne, & Sainte Egliſe, pour laquelle pluſieurs d'eux ont maintes fois ſouffert moult de griefues peines & travaux, & eſtes pris & naures a mort, & les grans cures que la divine Egliſe a miſes pour le bon eſtat du Royaume. Et pour ce que trop griefue choſe ſeroit a nous, ſe celle uraye unite qui ſi longuement a dure entre nous, ſe demenuiſoit & defailloit maintenant par la male voulente & par lennemitie longuement nourrie ſoubs l'ombre de amitie, & par les torcionnieres & deſrenables entrepriſes de celuy, qui en preſent eſt ou ſiege du gouvernement de l'Egliſe, nous vous certifions par la tenour de ces lettres aucunes mauvaiſes & outrageuſes nouvelletez, que il a de nouvel entrepriſes a faire a noſtre treſchier & redoute Seignour Phelippe par la grace de Dieu Roy de France, & a tout le Royaume; les quelles noſtre Sire li Roy fit expoſer entendiblement par devant nous, & tous les Prelats, les Abbez, & les Priours, les Doyens, les Provoſts, les Procureurs des Chapitres, & des Convents, des Colleges, des Univerſitez, & des Comunautes des Villes de ſon Royaume, preſens devant luy, pur les quiells ſe ils par ſa deſordenee volente eſtoient pourſuivies, l'unitez & l'amitie devant dites, ſe deferoient & deſioinderoient entre la dite Egliſe, & le Roy, & le Royaume, & nous; car nous, ne le purrions, nene vourrions ſouffrir en nulle maniere, pour peine, perte, ne meſchief que ſouffrir en deuſſiens, en perſonnes, en enfans, en heritages, ne en autres biens. Premiers

An. 30 E. 1. miers entre les autres choſes que au dit Roy noſtre Sire furent envoyees par meſſages, & par lettres, il eſt contenu, que du Royaume de France, que noſtre Sire li Roy, et li habitans du Royaume, ont touſiours dit eſtre ſoubget en temporalite de Dieu tant ſeulement, ſi comme c'eſt choſe notoire a tout le monde, il en duroit eſtre ſubiet a luy temporellement, et ne luy le devoit et doit tenir, et plus que il encores avec ce a fait appeller les Prelats, les Docteurs en Divinite, les Maiſtres en Canon et en Loys du dit Royaume de France, pur amander et corriger les exces, les griefs, les oppreſſions, et les dammages, que il dit par ſa volente, eſtre faits par noſtre Sire li Roy, par ſes Miniſtres, et par ſes Bailliffs, as Prelats, as Egliſes, as perſonnes des Egliſes, a nous, aux Univerſitez, et au peuple du dit Royaume, jacoit ce que nous ne les Univerſitez, ne li peuples du dit Royaume, ne requirons, nene voulions avoir, ne correction, ne amende ſur les choſes devantdites par luy ne par l'authorite, ne par ſon pouvoir, ne par autre, fors que par le dit noſtre Sire le Roy; et ſa avoit pourveu li Roy noſtre Sire, a mettre remede a griefs, ſ'aucun en y euſt, mais pour ce a retarde, puis que ces nouvelles ſont venues a luy; que il ne veult mye que il apere, que il la face par cremeur, ou par commandement, ou par correction de luy, ou d'autruy. Par la quelle convocation ainſi faite, li Royaumes remonrroit en grand gerit et en grand deconfort, ſe il ſe vuidoit de ſi precieux ſopaux et threſors, auſquels nuls ſe comperent, et que lendeit mettre avant toutes forces, et avant toutes armes, c'eſt a ſcavoir, le ſens des Prelats et des autres ſaiges, par qui conſeil, par qui ſens, et par qui pourveance le gouvernement du Royaume eſt adreciez et maintenus, la foy eſt tenue et eſſanciee en fermete, li Sacremens de Saincte Egliſe ſont ameniſtrez, et tenus, et juſtice faite et gardee en celuy Royaume, pour leſquieux choſes, et pour autres, les quelles trop longs choſe ſeroit a eſcrire. Et pour ce eſpecialment, que cil qui a preſent ſiet ou ſiege du gouvernement de l'Egliſe, a fait et fait encores chacun jour par ces ordenances de volente, les confirmations, et les collations des Archeveſques, et des Eveſques, et des autres nobles Benefices du Royaume devantdit, et y a miſes par grandes quantitez et ſommes d'argent, par quoy il les a grevees et chargees, ſi que il convient, que li menus peuples, qui leur eſt ſoubgez, ſoient grevez et ranconnez; car autrement ne purroient paier les exactions, qui leur a faites per perſonnes mecogneues, et aucunes ſouſpeconneuſes, et telles, et pluſieurs, ſi comme enfans et pluſieurs autres, qui de nul Benefice d'Egliſe tenir ne ſont dignes, et qui nulle reſidence ne font es Egliſes ou ils ont Benefices, ne ja n'y entrerent; et ainſi les Egliſes ſont defraudees de leur ſerbices, et les volentez de ceur qui les Egliſes fonderent, ſont anienties, par quoy les aumoſnes ſont laiſſees, pitie arriere miſe, et les bien faits ſubſtraits qui aux Egliſes ſouloient eſtre faits, et les Egliſes en ſont ſi abaiſſiees et decheues, que a peine y a nuls qui les deſcrbent, ne li Prelats ne poent donner leurs Benefices aux nobles Clercs, et autres bien nez et bien nettrez de leurs Dioceſes, de qui anteceſſours les Egliſes ſont fondees; par quoy maluois exemple eſt donnez communement a tout le peuple, et pour les penſions nouvelles et les ſerbices outragious et deſacoutumes, et les exactions et extortions diverſes, et les dommageuſes nouvelletez, li generaux eſtats de l'Egliſe du tout mucz et oſtez a ſouverains Prelats, li poures de faire ce qui a eux de leur office appertient, et eſt accouſtumez de faire, et encore ne luy ſouffiſt ce mie, mais les collations des Benefices, que noſtre Sire li Roys et nos anteceſſours ont fondez, et a li et a nous appartiennent, et ont de tout temps appertenu a li et a nous devanciers, et eſt accouſtume a appertenir, il nous empeſche et les veut abjeuſter et traire devers li par grand convoitiſe, pour plus grans exactions et plus grans ſerbices atraire a luy; et les quelles choſes nous ne pourrions ne vourrions ſouffrir des ores en avant en nulle maniere pour meſchief nul qui nous puiſſe avenir, et ſe ainſi eſtoit que nous, ou aucuns de nous le vouſiſſent ſouffrir; ne les ſouffroit mie li dits noſtre Sire li Roys, ne li commun peuples du dit Royaume, et a grand doulour et grand meſchief, nous vous faiſons a ſcavour par la teneur de ces lettres, que ce ne ſont choſes qui plaiſent a Dieu, ne ne doivent plaire a nul homme di bone volente, ne oncques mes telles choſes ne deſcendirent en cuer d'homme, ne ores, ne furent, ne entendues advenir

Egliſes

An. 30 E. 1. Egliſes Cathedrales vacans retenir, et que touz ceux qui croient le contraire, il tenoit pour hereges.

Item, que vous factez declarier que l'en doit tenir le dit Pape pour herege, non pas vous, et toute la gent de voſtre Royaume, qui touſoitz ont creu et croient le contraire: Et pour ce que ſi ne veult cette erreur rappeller, ayant dit mont de fois que en cette creance viuroit et mourroit, et que ſa pour nul homme ce ne rappelleroit: les quelles choſes il pouvoit faire, ne dire, ne croire, ſans perher mortellement contro vous, contra vos hoirs, et contre vos anteceſſours, et contre tous vos ſuicts, et contre tout le pueuble Latin, qui croit la Decretale, qui dit, que vous ne recognoiſſiez nul Souverain en terre, et que le Pape qui la fiſt, ne vouloit pas, ne ne devoit ſurrection demander ſur voſtre tempozel; ſi que le dit Pape vous vouloit tollir a tozt la graigneur nobleneſſe, et le plus haut point de voſtre Seigneurie, en faiſant contre le commandement de la Loy noſtre Sire, tout ſarchamutement, en diſant que il li liſoit ſere encontre, et que ſoit voir, il pert; pour ce que li, qui diſoit que il eſtoit ſers Dieu, ne pouvoit la Loy de ſon Segreur oſter, ne refuſer a la garder, meſmement, quant as commandements de la Loy, que il ne fuſt, et deuſt eſtre tenu pour bougre, len puet prouver par tibe foꝛce, ſans que nul y puiſſe par raiſon reſpondre, que le Pape n'eut onques Seigneurie de voſtre tempozel, ne en autre, ne avoir, ne chalengier, ne doit, foꝛs tant comme ceux qui la Seigneurie avoient ou temps Sainct Sylveſtre, et puis l'en ont donne, et ſe il paroiſt plus chalement, et demandeurs convoitiſe, et rapine feroit par les raiſons qui enſuivent. Quand Dieu le pere apres le Ciel, & les quatre Elements ont forme Adam & Eve, il dit a eux & a leur ſucceſſion, Quod calcaverit pes tuus, tuum erit, ſi comme ſe dit le commencement de la Bible; ceſt a dire, que il vouloit, que chacun homme fuſt le Seigneur de ce qui occuperoit de terre. Ainſi departirent les fils d'Adam la terre, & en furent Seigneurs, trois mil ans & plus, avant le temps Melchiſedec, qui fuſt le primier Preſtre, & fuſt Roy, ſi comme dit l'hiſtoire; mais il ne fuſt pas Roy de tout le monde, & obeiſſoient la gent a li comme a Roy du temporel, non pas comme a Preſtre, & fuſt avant Roy que Preſtre. Apres ſa mort fuſt graund temps, 600 ans ou plus, autant qe nul autre fuſt Preſtre. Et Dieu le pere que donne la Loy de Moiſe, le ſtablie Prince de ſon pueuble Iſrael, & li commanda, que il fiſt Aaron ſon frere Souverain Preſtre, & ſon fils apres li. Et Moiſe baille & commiſt, quand u deuſt mourir, du mandement de Dieu, la Seigneurie du temporel, non pas au Souverain Preſtre ſon frere, ains a Joſue ſans debat, que Aaron & ſon fils apres y meiſſent; ains gardoient le Tabernacle, & entendoient illec au ſervice de Dieu, & ſe aidoient au temporel defendre, & conquerir par armes, & autrement. Et tous les autres Preſtres & Diacre le firent apres eux, auſſi comme les autres gens. Et puis quand il vint a partir la Terre Saincte entre les douze lignies, qui conquiſe l'avoient, celuy Dieu, qui toutes les choſes & avenir ſcavoit, commanda a Joſue leur Prince, que il partiſt la terre entre les onze lignies; & que le lignie des Preſtres & des Diacres euſſent en lieu de leur partie, les diſieſmes & les premiſſes de tout, & en veſquiſſent ſans terres avoir, ſi que ils peuſſent plus profitablement Dieu ſervir, & prier pur le pueuble. Et puis quand il vint grand piece apres, que le pueuble d'Iſrael demande Roy a noſtre Seigneur, ou fiſt demander par le Prophete Samuel, il ne leur e lit pas le Souverain Preſtre, mais Saul, qui ſurmontoit le graudeur tout le pueuble, de tout le col, & de la teſte. Apres noſtre Seigneur eleut David en Roy, non pas le Souverain Preſtre, ſi que il not nul Roy en Jeruſalem ſus le pueuble de Dieu, qui fuſt Preſtre, mais avoient Roy & Souverain Preſtre en diverſes perſonnes & avoit lan aſſez a faire de gouverner le Temporel, & le autre le Spirituel du petit pueuble; & ſi obeiſſoient tous les Preſtres du Temporel aux Roys. Apres noſtre Seigneur Jeſus Chriſt fuſt Souverain Preſtre, & ne trouve len point eſcrit, quil euſt onques nulle poſſeſſion du Temporel, neque il vouliſt que Herodes, qui Roy eſtoit, ne Pilate, qui eſtoit garde de ce que li Emperour de Rome avoit en pais, li en obeiſſent de riens ains dit, que l'en rendiſt a Ceſar ce que l'en luy devoit, & a Dieu auſſi; & fiſt paier pur li, & pur Saincte Pere ſon Vicaire d'un deniere d'or, quil fiſt prenre en le guelle d'un poiſſon, & le fiſt a fin quil ne feiſt eſclandre en luy, par le quel ils paient, non pas pour ce que il ne deuſſent riens. Apres ce Sainct Pere, & Sainct Pol, Sainct Clement, & les autres

Saincts

Saincts Apoſtles, ne les autres juſques au temps du dit Boniface, ne demanderent oncques Seigneurie, fors en ce que Conſtantinus donno a l'Egliſe. Ce fut grand abomination a ouir que ceſt Boniface, pour ce que Dieu dit a Sainct Pere, ce que tu lieras en terre, ſera lie au Ciel; cette parolle, d'eſpiritualement, entendi malement, comme bougre quant au Temporel; ſe il meiſt un homme en priſon temporelle, le meiſt pour ce Dieu en priſon en Ciel. Et ſi diſt S. Auguſtin contra Vincentium Donatiſtam, len puet en preſcher uſer de la Saincte Eſcriture, en ſens de myſtere, ſi comme le preſcheur voit que bien eſt; mais len doit uſer in diſputoiſon, en ſens de la lettre, non mie par myſtere. Et ſi dient les Docteurs que les faits de noſtre Seigneur, eſcrits au vieil Teſtament, ſont figure & exemple du nouvel Teſtament. Et l'Apoſtre dit, que nous devons prendre exemple au fils Jeſus Chriſt. Doncques quand Dieu le pere bailla a deux perſonnes le gouvernement de ſon petit pueuble d'Iſrael, a un le Temporel, a l'autre l'Eſpirituel, comment oſa dire le dit Boniface, & mander, qe la volunte de Dieu, il devoit l'avoir la pouvoir et la charge de goverver l'Eſpirituel et le Temporel de tout le monde; quar ſe il euſt le pouvoir du Temporel ſur vous & ſur voſtre Royaume; par plus forte raiſon il euſt ce pouvoir ſur tous les Princes Chreſtiens: pour ce que il n'en y a nul, qui par droit eſcrit peut monſtrer ſa franchiſe, fors que vous: pour quoy vous li poues dire que a tort, par treſgrande convoitiſe, vouloit ſe ſouſprendre de nouvel par deſſus vous, et par le greignour orgueil que len peuſt trouver, que homme euſt oncques demande poeſte en monde. Comment pourroit homme dire parole plus enflee d'orgueil, que cette, Dieu m'a commis en terre ſon poudair en temporalite, et en ſpiritualite, ſi que ſus toutes gents en toutes manieres l'eſſent mon poudair et ma poeſte. Len puet bien voir ſe l'entente de ſi ſage ſeculier, comme il eſtoit, fuſt de bien gouverner tout le Temporel et l'Eſpirituel. Il n'empriſt pas ſi grand fais; quas nul plus plus ſage et plus fors n'i ſoffiſſent pas. Li meiſmes ne ſouffiſoit pas a l'Eſpiritualte gouverner, ne ſon devoir ne faiſoit; car il eſtoit tenu de garder les commandements de la Loy, du vieil Teſtament, et du nouvel, qui dient, que il devoit amer et enſeigner chacun homme du monde, comme ſoy meſme, et que qui ne ſera baptiſe, et ne croise en* Jeſus Chriſt, ſera condampne; et que ſi, comme il qui eſt Pape, aimoit Dieu, il eſtoit tenu ſauver et lui rendre toutes armes, et les enſeigner par faites et par paroles. Onc les enſeignoit il pas bien en fait de tel orgueil, et de telle convoitiſe; quar il queroit ſon profit et ſa volente, non pas de tout le pueuble, et ſi n'enſeignoit par paroles, ne mes en pais ou il fuſt nez, de moult la mendre partie de la gent. Et n'enſuivoit pas noſtre Seigneur Jeſus Chriſt, qui envoya precher la loy Chriſtienne par ſoixante et douz Deciples, auſquenlz il donna le ſens et les langages de toutes gents; mais le dit Boniface *fu en ce negligent: quar onques par loy ne par autre ne regarde ne n'enſeigna la centieſme partie de la gent du monde. Nota. Nota.

Il eſtoit greignour beſoing que il ſceut Arabic, Caldee, Grieux, Ebrieux, & tous autres languages, deſquelx il eſt moult de Chriſtiens, qui ne croient pas comme l'Egliſe de Rome, pour ce que ils n'ont eſte de ce enſeigniez, ſi comme les Pantacors devers Orient, neuf cens Eveſques quique il y a ſons li pres de tous les Grieux, & pluſieurs autres deſquielx enſeigner il laiſſa la cure, pour les plus obeiſſans ſuppediter, grever, & moleſter, que il eſt deſſuſdit. Se celuy qui par miracles ne pouvoit donner les languages, euſt fait apprendre en tous les lauguages des lettres, tant deſcoliers, bien deſpoſez pour apprendre, que ils ſouffiſiſſent pour envoier a toutes les pueubles prescher la foy Chriſtienne; & ſils n'euſſent aſſes ſceu pour ce fere a ſa vie, ſes ſucceſſours les euſſent envoyez, en par faiſant ce que il euſt commencie: auſſi comme Moiſe commenca la conqueſte de la Terre Saincte, & ce ne la vit onques, mes eſtabliſt par foy, quand il deuſt morir, en ſon lieu Joſue, & commanda au pueuble qui luy obeiſt. Pour ce appert, puis que dire le convient; quar qui folie dit, folie doit oyr, pour quoy en reſpondre ſens et verite ne puet peril avenir. Quar ſi Boniface pour ſoy et pour tout ſon Clergie eus a Dieu renda tout le pueuble Latin, qui morut, taunt comme il euſt en cure, que ſi en laiſſa quatre cens peril par ſa negligence, et pour ce que il ne garda les commandements de la Loy, en ce que noſtre Seigneur Jeſus Chriſt dit a Sainct Pere, Paſce oves meas, & entendi de toutes de quelconque lieu, & de quelconques lignages que ils fuſſent, & il laiſſa ce a faire, pour entendre a pourvoir et a nobliſ ſon lignage,

An. 30 E. 1.

An. 30 E. 1. et pour vous tollir voſtre greigneur Franchiſe, il ne puet nier, que par ſe faict, plus encores que ce il deiſt, pour ce que len croit plus exemple de faict, que de paroles, que il ne donnaſt occaſion a tous Princes meſcreans, et a tous les Chreſtiens Princes deſobeiſants, de refuſer le Bapteſme, et l'obeiſance del Egliſe de Rome: pour ce que ils peuſſent perdre le plus haut point de leurs Seigneuries, c'eſt aſcavoir, de non reconnoiſtre Souverain de lour fins. Se les Apoſtres, et les autres Deſciples euſſent fait, ou dit ainſi, nul ne cuideroit qe ils peuſſent aboir un tout ſeul Prince conberti. Et ſi droit en qe il commenca, a vous, bon Roy, pour ce, que vous, et vos Anteceſſeurs, et tout le peuble ſouſmiſſa, vous abez tout temps eſte les plus obeiſſants, et les plus devot's a l'Egliſe de Rome, et a toutes les autres; ſi comme il pert bien, regarda la Juriſdiction & l'autorite des Eſgliſes de voſtre Royaume, et des autres. Et pour cen il pert, que Boniface, l'exemple de Zacharias, ſofferca de faire contre le greigneur bien, le greigneur mal, que il pouet, quand il oyt qe vous & voſtre Conſeil' et tout voſtre pueuble, qui tant eſt grand, vous teniez pour ſi mal pnyez de ſon mandement. Et que ſi grand eſclandre en eſtoit par tont le monde, comme le fait greigneur, que len ne pourroit dire ne eſcrire, & ſi euſt eſte trop greigneur, ſe leu euſt uſe de ſemblable ſur tout le pueple Latin : quar null homme n'y euſt obey, tant comme ils' en peuſt defendre, le cuer & la volente du mandement, qui cuidoit faire tout le monde trembler, s'endurcirent ſans repentir, & ſans retraire a l'example de Pharaon. Ne onques homme ne s'appercent, que il ne morut en ſi grand iniquite, en faiſant le contraire de noſtre Seigneur Jeſus Chriſt, & de Sainct Pol, qui dit ainſi, Se mon frere eſtoit eſclandre, pour len eſtre, je me garderoye de mengier char a touſiourſmais : & pource qu'il ne parlaſt ſans faire, et ſans que il ne fuſt greveur au pueble, & que eſclandre ne iſſiſt, ice celuy ſage Apoſtre, quand il alloit prechant, par ſon art, & par ſes mains queroit, en faiſant panniers, ce qe neceſſaire y eſtoit pour luy, et pour ceux qui avec li eſtoient : et l'Apoſtre en ſon Canon meſme dit, que pour eſclandre eſcheuer, l'en doit faire & laiſſera faire tout ce que l'en peut ſans pechie mortel. Et ſi fut, et eſt, eſclandre greigneur du dit mandement, de lorgueil, et de la conboitiſe ; pour ce qe les ſages regardoient, que les Apoſtres & les Empereurs, en firent leur droet, qui pour eux eſtablirent le plus qe ils peurent. La quelle choſe pert bien, a ce que l'Emperour dit, que il eſtoit Seigneur du monde, ſans rien excepter, qui ne avint onques a Alexandre, ne a autre. Et ſe n'oſerent il dire que l'en ne ſe peut defendre contre l'Egliſe de Rome, et contre li Empire, par preſcription de Cent ans. Autrement il conveniſt revenir a faire comme les poiſſons, qui ont toute la mer comune, ſi que le plus fort boute hors le plus foible, et occupe le lieu, tant comme il luy plaiſt a demourer. Ainſi fervent la gent, ſe longue teneure ne diffendoit les tenens. Dont ſemble il bien qe le dit Papa vouloit tou le monde deſtruire, et mettre en guerre, qui de noubel vouloit occuper cette Seigneurie, qui tenue et poſſiſe aboit eſte plus de mille ans en bonne foy des Roys des France. Par autele raiſon puet len demander tout l'heritage qe Dieu le Pere partit entre Adam et ſes enfans, quand il dit, Ce que ton pied marchera, & que tu occuperas, ſera tien. Par quoy il pert, quil alloit droitement contre la loy de Dieu, et contre le comandement. Onques quand le dit Boniface ſceut ſi grand eſclandre eſmeue par le dit mandement, ne ſen ſuffriſt pour ſe appaiſier. Il appert bien, qe il ne doute eſclandre de riens, & qe cette entente de li fu perverſe, E que len apercent onques ſur ſe amendement. Et quand len ne puet nier quil ne ſceuſt tel eſclandre, et il ne luy en chaln, mais pourſui comme melencholieux ſa folle entente, plus fort que devant, par pluſeurs fois, perfez perners, par les queulx il renua Dieu, et en ce ſe rendurci, ſans reſortir de riens en ſa vie. Et fit ces choſes notoirement, en diſant, qui lui liſoit a faire. Et ſi appert clerement, que il ne le pouet faire ſans pluſeurs pechiez mortels, qui ne puent eſtre eſcuſez, qe ce ne fuſt verite notoire. Pour quoy, par les dits de Sainct Pol, & de Sainct Auguſtin, il renoia Dieu notoirement, et en ceſt Eſtat fu mort, ſans que len onques apperceuſt ſa repentance, ſi comme ceux qui furent preſens, & la renomme de Rome le teſmoigne; & in Epiſtola ad Titum 1. c. 9. q. 3. c. exiſtimant. Et ſe maintint touſiours, comme Pharaon, que il luy liſoit a faire; pour quoy il par raiſonablement quil fu herege, & in cette erreur mourat. E ſaucuns voulon le dit Boniface eſcuſer de tout ceſt eſclandre, en diſant qe le dit Pape ne pouvoit laiſſier, que il ne fiſt ſon pouoir des choſes deſſuſdites, que il ne cheiſt enpechie mortel, et que ſentence fu telle: Con-

The Colledge of Cardinals upon receit of the Peers and Nobles of France premiſed Letter, returned this following Letter in Anſwer thereunto, in defence and excuſe of Pope Boniface and his Proviſions made in France.

*Miſeratione divina Epiſcopi, Presbyteri, & Diaconi, S. Romanæ Eccleſiæ Cardinales, Nobilibus viris, Ducibus, Comitibus, Baronibus, & Nobilibus Regni Franciæ, in vero ſalutari ſalutem. Recepimus literas veſtræ Nobilitatis & nuncios, quas quidem per eoſdem Nuntios latores præſentium deſtinaſtis, quarum intellectus tenor noſtros amaricavit animos, & turbavit auditus. Vobis igitur præſentibus reſpondemus, quod ſanctiſſimus Pater & Dominus noſter, Dominus Bonifacius, divina providentia Sacroſanctæ Romanæ ac univerſalis Eccleſiæ Summus Pontifex, & nos ipſi vinculum charitatis & ſinceritatis affectus, quæ inter ipſum Dominum noſtrum Summum Pontificem, Prædeceſſores ipſius Romani Pontifices, & nos, & Prædeceſſores noſtros S. R. Eccleſiæ Cardinales, ac Magnificum Principem Dominum Philippum Franciæ Regem illuſtrem, ac Prædeceſſores ſuos fuerunt & viguerunt ab olim, manutenemus libenter; &, ut firma & ſtabilia maneant, promptis ſtudiis laboramus; ad hoc etiam invenimus ipſum Dominum noſtrum paratum & promptum. Inimicus tamen homo ſeminavit zizania, quæ Deo authore in faſciculos colligata erunt in combuſtionem & cibum ignis; & volumus vos pro certo tenere, quod prædictus Dominus noſter Summus Pontifex nunquam ſcripſit Regi prædicto, quod de Regno ſuo ſibi ſubeſſe temporaliter, illudque ab eo tenere deberet, & providus vir Magiſter Jacobus Archidiaconus Narbonenſis, Notarius & Nuncius Domini noſtri prædicti, ſicut conſtanter affirmat, ipſi Domino Regi hoc ipſum vel ſimile nunquam verbaliter nunciabit aut ſcripto. Unde propoſitio quam fecit Petrus Flot in præſentia dicti Domini Regis, Prælatorum et veſtra, et aliorum multorum, arenoſum & falſum habuit fundamentum, & ideò neceſſe eſt, quod cadat ædificium, quod ædificabitur ſuper illud: Prælati vero, Doctores in Theologia, & utriuſque Juris Magiſtri vocati fuerunt ad ipſius Domini noſtri præſentiam, certo eis peremptorio termino aſſignato, ut cum eis ſuper agendis poſſet deliberare conſultius, ſicut perſonis ipſo Domino Regi non ſuſpectis, immò acceptis & gratis, et diligentibus nomen ejus, & affectantibus ſtatum proſperum & tranquillum ipſorum Domini Regis & regni. Nec eſt nobum per ſedem Apoſtolicam pro qualitate temporum et neceſſitate cauſarum, Concilia non ſolum particularia, ſed etiam generalia conbocari, quorum aliqua plurium ex nobis temporibus congregata noſcuntur. Detulit tamen dictus Dominus noſter ipſi Domino Regi & regno, generale Concilium non vocando, in quo forſitan conveniſſent nonnulli nationum & regnorum illorum, qui minus dilectionis ad dictum noſcuntur habere. Cum utique dictus Dominus noster Summus Pontifex, si Ecclesiam Gallicanam gravavit, hoc fecit concedendo ipsi Domino Regi decimam plurium Annorum Ecclesiasticorum provintuum regni sui. Et quod ad dictum ejus in qualibet Ecclesia Cathedrali & Collegiata regni prædicti, una persona idonea poneretur; nonnullis etiam dignitates et beneficia contulit consideratione Regis ejusdem, Prælatorum et aliquorum ex vobis. Dispensationes quoque multas concessit et magnas, quæ non latent Regem ipsum et multos ex vobis; ex quibus per ingratitudinem non dilectionis & reverentiæ, recipit idem Dominus noster debitam responsivam. Ad hæc non venit in dubium homini sanæ mentis, Romanum Pontificem obtinere Primatum, et esse summum Hierarchum in Ecclesiastica Hierarchia, et posse omnem hominem arguere de peccato. Nostræ quoque memoriæ non occurrit, quod Cathedralibus Ecclesiis dicti Regni providerit de personis Italicis, nisi Bituricen. et Attrebaten. Ecclesiis, quibus de personis provident ipsis Regi non suspectis et regno, quorum eminens scientia late patet, nec sint conditiones eorum incognitæ. Multis vero aliis Ecclesiis Cathedralibus providit de personis oriundis de regno prædicto, nec Regi, nec regno prædictis probabili ratione suspectis. Quis unquam prædecessorum suorum formas providendi pauperibus Clericis plus extendit, quibus per nonnullos ex Prælatis non fiebat Provisio, et mendicare quodammodo cogebantur in opprobrium Clericale? Exsurgant cum ipso Domino Magistri in Theolgiâ, quibus ipse in Parisien. Ecclesia Canonicatus contulit & Præbendas. Exsurgant Magistri et alii literati, et in acie stent cum ipso, qui paupertate gravati multis sudoribus, multis vigiliis, multis laboribus adepti sunt scientiæ Margaritam, et dicam quomodo illorum pietas, ad quos beneficiorum collatio pertinebat, respexit eosdem. Inbenietis pro uno extraneo, cui est per ipsum Dominum in dicto regno provisum, fere centum qui de prædicto regno traxerunt originem, ab eo provisionis gratiam recepisse. Et si de vacantibus beneficiis regni prædicti, aut vacaturis provident, nonne providit de personis oriundis de regno eodem, et familiaribus, et Clericis Regis, Prælatorum regni et vestris. Adhæc ut non taceamus vobis solidam veritatem, non decuit, immo licuit, nec etiam expedivit sanctissimum Patrem et Dominum nostrum, Dominum Bonifacium, divina providentia Sacrosanctæ Romanæ ac universalis Ecclesiæ Summum Pontificem in literis vestris, quas nobis misistis, non nominare Summum Pontificem; sed, quod dolenter referimus, missis filialis et solitæ reverentiæ more ac stylo, ipsum nominastis per quendam circumlocutionem indevotorum verborum et nobiter inventorum. Hujusmodi autem literarum nostrarum placeat vobis habere bonum interpretem & fidelem. Die autem Veneris proxima ſequenti, ſcilicet 14 die ejuſdem menſis Junii, præ- An. 30 E. 1. ſente præfato Domino Rege, necnon Dominis Archiepiſcopis præſentibus, ac in præſentia noſtrorum Notariorum publicorum ad hoc ſpecialiter vocatorum & requiſitorum, prædictus Gulielmus de Pleſſeiano Miles dixit, propoſuit, objecit, aſſeruit & legit prout in quadam Schedula quam tenebat in manibus continetur plenius, cujus tenor talis eſt.

Ego Gulielmus de Pleſſeiano Miles, dico, propono et affero Bonifacium nunc ſedi Apoſtolicæ præſidentem, Hæreticum fore perfectum; in hæreſibus, factis enormibus, et perverſis dogmatibus inferius declaratis, quæ vera fore, et me probare poſſe credo, vel quæ ſufficient ex ipſis, ad probandum ipſum perfectum Hæreticum, loco et tempore competenti, et coram quibus hoc fieri de jure poterit et debebit, et hoc juro ſuper hæc Sancti Dei Evangelia corporaliter pertacta.

The particular Articles to make good this Charge, are thus Engliſhed and recorded by * Mr. Fox, worthy ſpecial obſervation.

* Acts & Monuments, Vol. 1. p. 450. 451.

Firſt, * That he believeth not the Immortality of men, and Chriſtian ſouls, but thinking much like as the Sadduces did believe, that there is no everlaſting Life, and that men cannot get at the length Joy, but that all the ſort and part of comfort and gladneſs is in this World, and by this means he affirmeth, that it is no ſinne for the Body to live daintily in all dainties: And out of the abundance of this leaven he was not aſhamed to ſay and openly to confeſs, that he had rather be an Aſſe, or a Dogg, or any other brute beaſt then a Frenchman; which thing he would not have ſaid if he believed a Frenchman had a ſoul that could enjoy everlaſting life. This thing he taught many men, which acknowledged this at the point of death, and the common report goeth thus on him in theſe things.

* Ergo the Pope may be an Heretick, and is not infallible.

2. And he believeth not faithfully that by the words ordained of Chriſt, and ſpoken over the Hoſt after the faſhion of the Church, by a faithfull Prieſt, that is lawfully ordered, the body of Chriſt to be there; and therefore it cometh to paſſe, that he giveth no reverence to it (no not a little) when it is lifted up of the Prieſt; yea he riſeth not to it, but turneth his back to it, and makes himſelf and his ſeat to be honoured where he ſitteth, rather than the Altar where the Hoſt is conſecrate; and he is commonly reported to do this.

3. Alſo he is reported to ſay, that Whoredome is no ſinne, no more then rubbing of the hands together, and thus commonly runs the voice and brute.

4. Alſo he ſaid often, that to thruſt down the King and Frenchmen, (if it could not be otherwiſe done) he would overthrow himſelf, the whole World, and the whole Church. And when he had ſaid ſo, ſome that ſtood by ſaid, God forbid; he anſwered, God grant. And when good men that heard the words replyed againſt him, that he ſhould not ſay ſo, becauſe the Church of God, and all Chriſtian men ſhould ſuffer great ſlander ſo; he anſwered, I care not what ſlanders ſoever come, ſo that the Frenchmen and their pride be deſtroyed; for it is neceſſary that ſlanders and offences come.

5. Item, he called again and allowed a Book made by Mr. Arnold of Newton, containing and ſmelling of Hereſie, condemned by the Biſhop of Paris, and reproved by the Maſters of Divinity, and burned openly by Boniface himſelf, and in the full Conſiſtory of Cardinals being likewiſe reproved, condemned, and burned, yet he allowed it being written again, and contepning the ſame fault.

6. Item, that he might make the moſt damnable remembrance of him perpetual, he cauſed his Images of ſilver to be ſet in the Church, by this means bringing men to Idolatry.

7. Item, he hath a private Devil whoſe counſell he uſeth in all things, and through all things.

8. Item, he ſaid once, that if all men were of one ſide, and he on another, they could not deceive him neither in law nor in deed; which thing could not be done except he uſed a Deviliſh Art; and of this he is openly thus reported.

9. Item, he is a Witch, asking counſell at Southſayers both men and women, and thus he is commonly judged.

10. Item, he ſaid openly, that the Romiſh Pope could not commit Symony,

An. 30 E. 1. which is heretical to ſay: This is a ſinne reproved as well in the Old Teſtament as in the New, and generally in the Holy Councells. Alſo he is wont to make Merchandiſe of Prelates Livings, Dignities, Superiorities and Benefices, to which the Holy Orders be neceſſarily joyned, and of Abſolutions and Diſpenſations, like as Uſurers and Merchants uſe to buy and ſell common things in the Market; and of this the common brute reports him (guilty.)

11. Item, he letteth with all his might among Chriſtian men the ſpecial embaſſage of Chriſt, made to his own ſonnes, ſaying, Peace I leave to you, and ſoweth diſcord and warres; wherefore once it was ſaid before him, that certain parties would friendly agree after a good ſort, but he letted the peace: And when the other party did humbly beſeech him that he would give licenſe to agree, he ſaid, he would not: Yea, if the Son of God, or Peter the Apoſtle would come down into the Earth and command him, he would ſay, I will not believe thee.

12. Item, becauſe the French Nation (being manifeſtly a moſt Chriſtian Nation) followeth not his errours in the Faith, he reckoneth and openly calleth all and every of them Paterniani.

13. Item, he is infect with Sodomitical ſinne, keeping with him Boyes for Concubines, and of this fault he is moſt commonly and openly reported.

14. Item, he hath cauſed many murthers of Clerks to be done in his preſence, commending it, and rejoycing at their death: And if they were not deadly wounded at the firſt by his Servants, as oft as he ſaw them ſmiting he ſaid, ſmite, ſmite, by which example many were ſlain.

15. Item, when he had condemned a certain Nobleman, he forbad the Sacrament to be given him at the point of death, he deſiring it, and being penitent; ſaying, that the Sacrament of penance was not neceſſary to ſalvation.

16. Item, he compelled certain Prieſts to ſhew unto him the confeſſions of men, and he publiſhed them openly afterwards, contrary to the will of them that were confeſſed, to their ſhame and confuſion, and compelled them to redeem their ſinnes: Inſomuch that once he depoſed a certain Biſhop of Spain for the faults that he confeſſed to a certain Cardinal, confeſſing unto him a certain privy horrible fault under Benedicite, and compelled the Cardinal againſt his will to declare his confeſſion, and yet afterwards reſtored the ſame Biſhop again to his place for a little money: wherefore he is thought to play the Heretick in the Sacrament of penance.

17. Item, he faſteth not on the Faſting dayes, nor Lent, but eateth fleſh indifferently, and without cauſe ſuffereth his Houſhold and Friends to eat, ſaying it is no ſinne; doing in this thing againſt the general ſtate of the Holy Church.

18. Item, he oppreſſed the Order of the Cardinals, and oppreſſed the Order of Black and White Monks, of Gray Friers and Preachers, and ſaid oft, that the World was deſtroyed by them, and that they were falſe Hypocrites, and that neber good could chance unto any that would be confeſſed to them, or would be familiar with them, or would keep them in their houſe; and he never ſaid good word of any Prelate, Religious man, or Clerk, but ever rebuketh and ſlandereth them, taking away their good name, and to compell them to redeem their faults, he is glad of their accuſations; and this is the common voice and report of him.

Nota.

19. Item, of old time, he going about to deſtroy the Faith, conceived a hate againſt the French King, even to the abhorring of the Faith, becauſe of the light of Faith which is there, and becauſe of the great witneſſe and example of Chriſtianity which is and hath been there: And before he had this Seat he is proved to have ſaid, that if he were Pope, he would rather overthrow all Chriſtendome, but he would overthrow and deſtroy the Nation, which he calleth the Pride of the French.

20. Alſo it is reported, that when the Embaſſador of the King of England in the name of the ſaid King, did require and intreat for the Tenth of the Realm of England to be given him, he anſwered, that he would not give them the Tenths but on this condition, that he would make Warre with them againſt the French King. And beſides this, he is reported to have given great ſummes of money to certain perſons, to hinder that peace ſhould not be between the ſaid Kings. He himſelf alſo with all his might hath letted it, by Meſſengers, Letters, and other wayes that he could, yea by giving bribes.

21. Item,

21. Item, he is reported alſo to have commanded Frederick which keepeth the Iſle of Sicil, that if he would betray Charles the King and break the peace which he made, and ſwear that he would keep with him, and would ſtirr againſt the King and kill the Frenchmen, that then he would give him aid, help, and counſell; and for ſo doing he would give and grant him the ſaid Kingdoms. An. 30 E. 1.

22. He confirmed alſo the King of Almaine to be Emperour, and ſaid openly, that he did it to deſtroy the Nation which he calleth the Pride of the Frenchmen, which ſay they are ſubject to none in Temporal things. Wherein ſaith he they lyed on their heads; declaring moreover, that whoſoever (yea if it were an Angel from Heaven) would ſay that all Kings of the World were not ſubject to the ſame King of Almaine, he were accurſed.

23. Further, he brake the agreements of Peace between the King of Almaine and the French King, in which either of them ſhould have their own ſaved; and what encroachings ſoever had been on either ſide, ſhould be brought to a due ſtate, and under an Oath orderly given and taken; he is reported to have commanded the ſame King of Almaine, that he ſhould not keep thoſe conditions of Peace, but be an Enemy, and go about to ſow debate among Chriſtian men.

24. Item, it is openly reported, that the Holy Land was betraped through his fault, and came to the enemies of God and of Faith, and that he ſuffered this for the nonc't, and denyed to give aid to the Chriſtians which defended it, ſpending the Treaſures and money of the Church (which ſhould have been beſtowed on that uſe as the Patrimony of Chriſt) in perſecuting of faithfull Chriſtians and friends of the Church, and therewith would enrich his friends. Nota.

25. Item, he is openly reported to uſe Simony, not only in beſtowing of Benefices, but in giving of Orders, and making Diſpenſations: He hath ſet to ſale all Benefices of the Church, and would beſtow the Church commonly on him that would offer moſt; and he made his Servants Prelates of the Church, not for wealth of the Faith, nor to thruſt down Infidels, but to oppreſſe the faithfull, and to enrich his Kinred by the Churches goods, and of the Patrimony of him that was Crucified; and preſumed to make them Marqueſſes, Earles, and Barons, and was not afraid to build them ſtrong holds, rooting out and oppreſſing many Noblemen and others.

26. Item, it is commonly reported, that he hath divorced many Marriages lawfully made, to the contempt, hurt, and ſlander of many; and he did promote his Nephew to a Cardinalſhip, being married, unlearned, and altogether unworthy to live; and openly married one that was divorced, and compelled him to make a vow of Chaſtity, and after that he is reported to have had two Baſtards by her; and ſo goeth the common brute of him.

27. Item, it is commonly reported, that he handled ungently his predeceſſor Celeſtinus of holy memory, leading a holy life, (peradventure knowing in Conſcience that he could not forſake his Popedome, and therefore Boniface himſelf had no lawfull entrance to the See) and impriſoned him, and there quickly and privily cauſed him to die; And of this the common brute and report is through all the World, that he cauſed many great and learned men, living a regular life, (which diſputed of this, whether he might renounce the Popedome or not) to be ſet in priſon, and there to die.

28. Item, he is reported to have railed at Religious perſons leading a regular life, without a reaſonable cauſe to the World, to the ſlander of many.

29. Item, he is reported to have ſaid, that within ſhort time he would make all the Frenchmen either Martyrs, or forſakers of their Faith.

30. Item, it is commonly reported, that he ſeeketh not the health of the ſouls, but the deſtruction of them.

BOOK V. CHAP. V.

Conteining the impriſonment and death of Pope Boniface the 8th. The Letters, Bulls, Negotiations between King Edward the 1. and this Popes Succeſſors, with their Succeſſion in the See of Rome: This Kings Acts of Soveraign Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction over the Churches, Prelates, Clergy of England, Scotland and Ireland. His Prohibitions, Statutes, Edicts againſt Papal Proviſions, Exactions, and Prelatical Vſurpations upon the rights of his Crown and Temporal Courts; The Succeſſion of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, and other Prelates in the Churches of England, Scotland, Ireland; With other particulars relating to their publike affairs, from the beginning of the 31 year of King Edward the 1. till his death, in the 35 year of his reign; Collected out of the Records of thoſe years, and our Hiſtorians.

AFter the proceedings, Declarations, Articles and Appeals of our King Edward the firſt, his Parliament, Nobles, and of Philip King of France with his Parliament, Nobles, Prelates, Clergy and Commonalty, againſt Pope Boniface the 8. related in the precedent Chapter, the Papal dignity, authority, and pretended Soveraignty over all Kings, kingdoms, Churches, Nations, claimed and exerciſed by this Antichriſtian Pontiff and the See of Rome, together with his Excommunications, Cenſures, became ſo contemptible and deteſtable, that by the inſtigation and procurement of King Philip, this proud Pope was ſoon after ſuddenly ſeiſed upon, impriſoned, plundered of all his extorted Treaſure, which was very great, ſhamefully intreated, and came to an infamous death, the particulars whereof are thus related by our own Hiſtorians, more largely than any others.

[a] Matthew Weſtminſter renders us this account thereof; Anno Dom. 1303. in vigilia Nativitatis Mariæ, Papa Bonifacius, procurante ut creditur Rege Francorum, inter quos horrenda diſſentionis per longum tempus extitit materia, à quibuſdam inimicis ſuis, & ſpecialiter à quodam nomine Sairà de Campania, atrociſſime, irreverenterque dignitate Papali non obſtante, in præjudicium totius Eccleſiæ, immiſericorditer deprædatus fuit in palatio ſuo Anagniæ Civitatis, ſpoliatus fuit bonis ſuis omnibus, et in carcere per triduum cuſtoditus, &c. Verum quia a ſeculo non eſt auditum, poſtquam pax Eccleſiæ per univerſum mundum eſt reddita tam arduum flagitium, falſos Chriſtianos, qui ſe dicunt Chriſtianos et non ſunt, in Summum commiſiſſe Pontificem, ad notitiam futurorum, non ſufficit dixiſſe, Papa Bonifacius ſpoliatus fuit omnibus bonis ſuis, niſi modus & forma facinoris ſubnectatur. (which he repeats in his former words, without any particular relation thereof; Adding) Poſtea rediit Romam, et ibi tactus dolore cordis et angustia, præ irreverentia Eccleſiæ Romanæ, et ſibi Dei Vicario illata, infra breve temporis ſpacium vitam finivit, viz. 12. die Octobris, et ſepultus fuit in craſtino in Eccleſia beati Petri in mirifico ſepulchro, quod ſibi præparaverat adhuc vivens. De quo quidam verſificator ſic ſcripſit:

An. 31 E. 1. dit, non: immo citius vellet perdere caput ſuum, dicens in ſuo vulgari; & le col, et le cape, quod eſt dicere. Ecce collum, ecce caput. Et ſtatim proteſtatus eſt coram omnibus, quod Papatui nunquam renunciaret; quamdiu poſſet habere vitam. Scaira vero voluit libenter interfeciſſe Papam, ſed per quoſdam fuit prohibitus, ita quod Papa in corpore malum non recepit. Attamen oſtiariis Papæ fugatis & quibuſdam interfectis, ejectiſque tàm majoribus quàm minoribus de ſua familia, deputati ſunt Cuſtodes Papæ per Scairum et Capitaneum, Dominus Reginaldus de Suppina, & multi alii cum eodem: Acta ſunt hæc in vigilia nativitatis Sanctæ Mariæ, ſeptima hora diei: exercitus verò poſtquam irrupit palatium, mox deſpoliavit Papam, et ejus cameram atque theſauriam ſuam, et aſportavit veſtimenta cum ornamentis, et aurum atque argentum cum omnibus aliis rebus inventis ibidem, et revera creditur, quod *omnes Reges mundi non poſſent tantum de theſauro reddere infra unum annum, quantum fuit de Papali palatio aſportatum, et de palatiis trium Cardinalium et Marchionis. Remanſit autem Papa et nepotes ſui ſub cuſtodia Militum et cuſtodum Scairæ uſque in diem tercium. Medio tempore Schaira tractavit cum ſuis, quomodo Papam morti traderet, vel mitteret ad Regem Franciæ corpus ejus. Sed populus Anagum hoc comperiens, facta convocatione ſecreta ignorantibus Capitaneo & Scaira, quaſi ad 10000. hominum, concurrunt ad palatium ubi Papa ſervebatur in cuſtodia, et expulſis atque peremptis cuſtodibus, ingreſſi ſunt, & deliberaverunt Papam et Nepotes ejus, habituri eorum cuſtodiam penes ſe. Sed antè hæc omnia ſciendum, quod cum primò Scaira et Capitaneus cum Seneſchallo Regis Franciæ comprehendiſſent Papam, in equum poſuerunt effrenem, ad caudam verſa facie, et ſic diſcurrere fere uſque ad novilſimum balitum coegerunt, et tandem pene fame necaverunt, donec eum populus Anagum (ut præmittitur) liberaſſet. Scaira verò propter id offenſis villa communibus cum exercitu de villa receſſit. Tunc populus fecit Papam deportari in magnam plateam, ubi Papa lachrymando populo prædicabit, inter omnia gratias agens Deo et populo Anagum de vita ſua. Tandem in fine ſermonis dixit; Boni homines & mulieres, conſtat vobis qualiter inimici mei venerunt & abſtulerunt omnia bona mea, & non tantum mea, ſed et omnia bona Eccleſiæ, & me ita pauperem ſicut Job dimiſerunt. Propter quod, dico vobis veraciter, quod nihil habeo ad comedendum vel bibendum, & jejunus remanſi uſque ad præſens. Et ſi ſit aliqua bona mulier, quæ me velit de ſua juvare elemoſina in pane vel vino, & ſi vinum non habuerit, de aqua permodica, dabo ei benedictionem Dei et meam, & omnes qui quicquam portaverint quantulumcunque modicum in meam ſubventionem, abſolvo ab omnibus peccatis ſuis. Tunc omnes hæc audientes ex ore Papæ, clamabant, Vivas Pater ſancte. Et mox cernentes mulieres currere certatim ad palatium, ad offerendum ſibi panem, vinum, vel aquam, in tantum, quod ſtatim camera Papæ victualibus repleta fuit. Et cum non inveniretur vaſa ad capiendum allata, fundebant vinum & aquam in area Camera Papæ in maxima quantitate. Et tunc potuit quiſquam ingredi et cum Papa loqui ſicut cum alio paupere qui volebat, Tunc Papa exiens, abſolvit omnes exiſtentes in civitate ab omnibus peccatis eorum generaliter, præter deſpoliatores Eccleſiæ Romanæ, ſpoliatores etiam Cardinalium et aliorum de Curia non abſolvebat, niſi bona hujuſmodi infra triduum reportarent. Veruntamen Papa exprelſe remiſit omnibus qui bona ſua aſportaverant, dum tamen illa bona de theſauro Eccleſiæ non fuerunt, & ſtatim proteſtatus eſt coram omnibus, quod voluit habere pacem cum Columpnenſibus Cardinalibus et ſuis aliis inimicis, et paratus erat ipſos reſtituere ad temporalia et ſpiritualia Cardinales, et hoc fecit proclamari per villam. Interea reportata fuerunt bona illius quædam, ſed non omnia prius ablata. His itaque geſtis, Papa ſubito & inopinatè receſſit de villa Anagum, progrediens verſus Romam, cum maxima multitudine armatorum: et cum perveniſſet ad Sanctum Petrum, ex timore quam conceperat, quando captus fuit, et mœrore rerum inæſtimabilium perditorum, et fame quam contraxerat ſub cuſtodia adverſariorum ſuorum cito defecit. Et ſic completa eſt in eo prophetia prædeceſſoris ſui, qui dixit; Aſcendiſti ut Vulpes, regnabis ut Leo, morieris ut Canis. Upon this occaſion, Thomas Walſingham thus concludes that year; Tranſit annus iſte durus divitibus, pauperibus penuriosus, Papæ, Curiæque Romanæ probrosus, propter malam captionem Papæ. Sed tamen in hoc etiam conſolari potuit, quia nullus eorum qui ejus captioni interfuit, vel facinori tanto conſenſerit, judicium ultionis evaſit. (A groſſe miſtake & forgery.) Nam quidam inſanabili acti ſunt furia, quidam & præcipuè qui manum injecerunt Chriſti Vicario, manus proprias comederunt.

How

An. 31 E. 1.

How our Archbishops, Bishops, and their Officers still continued their Usurpations upon the Kings Temporal Jurisdiction, Courts, Free Chappels, Crown and Dignity, this year, will appear by several Prohibitions, Writs, Suits and Attachments against them.

In a broken Bundle of Writs in the White Tower, I met only with this, at the Kings prosecution, for suing in Court Christian against his prohibition.

The Archbishop of Canterbury excommunicating the Prior and Canons of St. Oswalds Church in Glouceſter anciently the Kings Free Chappel, (exempted from all Episcopal and Metropolitical Jurisdictions by the Kings Charters, and Popes Bulls confirming them, but after united to the Archbishoprick of Yorke, and subjected by King Williams Charter and Popes Bulls only to that Archbishops Visitation,) and withall inhibiting all persons to pay Tithes, or have any communion with them as with excommunicate persons, (notwithstanding their Appeal against his Excommunication to the Court of Rome,) only because they refused to be visited by him in his Metropolitical Visitation, to the prejudice of the Kings Charters, Crown and Dignity. The King upon complaint thereof, issued this memorable Writ to the Archbishop, to revoke these his illegal sentences and proceedings against them, as prejudicial to his Crown and Dignity.

REX Venerabili in Christo patri R. eadem gratia Archiepiscopo Cantuar. totius Angliæ Primati salutem. Cum Ecclesia Sancti Oswaldi Glouceſtr. de Elemosinis progenitorum nostrorum quondam Regum Angliæ fundata, libera Capella eorundem Progenitorum nostrorum fuerit ab antiquo, et ab omni Jurisdictione ordinaria exempta penitus et immunis, ac bonæ memoriæ Willielmus quondam Rex Angliæ Progenitor noster, per Chartam suam prædictam Ecclesiam cum juribus suis cuidam Thomæ dudum Archiepiscopo Eborum, pro quibusdam exactionibus et calumpniis suis quas erga quendam Robertum tunc Lincoln. Episcopum de quibusdam Ecclesiis et possessionibus fecerat remittendis, dederit et concesserit; habendam eidem Archiepiscopo et successoribus suis Archiepiscopis ejusdem loci imperpetuum, ab omni Jurisdictione Diocæsani vel Metropolitani alterius quam sui ipsius exemptam penitus et immunem, sicut progenitores nostri eam ante donationem et concessionem prædictas tenuerunt, quas quidem donationem et concessionem quidam Summi Pontifices postmodum per suas Papales Literas confirmarunt: Ac Priores et Canonici ejusdem loci, tam virtute donationis et confirmationis prædictarum, quam ratione exemptionis prædictæ, ab omni Jurisdictione loci Diocæsani vel Metropolitani alterius quam Archiepiscopi loci prædicti semper hucusque extiterunt, ut dicitur, liberi penitus et immunes. Ac jàm intellexerimus, quod vos ad exemptionem, donationem, et confirmationem prædictas nullam habentes considerationem in Ecclesiam Sancti Oswaldi prædictam, ac Priorem et Canonicos ejusdem loci Officium visitationis, et alias Jurisdictionem ordinariam nuper nitebamini pro viribus exercere, et sententias Excommunicationis in ipsos Priorem et Canonicos, pro eo, quod vos super hoc impediverunt, sicut debuerunt, fulminastis. Et licet ipsi a sententiis prædictis tanquam ab iniquis, ad Curiam Romanam legitime appellaverint, et appellationis illius negotium effectualiter prosequantur, Vos nichilominus in Episcopatu Wygorniæ ne quis eisdem Priori et Canonicis tanquam excommunicatis et a communione fidelium seperatis de Decimis aut aliquibus aliis Spiritualibus respondeat, ac aliqualiter communicet cum eisdem fecistis publice inhiberi.

biberi. Quæ ſi ſic tollerarentur, in noſtri præjudicium et exemptionis, donationis et confirmationis earundem derogationem manifeſte redundarent. Vobis mandamus, quod ſententias in prædictos Priorem et Canonicos per vos aut alios authoritate veſtra, ut prædictum eſt, fulminatas, ac alia ſi quæ in hac parte in noſtri et exemptionis, donationis et confirmationis prædictarum præjudicium attemptaveritis, vel attemptari feceritis, faciatis revocari, nichil in hac parte in noſtri et ipſorum præjudicium attemptantes, ne pro defectu veſtri de alio remedio ſuper hoc nos oporteat provideri. By which Record it is evident. 1. That our Kings by their Royal Prerogative and Charters, anciently did, and may exempt Churches and Chappels both from the Juriſdiction and Viſitation of Archbiſhops and Biſhops; and likewiſe ſubject Churches and Chappels within the Province of Canterbury, to the Archbiſhoprick and Province of Yorke. 2ly. That by their Writs iſſued out of Chancery and other Temporal Courts, they may command Archbiſhops and Biſhops to revoke all Sentences of Excommunication, and all proceedings or interdicts grounded thereon, that are illegal, irregular, uncanonical, or intrenching upon their Charters, or Prerogatives royal. 3ly. That Popes Bulls of exemptions in confirmation of our Kings Charters, added no real nor legal efficacy or vigor to them, being valid to all intents without them.

This Archbiſhop of Canterbury preſuming by his Archiepiſcopal authority, to ſue the Kings Sheriff, Officers and Bailiffs in Kent in his Eccleſiaſtical Court, for executing the Kings Writs, de vi Laica amovenda (placed therein by the Archbiſhop in the conteſt between the Abbot of St. Auguſtines and him) in ſeveral Churches, and threatning to excommunicate them for the ſame, againſt the Kings Crown and dignity; he thereupon iſſued this memorable Prohibition to him not to ſue, moleſt, or excommunicate them, and to reverſe all Sentences of Excommunication thundred out againſt them for obeying his commands.

REX Venerabili in Chriſto patri R. eadem gratia Cantuar. Archiepiſcopo, totius Angliæ Primati, ſalutem. The ſame Archbiſhop about the ſame time endeavouring by Eccleſiaſtical cenſures to enforce one of the Kings Clerks, who was preferred by him to a benefice before he was made a Prieſt, to take the Order of Prieſthod upon him and reſide upon his benefice, whiles actually imployed in and about the Kings ſpecial ſervice, againſt the ancient Prerogative of the King, and priviledge of his Clerks; he thereupon iſſued this Prohibition to him on his Clerks behalf.

How ill the Archbiſhop himſelf was beloved even in Canterbury it ſelf, and how odious he with his Eccleſiaſtical Officers and their proceedings then were to the people, will appear by this Patent and Writ to inquire of an Aſſault made this year upon his Palace, Servants, pillaging of his goods, ſetting his Dean on horſeback with his face to the horſes Tayl, held in his hand for a bridle, and ſo carrying him to Sellinges with ſongs, ſhouts and dances, abuſing his horſe and throwing him into the dirt, to his great diſgrace, and hindrance of the execution of his office.

The King, having recovered in his Court his Preſentation to a Church in the Dioceſſe of Lincoln, by Judgement againſt the Abbot of Faverſham, and preſenting his Clerk thereunto, his Clerk being proſecuted both before the Biſhop of Lincoln, and in the Arches, for intruſion, in procuring an Inſtitution to the ſaid Church, in derogation of the Kings Crown, Dignity, and of the Judgements and proceedings of his Temporal Courts, which ought not to be examined in any Eccleſiaſtical Conſiſtory, iſſued this memorable Writ of Prohibition againſt this Uſurpation.

REX Decano de Arcubus London. & ejus Commiſſariis, ſalutem. Cum nuper in Curia noſtra coram nobis per conſiderationem ejuſdem Curiæ noſtræ recuperaverimus verſus Abbatem de Faverſham præſentationem noſtram ad Eccleſiam de Tryeng. Linc. Dioc. & per breve noſtrum de judicio mandaverimus venerabili patri Linc. Epiſcopo, loci Diocæſano, quod non obſtante reclamatione prædicti Abbatis ydoneam perſonam ad Eccleſiam prædictam ad præſentationem noſtram admitteret; ac dilectum Clericum noſtrum Petrum de Abynton præſentaverimus ad Eccleſiam antedictam, Robertus Ing. Clericus, præfatum Clericum noſtrum, pro eo quod inſtitutionem in Eccleſia prædicta ad præſentationem noſtram juxta conſiderationem noſtram ſibi fieri proſequitur, coram Epiſcopo memorato trahit in placitum coram vobis in Curia Chriſtianitatis, ſicut ex relatu plurium accepimus. Et quia manifeſte eſſet contra Coronam et dignitatem noſtram Regiam, ſi Clerici noſtri, pro eo quod jus noſtrum et executiones Judiciorum in Curia noſtra, ſecundum legem et conſuetudinem regni noſtri, rite reddit orum proſequuntur, traharentur in placitum in Curia Chriſtianitatis; vobis prohibemus, ne placitum illud teneatis in Curia Chriſtianitatis, ſeu quicquam in hac parte quod in Juris noſtri Regii præjudicium vel retardationem executionis Judicii prædicti, cedere valeat, aliqualiter attemptare præſumatis. Teſte Rege apud Clacmanan 12 die Junii.

The Biſhop of Hereford in three of his Viſitations demanding Procurations from Philip de Waleys Rector of a Pariſh Church whereof the King was Patron, and of others, although the Archbiſhops and other Biſhops of the Realm in that and former ages never received any Procurations from Parochial, but only from Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and Religious Houſes; the King thereupon iſſued this memorable Prohibition to him, totally to deſiſt from exacting any ſuch Procurations from him.

Clauſ. 31 E. 1. m. 15. dorſo. Pro Magiſtro Philippo le Waleys.

REX venerabili in Chriſto patri R. eadem gratia Hereford. Epiſcopo, ſalutem. Ex inſinuatione dilecti Clerici noſtri Magiſtri Philippi le Waleys, Rectoris Eccleſiæ de Stratton in Trattonſdale veſtræ Diocæſis, quæ de noſtro patronatu exiſtit, nuper accepimus, quod vos ratione Viſitationis quam in Eccleſia ſua prædicta tribus vicibus, ut dicitur, jam feciſtis, duodecim marcas nomine Procurationis, videlicet pro qualibet vice quatuor marcas exigitis ab eodem, licet alii Epiſcopi regni noſtri ſuas Diocæſes, et etiam Archiepiſcopi ſuas Provincias viſitantes, a Cathedralibus et Collegiatis Eccleſiis, et Religioſis domibus duntaxat, non autem a Parochialibus Eccleſiis Procurationem exigere conſueverint, a tempore cujus memoria non exiſtat, prout ex relatu didicimus plurimorum. Nolentes igitur præfatum Clericum noſtrum taliter indebite prægradari, nec Eccleſiæ prædictæ ad diminucionem noſtri patronatus onera conſueta per vos aut alios quoſcunque imponi. Paternitatem veſtram affectuoſe rogamus, quatinus ab exactione dictæ pecuniæ, ſi ex cauſa prædicta et non alia a præfato Rectore eam exigitis, totaliter deſiſtatis. Teſte Rege apud Waltham Sanctæ Crucis 23 die Febr.

From which memorable Record I ſhall obſerve: 1. That no Archbiſhops, Biſhops or others, in that and former ages, exacted or received any Procurations but only when they actually viſited. 2ly. That they received them only from Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and Religious Houſes which had great Revenues; not from any Pariſh Churches whatſoever. Therefore Procurations exacted from Pariſh Churches by them or their Deputy-Viſitors, or Officers ſince, is an illegal Innovation and Exaction. 3ly. That the exaction of ſuch Procurations, (not ſetled by any Act of Parliament) is not only a grievance to the Incumbents, but injury to the Patrons of Pariſh Churches. 4ly. That the King by his Royal Prerogative and Writs, may and ought in juſtice totally to prohibit and ſuppreſſe ſuch illegal Procurations when exacted by Archbiſhops, Biſhops, or any others in their Viſitations, as King Edward then did by the preceding Writ.

In a bundle of Letters and Writs in the White Tower, I met with this Letter of Bartholomew de Ferentin the Kings Agent at Rome, concerning Pope Boniface his downfall and deceitfull dealings towards him, feeding him only with good words; and and his ſucceſſors good affections towards him, and his diſcourſes with him concerning the Diſmes granted him by Pope Boniface his Bull, not unworthy publick view. An. 31 E. 1.

A Mon treſcher & treſhonurable Seignour mon Sire E. par la grace de Dieu noble Roy de Engleterre, Seign. de Hyrelaunde, & Duk de Aquitaigne, voſtre petit Clerk, ſi vous pleſt, Bartholemeu de Ferentyn, due reverence, &c. Sachez Sire qe je me remuay de la Court de Roume vers Engleterre la veille del Aurenoef, & fu ſi treſdurement greve de une male goute en cheminaunt com je fu vers la Court, quil me coveneit fere de une jornee deus, par quey je ai eſte longement en le chemyn. Si arivay a Dovere le dimeigne del my quareme au veſpre, & ma gente ma mena ſi fort par ſes leis, qe a grant peine vink a Londr. la veille de Palmes & la fuy taunt de ly greve, qe je ne puis nule part aler ne a pe ne a chival; par quey vous pri, eher Sire, qe vous eiet ma demoere eſcuſee ſauns prendre la a mal, por la dite acheſon: Car ele me greve taunt ou plus com mon mal. Mes ſi toſt com je puis chivacher en nule manere, je me haſteray vers vous a mon poer. Je tochey Sire de vos boſoignes a l'Apoſtoile Boniface, qe eſt a Dieu comande, et les procuray taunt com je poey, mes je ne poey onk rien auer de ly forz qe beles promeſſes, taunt qe le aventure auint dont bene ſauet. Et puis ſa mort ay je toche a noſtre Seignour qe ore eſt, et ly dis des beaus donns qe vous auiet regarde la Court le queus il auoit et ad en Chaumbre, et il me reſpoundi bonement, qe je ne auey nul meſſage depart vous a ly, mes a ſon predeceſſour. Et quant nuſ meſſager eſpecial enuerret a ly, il fra vous prieres il auant com gracioſe reſon le ſoeffe. Je le dis auſi de la Dyme qe ſon predeceſſour vus granta en condition, qe ſi la guerre de Cecille ſuſt apeſes, ou il morſſt auant la Dyme perquilye, qe vous euſſent entierement, quant qe ſuſt a quiller apres cel tens. Et il me demanda, ſi vous auiet de ce Bulle? Et je reſpoundre, vous auiet de ceo teſmoigne de dive dois de mon Sire Othes et de moy, qe fumes ouient de part ſon predeceſſour, qe nous le vous deiſſom de part ly, & ne ly duſt pas ſembler qe nous vouſiſſom dire tens paroles de part ſi grant Seignurie, ſi eles ne feuſſent veritables. Et il me reſpondi, quil ſauns Bulle ne le crerreit. Mes ne pur quant bien eſt fet coe qe vous auet de cele boſoigne comence, & bon eſt, quil ſeit cheny. Et qe le dite nunciatioun de mon Sire Othes & de moy ſoit mis en eſcrit de main comune. Autres choſes Sire qe font a dire, vus dirray de bouche a plus toſt qe je porray, car trop ſerreit demaunder les vus toz en lettre. Deu par ſa pite vus ſauve de niaus, & vus doint bene fere vos boſoignes. Eſcrites a Loundre le jour de Palmes. In bundela Literarum, &c. in Turre Lond. An. 31 E. 1.

The King having ſeiſed the Franchiſes of the Biſhop of Durham in Parliament An. 30 E. 1. for ſundry oppreſſions and encroachments upon his Tenants, and his Crown, Dignity, Courts, complained of to the King; the Biſhop and his Tenants at laſt came to an agreement in Parliament the next year, whereupon the King reſtored his Franchiſes, and the Biſhop remitted his indignation againſt them; which accord is thus recorded.

Et

An. 31 E. 1. Et par la ou la dite communalte prient, qe nul fraunk homme de l'Eveſche, ſoit empleyé en Curt Crestine, forſ qe de Teſtament e de Matrimoign, e qe ceus qe de autres choſes ſont empledetz en meiſme la Curt, eient la prohibicion e l'atachement ſur le Official, auſi bien come ſur la partie; Si graunte l'Eveſque, qe la prohibicion, ne l'atachement, ne ſoit a nuli dee, e qe ceux qui vienent en contre la prohibicion, ſoient punis ſolonc la lei, quel juge de Seint Eſglise qe ceo ſont. Et endreit des terres e des tenementz qe ſont tenuz en drengage, cleime l'Eveſque la garde des tenementz de li tenuz, e par cele encheſon ne cleime il mie garde des tenementz tenuz dautres, ſauve des tenantz le Priour. Et a ceo que les gentz de la communaute ſe ſentirent grevetz, qe l'Eveſque fit ſeiſir e tenir en ſa gardes terres, qe ſont tenues dautres par ſerviſe de Chevaler, par encheſon qe meiſmes ceus tenauntz, tindrent de li par ſervice de Chevaler; dit l'Eveſque qil devoit auer tieles gardes par ſa Prerogative, des terres qe meiſmes ceus tenaunz tindrent de autres par ſerviſe de Chevaler entre Tyne & Teyſe, auſi come le Roi, les ad aillours en Engleterre. E pur ceo qe l'Eveſque e les ditz gentz, ne poaient acorder ſur ceo point, ſi ſe miſtrent eus en le dit noſtre Seignur le Roi. Et le Roi al honurance de Dieu e de Seint Cuthbert, granta, qe l'Eveſque le euſt, auſi come il meiſmes la d'aillours en Engleterre. Et par la ou liſt a cheſcun fraunk homme, fere molin en ſa terre demeyne e prendre mine de charbun, e de feer, les Baillifs Leveſque deſturberent, auſi bien les Seignurs des viles, come autres fraunks tenauntz, qe eus ne poaient des choſes avandites lor profit fere; ſi voet Leveſqe e grante, qe cheſcun homme face molyn, ſil ne ſoit ſur terre qe ſeute deyue a ſon molyn, ou nuſant ali, ou autre aureit remede. Et qe cheſcun homme preigne mine de carbon, e de feer, en ſa terre ſeverale, e auſint la ou autres ont commune, en meiſme la manere, come il meſmes fet en ſa terre ſeverale, e la ou autres ont commune. Et par la ou nul fraunk homme de Leveſche, ne ſoleit eſtre empledetz, fors qe en la fraunche Curt Leveſqe, vindrent les Baillifs Leveſqe, e les firent empleder as halymotz, e les amercierent entre les vileins, en contre commune lei du Roiaume; ſi voet Leveſqe e graunte, qe nul fraunk homme ne veigne, ſi il ne voille la venir, e pleindre ſei de aucun vilein; & ſi tort li ſeit fet par aucun vilein, e il ſen voille pleindre aillours en fraunche Curt, bref li ſoit grante. Et pur la ou nul frannk qe eſt pris en la frannchiſe de Dureſme, pur fet en meiſme la frannchiſe, ſoit enpriſone en le Wapentak de Sadbergh, ne nul homme pris pur treſpas fet en le Wapentak, ſoit empriſone a Dureſme, qe neſt pas ore ſuffert: ſi voet Leveſque e grante, qe iſſint ſoit, hors pris ceus qui ſont areſtuz pur treſpas fet a li meiſmes. Et par la ou touz les frannk hommes de Leſveſche ſoleient eſtre quites de Thonun, e de totes maneres ducatz fets en ville Uppelannde, la vindrent les baillifs Leveſque, e priſt rent Thonun communaument, auſi ben de ceus qe achatent un acre de ble en terre, boef, ou vache, ou nul autre manere de ſuſtenance, en totes les villes de Upelannd, come en ville Marchannde, e ceo par extorſion, qe unkes ne fu fet en tens de ſes predeceſſurs: Si diſoit Leveſque, qe ceo ne fu mie par li, ſi voet e grante qe deſoremes nul Thonn ne ſoit pris, fors qe en meiſmes les lieus, e en meiſme la manere, come il ſoleit eſtre pris en tens de ſes predeceſſurs. Et qe nul de ſes Miniſtres ne ſeiſe autri terres ne chateus en ſa main ſanz brief de la Chauncelerie de garant, ſil ne ſoit apres la mort de Aunceſtre qui tint en chef de li qe neſt pas ore ſoffert: ben voet Leveſque que nule terre ne chatel ſeient ſeiſi en ſa main, autrement qe nad eſte uſe en tens de ſes predeceſſurs. Et qe nul de ſes Miniſtres ne leve dette de nul frannk homme, ſi ele ne ſoit conue, ou en curt recovere, ou ſa certeine dette: ben le voet Leveſque e le grante e la ou il prient, qe nul cariage ſoit pris de frank hommes, ſe il ne ſoit pur certain donant, ſicome eſt uſe par mi le Roiaume, hors pris ceux qi tienant leur terres par tien ſerviſe, e ceo neſt pas ſoffert: ben voet Leveſque e grante qe autrement ne ſoit fet, ſi ceo ne ſoit au tens de guerre, ſicome le Roi e autres Seignurs ſont en tiel caas. E qe nul ſuthbaillif de Coroner ſoit a Cheval, fors qe les qatre Coroners, ſicome fu en tens de ſes predeceſſours: ben le voet Leveſque e le grante. Eſtre ceo, la ou touz les hommes del Eveſche, ſoleient aver frannk iſſue e entre a la porte du Bayl, *daler a le corps ſeint, li et ſes Miniſtres point ne le ſuffrirent, a ceo qil diſoient: ſi voet Leveſque e grant, qe nul ſeit deſturbe par li, mes en tens de guerre e en autres tens quant meſtier ſerra de garde, e uncore en meiſmes cel tens voet Leveſque e grante qe len puiſſe fraunchement

A Monk was elected Biſhop thereof, qui non inveniens gratiam conſecrationis ab Archiepiſcopo Cantuarienſi, ad ſedem Apoſtolicam pꝛofectus eſt. Quo cum veniſſet, diſcuſſo electionis ejus ordine coram Papa, electio Wygornienſis Monachi penitus eſt quaſſata; Deditque ergo Dominus Papa Bonifacius Epiſcopatum illum (by his Papal proviſion) cuidam de oꝛdine Fratrum Minoꝛum, to wit, Gulihelmo de Geynsburgh, Romæ Satanici ſacri Palatii Lector, & quia hanc in Concionibus ac Scholaſticis congreſſibus defendebat doctrinam, Papam non poſſe errare, neque a quoquam eſſe judicandum licet mille Chꝛiſtianoꝛum animas ad oꝛcum detruſerit, effectus eſt a Bonifacio octavo (execrabiliſſime Romanæ ſedis monſtro) Wygornienſis Epiſcopus, An. Dom. 1301. as [b] John Bale Biſhop of Oſſory relates. King Edward having formerly ſent him and Hugh Maunceſtr a Dominican as his Nuncioes to the King of France, about reparations for the damages done by him to the Province of Aquitain, was content to accept his fealty, and reſtore the Temporalties of the Biſhoprick to him; but upon his ſolemn renunciation of a clauſe in the Popes Bull before the King and his Counſil in Windeſor Caſtle, which invaded and prejudiced his royal prerogative, as this Record and Memorandum thereof informs us.

In obedience to which Writ, the Chancellor, Judges and Barons framed this enſuing Writ of reſtitution, from whence we may obſerve; 1. That our Kings by their Royal Prerogative may ſeiſe and retain the Franchiſes and Liberties of any of their Biſhops, when they or their Officers abuſe and exceed them, to the oppreſſion and grievance of their Tenants, or other Subjects, till they be righted. 2ly. That the King in ſuch caſes may conſtitute ſuch Juſtices, Chancellors, Stewards, and other Officers by his own Royal authority, as the Biſhops uſed to conſtitute, to exerciſe all Juriſdictions in the Kings Name and Right alone, not in the Biſhops: Therefore he may conſtitute all their Eccleſiaſtical Officers too by like reaſon, when they exceed or abuſe their authority, in holding Plea in their Eccleſiaſtical Courts of matters belonging to his Temporal Courts, Crown or Dignity; or unjuſtly vex or excommunicate his Subjects, or refuſe to iſſue out their Proceſs in the Kings Name, ſtead, and under his Seal, according to the Statutes of 37 H. 8. c. 17. & 1 E. 6. c. 2. The Writ they then formed runs in this forme.

The Kings Eſcheator diſtraining the Abbot of St. Benedict de Hulmo for the Palfry and Cup of his predeceſſor, pretended to be antiently due to the King by his prerogative, and received from his predeceſſors upon every occaſion; whereas there was never any received by the King before: Thereupon a Writ of Inquiry of the truth thereof iſſued to the Kings Eſcheator, upon which an Inquiſition was found for the Abbot againſt the King, which I diſcovered in the White Tower Chappel.

This year the King having collected a vaſt ſumme of money to carry on his Wars againſt the Scots, and laid it up in his Treaſury at Weſtminſter, his Treaſury was broken up in the night, and one hundred thouſand pounds in money, beſides Plate and Jewels, ſtoln out of it by the *Abbot and Monks of Weſtminſter, and other their confederates; who were then ſuſpected, accuſed, indicted thereof, and thereupon committed priſoners to the Tower of London; who afterwards petitioning the King, that they were falſly and maliciouſly accuſed of this fact, deſired the truth thereof might be inquired, and ſpeedy juſtice done thereupon; the Hiſtory whereof and proceedings thereupon are thus recorded in the Records in the Tower.

Upon this Inquiſition I found a particular Roll in the White Tower, of many Witneſſes examined upon Oath, who atteſted that they ſaw ſundry of thoſe Monks and other perſons in the night time paſſing often times to and from the Kings Treaſury within the Abby, carrying ſome things in their arms and laps; that they ſent and conveyed away by water great hampers which were very heavy, wherein they conceived the Kings mony and plate were conveyed away, and ſome peeces of the Kings Plate and Jewels were found and ſeiſed in London and elſewhere; whereupon the Monks were long detained in priſon, till afterwards releaſed by the Kings ſpecial command, when he repaired to Weſtminſter to render thanks to God for his Victory over the Scots upon his victorious return from Scotland.

Matthew Weſtminſter a Monk of that Abby, ſomewhat abruptly relates the ſtory of this robbery of the Kings Treaſury, and impriſonment of ten Monks only for it (when as it appears by the Record that 48 of them, with the Abbot, were impriſoned and indicted for it) in favour to the Monks; together with their enlargement out of priſon by the Kings reiterated command, the Judges being unwilling, and denying to releaſe them, becauſe they reputed them more criminal than this Hiſtorian renders them. * Spoliatus fuit Rex Angliæ Edwardus de Theſauro ſuo per unicum latronem in Anglia, propter quod decem Monachi Weſtmonaſterienſes fuerunt incarcerati cum injuria. Non ſufficit dixiſſe, Preſumptuoſiſſimus latro per ſe Theſaurariam Domini Regis Angliæ *ſubintravit, niſi modus & forma ſubnectatur. Many of which excuſed themſelves by reaſon of their great debts, poverty, loſſes, and Corodies formerly granted to others.

The King alſo by his Eccleſiaſtical Prerogative and Soveraignty iſſued this Writ to the Abbot and Covent of St. Edmunds, to grant a competent Corody to one of his ancient Servants anſwerable to his merits and condition during his life.

REX dilecto ſibi in Chriſto Abbati et Conventui de Sancto Edmundo ſalutem. Cum nuper per noſtras literas vos rogaverimus pro dilecto Serviente noſtro Rogero le Uſſher, qui nobis à multis retroactis temporibus benè & fideliter deſervivit, & cui in vitæ ſuæ neceſſariis juxta ſuorum exigenciam meritorum nondum providimus ut vellemus, quatinus ipſum Rogerum in domo veſtra prædicta noſtri intuitu admitteretis, cum duobus equis, et duobus garcionibus in victu et veſtitu, et aliis vitæ ſuæ neceſſariis honorifice quoad vixerit exhibendo. literaſque veſtras ſigillo veſtro communi ſignatas ſuper hoc ſibi fieri faceretis; ac vos nobis reſcripſeritis Clauſ. 31 E 1 m. 5 dorſo. Pro Rogero le Uſher.

An. 31 E.1. ſupplicando, ut cum domus veſtra prædicta de quodam Willielmo de Camera ſerviente noſtro ad conſimilem rogatum noſtrum onerata exiſtat, velimus vobis ſuper hoc parcere iſta vice; Nos onerationem illam penſantes, et præfato Rogero pro bono et diutino ſervicio ſuo in hujuſmodi neceſſariis provideri corditer affectantes, Vobis iterato mandamus rogantes, quatenus eundem Rogerum in domo veſtra prædicta ſaltem cum uno equo et uno garcione admittere, & eis neceſſaria ſua, juxta alterius mandati noſtri continenciam exhibere velitis noſtris precibus & amore, literas veſtras ſigillo veſtro ſignatas ſibi ſuper hoc fieri facientes. Pro eo enim quod domus veſtra prædicta per prædictum Willelmum ad noſtri inſtanciam eſt, ut aſſeritis onerata, vos in recompenſacionem oneris illius, volumus de altero equo et altero garcione prædicti Rogeri in prioribus literis noſtris contentis exonerari. Quid autem in præmiſſis duxeritis faciendum nobis per latorem præſencium reſcribatis. Teſte Rege apud Kyncardyn 17 die Auguſti.

The King by his prerogative writing to the Prior and Covent of Ely for a Corody for the ſame Roger Uſſer, received this excuſe from them, by reaſon of their great expenſes in the Court of Rome, (about the election of their Biſhop) and other oppreſſions.

Bundela Brevium & Literarum in Turre London. Anno 31 E 1.

MAgnifico Principi Domino E. Dei gratia Regi Angliæ illuſtri ſui per omnia devoti, Prior Elyenſis & ejuſdem loci humilis Conventus cum omni reverencia ſeipſos, et felices in Domino ſemper ad vota ſucceſſus. Literas veſtras pro Rogero le Uſſer nuper nobis porrectas ſummo honore ut decuit recepimus. Quocirca Serenitati veſtræ non ſine cordis et ſpiritus lamentatione ſignificamus, quod veſtra Elyenſis Eccleſia jam per varia cauſas et diſcrimina, tam in Romana Curia quam in Anglia, aliaſque oppreſſiones multimodas, ad tantam his diebus devgit inopiam, quod propriæ ſuſtentationi ejus non ſuppetunt facultates; Propter quod veſtræ peticioni pro dicto Rogero factæ ad præſens ſatisfacere non valemus; Regiam igitur celſitudinem, quæ afflictis more ſolito pio affectu compati conſuevit, humiliter imploramus, quatinus noſtram impotenciam in hac parte habere dignetur excuſatam, ſaltim donec facultas uberius ſe optulerit, ut ex hoc apud Deum veſtrorum augeatur cumulus meritorum. Vitam et incolumitatem veſtram ad regni veſtri regimen conſervat Altiſſimus per tempora diuturna.

Per breve de Privato Sigillo, dupp.

The King out of his free grace aſſenting to the election of this Maurice Archbiſhop of Caſſell, without any knowledge of his perſon, or teſtimony of any of his Loyal Subjects from thence, made this publike obligation, promiſe and oath for his fidelity to the King and his heirs, in caſe the Pope ſhould confirm his Election, ratified with his Seal, the original whereof I found in the White Tower.

An. 31 E. 1. Pope Benedict the 10. having confirmed the election, and consecrating the person of Maurice Archbishop of Cassel, by whose consecration the Archdeaconry of Cassil which he formerly held, became voyd, the Pope thereupon pretending it belonged to his donation, conferred the Archdeaconry by his Papal provision upon Thomas Olonxy, and his Prebendary in that Church upon one Peter, usurping on the Kings right and prerogative, to whom the donation of the Archdeaconry & Prebendary of right belonged, by reason of the vacancy of the Archbishoprick. This Thomas and Peter procured the Popes Letters, to put them into actual possession of the Archdeaconry and Prebendary, under several penalties and Ecclesiastical censures; but afterwards understanding, that the right of conferring them was only in the King, and that they could not gain possession thereof by the Popes Letters; they thereupon publikely renounced all their right and interest therein by vertue of the Popes Provisions and Letters, by these two original Instruments which I found in the White Tower Chappel, worthy observation.

One of the Kings miners in Ireland having killed a man, and the reſt of them being afterwards beaten, aſſaulted, their mines filled and broken down, and ſome of them excommunicated and vexed for beating of a Chaplain in their own defence, ſo that they were enforced to quit the mines, and give over working, made this complaint thereupon to the Treaſurers and Barons of the Kings Exchequer in Ireland, who tranſmitted it into England; whereupon the King ordered Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer to examine the buſineſſe, and do them right, as this Original Complaint thereof (I found in the White Tower) demonſtrates.

A Leur treſchiers Seigneurs, Treſorier noſtre Seigneur le Roy, et al Barons del Eſcheker, les Minours en Dirland ſalutz, et chieres amiſtez. An. 32 E. 1. The Archbiſhop of Canterbury excommunicating the Prior and Covent of St. Oſwald in Glouceſter, of the Kings foundation, and his Free-Chapple, exempt from all Archiepiſcopal and Epiſcopal Juriſdiction, becauſe they oppoſed his Viſitation of them; and commanding all perſons within the City and County of Glouceſter not to ſell to, or buy of them any Victuals or other neceſſaries, nor in any kinde to communicate with them, in high contempt, prejudice and derogation of his Royal Crown and Dignity; the King thereupon iſſued this memorable Writ and Proclamation againſt his Archiepiſcopal unchriſtian Inhibition, commanding all his Subjects to buy, ſell and communicate with them in all things, as freely as they did before.

Clauſ. 32 E. 1. m. 2. dorſo. Pro Priore Sancti Oſwaldi Glouc.

REX Vic. Glouc. ſalutem. Quia ex querela Prioris & Conventus Eccleſiæ Sancti Oſwaldi Glouc. quæ eſt libera Capella noſtra, accepimus, quod venerabilis pater Robertus Cantuar. Archiepiſcopus in Villa noſtra Glouc. & alibi in Balliva tua, nuper ſub pœna Excommunicationis fecit publice inhiberi, ne quis eiſdem Priori et Conventui decimas, redditus, aut alia jura Eccleſiaſtica reddat, ſeu victualia aut alia ad ſuſtentationem eorundem neceſſaria eis vendat, vel ab eis emat, ſeu aliqualiter communicet cum eiſdem; quod ſi ſic tolleraretur in noſtri et Coronæ noſtræ præjudicium, et Regiæ dignitatis noſtræ derogationem manifeſte redundaret. In the Plea Rolls of Trinity Terme held at York, Anno 32 E. 1. (reserved in the Receivers Office of the Kings Exchequer at Westminster) this memorable Case (* formerly touched) is at large recorded, the brief whereof I shall first present you with in English. The King by his Letters Patents granted to Mr. John Bonhs the the Prebend of Styvelyngton in the Church of St. Peter in York, belonging to him by the vacancy of the Archbiſhoprick, commanding Thomas Corbridge the new Archbiſhop to admit and put him into actual poſſeſſion thereof; who neglected to do it after two ſucceſſive mandates, to the Kings damage of 10000 l. Thereupon the Archbiſhop being ſummoned to anſwer this contempt before the Kings Juſtices, upon his appearing before them, alledged; That he was alwayes ready to obey the Kings commands ſo far as he could, but he could not admit his Clerk, becauſe the Pope by reaſon of the vacancy, and his confirmation of him in the Court of Rome as Archbiſhop, had by his Proviſion conferred the ſaid Prebendary and Chapple thereunto belonging on his own Clerks, of whom they were now full; ſo as he by reaſon of his Oath and obedience made to his Lord the Pope, could not invalid the Act of the Pope his Superiour Lord, nor deprive or remove his Clerks, and therefore prayed the King to hold him excuſed; refuſing to give any other anſwer: Whereupon Judgement was ſolemnly given againſt him, That what he alledged was no ſufficient cauſe for him not to execute the Kings commands, and that all his Temporalties held of the King ſhould be ſeiſed into his hands for this his contempt and diſobedience, untill he ſhould yield obedience thereunto; and the Archbiſhop, and all others as well Clergymen as Laymen, were in full Court prohibited under pain of forfeiting all they could forfeit, not to proſecute or cauſe to be proſecuted any ſuit or appeal in the Court of Rome againſt the Rights of the Kings Crown and Dignity, nor to make any inſtruments, nor to give any ayd, counſil or aſſent in any kinde in this caſe, whereby any diſcord might ariſe between the Kings Court and the Court of Rome. I ſhall now ſubjoyn the Tranſcript of the whole Record it ſelf. An. 32 E. 1.

Nota.

From which memorable Record I ſhall obſerve: 1. That the Popes pretended right to conferre the vacant Livings belonging to thoſe Archbiſhops and Biſhops he conſecrated at Rome by his Proviſions, was a meer Innovation and Uſurpation, which our Kings would by no means permit or connive at, but ſtrenuouſly oppoſed, as inconſiſtent with, & deſtructive to the antient Rights and Priviledges of their Crowns, to preſent to all Prebendaries, Churches, Chappels of Archbiſhopricks & Biſhopricks that became or continued void, during the time their Temporalties were in their hands. 2ly. That no Bulls, Mandates, Cenſures, nor Proceſſe of the Pope, were pleadable in the Kings Courts in barre of the Kings Writs or Precepts. 3ly. That our Archbiſhops and Biſhops, by reaſon of their Oathes and obedience to the Pope, held themſelves obliged in duty and conſcience to obey the Popes Commands and Proviſions, rather then the Kings Writs and Preſentations. 4ly. That this their obedience to the Pope before the King, was adjudged a very high contempt in Law, for which their Temporalties were legally ſeiſed into the Kings hands, till they obeyed his Writs, before the Popes Injunctions to them. 5ly. That our Kings under ſevere forfeitures and penalties prohibited all Suits in, Appeals to, Inſtruments and Citations from Rome, prejudicial to their Prerogative, Crown and Royal dignity, or which might engender any conteſts between the Juriſdiction of the Kings Courts and the Court of Rome.

This ſeiſure of the Archbiſhops Temporalties into the Kings hands, by vertue of this Judgement, and his death ſoon after, I finde thus recorded in the Fine Rolls of this year.

This Record was ſeconded with another of as high and conſiderable a nature about the ſame time; which fell out upon this occaſion. Gerardus Pope Benedicts Nuncio (at his command) impudently demanding the Diſms of the Clergy of England & Ireland for the uſe of the Holy Land and Church of Rome, (formerly granted by Pope Boniface his predeceſſor to K. Edw. for his own uſe) from the Collectors and others, contrary to Pope Boniface his Bull, and iſſuing out Warrants to the Kings Collectors in every Dioceſs to prohibit their collection therof, againſt the Kings own ſtrict Writs to collect it; the King thereupon iſſued this Writ to Ralph de Sandwich to repair to this Nuncio with the Mayor, Aldermen, and other Citizens of London, and ſommon him to appear privately before them in the Tower of London, without a publike Notary, and to require him forthwith to revoke and null all his Warrants to the Collectors, as contrary to his Crown and Dignity, which no former Nuncio durſt attempt, under pain of incurring his higheſt indignation belonging to Rebels and Enemies of his Crown, and forthwith in their preſence to iſſue out Warrants of revocation to every Dioceſſe by ſpecial Meſſengers at the Kings coſt; and if he refuſed to come to the Tower, or iſſue forth ſuch Letters of revocation, then preſently to attach him for this high affront, and comming into the Realm without his royal aſſent.

There being a Capias Excommunicatum issued, upon the Archbishop of Canterburies certificate, against Edmund de Hoo, who appealed against this sentence to the Court of Rome as unjust, the King thereupon superseded the Writ de Excommunicato capiendo; but being afterwards informed there was no such Appeal, or that it was not prosecuted, he then issued this Writ, to hear and examine the truth of these suggestions, and do right to both parties.

Claus. 32 E.1. m. 7. dorso. Pro Edmund de Hoo.

REX Vicecomiti Suff. salutem. Cum nuper ad requisitionem venerabilis patris R. Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi, per literas suas patentes nobis significantis, quod Edmundus de Hoo propter manifestam contumaciam suam excommunicatus est, nec se vult per censuram Ecclesiasticam justitiari, per breve nostrum tibi præcipimus, quod præfatum Edmundum per corpus suum secundum consuetudinem Angliæ justitiares, donec Sanctæ Ecclesiæ, tam de contemptu quam de injuria ei illata, ab eo esset satisfactum; & per quædam Instrumenta publica, quæ prælatus Edmundus in Cancellaria nostra exhibuit, intelleximus, quod idem Edmundus à sententia prædicta in ipsum & sibi adhærentes per præfatum Archiepiscopum lata, tanquam ab iniqua, ad sedem Apostolicam pro se et sibi adhærentibus legitime appellavit; cujus quidem appellationis negotium idem Edmundus, ut asserit, prosequitur cum effectu; & jam ex insinuatione Elyæ Puger & Willielmi de Evereſdon, ad quorum prosecutionem dicta sententia fuit in ipsum Edmundum lata, accepimus, quod idem Edmundus à dicta sententia (ut præmittitur) non appellavit, nec est aliquam appellationem in hac parte hactenus prosecutus; Nolentes quod præfato Edmundo per prædictum breve nostrum via præcludatur, quominus appellationem suam prosequi possit in forma juris: Maximè cum hujusmodi breve nostrum de gratia nostra procedat, et appellantium status integer esse debeat, necnon quod prædicti Elias & Willielmus à prosecutione juris sui occasione alicujus suggestionis frivolæ nobis factæ, contra justitiam impediantur. Tibi præcipimus, quod executioni brevis nostri prædicti, tibi de ipso Edmundo & sibi adhærentibus, per eorum corpora justitiandis directi, faciendæ supersedeas usque ad Quindenam Sancti Michaelis proximo futuram; quem diem præfato Edmundo dedimus ad certificandum & informandum nos & consilium nostrum de appellatione sua prædicta, et qualiter eam fuerat prosecutus, et hoc in præsentia prædictorum Elie & Willielmi, si tunc interesse voluerint, quos per te super hoc sufficienter volumus præmuniri. Et habeas ibi tunc hoc breve. Teste Rege apud Stryvelin 25 die Julii.

Pat 32 E. 1. m. 18. De vacatione Abbatiæ Sancti Edmundi de Bury conceſſa.

REX omnibus ad quos, &c. ſalutem. Sciatis quod ob devotionem quam erga Sanctum Edmundum glorioſum Chriſti Martyrem gerimus & habemus, & ut Monachi Abbatiæ de Sancto Edmundo de cætero poſſint quietius & tranquillius Altiſſimo famulari, conceſſimus pro nobis & hæredibus noſtris, Abbati & Conventui Abbatiæ prædictæ, quod Prior & Conventus Abbatiæ ejuſdem & eorum ſucceſſores in ſingulis vacationibus ejuſdem Abbatiæ, quotiens videlicet ipſam exnunc vacare contiget, contingeat, habeant et teneant cuſtodiam Abbatiæ illius, et omnium temporalium ejuſdem, cum omnibus rebus et bonis ad Abbatiam illam qualitercunque ſpectantibus, adeo plenè & integrè, ſicut Abbates & Conventus ejuſdem loci Abbatiam illam & temporalia cum rebus & bonis prædictis, ſede plena, aliquibus retroactis temporibus habere & tenere conſueverunt. Ita quod ipſi Prior & Conventus de temporalibus & bonis, ac rebus illis plenam & liberam adminiſtrationem habeant, & inde diſponere & ordinare poſſint, prout eis melius & utilius videbitur faciendum; & prout Abbas & Conventus dicti loci inde poſſent ordinare & diſponere, ſede plena: Salvis nobis & hæredibus noſtris feodis Militum quæ tenentur de Abbatia prædicta, & Advocationibus Eccleſiarum, cum acciderint temporibus vacationum prædictarum. Ita quod omnes redditus & ſervitia annua de feodis prædictis in vacationibus illis provenientia remaneant Priori & Conventui prædictis: Salvis etiam nobis & hæredibus noſtris Eſcaetis quas accidere contigerit temporibus prædictis; quæ quidem Eſcaetæ ſingulis hujuſmodi vacationibus finitis, videlicet poſt fidelitatem ipſius, quem ibidem eligi & confirmari, ſeu præfici contigerit in Abbatem, nobis & hæredibus noſtris factam, liberentur & remaneant Abbati, Priori & Conventui dicti loci & ſucceſſoribus ſuis, ſine occaſione vel impedimento noſtri vel hæredum noſtrorum quorumcunque: Reddendo nobis et hæredibus noſtris pro qualibet vacatione Abbatiæ prædictæ, ſive duraverit per annum integrum, ſive per minus tempus, Mille et Ducentas Marcas infra annum, a tempore quo Abbatia illa vacare inceperit, computandum; videlicet, Sexcentas Marcas in fine primi dimidii anni illius, & Sexcentas Marcas in fine ejuſdem anni. Et ſi fortè vacatio Abbatiæ illius duraverit ultra annum, tunc prædicti Prior & Conventus pro proximo anno integro ſequenti, ſi tanto tempore duraverit, ſolvant nobis & hæredibus noſtris Mille & Ducentas Marcas ad terminos prædictos; & ſic pro quolibet anno integro poſt primum annum, durante vacatione prædicta, ad eoſdem terminos Mille & Ducentas Marcas. Et ſi ultra annum integrum vel annos integros duraverit minori tempore quam per annum, tunc pro illo tempore minori, de prædictis Mille & Ducentis Marcis minus, pro rata temporis illius proportionabiliter nobis ſolvant. Et volumus & concedimus pro nobis & hæredibus noſtris, quod prædicti Prior & Conventus & eorum ſucceſſores imperpetuum habeant & teneant cuſtodiam Abbatiæ prædictæ ſingulis temporibus vacationum ejuſdem in forma prædicta. Ita quod nullus Vicecomes, Eſcaetor, ſeu quicunque alius Ballivus vel Miniſter noſter vel hæredum noſtrorum de cuſtodia Abbatiæ prædictæ, ſeu Cellarum ſuarum, Maneriorum, aut aliarum rerum ſeu bonorum quorumcunque, ad dictam Abbatiam ſeu Cellas ſuas ſpectantium quoquo modo, ratione vacationis illius, ſe in aliquo intromittat; excepto quod Eſcaetor, vel alius Miniſter noſter, ſeu hæredum noſtrorum qui pro tempore fuerit, infra portas tamen Abbatiæ prædictæ in principio cujuſlibet vacationis ejuſdem, quandam ſimplicem ſeiſinam, nomine noſtri Regii dominii capiat; & ea ſic capta, ſtatim exinde recedat abſque aliquo inde capiendo ſeu etiam aſportando. Ita quod ultra unum diem, occaſione ſeiſinæ prædictæ, moram ibi non faciat, nec aliquem ibidem ſubſtituat loco ſui. Volumus inſuper & concedimus pro nobis & hæredibus noſtris, quod ſi nos forſitan vel hæredes noſtri, aliquo tempore vacationis Abbatiæ prædictæ exercitum noſtrum fecerimus ſummoneri, prædicti Prior & Conventus & ſucceſſores ſui, pro propriis & dominicis feodis Militum Abbatiæ illius in manus ipſorum Prioris & Conventus tunc exiſtentibus ad ſervitium in eodem exercitu faciendum minime teneantur, nec occaſione ſervitii illius moleſtentur in aliquo ſeu graventur, ſed inde penitus ſint quieti: Salvis tamen nobis & hæredibus noſtris ſervitiis feodorum Militum, quæ tenentur de Abbatia prædicta temporibus vacationum ejuſdem ad nos pertinentibus ratione exercitus ſupradicti. Per breve d privato ſigillo. Ibid. Pro Johanne de Carleton.

The King by his Prerogative writ alſo for Corrodies for his aged Servants to the Prior and Covent of St. Maries in Suthwerke, and others, who returned theſe anſwers to him, rendring ſeveral reaſons, humbly tendred to his Majeſty, of their diſabilities to effect it, though otherwiſe willing.

SEreniſſimo Principi & Domino ſuo Reverendo E. Dei gratia Regi Angliæ, &c. ſui humiles & devoti Sacerdotes Prior & Coventus beatæ Mariæ de Suthwerk, ea quæ poterunt pro ſuo Domino orationum ſuffragia apud Deum. Placuit Excellentiæ veſtræ nobis, præcipere, quod Willielmo le Fiſhere, ſervienti veſtro, quoad viveret, faceremus in victu & neceſſariis provideri, Literas noſtras patentes inde ſibi faciendo, Sigilli noſtri Capituli conſignatas; quodque inde faciendum duceremus, vos efficeremus noſtris literis magis certos: Quibus mandatis, novit Altiſſimus, humili animo pareremus, ſi noſtræ ad hoc ſufficerent facultates. Sed apud Majeſtatem veſtram, à prædicto onere ſubeundo, excuſare non debet (Princeps inclyte) ſumma paupertas, qua nos deprimimur: cum omnis res, redditus et poſſeſſiones noſtræ ad ſuſtentationem noſtram ſufficere non valeant, niſi gratia Dei quæ ad ſupplementum agit, piæ fidelium largitiones nobis ſuccurrerent in hoc caſu. Eccleſia etiam noſtra, quæ jam triginta annis elapſis paſſa (proh dolor!) eſt ruinam, circa cujus relevationem ab eo tempore toto laboravimus noſtro poſſe, necdum tantum potuimus in ipſius relevatione invaleſcere, variis & oneroſis exactionibus tam in ſpiritualibus quam in temporalibus præpediti, quod noſtrum ex toto ædificare potuimus Campanile. Continuâ inſuper pugna, quam abſque interpellatione contra rabiem fluvii Tamenſis aggredimur, ſuper cujus ripam noſtra domuncula ſituatur, quam ad ſalvationem Eccleſiæ noſtræ & noſtram tantum non ſufficiunt vires noſtræ quin appoſito ſubſidio parti uni, pars alia ſtatim nobis periculum comminetur. Denique (Domine excellentiſſime) veſtra attendat magnificentia, quod in veſtris hujuſmodi proviſionibus ſervientium, Domibus, pinguibus de magnis et ſuperabundantibus Maneriis et aliis poſſeſſionibus magnificorum Principum, Progenitorum veſtrorum, Regum Angliæ (quarum fragmenta ac mica, quæ de menſis earum cadunt, pluris quam totâ noſtra ſubſtantia ſint valoris) veſtra ſemper Curia ſcribere conſuebit: non exilibus et exiguis Cellulis fratrum, quæ ex ſimplicium virorum, qui ex parvulis portionibus ſunt fundatæ: cujuſmodi eſt veſtra parvula noſtra domus: quia revera, ſi talem in noſtram aſſumeremus (prout vobis ſcribere placuit) comitivam, unum nos oportet de noſtris fratribus amovere, quod ne dum vobis moleſtum ſed videretur potius inhumanum. Parcatis igitur nobis, quæſumus, pie Princeps, ſi dictis veſtris præceptis parere non poſſumus, ut vellemus; quia verè non ſine frontis rubore noſtram jam vobis inſinuavimus parvitatem. Longævos & proſperos vos conſervet Altiſſimus, &c. Bundela Brevium & Literarum in Turri Lond. An. 32 E. 1.

EXcellentiſſimo Principi Domino ſuo & Patrono, Edwardo Dei gratia Illuſtri Regi Angliæ, ſui Monachi humiles & devoti Abbas & Conventus Cernelii, ſalutem, et tanto Domino & Principi feliciſſima ſucceſſuum incrementa. Dominationi veſtræ notificamus, quod habemus in Domo noſtra quendam Johannem de Somerſete nomine, per literas veſtras nobis directas, in victu & veſtitu, juxta ſtatus ſui exigentiam, quoad vixerit, in neceſſariis exhibendum. Inſuper Domina noſtra Dei gratia Regina Angliæ, Conſors veſtra, nobis literas ſuas nuper direxit pro quodam Clerico, ut prohiberemus eidem in Eccleſiaſtico Beneficio, vel Penſione competenti; qui de nobis recepit quadraginta ſolidos annuæ penſionis, quouſque eidem proviſum extitit in Beneficio congruo. Quare Excellentiæ veſtræ humiliter & devotè ſupplicamus, quatinus prædictæ Domui veſtræ ad præſens parcere velitis, ſi placet, & de ſuſtentatione Ricardi de Ringwude illam modo nullatenus onerare. This year King Edward having ſubdued all the proud rebellious Scots who perfidiouſly took up arms againſt him, contrary to their premiſed reiterated Oathes and Covenants, except thoſe in Strivelyn Caſtle, ſitting down with his Army before it, encouraged them ſtrenuouſly to aſſault it by a ſhort Oration; wherein he recited both his Titles to Scotland, the manifold rebellions and perjuries of the Scots, and his great victories over them, which Matthew Weſtminſter thus relates.

In* Octavis Nativitatis beatæ Mariæ, adunatum est Consilium Regis Edwardi ad Novum Templum Londini, cui interfuerunt Episcopi Cestrensis & Wygornensis de Anglia, & Episcopi Sancti Andreæ & Glasconensis de Scotia, & Abbates Westmonaster. & Waverlaic. & duo de Scotia, & duo Comites de Anglia, & duo de Scotia, et alii Barones tàm Scoti quàm Angli. Ubi per 20 dies consiliati sunt super firmanda pace Regia in Scotia, qualiter melius firmius & quietius, tàm pro Scotis quàm pro Anglis, pax summa & tranquillitas optima perpetuis stabiliretur temporibus. Ibi Scoti per assensum totius regni Scotiæ, et quorum Ordinationi stare spospondit reliqua pars tota, ad Angliam sunt transmissi. Et per assensum & ordinationem utriusque partis, constituti sunt Justiciarii & Clerici ultra & citra mare Scoticum, bini & bini, qui suis in locis pacem patriæ confoverent, lites deciderent, & pugnas sedarent. Hæc dispósita, venerunt ad Regem prænominati viri, & recitata ordinatione eorum in audientia, placuit Regi in omnibus, unico duntaxat articulo, de quodam judicio Scotico, penitus annullato. Tunc juraverunt Episcopi, Abbates, Comites, et Barones Scotiæ pro se, et hæredibus suis, et reliqua gente superstite et futura in Scotia, stare Ordinationi prædictæ, et secundum modum et formam dispositionis hujuscemodi, tam potentes quam ignobiles, præsentes et futuros, velle semper degere et debere. Hoc autem apud Panerium de Scheene super Thamesim, Scoti prædicti tactis Sacrosanctis Christi corpore et Evangeliis et aliis reliquiis spoponderunt. Gavisus igitur Rex ob spem firmæ futuræ pacis in Scotia fecit misericordiam cum eisdem, ut qui pro peccatis suis redemptionem fecerant, videlicet, qui balorem terrarum suarum ad certos annos per duos, tres vel quatuor, Regi debuissent solvisse duos in quatuor, tres in sex, et quatuor in octo annos pensatis cujusque conditione et statu, ut haberent unde honeste viverent, voluit hoc ratiocinium prolongari. Post hæc licentiati Scoti cum honore in regionem suam alacriter sunt reversi. Yet within few Monetls after these perjured, faithlesse Scots, against these New Oathes and Ordinance, most perfidiously and ungratefully revolted from, rebelled against King Edward, Crowned a new King of their own, which occasioned new Warres; of which more in due place.

The Proceedings in this Parliamentary Counsil, and Ordinance for setling the affairs of Scotland, made by the unanimous consent of the Commissioners elected and sent from thence, and the Kings English Commissioners, with the Kings Royal assent thereto, are thus more fully enrolled in our Records, than related in any of our printed Historians.

An. 33 E. 1. in usus pios, et ad divini cultus augmentum caritative fuerat erogotum, jam in Censum reprobum est conversum. Unde præter ea quæ præmittuntur scandalum non modicum crescit in populo, et damna innumera in exhæredacionem prædictorum fundatorum et hæredum suorum proculdubio perbeniſſe noscuntur, et adhuc veriſimiliter præsumitur perbenire, niſi tantis et tam gravibus detrimentis celeri et salubri remedio obvietur. Considerans igitur præfatus Dominus Rex sibi et populo suo valde fore damnosum, si tam grandes facturas et insolentias sustineret diutius sub dissimulatione transire, volensque idcirco Monasteria, Prioratus, et alias Religiosorum domos et loca in regno, et terris, dominio suo subjectis constituta, secundum voluntatem & pia vota fundatorum ipsorum manutenere et defendere, & contra hujusmodi oppressiones de congruo remedio de cætero providere, ut tenetur, de consilio Comitum, Baronum, Magnatum, Procerum, & aliorum Nobilium & regni sui Communitatum, in Parliamento suo apud Westm. die Dominica prox. post festum Sancti Matthiæ Apostoli, anno regni sui Tricesimo tertio habito, ordinavit & statuit; Ne quis Abbas, Prior, Magister, Custos, seu quivis alius Religiosus cujuscumque condicionis aut status, aut religionis existat, sub potestate et dicione sua constitutus, Censum aliquem per superiores suos Abbates, Priores, Magistros, Custodes Religiosorum domorum vel locorum impositum, vel inter ſeipsos aliqualiter ordinatum, extra regnum et dominium suum sub nomine redditu, tallagii, appoyti, seu impositionis cujuscumque, vel alias nomine escambii, vendicionis, mutui, vel alterius contractus, quocumque nomine censeatur, per se, vel per Mercatores, aut alios, clam vel palam, arte vel ingenio deferat vel transmittat, seu deferri faciat quoquo modo: nec eciam ad partes exteras se divertat causa visitationis aut alio colore quæsito, ut sic bona Monasteriorum et domorum suarum extra regnum et dominium adducat; Et si quis contra præsens statutum venire præsumpserit, considerata qualitate delicti et Regiæ prohibicionis penitus contemptu, graviter puniatur. Præterea inhibet præfatus Dominus Rex omnibus et singulis Abbatibus, Prioribus, Magistris, Custodibus Religiosarum domorum et locorum Alienigenis, quorum potestati, subjectioni et obedienciæ domus eorundem ordinum in regno et dominio suo existentes subduntur, ne de cætera tallagia, census, impositiones, appoyta, seu alia quæcumque onera aliquibus Monasteriis, Prioratibus, seu aliis domibus Religiosis eis, ut præditur, sic subjectis, imponant vel faciant aliqualiter assidere; et hoc sub forisfactura omnium quæ in potestate sua optinent et forisfacere poterunt in futurum: Et insuper ordinavit Dominus Rex et statuit quod Abbates Cistercienſis et Præmonſtratenſis ordinum et aliorum Religiosorum, quorum Sigillum in custodia Abbatis et non Conventus prius residere tantum modo consuevit, de cætero habeant sigillum commune, et illud in custodia Prioris Monasterii sive domus, et quatuor de dignioribus et discrecioribus ejusdem loci Conventus sub privato sigillo Abbatis ipsius loci custodiend. deponant: Ita quod Abbas seu Superior domus qui potest per se, contractum aliquem seu obligationem nullatenus possit firmare, sicut hactenus facere consuevit. Et si forsan aliqua scripta obligatoria donacionum, emptionum, venditionum, alienationum, seu aliorum contractuum quorumcunque alio sigillo quam tali sigillo communi, sicut præmittitur custodito, inveniantur amodo sigillata, pro nullis penitus habeantur omnique careant firmitate. Ceterum intentionis Domini Regis non extitit, Abbates, Priores et alios Religiosos alienigenas per ordinaciones et statuta exprella superius ab officio visitacionis in regno et dominio suis exercendo excludere, quin per se ipsos vel alia Monasteria et alia loca eis in regno et dominio suis prædictis subjecta, juxta officii sui debitum in bis duntaxat quæ ad observantiam regularem et ordinis sui disciplinam pertinent libere valeant visitare; Proviso, quod illi qui officium hujusmodi visitacionis exercuerint nichil de bonis aut rebus hujusmodi Monasteriorum, Prioratuum, et domorum extra præfatum regnum et dominium præter rationabiles et moderatas eorum expensas deferant vel deferri procurent. Et licet ordinacionum et statutorum præscriptorum pronunciatio et publicatio a Parliamento proximo præterito usque ad præsens Parliamentum apud Karliolum in Octabis Sancti* Hillarii, post deliberacionem plenariam et tractatum cum Comitibus, Baronibus, Proceribus, et aliis Nobilibus ac Communitatibus regni sui habitum in præmissis, de consensu eorum unanimi et concordi, ordinavit et statuit, ut ordinaciones et statuta prædicta sub forma, modis et condicionibus suprascriptis, a proximo die Maii proximo futuro

In which Bull we may obſerve; Firſt the ſtrange injuſtice of this Pope, in ſupplying the poverty of this Biſhop, with all the rents, profits and emoluments of this Priory, which ſhould relieve, ſupport the Monks therein, and removing the Monk placed therein by the Prior (only to collect and diſtribute them for the uſe of the Priory) without cauſe or hearing: 2ly. His moſt execrable tyrannical injunction to put this Biſhop into the actual poſſeſſion thereof, and excommunicate, interdict all who ſhould oppoſe him therein, without the benefit of appeal; Notwithſtanding any contrary Cuſtome, Statutes, or Oath of the ſaid Church to the contrary; though corroborated by the confirmation of the See Apoſtolick, or any other firm aſſurance, be it by Charters of our Kings, or Acts of Parliament. And which is more obſervable, notwithſtanding any Temporal or Spiritual priviledge or exemptions granted to this Priory, or others joyntly or ſeverally by the Popes and See Apoſtolick, that they ſhould not be excommunicated, ſuſpended or interdicted, or that their Cells and livings ſhould be totally exempted from, and not lyable to any Proviſion or diſpoſition whatſoever of the See Apoſtolike, which might hinder or delay the execution of this monſtrous Bull. To which the King after full debate and deliberation with his Counſil in Parliament, returned this memorable reſolution, That this Petition was not grantable, becauſe the granting thereof would be manifeſtly prejudicial to the King himſelf, and to his Royal Crown, as the Record thus informs us.

Ibidem. Quibus literis Apoſtolicis, ut præmittitur, præſentatis, viſis, examinatis, et plenius intellectis, requiſitionem quam prædictus Epiſcopus Biblienſis fecit prædicto Domino Regi, ſcilicet, quod placeret eidem et benigne permitteret, ut Prioratus de Goldyngham in Scotia Sancti Andreæ Dioceſis valeat adipiſci, juxta conceſſionem et aſſignationem per ſuprascriptas Literas Apoſtolicas ſibi ſpecialiter inde factas. Habitaque deinde per conſilium ejuſdem Domini Regis ſuper requiſitione et petitione hujuſmodi deliberatione plenaria, ex parte ejuſdem Domini Regis per Conſilium ſuum, datum fuit prædicto Epiſcopo præſentialiter tale reſponſum, videlicet; Petitio iſta ſi concederetur, foret manifeſte præjudicialis prædicto Domino Regi et Coronæ ſuæ Regiæ, et idcirco non eſt conceſſibilis in hac parte. And for a perpetual memorial hereof to all poſterity, theſe ſeveral atteſtations were affixed to it by honourable Witneſſes of all ſorts, and publike Notaries of the Pope himſelf then preſent, ſummoned to atteſt and record it.

From which memorable Record we may obſerve: Firſt, the antient Prerogative of the Kings of England, as well in Ireland, Wales, Scotland, & all other their foreign Dominions as in England; That no Prior and Covent, Dean, Chapter ought to proceed to the election of any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Abbot, Prior, Prioreſſe, or Maſter of any Monaſtery or Houſe, held of them in capite, or of their foundation, without

An. 33 E. 1. without or before their ſpecial license, for making ſuch elections were particularly petitioned for, granted, and actually received by them. 2ly. That their proceeding to make any ſuch elections even after their petitions for, and the Kings granting of ſuch ſpecial licenſes to elect before their actual reception, was not only a ſufficient ground for our Kings to declare ſuch elections voyd in Law, and deny their royal aſſents thereunto; but likewiſe an high contempt againſt our Kings royal Prerogative, Crown, dignity, and of ill example and dangerous conſequence, for which the Temporalties of the Electors might not only by Law be ſeiſed into the Kings hands, but themſelves ſubjected to a great exemplary fine by way of damage to the King, eſpecially when reiterated. 3ly. That though our Kings out of their ſpecial grace had frequently connived at and pardoned ſuch contempts in Ireland in ſundry caſes premiſed, yet when ſuch contempts were redoubled in two ſucceſſive elections in the very Archiepiſcopal See of the chief City of Trade and Note in Ireland, neareſt adjoyning to England, after the ſeiſure of their Temporalties for the firſt offence, reſtored out of ſpecial grace, upon hopes of future reformation, as in this caſe; the Kings preſent proceedings, and judgement given againſt them for this ſecond contempt, were moſt juſt and neceſſary, to prevent all future contempts of like nature. 3ly. That the Popes Canons, and the ancient Cuſtom of the Church of Dublin, pleaded by the Prior and Covent to excuſe or juſtifie this their election, and contempt, (That they ought to elect an Archbiſhop within 3. moneths next after notice of the avoydance, within which ſpace the Kings licenſe which they petitioned for came not to their hands,) was no legal plea againſt the Kings antient prerogative, to which all Popes Canons and contrary Cuſtomes ought to give place, who might legally grant or delay his Licenſes of this kinde till ſuch time as he ſhould think fit to iſſue them, being confined to no limits of time, without incurring any lapſe, eſpecially to the Pope. 4ly. That Popes new Canons, made in derogation of our Kings Crown, Dignity, and Prerogative, (to enlarge their own Papal power, wills, grandeur) were more carefully obſerved, obeyed, dreaded by the Priors, Covents, Monks and Clergy of that age (though void in Law) than the Kings unqueſtionable ancient prerogative and Lawes; and his Papal Cenſure more regarded than the Kings Legal Judgments. 5ly. That the Deans & Chapters refuſal to go to this election before the Kings ſpecial licenſes received in this and the former election, and joyning in it only to preſerve their right therein, was ſuch an extenuation of their contempt, as expoſed them rather to the Kings royal grace, then exemplary and ſevere juſtice.

I pretermit the great ſuit in the* Firſt Parliament of Anno 33 E 1. between the Biſhop of Sarum and the Citizens thereof, for Tallage due from them to the Biſhop, by reaſon of their Liberties from Tolls, and other immunities they enjoyed by the Charters granted to his Church and Tenants; who choſe rather publikely to renounce all the Liberties and exemptions from Tolls they enjoyed by it, than to be ſubject to the Biſhops Taxes and Tallages.

In that Parliament there were two Petitions exhibited to the King, by the Univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, to which the Kings general anſwers were thus indorſed in their favour.

Among

Among the Petitions in that Parliament, this anſwer of the King to the Biſhop of Landaff, concerning Tithes of Aſſarts in the Foreſt of Dene, which were extra-parochial, is very obſervable. An. 33 E. I.

AD Petitionem Epiſcopi Landaf, petentis, quod Rex velit aſſignare Eccleſiæ Omnium Sanctorum ipſius Epiſcopi in Foreſta de Dene Decimam de novis Aſſartis in eadem Foreſta aſſartatis in proprio ſolo ipſius Regis ibidem. By which it is apparent, that Tithes without any Pariſh within Foreſts, in that age belonged to the King, who had power to reteine or grant them at his royal pleaſure. Ibidem, p. 249. Landaff.

The Archbiſhop of Canterbury in his Metropolitical Viſitation of the Dioceſſe of Ciceſter, having moſt inſolently and contemptuouſly againſt the Kings Prohibition, excommunicated the Keeper of the Caſtle of Haſtings, and certain Canons of the Kings Free-Chappel there, for refuſing to admit him into the Caſtle to viſit this Free-Chappel, by the Kings command; and afterwards ſending his Commiſſioners to viſit it in the abſence of the Keeper, who thereupon entred the Caſtle, viſited the Chappel, though exempt from all Archiepiſcopal, Epiſcopal, and Ordinary Juriſdiction, and placed a Dean therein; the King thereupon iſſued this Writ to ſummon the Archbiſhop perſonally to appear before him at a day, to anſwer theſe high contempts againſt his Crown and Royal dignity; and another Writ to the Conſtable of Dover Caſtle, to go to Haſtings and enquire the truth of the premiſſes, remove the new Dean there placed unduly, and appoint another in his ſtead, and certifie him in the next Parliament of all his proceedings therein.

No sooner was Pope Clement elected and inthroned in France, but under his specious pretexts of setling a firm peace between the Crowns of England & France, he began to exercise his new rapines and Papal usurpations in England, by complying with King Edward, in granting him a two years Disme from his Clergy for his own use, though pretended for the ayde of the Holy Land, that himself might more easily exact the First-fruits of vacant Ecclesiastical benefices to fill his own Coffers, though out of his Dominions, which occasioned these memorable Satyrical verses to be made of him and the King this year.

Illo quoque tempore Papa Clemens concessit Regi Angliæ (who had presented him with a Royal costly present of Gold plate for his Chamber & Tables) per biennium Decimas Ecclesiasticorum proventuum pro negotiis Terræ Sanctæ, sed in usus alios expendebantur, videns insatiabilem quorundam Episcoporum Angliæ avaritiam imporrune postulantium primas vacantes Ecclesias per annum in suis Dioecesibus sibi concedi, advertensque, quia quod postulat inferior, potest et superior; apporiavit sibi ipsi per biennium omnes proventus de primo vacantibus Ecclesiis in Anglia, videlicet, de primo anno primos fructus, tam de Episcopatibus, Abbatiis, Prioratibus, Præbendis, Rectoriis, et Vicariis, quam de cæteris minutis beneficiis. Which Thomas Walsingham thus varieth, Dominus vero Papa attendens, quod charitas incipit a seipsa, primus fructus per Angliam sibi reservavit, &c. This is the first president of any Popes reserving, or exacting Annates or First-fruits of all Ecclesiastical Dignities, Promotions and Benefices throughout England extant in our Histories, which though reserved but for two years by this Pope at first, grew afterwards into custome by degrees both in England and elsewhere, though strenuously opposed, and frequently prohibited and declaimed against as a most intollerable grievance, mischief, oppression, abuse, diminishing Gods service, worship, damning mens souls, and destroying Churches; as those who please may read at large in Nicholaus de Clemangiis his learned Treatise, De Annatibus non solvendis, Operum Lugduni Bat. An. 1593. p. 82. to 106. Ranulphus Cestrensis Polychronicon, l. 7, c. 42. Platina in vita Gregorii 9. Polydorus Virgilius, de Inventoribus Rerum, l. 8. c. 2. Carolus Molinæus, contra Parvas datas & abusus Papæ, Laurentius Bochellus, Decreta Ecclesiæ Gallicanæ, l. 4. cap. 10. p. 650, 663, 670, 671, 674. lib. 7. Tit. 19. De Annatis, p. 1195, to 1139, & Henrici Spelmanni Glossarium, Tit. Annates, & de eorum Origine & usu.

As this Pope thus introduced these First-fruits into England to the extraordinary prejudice of the Church and scandal of Religion, so he likewise frequently sent abroad his Bulls of Provisions for Ecclesiastical benefices and promotions therein for his Favorites and Clerks, which were then voyd, or should afterwards fall voyd by death or otherwise. Witnesse his Provision to Elyas Joneston of any benefice then voyd, or which should fall voyd within the Dioceses of Coventry and Litchfield, belonging to the Archbishop of Dublin whom he consecrated: the execution whereof

An. 33 E 1. of he committed to the Bishop of that Dioceſſe, and to Philip Martell, and another, as appears by the original Bull it ſelf, and two Inſtruments in Parchment I found in the White Tower, reciting this Popes Bull in the firſt year of his Papacy, and their proceedings thereupon.

I have inſerted this long Inſtrument at large upon theſe 3. Accounts; 1. To evidence the manifold cautions inſerted into Popes proviſions for poor Clerks, though honeſt and learned, which muſt be confined to an Archbiſhops living in one Dioceſſe of ſmall value, and thoſe not formerly granted to any others, and they bound to

An. 33 E. 3. perſonal reſidence thereon: when as others that were rich, and more able to pay great ſummes for them, were not ſo limited, nor clogged with ſo many cautions. 2ly. To manifeſt how many Bulls, Inſtruments under the hands of publike Notaries theſe poor Clerks muſt procure with vaſt ſollicitation, travel and expence, before they could obtain the leaſt probable hopes of enjoying any ſmall prebend or benefice by Popes Bulls, and yet not enjoy actual poſſeſſion of them in concluſion. 3ly. The multiplicity of Popes proviſions in that age to every ſmall inconſiderable as well as great prebendary or benefice, granted by them in poſſeſſion or expectancy to ſeveral perſons, by ſundry Bulls at once, contradicting, repealing each others by Non obſtantes, engendring infinite Suits, Appeals in the Popes Courts, for filthy lucre, to the unſpeakable vexation of the Patrons, Proviſors, and other competitors, and neglect of the peoples ſouls, during ſuch conteſts concerning them, of which avaritious, ambitious Popes and their officers had not the leaſt regard, though frequently ſuggeſted, as the principal ground of their deteſtable proviſions.

I found this Appeal to the See Apoſtolike this year (in a Bundle of Writs and Letters in the White Tower) from the Archbiſhop of Canterburies Commiſſaries ſentence of Excommunication againſt Sir Richard de Wylonds Knight, for laying violent hands upon William de Dagepet, a Freer, and Albert de Langedon, as unjuſt.

EDwardus Dei gratia Rex Angl. &c. Dilectis nobis in Chriſto Decano & Capitulo Eccleſiæ beati Petri Eborum, Cuſtodibus Spiritualitatis Archiepiſcopatus Eborum, ſede vacante, ſalutem. Ex parte Abbatis de Furnays, fratris Roberti de Everyngham, fratris Johannis de Anneſtreye, fratris Michaelis Withelyp, fratris Willielmi de Benſty, Commonachorum prædicti Abbatis, fratris Willielmi Fykehode, & fratris Willielmi de Mewyth, Converſorum ejuſdem Domus, quos ad dominationem veſtram, tanquam excommunicatos et clabes Eccleſiæ contemnentes, per corpora ſua ſecundum conſtitutionem Anglie per Vic. noſtrum Lancaſtr. juſticiari præcepimus, donec ſanctæ Eccleſiæ, tàm de contempto quàm de injuria ei illata ab eis eſſet ſatisfactum; Nobis eſt oſtenſum, quod licet iidem Abbas, Robertus, Johannes, Michael, Willielmus, Willielmus & Willielmus vobis frequenter optulerunt idoneam Cautionem, illam ab eis admittere hactenus recuſatis; de quo miramur. Et quia nolumus quod iidem Abbas, Robertus, Johannes, Michael, Willielmus, Willielmus & Willielmus diutius in priſona contra juſtitiam detineantur; Vobis mandamus, quod accepta a præfatis Abbate, Roberto, Johanne, Michaele, Willielmo, Willielmo & Willielmo Cautione prædicta, ipſos Abbatem, Robertum, &c. à priſona, qua occaſione prædicta detinentur deliberari mandetis: Alioquin quod noſtrum eſt in hac parte exequamini. Teſte meipſo apud Bruſtwyk 4. die Decembris. Anno regni noſtri 33.

Conſimiles etiam in hac ipſa cauſa fiunt literæ iiſdem Decano & Capitulo directæ, Teſte Rege apud Thornton ſuper Humbr. 12 Decembr. Anno ut ſupra. To which Writs the Dean and Chapter made this Certificate and return.

EXcellentiſſimo Principi, Domino ſuo, Domino Edwardo, Dei gratia Regi Angliæ, &c. Devoti Clerici ſui, Decanus & Capitulum Eccleſiæ beati Petri Eborum

An. 33 *E.*1. Eborum, Custodes Spiritualitatis Archiepiscopatus Eborum, sede ejusdem vacante, salutem in eo, cujus gratia Reges regnant. Literas vestras nuper recepimus, tenorem qui sequitur continentes. Edwardus, &c. (recitatis de verbo ad verbum ambobus Brevibus supradictis.) Velit igitur scire vestra Dominatio reverenda, quod quæ ex parte dicti Abbatis de Furneys & cæterorum in Brevi vestro prædicto nominatorum vobis suggesta fuerunt & ostensa, carent primordio veritatis; eo quod idem Abbas & cæteri nominati, nec per se, nec per alium mandatum aliquod ipsorum nomine ostendentem ullam Cautionem coram nobis hactenus optulerunt. Sed quidam Johannes de Lancastr. & Johannes Travers, se velle præstare Cautionem pro eisdem, in forma superius annotata asserebant, licet potestatem a prædictis Abbate et cæteris suprænominatis, ad hujusmodi Cautionem exponendam non haberent; qui per nos instantius requisiti, an per pignora vel fidejussores idoneos subire vellent Cautionem de sistendo dictos Abbatem & cæteros supranominatos in Judicio certis die et loco, coram nobis in forma Juris mandato Ecclesiæ parituros, videlicet ad satisfaciendum Deo & Ecclesiæ, tàm de Contemptu quàm de injuria ei illata ab eis, ac etiam Domino Ada de Gayrgrave, de Decimis Garbarum infra parochiam ejusdem Ecclesiæ provenientium injuste detentis ab eisdem, ad quarum præstationem et solutionem dicto Rectori plenarie faciendam authoritate Curiæ Eborum, sede plena, judicialiter fuerint condempnati; & quia rei judicatæ non parebant, majoris Excommunicationis sententia legitime innodati, quam siquidem cautionem et non aliam in hoc casu idoneam reputamus, expressius denegarunt, dicentes se velle cavere per duos Fidejussores Laicos usque ad summam decem librarum, de sistendo dictos Abbatem & cæteros prænotatos coram nobis certis die & loco per nos statuendis, ad parendum mandatis Ecclesiæ in forma juris, videlicet, ad prosequendum duntaxat appellationem ab eisdem a dicta sententia interpositam, ut dicebant; quam quidem Cautionem tanquam minus sufficientem absque juris offensa non potuimus, nec debuimus admittere in hac parte. Et hoc vestræ Magnificentiæ Regiæ præsentibus nostris literis sigillo Capituli nostri munitis significamus. Conservet vos, &c. Dat. Eborum 12 Kal. Januarii, Anno gratiæ 1304.

The King issued this Writ to the Sheriff of Northampton to enlarge out of prison certain persons taken upon a Capias Excommunicatum, upon the request and prosecution of the Archbishop of Canterbury, because they had solemnly appealed from his sentence as unjust, to the See Apostolick, and ought not to be hindred in the prosecution thereof.

Clauſ. 33 E. 1. memb. 2. dorſo. Pro Magiſtro & fratribus Hoſpitalis Sancti Johannis Northampt.

REX Vic. Northampton salutem. Cum nuper ad requisitionem Venerabilis Patris R. Archiepiscopi Cantuar. per literas suas patentes nobis significantis, quod frater Richardus de Helmedene Magister Hospitalis Sancti Johannis Northt. Fratres Nicholaus de Brerewood, Johannes de Upton, Johannes de Ravensthorp, Robertus Russell, Robertus de Pyddington, Willielmus de Throp, & Philippus de Tiffeld, propter manifestam contumaciam excommunicati sunt, nec se volunt per Censuram Ecclesiasticam justiciari; Tibi præceperimus, quod ipsos Richardum, Nicholaum, Johannem, Johannem, Robertum, Robertum, Willielmum & Philippum, per corpora sua secundum consuetudinem Angliæ justiciares, donec Sanctæ Ecclesiæ tàm de contemptu quàm de injuria ei illata ab eis esset satisfactum. Et jam intellexerimus, quod prædicti Richardus, &c. a sententia prædicta in ipsos per præfatum Archiepiscopum illata tanquam ab iniqua ad sedem Apostolicam legitime appellarunt, et appellationis negotium prosequuntur cum effectu: Nolentes quod præfatis Richardo, &c. per prædictum breve nostrum via præcludatur, quo minus dictæ appellationis negotium prosequi possent in forma juris, maximè cum hujusmodi breve nostrum de gratia nostra procedat, et appellantium status integer esse debeat; Tibi præcepimus, quod ipsos Richardum, &c. prætextu brevis nostri tibi inde directi captos et in prisona nostra Northt. detentos a prisona prædicta, si ea occasione et non alia detineantur in eadem, deliberari facias, usque ad vicesimum octavum diem Aprilis proximo futur. Nisi aliud interim super hoc duxerimus demandandum. Teste meipso apud Stanes.

The King this year issued this Writ to the Guardians of the Temporalties of the Archbi-

Archbiſhoprick of Yorke, ſpeedily to pay into his Exchequer at Weſtminſter all the rents and moneyes made of the Temporalties, Wools, and Profits thereof by a certain day to ſupply his Treaſury. An. 33 E. 1.

REX dilectis & fidelibus ſuis Lamberto de Thrykingham, & Johanni de Byron, Cuſtodibus ſuis Archiepiſcopatus Ebor. ſede vacante, ſalutem. Mandamus vobis firmiter injungentes, quod omnibus aliis prætermiſſis, omnes denarios quos de exitibus temporalium Archiepiſcopatus prædicti, viz. de firmis et lanis quam aliunde de temporalibus prædictis in promptu habetis, vel citra Octabis Sanctæ Trinitatis proximo futur. colligere poteritis et levare, habeatis ad Scaccarium noſtrum apud Weſtmonaſterium in dictis Octabis, ibidem in Theſaurariam noſtram liberandos. Et hoc nullo modo omittatis. Vobis enim inde ad dictum Scaccarium noſtrum debitam allocationem habere faciemus. Teſte Rege apud Banſtede, 28 die Maii. The King iſſued theſe ſtrict Writs under his Great Seal to the Collectors of the Diſms in Ireland, for the ſpeedy Collection of all arrears of the 3. years Diſms then due from the Clergy, without ſparing any of them, granted to him by the Bull of Pope Boniface the 8. for the diſpatch of his weighty affairs, though at firſt deſigned to other uſes; which ſundry refuſing to pay upon ſeveral pretences, and they thereupon delaying to collect, he enjoyned them now to levy by Excommanications, Interdicts, Suſpenſions, Sequeſtrations of the goods of thoſe who refuſed to pay, and by all other wayes, means, and alſo by Proceſſe out of the Kings Exchequer in Ireland.

REX dilectis Clericis ſuis Magiſtri Willielmo de Hotham, Canonico Eccleſiæ Sancti Patricii Dublin. & Gnidoni de Wykjo Perſona Eccleſiæ de Heſe, Collectoribus Decimæ Clero Hiberniæ per Dominum Bonifacium nuper Papam octavum, de aſſenſu noſtro impoſitæ per tres annos, ſalutem. Cum nuper prædictus Papa medietatem prædictæ Decimæ pro arduis et urgentibus noſtris et regni noſtri negotiis nobis liberaliter conceſſiſſet, altera medietate ejuſdem Decimæ, ſi idem Papa per dictum triennium vitam duceret in humanis, ſibi in ſubſidium Romanæ Eccleſiæ reſerbata; & ſi ipſum infra dictum Triennium in fata decedere, vel pacem ſuper guerra de regno Sicilie mota reformari contingeret, extunc totum reſiduum dictæ Decimæ noſtris uſibus ſimiliter conceſſiſſet et voluiſſet integraliter applicari. Et jam intellexerimus, quod nos prætertu vanarum et fribolarum excuſationum quarundam perſonarum Eccleſiaſticarum prætendencium, tam per mortem prædicti Domini Papæ, quam pro eo quod Magiſter Gerardus de Petoraria qui ad dictam Decimam colligendam ſe Procuratorem et Nuncium aſſeruit, per ſedem Apoſtolicam fuiſſe ſpecialiter deputatum commiſſionem, poſt mortem London. Epiſcopi, per ipſum & Magiſtr. Bartholomæum de Ferentino Canonicum Lond. Principales Collectores prædictæ Decimæ in Anglia & Hibernia vobis factam, ut dicitur, revocaverat, ſe ad ſolutionem dictæ Decimæ non teneri, levationi et collectioni ejuſdem Decimæ hactenus ſupersediſtis, in noſtri grave dampnum, de quo miramur plurimum et movemur. Cumque nuper dictus Magiſter Gerardus totum id quod in hac parte tam in Anglia quam in Hibernia per ipſum fuerat aliqualiter attemptatum expreſſè revocaverit, prout in quodam inſtrumento publico inde confecto, quod vobis mittimus, videre poteritis apertius continetur. Nos advertentes dictam Decimam nobis virtute conceſſionis prædictæ totaliter deberi, hujuſmodique Impoſitiones & omnes conceſſiones graciosas, durante termino impoſitionum & conceſſionum illarum vim ſortiri debere et effectum; Vobis mandamus in fide qua nobis tenemini firmiter injungentes, quod omnes Eccleſiaſticas perſonas infra terram noſtram Hiberniæ conſtitutas nulli penitus deferendo, cujuſcunque ſtatus, dignitatis aut conditionis exiſtat, ad ſolutionem totius Decimæ a retro exiſtentis de Decima ſupradicta virtute commiſſionis per prælatos ejuſdem Collectores vobis factæ per Excommunicationis, Suſpensionis, et Interdicti ſententias, necnon per ſequeſtrationem bonorum ſuorum Eccleſiaſticorum, et omnes alias vias et modis quibus melius expedire videritis compellatis: Et totam pecuniam prædictam ſalvo & ſecurè cuſtodiri faciatis, donec aliud à nobis inde habueritis in mandatis, de nominibus non ſolventium dilectos & fideles noſtros Johannem Wogan Juſtic. noſtrum Hybernie, Pat. 33 E 1. m. 21. pars 2. De Decima in Hibernia levanda.

An. 33 E. 1. Hybernia, & Theſaur. & Barones de Scaccario noſtro Dublin. reddentes diſtincte et aperte per veſtras Patentes literas certiores, ut ipſi contra ſic non ſolventes, tanquam contra honoris et commodi noſtri impeditores procedant, prout prædictis Juſtic. Theſ. & Baronibus per nos mandatum eſt plenius & injunctum. In cujus, &c. Teſte Rege apud Cyceſtr. 17 die Junii. So rigidly were theſe Arrears exacted and levyed by all ſorts of Eccleſiaſtical and Temporal Cenſures and Proceſſe, as well in Ireland, as England.

The King likewiſe iſſued theſe Writs to the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of Ireland, to haſten the collection of thoſe Arrears.

Clauſ. 33 E 1. m. 11. dorſo. De Decima in Hibernia ad opus Regis levanda.

REX venerabili in Chriſto Patri R. eadem gratia Dublin. Archiepiſcopo, ſalutem. Cum felicis recordationis Dominus Bonifacius Papa octavus, medietatem Decimæ Cleri Anglia & Hibernia per ipſum de aſſenſu noſtro impoſitæ per tres annos, nobis pro arduis & urgentibus noſtris & regni noſtri negociis liberaliter conceſſiſſet; altera medietate ejuſdem Decimæ ſi idem Papa per dictum triennium vitam duceret in humanis ſibi in ſubſidium Romanæ Eccleſiæ reſervatâ, & ſi ipſum infra dictum triennium in fata decedere, vel pacem ſuper guerra de regno Sicilia mota reformari contingeret, extunc totum reſiduum dictæ Decimæ noſtris uſibus ſimiliter conceſſiſſet & voluiſſet integraliter applicari. Et jam intellexerimus, quod Magiſter Willielmus de Hothum Canonicus Eccleſiæ Sancti Patricii Dublin. & Guido de Vikio perſona Eccleſiæ de Heſe Collectores dictæ Decimæ in Hibernia, prætextu vanarum et frivolarum excuſationum quarundam perſonarum eccleſiaſticarum prætendencium, tam per mortem prædicti Domini Papæ, quam pro eo, quod Magiſter Gerardus de Petotaria, qui ad dictam Decimam colligendam ſe procuratorem & nuncium aſſeruit, per ſedem apoſtolicam fuiſſe ſpecialiter deputatum, commiſſionem per London. Epiſcopum & Magiſtrum Bartholomæum de Ferentino Canonicum London. principales Collectores prædictæ Decimæ in Anglia & Hibernia eis factum, ut dicitur revocaverat, ſe ad ſolucionem prædictæ Decimæ non teneri, lebacioni et collectioni ejuſdem Decimæ hactenus ſuperſederunt, de quo miramur plurimum et movemur. Cumque nuper dictus Magiſter Gerardus totum id quod in hac parte tàm in Anglia quàm in Hibernia per ipſum fuerat aliqualiter attemptatum expreſſè revocaverit, prout in quodam inſtrumento publico inde confecto, quod dictis Willielmo & Guidoni miſimus apercius continetur. Nos advertentes dictam Decimam nobis virtute conceſſionis prædictæ totaliter deberi, hujuſmodique impoſiciones & omnes conceſſiones gratioſas durante termino impoſicionum & conceſſionum illarum vim ſortiri debere & effectum; Vobis mandamus in fide & dilectione quibus nobis tenemini firmiter injungentes, quod prædictis Willielmo & Guidoni, vel eorum alteri quem præſentem eſſe contigerit, in lebatione et collectione Decimæ ſuprædictæ per quaſcunque cenſuras Eccleſiaſticas, aliiſque viis et modis quibus ad commodum noſtrum melius expedire videbitur, & prout præfati Willielmus & Guido vel eorum alter vobis ſcire facient vel faciet, injungeat vel injunget, intendentes ſitis & reſpondentes, conſulentes, & auxiliantes; Præmiſſa omnia Suffraganeis cæteriſque veſtris ſubditis quibuſcumque diſtrictius injungentes; & hæc omnia & ſingula ſicut de vobis ſpecialiter confidimus, noſtrumque commodum & honorem diligitis, celeriter exequamini cum effectu; ita quod veſtram diligenciam in hac parte debeamus merito commendare. Scire vos volentes, quod ſi nobis conſtare poterit, quod per vos et negligentiam veſtram ſteterit quo minus tota pecunia de prædicta Decima in Dioc. veſtra debita cum celeritate levetur, eandem pecuniam levari de veſtris bonis temporalibus faciemus. King Edward having by the * premiſed Ordinance this year (as he apprehended) ſetled a perpetual peace in Scotland, without any poſſibility of a future rebellion or revolt, upon that groundleſſe confidence ſoon after called thoſe Nobles into queſtion who from the 24. to the 32. year of his reign had moſt oppoſed, and wreſted from him the confirmation of the Great Charter, and Charter of the Foreſt, together with Articuli ſuper Chartas, the Deafforeſtations of Foreſts, and free pardon of all his rancor and indignation againſt them, ratified by ſeveral Parliaments, and his own Oath for the inviolable obſervation of them, from which Oath he endeavoured to purchaſe an abſolution from Pope Clement the 5. But his principal aym was, to avenge himſelf upon the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, who had twice obſtinately refuſed to grant him any ayde from the Clergy for the defence of the Realm, without the Popes previous licenſe, deprived his Clerks againſt his Writs and their appeals with high contempt, viſited and invaded his Free Chappels, excommunicated his Officers and others for oppoſing him, againſt his reiterated Prohibitions, to the prejudice of his Prerogative, the diſinheritance of the rights of his Crown, and contempt of his Royal authority: yea conſpired with others to depoſe and impriſon the King, and Crown his Sonne in his ſtead, and often ſtirred up the Nobles againſt him to the diſturbance of the kingdoms peace: whom he thereupon ſharply reprehended, ſeiſed his goods, temporalties, and then ſent him to Pope Clement the 5, that ſo he might be cruſhed by their double power; thus recorded by * Mat. Weſt. and others. Igitur dum Rex ſperaret omnia ſui regiminis negotia in pace moderari optata, quia tempus tacendi præteriit, in quo ſiluit, tacuit & patiens fuit, & aderat tempus loquendi, convenit cautè Comitem Mareſchallum, ſuper quodam dedecore et conſpiratione, quam Archiepiſcopus Cantuarienſis et plures Comites et Barones contra ipſum machinaberant, ipſo tunc agente in Flandria. Qui nequaquam valens iſta contradicere, gratiam Regis petit. Pro qua obtinenda, conſtituit Regem hæredem ſuum univerſorum quæ habuit, & ſic mortem perdidit & vitam invenit. Et Rex remuneratus eum, vitæ Comitis mille libratas terræ adaugendo conceſſit. Et ſic facti ſunt amici Rex & Comes. Similiter Rex ſingulatim ſingulos convenientes, qui hoc facto conſenſerant, pecuniaria pœna multavit. Ac ſi dicteret, Dolo mortem prodituſum meorum, ſed convertantur et redimantur per bona ſua temporalia, ſicque vivant. Ad ultimum, Archiepiſcopus convenitur, (who had ſundry times affronted him, yea invaded the rights and prerogatives of his Crown this very year, in his viſitations of his Free Chappels, and other particulars) et arguit eum Rex in peccato conſilii. Suffuſus rubore Archiepiſcopus, pallium Regi tendit, in miſericordia ejus ſe et bona ſua ſubmittendo. Cui Rex;

Anno Domini 1305. Cum ſupradictus Archiepiſcopus Robertus ſuper multis Articulis, et præcipue ſuper proditione quam cum quibuſdam Comitibus Proceribuſq; multis pactus erat in dolo, ut Regem a regni ſolio deſicerent, et filium ejus Edwardum in throno ſubrogarent, et patrem perpetuo carceri manciparent, a Rege calumniaretur, et objecta non poſſet juſticiare; timore vehementi perterritus, ad pedes Regis pronus cadens in terram, ut ejus mereretur aſſequi clementiam, ſeſe per ſingula flens et ejulans Regiæ ſubdidit voluntati. Sic ergo humiliatus eſt ille Deo odibilis et ſuperbus, qui per totum Anglorum orbem oris ſui flatu more meretricio, et ſacerdotium deturpabit, et in Clerum et populum tyrannidem exercuit inauditam, et qui Regem Dominum ſuum literatorie ei ſcribens nominare renuit ſuperbiendo; nunc autem humiliatus, et Regem et Dominum ſuum fatetur et nominat, obediens factus invitus ei devocius ſerviendo.

Eodem Anno Dominus Papa prædictum Archiepiſcopum ſuper exceſſibus accuſatum multimodis in pleno Conſiſtorio uſque tertio, ore tenus vocabit, vocatumque publice in palacio et foro ſolempniter ſub voce præconia et tuba proclamante a Temporalibus et Spiritualibus uſque ſe ſuo repræſentaret aſpectui ſuſpenſum eſſe promulgabit, omnibuſque et ſingulis de Archiepiſcopo conqueri volentibus juſtitiam facere repromiſit. Cumque Archiepiſcopus ſe citandum conſpiceret, Regem adiit transfretandi licentiam periturus. Cujus adventum cum Rex cognoviſſet, thalami ſui oſtia omnibus intrare volentibus patere juſſit, ut ſermo quem adverſus eum habiturus eſſet circumſtantes non lateret: Quem his verbis Rex ſic alloquitur.

Licentiam transfretandi quam a nobis poſtulare veniſti libenter tibi concedimus, revertendi autem tibi licentiam nullam permittimus ſine et damus, memores doli et fraudis ac proditionis quas in Parliamento Lincolniæ cum Baronibus noſtris in Regiam machinatus es Majeſtatem, cujus rei litera ſigno tuo ſigillata teſtis eſt, et teſtimonium perhibet contra te evidenter; ſed propter amorem beati Thomæ et Eccleſiæ cui præes reverentiam et honorem, hinc uſque diſſimulimus, reſervantes eam Papæ qui noſtras in te injurias ulciſceretur, et prout meruiſti retribuet tibi utpote cernimus et ſperamus. A protectione vero noſtra quam ipſe requiris te prorſus excludimus, tibi omnem gratiam negantes et miſericordiam, quia vero ſemper immiſericors fuiſti, et idcirco miſericordiam conſequi non mereris.

Demum vero cum per Summi Pontificis Nuncios a ſpiritualibus et temporalibus ſuſpenſus, ac etiam peremptorie citatus continuo transfretabit, qui dignitatis ſuæ ſtatum animo revolvens, et tanquam exilio proſcriptus de reditu ſuo prorſus deſperans, flere cæpit ultra modum mœſticia plenus et dolore. PApæ Rex, Devota pedum oſcula beatorum. Licet interdum ex multa benevolencia fidelium noſtrorum diſſimulemus offenſas, illas tamen quæ in noſtri et dignitatis noſtræ regiæ præjudicium, contumeliam et contemptum per ſubditos noſtros notabiliter committuntur eo minus diſſimulare nos convenit, quo magis ſuperioris injuriâ creſceret ſubjectorum culpis remanentibus impunitis. Not long after the Pope being informed thereof, ſent the King a Meſſage, that he was much diſpleaſed with his ſeiſure of the Temporalties, being contrary to the Canonical Sanctions; whereupon the King, though he aſſerted, that by the ſpecial Law and Prerogative of his Crown, and cuſtom of the Realm (which the Canons could not controul) he might juſtly ſeiſe the Temporalties, and take their Profits to his own uſe, yet he was contented, notwithſtanding his right, out of his ſpecial favour and affection to the Popes perſon, that the profits of the Temporalties ſeiſed in his hands ſhould become the Popes, and be entirely delivered to thoſe he ſhould ſend to receive them, by the Guardian of them whom the King had appointed, who ſhould give a reaſonable account to them thereof, as this Letter of his informs us.

Nota.

The King before this Letter and Grant to the Pope, having conferred the Church of Reycolure upon his Physitian after the Archbishops suspension, fearing that the Pope would eject him, writ this Letter to him, for his approbation and confirmation therein, and that he might hold his other former Benefice together with it, since his health and life did next under God principally depend upon him; and withal granted him this new authority to present to all benefices belonging to the Archbishoprick which should from thenceforth become void.

How all the ancient Lands, Revenues, Temporal and Eccleſiaſtical Royalties, Liberties, Priviledges, and Sanctuary, granted to the Church of St. Peters in York, and to the Canons, Dean, Chapter, or Archbiſhop thereof, out of reverence to St. Peter the Prince of the Apoſtles (who had his Chair therein, as well as at Rome, and likewiſe his * Banner carried in the Warsain the forefront of the Army) were originally derived from the Piety, Bounty, and Eccleſiaſtical Sovereignty of our Kings, not from the Pope; and what they were, this memorable Charter of King Edward the firſt, which recites and confirms them, will at large inſtruct us.

Such ample Liberties did the Dean, Chapter and Canons of York procure from our Kings, to the prejudice of their Crowns and Revenues, out of their reverence to St. Peter, who then kept his reſidence in his Chair and Church at York, not at Rome it ſelf, to which Popes would ſeem to confine it, though they reſided elſewhere, as Pope Clement did now at * Burdeaux. *Here p. 1065.

The King likewiſe iſſued this Writ for the reſtoring of a Maleſactor who fled to the Churchyard and Altar of Whitegifte in York Dioceſſe, and was violently pulled out of it and impriſoned, under pretext of preſerving the Liberties of the Church.

Ad augmentandum igitur profectionem ſuam in* Scotiam, fecit Rex per Angliam publicè proclamari, ut quotquot tenerentur fieri Milites ſucceſſione paterna, & qui haberent unde militarent, adeſſent apud Weſtmonaſterium in feſto Penteceſtes, admiſſuri ſinguli omnem ornatum militarem præter equitaturam, de Regia Garderoba. Confluentibus itaque trecentis juvenibus, filiis Comitum, Baronum & Militum, diſtribuebantur purpura, byſſus, ſyndones, cycladæ auro texta affluentiſſime, prout cuique competebat, &c. After which, Rex votum vovit Deo cœli & cygnis, ſe proficiſci in Scotiam, mortem Johannis Comyn, & fidem laſam Scotorum, vivus ſive mortuus vindicaturus. Adjuravit principem, & cæteros præceſſos viros terræ, fide ſibi debita, ſi ipſe prius in fata deceſſerit, corpus ſuum ſecum in Scotiam in bello deferrent, nec ſepelirent illud quouſque Dominus de perfido coronato, et gente perjura dediſſet victoriam et triumphum. Spoponderunt igitur cuncti fide bona, ſeparatos ſecum in vitam Regis, & in mortem cum Principe in Scotiam proficiſci, votum Regium expleturos. Exinde omnes animæquiores effecti, ſalutato Rege, in craſtino Sanctæ Trinitatis de Weſtmonaſterio receſſerunt, ad Regem in quindena Sancti Johannis Baptiſtæ in Scotiam affuturi. Pro hac autem Militia filii Regis, conceſſus eſt Regi triceſimus denarius a Populo et Clero. Pertatores vero vicecomitum conceſſerunt. Interea quidem facta eſt multa concertatio inter populum Scotorum & Anglorum, quis eorum in certamine videretur eſſe major. Interim Robertus de Brus circuiens terram, & homagia multorum recipiens, coadunato exercitu copioſo, in craſtino Sancti Johannis Baptiſtæ appropinquavit ad villam Sancti Johannis, in cujus præſidium nuper advenerat Æmericus de Valentia. Equites autem Scotorum omnes lineis camiſiis ſuper armaturam ſuam, ne diſcernerentur, induti erant ex juſſu novi Principis ſui. Invitatus ab eo Æmericus ad congreſſum; reſpondit, quod cum eo non die illo, ſed in craſtino dimicaret. Subtrahente vero ſe Roberto cum ſuis ad ſpacium unius miliaris, & ſe reficere volente, hora appropinquante veſpertina, Æmericus cum ſuis egreditur armatis, & ſubito juxta Methſen Scotis ſuperveniens, prælium aggreſſus eſt: Et ceciderunt in die illo, inter gladii, plures de Scotis, qui pſeudo-Regi adhæſerunt. Quinimo ipſe idem ter à dextrariis proſtratus eſt, & per Simonem de Freyſell, *bellatorem egregium, ter levatus, tandem per fallaciam candida camiſia evaſit de prælio. Et memorandum quod brevia prædicta (videlicet, hoc breve & brevia pro R. Epiſcopo Glaſguenſi, & pro W. Epiſcopo Sancti Andrai) facta fuerunt apud Notingham per Dominum *W. Theſe ſtrict Writs for the cloſe impriſonment of theſe perjured Biſhops, Rebels, Traytors and Enemies to the King even in iron chaines, as well as in ſeveral Caſtles, Towers, notwithſtanding their Rochets, and ſacred Orders, under ſuch ſtrong armed guards and ſevere penalties, is a ſufficient evidence, what pernicious, dangerous Traytors and Rebels the King reputed them, being in truth farr worſe then any of thoſe Laymen whom he hanged, beheaded, quartered, ſetting up their Heads, Quarters in ſundry places throughout the Realm, to deterre others for the future, from the like Treaſons and Rebellions: Yet ſuch was his Royal Clemency towards them (in reſpect of their ſacred Orders, which much aggravated their Crimes, and by conſequence their puniſhments) that he not only ſpared their lives, and gave them and thoſe who attended them a daily competent allowance,

An. 34 E. 1. ance, but also allowed them a Chaplain daily to say Masse to them for the good of their souls, though themselves might be thought sufficient to be their own Chaplains during this their close imprisonment, having no such temporal imployments as formerly, to divert them from their Devotions, as this Record informs us.

Cl. 34 E 1. m. 6 dorso. De ordinatione Episcoporum S. Andreæ & Glasguens. & al. prisonum de Scotia.

MEmorandum, quod Vicecomes Subt. cui Willielmus Episcopus Sancti Andreæ Domini Regis proditor liberatur, in Turri Castri Wynton. salvo et secure custodiendus, secundum quod per breve Regis ei expressius est injunctum, faciat ministrare dicto Episcopo incarcerato expensas suas in hunc modum: videlicet, eidem Episcopo ad expensas suas proprias, singulis diebus sex denar. & pro uno valetti deserviente ei per diem tres denar. & pro uno garcione similiter ei per diem unum denar. et unum obolum, et pro uno Capellano celebraturo sibi missam singulis diebus, unum denarium et unum obolum per diem. Qui quidem Capellanus vallettus & garcio tales eligantur, et tam fideles de quibus nullum timeatur periculum, et pro quibus dictus Vic. suo periculo voluerit respondere. De aliis autem custodibus qui necessarii videbuntur pro custodia Episcopi prædicti disponet dictus Vic. prout sibi pro securitate sua melius viderit expedire.

Item idem Vic. cui Robertus Episcopus Glasguen. similiter liberatur ad incarcerand. in Castro Porcestr. similes Custodes ac Ministros deputabit eidem, ac sibi sumptus & expensas ministrabit ibidem prout pro Episcopo Sancti Andreæ superius est expressum. Et de sumptibus quos idem Vic. apposuerit tam circa dictos Episcopos & eis deservituros, quam circa alios Custus quos rationabiliter fecerit in stipendiis Custodum prædictorum, sibi per præsentem Indenturam cujus altera pars remanet penes Thesaur. de Scaccario, allocatio justa fiet.

At the same time when these Bishops and Abbots were taken Prisoners, * Capitur etiam & illa impiissima conjuratrix de Bowhan de qua consultus Rex, ait, Quia Gladio non percussit, gladio non peribit. Verum propter illicitam Coronationem quam fecit, in domicilio lapideo & ferreo, in modum Coronæ fabricato, firmissime obstruatur, & apud Bervicum sub dio forinsecus suspendatur, ut sit data, in vita & post mortem, speculum viatoribus, & opprobrium sempiternum. Illo quoque tempore, captus est Symon Freysell, in quo pendebat Scotorum tota fiducia, in tantum quod incarcerati Nobiles Scoti, invincibilem incomprehensibilemque illum asserebant, nec illo vivente Scotos posse devinci putarent. Instante igitur, id est in Vigilia Nativitatis beatæ Mariæ, eductis de Turri Londinensi Herebertus & Thomas de Boys, armiger ejus, capitibus sunt truncati, Symon autem Freysell, propter pluralitatem proditionum, quas fecerat sic damnatur. A Turri Londinensi per vinculos et plateas distractus ut proditor, suspensus eminus quia latro, truncatus capite ut homicida, resixus equuleo per dies 20. igne quoque similiter est combustus. Hujus autem caput super Pontem Londinensem, juxta caput Gulielmi Waleis, super lanceam cunctis orationibus perhorrendum spectaculum, est affixum.

This was the deserved end of these perjured Scottish Traitors and Rebels. Soon after, In diebus illis, fecit Rex Angliæ inquirere per totam Scotiam per fide dignos homines, quot & quanti intererant interfectioni Johannis Comyn & consortioni Roberti de Brus: Et terme omnes cepit, et morti tradidit; aut ultra se rendentes regiæ voluntati, diris carceribus mancipavit. Post hæc captum est Castrum de Lochdor, in quo inventus est Christopherus Setonus, Sororius Roberti de Brus, quem cum non Scotus sed Anglus esset, jussit Rex deduci usque Dunfreis, ubi quendam Militem de parte Regis prius occiderat, ibique judicium subire coactus, tractus suspensusque est, ac ultimo decollatus. Whiles the King was thus imployed in ſubduing his Scottiſh Rebels abroad, the Pope and his Delegates, together with his own Biſhops, Clergy, and their Eccleſiaſtical Courts, were as buſie in encroaching upon the Eccleſiaſtical and Temporal Rights of his Crown and Courts at home, as theſe enſuing Writs to controll them will more fully inform us.

Pope Clement being encouraged by the Kings * premiſed compliance, that his foreign Agents ſhould ſequeſter and appropriate both the Spiritualties and Temporalties of the Archbiſhoprick of Canterbury to his own uſe, proceeded by Stephen de Manby and other his Delegates, to ſequeſter all the Spiritualties, Temporalties, Fruits and Profits of the Priory of Durham, of the Kings foundation, and his Progenitors, with their Rights and Appurtenances, without the Kings privity or licence, enjoyning the Prior, Chapter and Covent of Durham, with all the Proctors and Adminiſtrators of the ſaid Priory, intirely to anſwer all the Fruits, Rents, Profits, Rights and obventions of the ſaid Priory to the Patriarch of Jeruſalem during the pleaſure of the See Apoſtolick, to be diſpoſed of at his pleaſure; and commanded them to excommunicate and interdict all perſons of what quality ſoever, except the King, Queen, and their Children, which ſhould oppoſe or contradict this new and unheard of Papal Uſurpation; whereupon they denounced with direful execrations the greater Excommunication againſt the Prior and ſundry Canons of Durham, and divers others who oppoſed them therein, and alſo interdicted the Church of Durham, refuſing twice to revoke this their unjuſt Sentence upon the Kings Writs, and his Counſels commands to do it, in high contempt of the Kings Crown and Dignity, and diſinheriting the Rights thereof: For which they were twice ſummoned before the King and his Counſil, and after in the Parliament at Karliſle, were impriſoned and fined to the King, as this memorable Record will at large inform us.

Anno 34 E. 1. I finde by the Clause Roll of 34 E. 1. that the King being informed the Popes Delegates proceeded to execute the Popes unusual and illegal commands in this businesse, notwithstanding his several Prohibitions to them, therein recorded, issued this Writ to Robert Clifford Guardian of the Liberties of the Bishoprick of Durham, by advise of his Counsil, strictly commanding him, not to permit them or any of them to execute any thing concerning the same within his said Liberties, till further order therein.

So careful was the King and his Counsil to prevent this dangerous Innovation and Encroachment on his Crown, and crush this new Cockatrice in the shell. The Pope being informed by his Nuncio and Legate here, concerning the Kings severe proceedings against them for executing his Bull, who misinformed him of the true state of the Case in point of Law and the Kings Prerogative, was very much offended with the King; whereof he being informed, to hold all fair correspondence with him, sent him this Epistle, complaining of the great wrongs done by his Agents to God, and especially to St. Cuthbert Patron of the Church of Durham, desiring him to examine the truth of the whole business himself, whereof he had been misinformed, and reform these excesses, to the honour of God, St. Cuthbert, and the Church, and righting of the Prior.

By which Writs and Proceedings this unuſual and formerly unheard of Uſurpation of the Pope was prevented, and not afterwards put in execution, whereby he would have appropriated the Temporalties as well as Spiritualties of all Religious Houſes and Monaſteries in England by degrees to himſelf and his Creatures, had not the King and his Counſil thus carefully prevented and ſuppreſſed it when firſt ſet on foot.

Pope Clement the 5th, his Delegates, Nuncioes and Agents, exceedingly encroaching this year upon the rights of the King, his Crown and Dignity, although the King in other particulars complyed with their requeſts in all things that intrenched not upon the rights and prerogatives of his Crown and Royal Dignity, to advance his own deſignes; yet he and his Counſil would by no means yeeld, or condeſcend to their manifold new, illegal requeſts, Procurations, Uſurpations, and proceedings, that were derogatory or prejudicial to the rights of his Crown, but oppoſed them to their power both in and by his Letters to this Pope and his Cardinals, by ſeveral Writs of Prohibition and Attachments iſſued to his Nuncioes, Legates, Delegates, and other Agents: Witneſſe this enſuing Letter of his to this Pope on the behalf of John Buſh his Clerk, whom he had legally preſented to a Præbendary in the Church of York, then void and in his hands, into which Francis the ſon of Peter Gaſcain an alien had intruded himſelf by the Popes proviſion; who cited the Kings Clerk out of the Realm perſonally to appear before the Pope upon falſe ſuggeſtions, to anſwer him damages for the pretended injuries done unto him, in turning him out of this prebendary, againſt the rights and liberties of his Crown, Dignity, and Realm.

PApæ Rex, &c. Oppoztunum et ſolertem diligentiam libenter impendimus, ut jura Regiæ noſtræ dignitatis conſerbentur illæſa, ad quæ manutenda et conſerbanda Rot. Romæ An. 34 E. 1. m. 5. n. 5.

The like Oppoſition he made againſt a new illegal clauſe thruſt into this Popes Bull and reſcript concerning the Manors, Villages, and temporal Demeſnes of the Priory of Okeburn, which he would by no means tolerate or aſſent to, but commanded it to be obliterated, as manifeſtly derogatory to his royal Right, refuſing to reſtore the temporalties, till this prejudicial clauſe was expunged, as this Letter of his concerning this Priory to a Romiſh Cardinal, informs us.

To which I ſhall ſubjoyn this Record and Memorandum concerning the Biſhop of Catheneſſe. The King by his Prerogative Royal as Superior Lord of Scotland, giving his royal licenſe for, and aſſent to the election and confirmation of the ſaid Biſhop of Cathneſſe in Scotland, confirmed by the Pope, iſſued this Writ for the reſtitution of his Temporalties; which yet the King would not grant him, till he had publikely renounced all clauſes in the Popes Bull concerning his temporalties (implying the Pope to have a power over them) as prejudicial to the Kings right and Crown, as this Records aſſures us.

So carefull was the King and his Counſil in that age, to prevent all new encroachments and uſurpations on the Crown and Prerogative by any new words or clauſes, which Popes uſually inſerted into their Bulls upon every occaſion to inlarge their Papal Juriſdiction, and would not obliterate nor renounce when juſtly excepted againſt by the King and Counſil.

As the Pope and his Agents, Nuncios and Collectors thus uſurped upon the Rights and Prerogatives of the Crown on the one hand, which the King and his Counſil ſtrenuouſly oppoſed; ſo did his Biſhops and their Eccleſiaſtical Courts and Officers on the other hand, which he with his Judges and Courts of Juſtice reſtrained this year, by theſe Writs of Prohibition extant in the Bundles of Writs I found in the White Tower, An. 34 E. 1.

Notwithstanding these large Encomiums of Grosthead both by the King, Prelates, Clergy, and people of England, and their importunity to canonize him for a Saint, I cannot find by History or Record he was ever actually canonized, because he opposed the usurpations, corruptions of the Popes and Court of Rome; when as Anselm, Becket of Canterbury, and Hugh of Lincoln, though Arch-Traytors, Rebels against our Kings, were readily canonized for Saints upon this only account, that they maintained the usurpations of the Popes and Court of Rome, upon the Crowns, Rights, Liberties of our Kings, kingdome, and the Church of England.

The Bishop of Ciceſter by his usurped authority endowing a Vicar in the Church of Rye, (of the Kings patronage, without his or his royal progenitors assent) of the 3d. part of the Tithes and Oblations, to the prejudice of the Kings Crown, right, and Clerk presented thereunto; the King thereupon issued this Writ, declaring the endowment voyd in Law, if made without the royal assent, commanding the Bishop to inquire out, and certifie him the truth thereof.

I cannot finde by Record or Hiſtory that any perſons came to be abſolved by them in theſe caſes, it being lawful by the *Laws of God and Man, for the King and all his loyal Subjects and Adherents, to kill, ſtrike, apprehend, and lay violent hands on all the perfidious Traytors and Rebels of the Scottiſh Nation and others, even in Churches and Churchyards, yea to burn their Churches, when they fled into and fortified them againſt them, without incurring the leaſt Sentence of Excommunication, Irregularity, Interdict, or other Eccleſiaſtical Cenſures, impoſed by Popes or Prelates Canons, which they extended to the protection of Traytors, Rebels, Murderers, and other Malefactors, to the publike prejudice both of Juſtice, Government, and Monarchy, beyond their primitive intention.

This year I met with this memorable Plea before the Chancellor in the Chancery, at the ſuit of the Freres of the Hoſpital of the Houſe of God in Donewich, againſt the Abbot of St. Oſitha, for taking a Croſs out of their Hoſpital, whither many reſorted to adore it, who beſtowed much Alms upon them, and carrying it to the Abbey of St. Oſitha, and there keeping it in contempt of the King, to the ſubſtraction of the Alms of the Hoſpital, and great dammage and impoveriſhing of the Freres: One of the firſt Pleas I have obſerved of this kinde in Chancery.

Clauſ. 34 E 1. m. 17. dorſo. Pro Rege.

PAPæ Rex, Devota pedum oſcula beatorum. Recepimus cum reverentia qua decebat, literas quas in nobis veſtra beatitudo tranſmiſit, inter cætera continentes, ut dilecto & fideli noſtro nobili viro Amaneno Domino de Lebreto Caſtrum noſtrum de Milhano cum pertin. quod quondam fuerat progenitorum ſuorum, pro bono & laudabili ſervitio quod idem Amanenus in guerra noſtra Vaſcon. nobis impenderet, liberaliter concedere curaremus, eodem modo tenendum quo pater & dicti progenitores ſui Caſtrum illud antiquius tenuerunt; Unde veſtra noverit Sanctitudo, quod ſatis ſumus experti, nec à noſtra ſunt notitia aliena laudabilia et grata ſervitia quæ prædictus Amanenus in dicta guerra noſtra Vaſcon. & alibi nobis exhibuit fideliter & conſtanter, de quibus nos multipliciter commendamus. Et licet verum, quod prædictum Caſtrum de Milhano aliquando fuiſſet progenitorum præfati Amaneni, ſicut dictæ veſtræ literæ continebant. Pater tamen ipſius certis ex cauſis Caſtrum illud commiſit, et nichilominus claræ memoriæ Dominus H. quondam Rex Angliæ pater noſter eidemque pro dicto Caſtro nomine Eſcambii alias terras dedit. Cæterum, pater Sanctiſſime, cum quidam Clericus noſter, et de Conſilio noſtro non minimus, ſicut forſitan benè noſtis, Magiſter Petrus Arnaldi de Vico poſt creationem veſtram captus fuerit, et ſic captus, adhuc in carceribus teneatur, & veriſimiliter præſumamus, quod ad procurationem Amaneni hoc actum extiterit, præſertim pro eo, quod idem Amanenus per majores de noſtro Conſilio in Anglia requiſitus, malivolentiam quam ad ipſum Clericum noſtrum gerebat ſibi remitteret, id facere recuſaſſet, in noſtri bituperium et dedecus factum hujuſmodi cedere reputemus: Sanctitati veſtræ ſupplicamus humiliter & devotè, quatinus ad præmiſſa illum reſpectum, ſi placet, habere dignemini quem honori noſtro veſtra providentia viderit convenire, quodque id nobis gratum eſſe debeat & acceptum: clementiam veſtram ſcire volentes, quod prompti erimus et parati ad ea quæ vobis noverimus eſſe grata, & etiam cum promptitudine qua poterimus adimplere, quod ſuper hiis de quibus nos requirendum duxiſtis vobis viſum fuerit faciendum, ſupplicantes precibus iteratis, ut ſuper prætactis nobis ſignificare velitis veſtræ beneplacita voluntatis, et prædictum Clericum noſtrum taliter proſequi gratia et favore, ut in perſona ipſius quod pro nobis feceritis percipere valeamus. Conſervet, &c. Dat. Wynton. 8 die Aprilis, Anno regni noſtri, &c. 34.

After which anſwer Amanenus complying with the Kings requeſt, being likewiſe ſent over to him as a Nuncio from the Pope, he did out of his veneration to the Pope ſettle this Caſtle upon him and his heirs by this Patent.

Pat. 34 E 1. m. 10. De Amaneno Domino de le Breto.

REX Omnibus ad quos, &c. ſalutem. Licet nuper per cartam noſtram dederimus & conceſſerimus Edwardo filio noſtro kariſſimo, totum Ducatum (Aq.) prædict. cum omnibus pertin. ſuis. Habend. & tenend. ſibi, et poſt ipſum Regibus in regno Angliæ hæreditariè regnantibus, cum omnibus ad eundem Ducatum qualitercumq; ſpectantibus; ita tamen, quod præfatus filius noſter Ducatum prædictum alienare non poſſit, nec quicquam de eodem aut pertin. ejuſdem diſtrahere vel diminuere quoquo modo, ad requiſicionem tamen ſanctiſſimi patris Domini Clementis divina providencia ſacroſanctæ Romanæ ac univerſalis Eccleſiæ Summi Pontificis nobis factam, tam, pro munere gratiæ ſpecialis, necnon pro laudabili et gratuito ſervicio quod dilectus et fidelis Miles noſter Amanenus Dominus de le Breto nobis & dilecto filio noſtro hactenus multipliciter impendit, concedimus, et licentiam damus eidem filio noſtro, pro nobis et hæredibus noſtris, quod ipſe Caſtrum et Caſtellaniam de Milhano, cum pertin. ſuis in Ducatu prædicto, dare poſſit et concedere præfato Amaneno: Habend. et tenend. ſibi et hæred. ſuis de filio noſtro, & poſt ipſum, de Regibus in regno Anglie hæreditariè regnantibus, cum dominicis, homagiis, redditibus, ſerviciis, feodis, & advocationibus Eccleſiarum, libertatibus, liberis conſuetudinibus, alta juſticia & baſſa, et aliis Juribus quibuſcunque, ad prædicta Caſtrum et Caſtellaniam pertinentibus, ſine aliquo retenemento, adeo integrè ſicut ad manus ejuſdem filii noſtri, ex dono et conceſſione noſtris prædictis devenerunt imperpetuum, faciendo inde de cætero eidem filio noſtro, & poſt ipſum, Regibus in regno Anglie hæreditariè regnantibus, ſervicia quæ de eiſdem Caſtro et Caſtellania, ante eſcambium, inter celebris memoriæ Dominum H. quondam Regem Anglie patrem noſtrum & patrem præfati Amaneni, inde factum, debebantur, et fieri conſueverunt. Condicionem autem prædictam in dicta carta noſtra contentam, videlicet, quod præfatus filius noſter Ducatum prædictum alienare non poſſit, nec quicquam de eodem, ſeu pertin. ejuſdem diſtrahere aliqualiter diminuere, quo ad donationem prædictam de dictis Caſtro e Caſtellania et ſuis pertin, faciendam, penitus revocamus. In cujus, &c. T. R. apud Thetsk 28 die Julii, triplicatur. An. 34 E. 1.

King Edward having procured the Popes abſolution from his Oath to obſerve the Perambulation of the Foreſts formerly made and ſetled in Parliament, to the great diſcontent of his Nobles and people, upon the new commotions and rebellions in Scotland beyond his expectation, in a Parliament in the 34 year of his reign, to regain his Nobles and peoples affections, and free them from the manifold oppreſſions, grievances, and illegal Proceedings by the Officers of his Foreſts, made this enſuing Ordinance, which he ſent to all the Sheriffs of England, and Juſtices of his Foreſts, to publiſh, proclaim, obſerve for the future by theſe memorable Writs, recorded in the Statute Roll in the Tower, not printed with the Ordinance it ſelf in * Tottle's Magna Charta, or any other Statute book.

REX Omnibus ad quos, &c. ſalutem. Dum imbecillitatis humanæ conſpicimus imperfectum, ac onera longè latéque diffuſa noſtris humeris incumbencia attenta conſideracione penſamus, intus nimirum puncturis diverſis torquemur, diverſorum cogitationum fluctibus agitati, et vexamur frequenter noctes ducendo inſomnes, quid agendum, quid tenendum, quidbe exequendum exiſtat inter præcordia hæſitantes; in eo tamen qui ſupra cuncta tenens in excelſis imperium, qui dat eſſe rebus, et diſpenſat prout vult munera gratiarum, cum ſapienciæ ſuæ magnitudinem humani non capiant intellectus, virtutes reſumimus, ſperantes, quod in ſerviciis ſuis perficiat actus noſtros, & ſuæ bonitatis clementia noſtrum miſericorditer videat et ſuppleat imperfectum, ut ipſius fulti præſidio per viam mandatorum Domini dirigamur. Profecto inter omnia ſollicitudini noſtræ et curæ inhærentia, circa illud præcipue noſtra non intermiſſive verſatur intencio, ut ſubditis noſtris regni noſtri incolis quietis et tranquillitatis dulcedinem præparemus, in quorum quiete quieſcimus, et in eorum tranquillitate non ſine ſuabitatis odore in floribus pacis deſideratæ interius confobemur. Sane ex fidelium noſtrorum relatibus, et oppreſſorum crebris clamoribus, de quibus nimia mentis commocione turbamur, didicimus, quod per Miniſtros Foreſtarum noſtrorum populus ejuſdem regni miſerabiliter opprimitur, depauperatur, et diverſis afficitur injuriis, undique moleſtatus; nonnunquam enim fiunt accuſaciones de foreſta et indictiones vulgariter ſic appellatæ, non per legitimas Inquiſiciones proborum et legalium hominum patriæ præcedentes, ut juſticia requirit, ſet ad dictum unius vel forſan duorum de foreſtariis, aut ad dictum unius vel forſan duorum de viridariis qui ex odio aut aliàs malicioſè, ut ab aliquo pecuniam extorqueant quenquam accuſant vel indictant, et exinde ſequuntur attachiamenta gravia, et punitur innocens quem nulla omnino culpa ſeu delictum conſtringit. Opprimitur etiam populus præ multitudine Foreſtariorum et aliorum miniſtrorum, quos cum non habeant undè aliunde vivant, per patriam foreſtæ adjacentem vivere oportebit eoſdem, et quod eſt deterius pro jure officii ſui vendicant

Ex Rot. Stat. Anno 34 E. 1. m. 13, & 14.

An. 34 E. 1. cant ut ſic vivant : Iſti nichilominus pro ſuis victualibus quibus egent boſcum ſuæ cuſtodiæ aut ſub ſuis cuſtodiis deputatum, et feras in eiſdem exiſtentes vendendo, donando, et multipliciter minuendo ac minui permittendo, ſucceſſivis dierum proceſſibus deſtruunt et adnichilant, ad noſtrum et hæredum noſtrorum intolerabile detrimentum. Quid plura? dampna et grabamina quæ circa hoc proveniunt, ut accepimus, difficile foret per ſingula enarrare. Cupientes itaque oppreſſionibus et grabaminibus hujuſmodi, quæ abſque gravi ſcandalo diutius ſub diſſimulacione præterire nequimus, modis et viis omnibus quibus poſſumus, obviare, ac regni noſtri incolarum paci et tranquillitati pervigili ſtudio provideré.

Volumus in primis & ordinamus pro nobis & hæredibus noſtris, quod de tranſgreſſionibus in Foreſtis noſtris de viridi et venacione de cætero faciendis, Foreſtarii infra quorum ballivas hujuſmodi tranſgreſſiones fieri contigerit, præſentent eaſdem ad proxima Swanimota, coram Foreſtariis, viridariis, regardatoribus, agiſtatoribus, et aliis earundem foreſtarum Miniſtris, et ſuper præſentacionibus hujuſmodi ibidem coram Foreſtariis, viridariis, et omnibus aliis Miniſtris ſupradictis per ſacramentum tam Militum quam aliorum proborum et legalium hominum de partibus vicinioribus ubi tranſgreſſiones ſic præſentatæ factæ fuerint non ſuſpectorum, veritas plenius inquiratur, et ſic inquiſita veritate, præſentationes illæ per communem concordiam et aſſenſum omnium miniſtrorum prædictorum ſollempniter roborentur et ſigillis ſuis ſigillentur; et ſi alio modo fiat indictamenti pro nullo penitus habeatur. Et ſi aliquem prædictorum Foreſtariorum, regardatorum, aut aliorum Miniſtrorum foreſtarum iplarum obire contingat, ſeu per ægritudinem vel alio modo impediri, quominus intereſſe valeat hujuſmodi Swanimotis, incontinenti Juſticiarius Foreſtæ ſeu locum ejus tenens ponat alium loco ſuo, ita videlicet, quod indictamentum fiat per omnes in forma prædicta, quodque Miniſtri qui ponendi ſunt ponantur, ſicut hactenus fieri conſuevit, exceptis Viridariis qui per electionem et per breve noſtrum deputabuntur. Et volumus, quod nullus Miniſtrorum prædictorum in aſſiſis juratis, ſeu inquiſicionibus extra Foreſtam capiendis de cætero ponatur.

Et ſi ſuperoneracio Foreſtariorum aut aliorum qui ſe gerunt ut Miniſtros Foreſtæ inveniatur, amoveantur hujuſmodi ſuperonerantes et impriſonentur ſecundum diſcrecionem Juſtic. Foreſtæ vel ejus locum tenentis, necnon & illi per quos poſiti fuerant, ad voluntatem noſtram ſimiliter puniantur. Et ad quodlibet Swanimotum inquiratur ſollempniter de ſuperoneracione Foreſtariorum et aliorum Miniſtrorum Foreſtæ, et de eorum oppreſſionibus populo noſtro illatis, et fiant inde emendæ et punitiones, prout ſuperius eſt expreſſum.

Quoad illos vero qui tempore quo Foreſta deafforeſtata fuit tranſgreſſiones de viridi aut venacione in Foreſta fecerunt, quia deafforeſtacionem eandem, et ut ſententia excommunicationis in contravenientes fulminaretur, quanquam de noſtra bona voluntate minime proceſſiſſet, conceſſimus, quam quidem ſententiam Dominus Summus Pontifex poſtmodum revocabit; et quas conceſſionem et deafforeſtationem ex certis cauſis revocamus et eciam adnullamus; Volumus, quod tranſgreſſiones hujuſmodi pardonentur, tranſgreſſionibus illis exceptis quæ in ea parte quæ Foreſta remanſit commiſſæ fuerunt; ita tamen, quod hayæ & foſſata facta medio tempore proſternantur et penitus amoveantur et adnichilentur; ſalvis arentacionibus noſtris quas ſecundum aſſiſam Foreſtæ volumus remanere. Boſcus autem ceſus & proſtratus amoveatur, & boſcus ſtans, remanent in Foreſta. Et ſi fortè aliquis talis boſcus adhuc ſtans ſit venditus, in Foreſta remaneat, & venditor ſatisfaciat emptori juxta quantitatem porcionis boſci ſtantis in Foreſta, & taliter medio tempore venditi, & prout ceperit de eodem.

Volumus eciam, quod Juſticiarius Foreſtæ noſtræ vel ejus locum tenens in præſencia Theſ. noſtri, et per aſſenſum ejuſdem habeat poteſtatem capiendi fines et redemciones illorum qui ſunt indictati de tranſgreſſionibus uſque nunc in Foreſta commiſſis itinere Juſticiariorum minime expectato.

Volumus inſuper, quod illi qui communem paſturam in Foreſta ante perambulacionem factam habebant, & qui ſunt poſtea repoſiti in Foreſta, quique de dicta communia per perambulacionem prædictam fuerant impediti, habeant communem paſturam de cætero in Foreſtis, adeo large et libere ſicut ante perambulacionem factum habere ſolebant; ſalvis arentacionibus noſtris in forma prædicta. Super quibus vobis pater Sancte volumus eſſe notum. Quod ſuggeſtio illa nullam omnino continet veritatem; Nam poſtquam Nuncii noſtri prædicti à nobis receſſerunt iter arripiendo ad veſtram præſentiam accedendi, infra regnum noſtrum ſuper gentes dicti Regis nulla hujuſmodi arreſtatio facta fuit, ſed magno tempore elapſo, cum quidam Mercator noſter pannos & alia bona quæ ad opus noſtrum emerat in Brebant verſus Angliam per poteſtatem duceret dicti Regis, idem Rex pannos & bona prædicta arreſtari & ad opus ſuum capi quo libito ſuo fecit: & tandem poſt preces noſtras pro reſtitutione pannorum & bonorum prædictorum pluries ſibi directas, ac longam ſectam & frequentem inſtanciam Mercatoris prædicti, inquiſita ſuper hoc & reperta plenius veritate, præfatus Rex præcepit dicto Mercatori pro pannis & bonis prædictis certam pecuniæ ſummam taxatam ſuo arbitrio liberari, prout in ipſius Regis literis patentibus eidem Mercatori inde confectis plenius eſt contentum: Super quo quidem præcepto nulla executio nec reſtitutionis effectus juxta formam literarum prædictarum poſtmodum extitit ſubſecutus, quamvis idem Rex poſt confectionem literæ ſuæ prædictæ pluries ſuper hoc per nos debite fuerit requiſitus. A clear evidence, That the Probat of Wills in Cities and Places where Tenements and Lands were deviſable by cuſtom, belonged not to the Eccleſiaſtical but Temporal Courts, and that the King might by his Writs command Wills to be proved by thoſe who ought to prove them, or render him a legal reaſon why they refuſed ſo to do.

After which returning from the Court of Rome to the Kings presence. to prevent all affronts to him and his followers within the Dioceſs of Canterbury, concerning the carrying of his Croſs therein, he procured this Safe-conduct from the King.

Pat. 34 E. 1. m. 36. intus. De conductu, Pro W. Archiepiſc. Eborum.

REX Omnibus Amicis & Ballivis & fidelibus ſuis ad quos, &c. ſalutem. Cum Venerabilis Pater Willielmus de Grenefeild Eboracenſis Archiepiſcopus ſit ad præſens a Curia Romana ad noſtram præſentiam reverſurus, vos amicos rogamus vobis, ballivis & fidelibus mandantes, quatenus eidem Archiepiſcopo aut familiæ ſuæ in veniendo ad nos a Curia prædicta non inferatis, ſeu quantum in vobis eſt ab aliis inferri permittatis injuriam, moleſtiam, dampnum, impedimentum aliquod ſeu gravamen, ſed eis potius ſalvum & ſecurum conductum habere faciatis quociens ab ipſo ſuper hoc ex parte noſtra fueritis requiſiti. In cujus, &c. uſque ad feſtum nativitatis Sancti Johannis Baptiſta prox. futur. duratur. Teſte Rege apud Caneford, 10 die Februarii. Per Breve de privato Sigillo.

Hereupon this Archbiſhop in his return from the Popes Court this year, was invited to lodge and feaſt with the Abbot in the Monaſtery of St. Auguſtines at Canterbury, yet with ſpecial caution in writing concerning the bearing of his Croſs within it, leſt it ſhould turn to their future prejudice. Eodem anno Archiepiſcopus* Eboracenſis rogatus (eſt) ab Abbate ad convivandum ſecum; facta tamen litera, quod non in præjudicium domus veniret per Crucis erectionem, quæ talis.

Thus was the King by his condeſcention and grant of the Temporalties and Preſentations belonging to himſelf and his Crown, to this Pope, enforced to importune both the Pope and Cardinals by ſucceſſive Letters, for the confirmation of his own Clerks preſentations to Churches who beſt demerited of him, and yet could not at all, or with great difficulty and expence obtain his juſt requeſts; ſuch was the avarice and ambition of this uſurping Pontiff.

SAnctissimo in Christo Patri Domino C. divina providencia sacrosanctæ Romanæ ac universalis Eccleſiæ Summo Pontifici; Edwardus, &c. devota pedum oscula beatorum. Pater sanctissime, Transmissæ nobis literæ vestræ per præsentium portitores, quas diligenter inspeximus continebant, quod vestra clemencia venerabilem patrem Dominum Petrum Ispann. Dei gratia sedis Apostolicæ Cardinalem, & nobilem virum Dominum Amanenum Dominum de Lebreto pro aliquibus negociis tocius Christianitatis utilitatem, statumque regni nostri tangentibus, jam pridem versus nos duxerat destinare, pro quibus eciam negociis litteras nostras vestræ sanctitati meminimus direxisse, quas diu antequam ad nos pervenerant vestræ literæ memoratæ, ad vestram credimus præsenciam perveniſſe. Et quia hujusmodi nuncii nobis hactenus fuerunt & adhuc sunt quamplurimum speciales, de vestra missione eorundem sanctitati vestræ grates et gratiarum quas possumus referimus actiones, potissimè de dicto Cardinali, quem Edwardum filium nostrum kariſſimum de progenie Ispan. existentem, de qua quidem patria idem Cardinalis duxit originem, specialiter diligere credimus & ex corde. Quamobrem, pater sancte, de adventu nunciorum prædictorum afficimur valdè læti. Conservet, &c. Dat. apud Laurecost tercio die Januarii.

King Edward sent this and a former Letter to this Pope for the restitution of the two Cardinals of Columpna to their dignities, lands, possessions, and goods, whereof they were deprived by his predecessor Pope Boniface, since they had been alwayes friendly and faithfull to him.

The ſame year as the ſaid † Annals inform us; Richard Feringes Archbiſhop of Dublin died in the Vigil of Saint Luke, after whom ſucceeded Mr. Richard Haverings, who occupied the Archbiſhoprick almoſt five years by Apoſtolical diſpention, (Pope Clement then newly uſurping to himſelf by the plenitude of his Papal power, the diſpoſition of all Cathedral Churches and preferments when they ſhould fall voyd during his Papacy by his Papal proviſions, which King Edward oppoſed to his power, for which this Pope ſharply reprehended him.) This Archbiſhop conſcious to himſelf of his illegal entring into, and of his neglect in the diſcharge of this his Archiepiſcopal office, reſigned up his Archbiſhoprick, after whom ſucceeded John Leth.

The occaſion and cauſe of his giving over (as the Archdeacon of Dublin of good memory, his Nephew hath reported) was this, for that one Night he dreamed that a certain Monſter heavier than the whole World ſtood eminently aloft upon his breaſt: from the weight whereof he choſe rather to be delivered, then alone to have all the goods of the World: but when he awakened, he thought with himſelf, this was nothing elſe but the Church of Dublin, the fruits whereof he received, and took no pains for the ſame. (The caſe of many of his ſucceſſors, and other Archbiſhops then and ſince.) As ſoon as he could therefore, he came to the Lord Pope, of whom he was much beloved, and there renounced and gave over the Archbiſhoprick; For he had (as the ſame Archdeacon avouched) fatter Benefices and livings, then the Archbiſhoprick came unto; which he ſhould likewiſe have reſigned upon the ſame account, ſince he reſided not and took no ſpiritual pains in them to feed and inſtruct his peoples ſouls, no more then in his reſigned Archbiſhoprick.

EX ſcripto valdè prolixo, quod G. de Negareto, & G. de Pleſiano Domini Regis Francia Milites, proſequentes negotium fidei, inceptum contra Bonifacium dictum octavum defunctum, & ejus memoriam, tradiderunt coram Domino D. Clemente Papa 5. Dei Gratia Summo Pontifice, per Nobilem virum Bertrandum de Rupenegada Militem, Procuratorem ſuum ad hæc:

1. Conſtat, et eſt notozium toti mundo, quod Reges Francia, iſte qui nunc eſt, et pzogenitozes ipſius, ſuperiozem niſi Deum ſolum in tempozalibus non noverunt. Sic eſt perpetuo a tempoze Generationis eozum obtentum: ſic Sancti Patres, Summi Pontifices, ſic Imperatozes, qui pzæfuerunt ante Bonifacium ſerdaberunt. (Extra qui filii ſint legis c. per venerabilem.) Nec Reges Francia ſuper rebus, vel juribus quibuſcunque tempozalibus, vel eis adhærentibus, vel annexis ad honozem, vel ſtatum regni ſui ſpectantibus, vel eis annexis, judicium receperunt per alium quemcunque in mundo, niſi per Curiam ſuam. Et hoc eſt notozium toti mundo et Eccleſiæ Romanæ ſemper fuit et Bonifacio ſupzadicto.

2. Item, Notorium eſt toti mundo, quod Rex qui nunc eſt, et ejus Progenitores, inter mundi Principes in Religione fidei corruſcarunt, & pro fide, ac omnibus quæ ad ſedem pertinent Eccleſiæ Romanæ, Prælatiſque ſuis ſemper obedientes fuerunt et erunt, ſecundum conſuetudines Regni, per quas forſan, jura quædam, qui de jure ſcripto pertineat ad Eccleſias, pertinent de antiqua conſuetudine ad Regem, ſeu ad alios Dominos tempozales, pluraque jura tempozalia quæ pertinere deberent de jure ſcripto ad Regem, ſeu ad alios Dominos tempozales, pertinent de conſuetudine ad Eccleſias dicti regni, et hoc diverſimode ſecundum diverſas conſuetudines diverſarum partium regni ipſius.

3. Item, Certum, notozium et indubitatum exiſtit, quod Rex et Reges qui fuerunt ſine medio, vel mediate, fundaverunt Eccleſias regni ſui, et eas dotaverunt, & hæreditatibus pinguibus, & bonis immobilibus ditaverunt, ad expendendum ipſorum bonorum, fructus & reditus, in cultu divino, & aliis bonis operibus, in regno prædicto, et conſueverunt defendere Reges pzædicti, ne bona Eccleſiarum pzædictarum diſſipentur vel expendantur ad alios uſus, quam ad quæ collata ſunt, ſine conſenſu et voluntate eozum. Et ſi aliud fiat, æſtimat fieri per rapinam ipſe ſuique regnicolæ, & ſui progenitores præteritis temporibus æſtimarunt, & jure ſui Principatus, quo tenentur ipſas Eccleſias cuſtodire, & ex jure Patronatus ipſarum Eccleſiarum. Et ideo Summi Pontifices, qui dictum Bonifacium præceſſerunt, nunquam Decimas, vel impoſitas ſimiles, fecerunt Eccleſiis dicti regni ſine Regum conſenſu qui fuerunt pzo tempoze.

Item, Certum eſt, notorium, & indubitatum, quod plurimæ Eccleſiæ dicti regni ſunt de ſpeciali Gardia Domini Regis prædicti, et ſpecialiter Cathedzales Eccleſiæ dicti regni, & cum gardia ipſa; vel dictæ Eccleſiæ oſtenduntur per violentiam, vel injuriam aliquorum in præjudicium dictæ Gardiæ, Reges ipſi, ex ſuo officio denunciante quocunque inquirere de his conſueverunt, et facere emendari offenſam factam Eccleſiis, & ſibi injuriam gardiæ ſuæ, quod eſt in favorem Eccleſiarum regni ex conſuetudine introductum, de cujus contrario memoria non exiſtit, nec Eccleſiæ dicti regni pro omni theſauro mundi permitterent iſtud tolli.

5. Item, Certum eſt, notozium et indubitatum, quod de hæreditatibus et rebus, et juribus immobilibus, ad jus tempozale ſpectantibus quibuſcunque, ſive petitorio agatur, vel poſſeſſozio, ſive pertineant ad Eccleſias et perſonas Eccleſiaſticas, vel Dominos tempozales, agendo et defendendo, cognitio pertinet ad Curiam tempozalem, ſpecialiter autem Domini Regis ipſius.

9. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod Dominus Rex prædictis uſus eſt, et tam ipſi, quam ejus prædeceſſores uſi fuerunt, et ſunt et conſueverunt conferre dignitates, beneficia, et prædendas plurium Eccleſiarum, quæ de fundatione Regum ipſorum exiſtunt, nec dictus Dominus Rex, qui nunc eſt, aliter uſus eſt, quam ſui Progenitores hactenus uſi fuerunt, et eo modo utitur, et uſus eſt hoc tempore, quo ſui Progenitores et anteceſſores uſi fuerunt tanto tempore de cujus contrario memoria non exiſtit.

10. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod dictus Dominus Rex habet Jura Regalia univerſa in regno ſuo; ſed inter cætera jura Regalia, habet jus percipiendi fructus omnes, reditus, et proventus Eccleſiarum Cathedralium vacantium, et ſuos faciendi, qui de ſua Regalia exiſtunt, quamdiu vacant: Et quum præficitur novus Prælatus illis Eccleſiis, Prælati hujuſmodi ab ipſo Rege, temporalitatem recipiunt, poſt fidelitatem ſibi præſtitant, vel homagium; quo jure Regalium dictus Dominus Rex uſus eſt, tam ipſe quam ejus prædeceſſores Reges Francia uſi ſunt, tantis temporibus, de quorum contrario memoria non exiſtit.

11. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod dictæ Eccleſiæ in quibus Dominus Rex prædictus habet Regalia prædicta, de fundatione Regum Francia ſuorum prædeceſſorum exiſtunt.

12. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod quandiu vacant dictæ Eccleſiæ, in quibus dictus Dominus Rex habet Regalia, idem Dominus Rex donat, et donare conſuebit dignitates et prædendas, et Beneficia quorum Collatio modo quocunque pertinere poteſt ad Prælatum illius Eccleſiæ, eo tempore quo exiſtant ibidem, ſive ibidem vacent prædicta Beneficia, Prædendæ, vel dignitates, et in Curia Romana, vel alibi ubicunque.

13. Item, quod prædicta jura pertinent, et pertinere debent ad dictum Dom. 14. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod jura Regalia aliquarum Eccleſiarum, quæ habet in Eccleſiis prædictis Dominus Rex prædictus, progenitores ipſius Domini Regis, et prædeceſſores ejus in regno dederunt in feudum aliquibus Baronibus ſuis, tam Eccleſiaſticis quam ſecularibus,; qui Barones regalibus illis utuntur et fruuntur, ſedibus Eccleſiarum ipſarum vacantibus jure ſuo feudali, et jure Regio, a quo ſuum jus mobet: Et ideo Jus Regale vocatur; quo jure dicti Barones utuntur nominibus ſuis et nomine Regio, et uſi ſunt tanto tempore, de cujus contrario memoria non exiſtit.

15. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod cum Civitas Lugdunenſis, tempore primitivæ Eccleſiæ, fuiſſet ad fidem Catholicam prima converſa, & poſtea in manu infidelium deveniſſet, Rex Franciæ qui tunc erat vi armorum, & ſanguine rutilante ſuorum, conquiſibit dictam Cibitatem Lugdunenſem, cum omnibus juribus ſuis et pertinentiis ad fidem Catholicam et cultum divinum Cibitatem ipſam redegit, juriſdictione ſua Regia, et ibidem fundabit Lugdunenſem Eccleſiam Catholicam; et quia Civitas ipſa tempore infidelium præcedenti Archiflamines habuerat, & priſtinis temporibus prima ſedes fuerat Galliarum, ut moneta Lugdunenſis teſtatur, dictus Rex ſedem ipſam Archiepiſcopalem erexit, et erigi fecit, cum jure Primatiæ ſuper Eccleſias Galliarum, quo jure Primatiæ Archiepiſcopi Lugdunenſes longis temporibus uſi fuerunt.

16. Item, Certum & indubitatum exiſtit, quod Rex prædictus fundator Eccleſiæ Lugdunenſis Caſtris, Villis, terris & poſſeſſionibus, quas noſtris temporibus obtinuit dicta Eccleſia Lugdunenſis, eam dotavit, et jura Regalia (quæ Regalia in ſingulari

17. Item, Certum, notorium, et indubitatum exiſtit, quod Archiepiſcopi Lugdunenſes qui fuerunt pro tempore, quotiens vacavit Eccleſia Edvenſis, & viciſſim Edvenſes Epiſcopi, quotiens vacavit Eccleſia Lugdunenſis, uſi ſunt ad invicem, et viciſſim dictis Regaliis temporalitatum ipſarum.

18. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod antiquitus Comes Lugdunenſis Comitatum ſuum in feudum tenebat à Rege Franciæ, quem Eccleſiæ Lugdunenſis acquiſivit ex permutationis cauſa, cum omnibus caſtris, leudis ſeu pedagiis, feudis, & redditibus, juribus, & pertinentiis Comitatus ipſius, à Lugdunenſi Comite qui tunc erat, de conſenſu, authoritate et confirmatione Regis Franciæ qui tunc erat, à quo dictus Comitatus in feudum movebat.

19. Item, ipſa Eccleſia Lugdunenſis de conceſſu, authoritate et confirmatione Regis prædicti, ex cauſa permutationis prædictæ, dedit Comiti memorato magnas terras, hæreditates et caſtra, quas Foreſii Comes impræſentiarum poſſidet, qui de progenie dicti Comitis Lugdunenſis, qui erat etiam Forenſis Comes noſcitur deſcendiſſe, de quibus omnibus exiſtunt literæ, privilegia & publica monumenta : Hinc eſt, quod Capitulum Eccleſiæ Lugdunenſis, quod pro majori parte, dictum Comitatum poſſidet, & de temporalitate fundationis prædictæ Eccleſiæ ſuæ obtinet magnam partem, ſigno floris Lilii in ſuo ſigillo impreſſo, uſum ſemper fuerit.

20. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod pro tempoſalibus Eccleſiarum ſuarum Archiepiſcopi Lugdunenſes, et Epiſcopi Evenſes, qui fuerunt pro tempore, præſtiterunt et præſtare conſueverunt fidelitatem Regibus Franciæ, qui ſimiliter fuerunt pro tempore, cum ad adminiſtrationem ſuorum Epiſcopatuum veniebant uſque ad tempus Archiepiſcopi Lugdunenſis, qui nunc eſt, qui malo ductus conſilio in ſuis tempoſalibus rebellis fuit Domino Regi prædicto, propter quod opoſtuit Dominum Regem ad coercendam rebellionem hujuſmodi, et ad juris ſui conſervationem, exercitum ſuum ad partes mittere Lugdunenſes.

21. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod nullis temporibus præteritis ab eo quo Civitas Lugdunenſis fuit ad manus Chriſtianorum redacta per Regem Franciæ memoratum, nullus unquam Princeps terrenus, præter Reges Franciæ, jus Regium vel ſuperioritatis quodcunque ſuper Archiepiſcopos & Eccleſiam Lugdunenſem in Eccleſiæ temporalibus habuit, licet aliqui Archiepiſcopi prodigioſè aliquibus aliis Principibus advocaſſe ſuum temporale dicantur, ignorantibus tamen Regibus Franciæ, qui fuerunt pro tempore, quibus per hoc non potuit generari quodque præjudicium nec contra eos, vel in eorum præjudicium, cauſa poſſeſſionis mutari de jure; maximè cum ſemper in poſſeſſione fuerint, & ſaiſina juris Regii et ſuperioritatis prædictæ in temporalibus ejuſdem Eccleſiæ Lugdunenſis, tam recipiendo fidelitatem à ſingulis Archiepiſcopis ſupradictis, quam ſede Lugdunenſi vacante, capiendi, & exercendi prædicta Regalia per fideles ſuos Epiſcopos Edvenſes, cum is poſſidet, cujus nomine poſſidetur, Dominuſque fidei poſſidet per vaſſallum.

22. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod dictus Dominus Rex progenitoreſque ſui Reges Franciæ qui fuerunt pro tempore, jus ſuperioritatis & Gardiæ in temporalibus Eccleſiæ Lugdunenſis exercuerunt, quoties ad eo recurſus eſt habitus, et quotiens opus fuit, tanto tempore de cujus contrario memoria non exiſtit.

23. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum exiſtit, quod dictus Dominus Rex, Progenitoreſque ſui, jus reſorti, ad jus Regium & ſuperioritatem pertinens, atq; gardiam exercuerunt inconcuſſè in Civitate Lugdunenſi, quadraginta anni ſunt elapſi, & ab eo tempore citra, continuè, licet Archiepiſcopus prædictus qui nunc eſt, intervertere voluerit poſſeſſionem juris hujuſmodi Domino Regi prædicto, & diſtrinxerunt dictis temporibus temporalitatem dictæ Eccleſiæ Lugdunenſis, & juſtitiaverunt quoties opus fuit, propter impedimenta et inobedientias Archiepiſcoporum, qui fuerunt pro tempore vel Capituli, vel Gentium eorundem quas faciebunt in præjudicium ſuperioritatis, vel Gardiæ Domini Regis prædicti. After theſe Petitions in French in the Parchment Book in the Tower, intituled Placita Parliamenti, the ſame Petitions in ſubſtance, with ſome few Additions, are ſubjoyned in Latin, with this Preface.

Cum M in Parliamento Domini Regis apud Karliolum in Octabis Sancti Hillarii Anno regni Domini Regis E. 35. propoſita fuerunt petitiones per Comites, Barones, et alios Magnates, et Communitatem totius regni Angliæ pro ſtatu Coronæ Regiæ, necnon terrarum ipſius Regis Scotiæ, Walliæ, & Hiberniæ, et tota Communitate prædicta, ſuper dariis nobis et intollerabilibus gravaminibus, oppreſſionibus, injuriis et extorſionibus prælatis Comitibus, Baronibus, Magnatibus et Communitati, authoritate et mandato Domini Papæ, ac etiam per Magiſtrum Willielmum Teſta Domini Papæ Clericum, necnon ejuſdem Magiſtri Willielmi Commiſſarios, Miniſtros, ſeu Vices-gerentes, et ipſius nomine illatis, multipliciter in regno et terris prædictis, prout in articulis contentis in prædictis Petitionibus qui tales ſunt inferitur; videlicet, De effrenata multitudine Proviſionum Apoſtolicarum, per quas patronis ſeu advocatis beneficiorum collatio tollitur ſeu præſentatio, ac demum indigenæ nobiles et literati a promotione Eccleſiaſtica penitus excludentur, et erit defectus Conſilii in regno quantum ad ea quæ ad Spiritualitatem pertinent, nec inbenientur idonei qui ad Eccleſiaſticas baleant eligi prælaturas. Cultus divinus minuetur, hoſpitalitates et eleemoſinæ ceſſabunt, contra intentionem primariam fundatorum, Eccleſiarum jura peribunt, indefenſa ædificis Eccleſiaſtica corruent, et populi debotio ſubtrahetur. + See Ryleys Placita Parl. p. 379, 380.

Item, de Decanatibus Eccleſiarum Cathedralium regni Angliæ, quorum multi jam ad manus Cardinalium, et aliorum alienigenarum in ipſis Eccleſiis minime reſidentium debenerunt, et de exteris Decanatibus ut idem fiat in primo veriſimiliter eſt timendum, contra primariam Eccleſiarum ordinationem et intentionem ſalubberrimam fundatorum, ex quo in ipſis Eccleſiis Cathedralibus ad quorum regimen et cuſtodiam continuam Decani propter Epiſcoporum abſentiam ſalubriter fuerant inſtituti, multiplex inordinatio proveniet, atque defectus tam in divino obſequio hoſpitalitate et eleemoſina, quam in correctione exceſſuum Miniſtrorum, et Domino Regi ac regno multorum peritorum Conſilium, qui ad ipſos Decanatus eligi conſueverant penitus ſubtrahetur.

Item, de Religioſis domibus a dariis Magnatibus pia debotione fundatis, ad divini cultus augmentum, hoſpitalitatis exercitium, eleemoſinarum largitionem,

An. 35 E. I. ipsorum fundatorum et omnium fidelium defunctorum per orationes continuas remissionem, quorum reditus et proventus Dominus Papa intendit diversorum Cardinalium usibus applicare.

Item, de primis fructibus beneficiorum vacantium seu Apostolicæ reservatis, quod antea fuerat inauditum; super quorum collectione, Dominus Papa interpretationes durissimas et multum præjudiciales Domino Regi et regno, ac etiam toti Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ jam de novo evolvit, sicut fertur.

Nota.

* See here Tom. 1. p. 202, to 220. 236.

Item, de denariis Sancti * Petri a progenitoribus Regis primitus sub certa forma concessis, a prima concessione sua sub eadem forma a tempore cujus non extat memoria persolutis, nunc autem contra dictam concessionem minus rationabiliter exactis, in grave dampnum Ecclesiarum et totius populi Anglicani.

Item, de legatis vel promissis pia intentione a multis in subsidium Terræ Sanctæ propter redemptionem peccatorum, per aliquos authoritate sedis Apostolicæ improbè petitis et exactis, et in alios usus convertendis, ipsis legantibus vel promittentibus minime profecturos.

Item, de penis pecuniariis in fraudem legis variis contractibus adjectis, et in subsidium Terræ Sanctæ promissis, quarum prætextu multæ causæ ad forum Regium pertinentes, coram Clericis Domini Papæ in Regiæ dignitatis præjudicium agitantur.

Item, de indistincte legatis quæ sunt approbatæ tam de jure Canonico, quam Civili, et quæ dicti Clerici Domini Papæ impie sibi appropriare nituntur et in usus, ipsis defunctis quorum bona fuerant minime profuturos convertere, contra voluntatem piissimam defunctorum.

Item, cum Romana Ecclesia unum duntaxat Clericum pro suis negotiis hactenus in Anglia habere consueverat, ad expensas Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, Dominus Papa jam, ut dicitur, quatuor Clericos ordinavit, quibus oportebit Anglicanam Ecclesiam ultra antiquam consuetudinem sumptus non modicos ministrare.

Nota. Hæc omnia ad extrahendam a regno pecuniam, ad exinanitionem Ecclesiæ manifestam, et ad ditandum alienigenas spoliatis indigenis, tendere dinoscuntur, nisi exurgat Deus & dissipentur inimici ejus, ut per secularem Principem, et ipsius Consilium, de consensu Procerum et Magnatum, tanta malitia reprimatur.

Super quibus oppressionum, gravaminum, et extorsionum, et injuriarum Articulis prælatus Magister Willielmus Testa quatinus ipsum contingunt in pleno Parliamento prædicto allocutus, convictus extitit, nec inde se potuit aliqualiter excusare, nisi tantum quod dixit, quod authoritate Domini Papæ præmissa fuerat executus. Et quia facta Magistri Willielmi Testa in præmissis, si tollerarentur manifeste cederent in divini cultus diminutionem, et Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ exinanitionem, necnon in præjudicium, læsionem et exhæredationem Coronæ, potestatis, jurisdictionis et dignitatis Regiæ Anglicanæ, destructionemque totius Communitatis prædictæ, ac status regni, legum et consuetudinum ejusdem subversionem, quod absit, perpetuam. Et unde majora pericula possent processu temporis evenire.

Nota. Demum, consideratis periculis prædictis, ex assensu Domini Regis, ac toto Consilio Parliamenti prædicti, probitum fuit, concordatum, ordinatum et consideratum, quod præmissa gravamina, oppressiones, injurias et extorsiones fieri non permitterentur in regno et terris prædictis. Et prohibitum est prædicto Magistro W. in Parliamento prædicto, quod de cætero contra prohibitionem, concordiam, considerationem prædictas, nec procedat, nec per se seu alium quemcumque in præmissis intromittat, vel aliquo præmissorum. Et injunctum est eidem Magistro W. quod quicquid per ipsum, Collegas, Commissar. Ministros, Vices gerentes, aut alios quoscunque sibi adhærentes seu intendentes attemptatum est, actum seu executum in præmissis, et quolibet præmissorum revocet, ut cassum, irritum, et inane, et totam pecuniam per eos in hac parte levatam, salvo custodiri fac. et secure infra regnum prædictum, quousque Dominus Rex de Consilio prædicto aliud super hoc duxerit ordinand. Et ad majorem hujus rei evidentiam ordinatum est et concordatum per Dominum Regem et Consilium prædictum, quod Nuncii experti ad dictum Dominum Papam, ex parte dicti Domini Regis et totius Communitatis prædictæ transmittantur ad prædicta gravamina, oppressiones, extorsiones, et injurias notificanda et exponenda. Et præceptum est singulis Vicecom. regni prædicti, dicti, quod per Sacramentum proborum et legalium hominum de Balliviis suis, per quos rei veritas melius sciri poterit, diligenter inquirant de nominibus Commissariorum et aliorum Ministrorum prædicti Magistri Will. Testa, qui prædicta oppressiones, gravamina, extorsiones et injurias in Com. prædictis taliter perpetrarunt aut fecerunt, necnon de nominibus eorum qui coram dictis Commissariis vel Ministris, aliquem vel aliquos, citari vel vocari fecerunt, seu dicta gravamina executi fuerunt. Et omnes illos quos in prædictis culpabiles invenerint, attachient per corpora eorum; Ita quod eos habeant coram Rege in Octabis Sanctæ Trinitatis ubicunque tunc fuerit in Anglia, ad respondendum tam Domino Regi, quam aliis inde conqueri volentibus super prædictis. Et ad faciendum et recipiendum quod Curia Regis considerabit in hac parte, et Vic. habeant ibi nomina eorum quos inde culpabiles invenerint, et Vadia. An. 35 E. 1.

In the Clause Roll of 35 E. 1. I finde these Writs issued by the King to several Sheriffs to attach several Canons and Ecclesiastical persons, (many of them Italians and this Popes Nuncioes Agents) and bring them before the King and his Counsil to answer for their offences committed against the Kings Majesty.

REX Vic. Staff. salutem. Præcipimus tibi, quod sine dilacione capias Magistrum Andream de Janua, Canonicum Ecclesiæ de Wolverenhampton, et ipsum sumptibus suis propriis sub salvo et securo conductu duci facias usque Karliolum, ita quod sit ibi coram Nobis et Consilio nostro die Dominica in medio Quadragesimæ pror. futur. ad respondendum nobis de diversis transgressionibus per ipsum in regno nostro, in læsionem nostræ Regiæ Majestatis factis et perpetratis: Et hoc sicut te et omnia quæ habes in regno nostro prædicto diligis, et nobis forisfacere poteris nullo modo omittas. Et habeas ibi hoc breve. Teste Rege apud Lanercost, 4 die Febr. Per Consilium. Clauſ. 35 E 1. m. 14. intus. De quibusdam hominibus ducendis coram Consilio Regis.

Eodem modo mandatum est Vic. Midd. de Bindo Baudwini de Vaccarettia Commissario Galiassi Guillielmi capiendo et ducendo in forma prædicta.

Eodem modo mandatum est eidem Vic. Mid. de Guidone de Wichio Rectore Ecclesiæ de Hese de Com. Midd. capiendo et ducendo in forma prædicta.

Eodem modo mandatum est Majori & Vic. London. de Galiasso Guillielmi de Sene Præstato, Guidone de Wichio, Magistro Andræa de Janua Canonico Ecclesiæ de Wolverenehampton prædicto Bindo Baldwyni Commissar. &c. Lanto Agolentis de Societate Amanetorum de Pistora, Manietto de Scala lapo Chini de Societate Scalarum de Florencia, Mazeto Bakerelli, & Neret Guidonis de Societate Perugiorum capiendis et ducendis in forma prædicta.

Mandatum est etiam Principi Walliæ, & Com. Cestriæ, Custodi Scotiæ, & Justic. Hiberniæ, quod ipsi consimiliter procedant in terris prædictis, super negotiis memoratis, et provisionem, concordiam, ordinationem, et considerationem prædictas in eisdem terris faciant firmiter et inviolabiliter observari.

The Mandates, Writs then issued to the Sheriffs of Counties throughout England, were in these words.

REX Vicecomiti Cumbriæ salutem. Quia Comites, Barones, aliique Proceres et tota Communitas regni nostri in instanti Parliamento nostro apud Karliolum nobis intimarunt, quod diversæ oppressiones, extorsiones, injuriæ, et gravamina intollerabilia, sicut de debitis, convencionibus et aliis contemptibus quorum cognitiones ad Nos, Coronam, et dignitatem nostram, et non ad alium pertinentes, per nonnullos juris nostri Regii violatores et impugnatores in foro Ecclesiastico agitantur, quandoque pro parte debitorum illorum ad Terram Sanctam percipienda, et quandoque pro pœnis pecuniariis levanda, quæ in scriptis obligatoriis de debitis convencionibus seu contractibus hujusmodi confectis continentur, in subsidium Terræ sanctæ promittuntur, ac etiam de bladis et aliis bonis personarum et aliorum Prælatorum contra voluntatem eorum venditis et asportatis, necnon de bonis temporalibus intestatorum, ac bonis in testamentis defunctorum generaliter nominatis, in usus hujusmodi violatorum et impugnatorum convertis, et de denariis Sancti Petri ultra concessionem Progenitorum nostrorum quondam Regum Anglia Ryley Plac. Parliamentaria, p. 38a. Breve ordinatum singulis Vicecomitibus super eisdem.

*An.*35 E. 1. Angliæ jam exactis in Com. tuo, et alibi infra regnum noſtrum jam de novo perpetrantur, in noſtri et juris regni noſtri Regii præjudicium, Coronæque et dignitatis noſtræ Regiæ læſionem, et exhæredationem noſtram, necnon et ſtatus ejuſdem regni perpetuæ ſubverſionis periculum manifeſtum: Nos malitiæ violatorum illorum et impugnatorum, abſque omni diſſimulatione, prout tenemur, obviare volentes in præmiſſis; Tibi præcipimus, quod per ſacramentum proborum et legalium hominum de Comitatu tuo, per quos veritas melius ſciri poterit, in propria perſona tua diligenter inquiras, qui hujuſmodi oppreſſiones, extorſiones, injurias et gravamina proſecuti fuerint, et omnes illos quos per inquiſitionem illam inde culpabiles inveneris, ponas per vadium et ſalvos plegios quod ſint coram nobis in Octabis Sanctæ Trinitatis ubicumque tunc fuerimus in Anglia, nobis ſuper præmiſſis plenius reſponſuri, et ulterius facturi et recepturi quod noſtra Curia conſideraverit in hac parte. Et habeas ibi nomina pleg. Inquiſitionem illam diſtincte et aperte factam ſub ſigillo tuo et ſigillis eorum per quos facta fuerit. Et hoc breve. Teſte Rege apud Karliolum 22 die Marcii, Anno r. n. 35.

The Letter and Remonſtrance of theſe intollerable Papal grievances, oppreſſions, and Innovations then drawn up in the name and behalf of the King, and all the Nobles and Commonalty of England in this Parliament, to be ſent to Pope Clement by ſpecial expert Meſſengers, is very memorable; which I ſhall preſent you with out of the Memorials of this Parliament, enrolled in an antient Parchment Book in the Tower.

NUper de veſtræ promotionis eventu ad Apoſtolicæ Celſitudinem dignitatis plene jocunditate gaudii replebamur, ſperantes in quibuſlibet dicti Regis et noſtris negotiis ac utilitatibus promovendis vos patrem gratioſum, benevolum et propicium habituros; nunc enim admirationis nobis non modicæ et querelæ ex ea cauſa conſurgit, quod nos, Clerus et populus dicti regni, (veri utique Catholicæ fidei profeſſores, qui tanquam devotionis filii vos et Romanam Eccleſiam reveremur, veſtrique nominis et honoris ferbidi zelatores) de paterna manu pro devotione prægrandi, oppreſſiones innumeras, et grandia ſuſcipimus detrimenta, qui potius ſperebamus ab eis, ſi forſan emergerent per veſtram clementiam relevari, ampliſque favoribus et uberrimis gratiis præveniri. Sane per Nuncios et Miniſtros veſtros in dicto regno Angliæ commorantes eorumque Commiſſarios nos exacerbari graviter ſencientes, ex materia operum eorundem fermatos malleos, experimur, quibus percutimur et conterimur multis modis et variis inceſſanter; et licet fidem Chriſtianam et ea quæ dilatationem cultus ipſius fidei reſpiciunt, et ad divinæ laudis ſpectant obſequium per veſtrum regi Miniſterium teneamus, et dictam Eccleſiam cunctorum matrem fidelium et Magiſtram, non tamen credimus, quod veſtræ intentionis exiſtat, vel ad hoc ſuam velit extendere poteſtatem, ut ſuos et devotos et humiles filios non ſolum non lædat aut oppримat, vel injuriis provocet, aut eorum jura præripiat, vel eis in aliquo deroget; ſet potius, ut a noxiis et indebitis oppreſſionibus cuſtodiat et præſerbet: Et ecce ſanctiſſime Pater nimis duris acerbis et impportabilibus oneribus et hactenus inauditis, quæ per dictos veſtros Commiſſarios fiunt cotidie, et in dicto regno diverſimode imponuntur, quorum aliqua curabimus deſcribere ſeriatim, commocio noſtra nimirum et rationabili cauſa procedit. Per effrenatam autem multitudinem Proviſionum quæ jam ad præfatum regnum a ſede Apoſtolica emanarunt, Ordinariis Beneficiorum collatio ad eos de jure pertinens tollitur, ac demum indigenæ Nobiles et Literati a promotione Eccleſiaſtica penitus excluduntur, ſicque erit defectus Conſilii in regno quantum ad ea quæ ad ſpiritualitatem ſpectant, non invenientur idonei qui ad Eccleſiaſticas valeant eligi prælaturas, cultus divinus minuetur, hoſpitalitates, et eleemoſinæ ceſſabunt contra intentionem primariam fundatorum, Eccleſiarum jura peribunt, ædificia Eccleſiaſtica corruent, et populi devotio ſubtrahetur. By the precedent Letter, Articles, and Remonſtrance, it then was, and now is as

An. 35 E. 1. as evident as the Sun at noon-day to all the World; 1. That this Pope Clement, his Legates, Cardinals, Nuncioes, Agents, (yea some of his predecessors, with most of their successors ever since) were the most sacrilegious Church-robbers, the most avaritious, pernicious, impious, scandalous, unconscionable, uncharitable, unchristian Theeves, Plunderers, Spoylers, usurpers of the Churches, Clergies, poor mens revenues, possessions, maintenance, alms, and of the undoubted Rights, Prerogatives of the Kings, Nobles, Prelates, and Commons of England, the most real enemies to, and underminers of Gods worship, service, piety, charity, and Christian Religion that ever the World produced: whose principal care, study, practise, was, not to feed, foster, instruct, protect the Church and people of Christ, purchased with his most precious blood according to their duties, as Christ, his Apostles, and the primitive Bishops, Popes and Ministers of the Gospel did, and enjoyned them to do, but only to fleece, fley, oppresse, rob, plunder, murder, destroy them by new invented extortions and rapines, and fill their coffers with the mammon of unrighteousnesse, the only Deity they served, adored, loved, sought after in all Christian Kingdoms, especially in our own, with all their hearts, strength, might, souls: without seeking, minding the things of Jesus Christ, whose Vicars they professed themselves in their Bulls, Edicts, but absolutely contradicted, denyed by their premised works.

Whiles these things were acted in the Parliament at Carliſle against the Popes Innovations and extortions; to prevent their vigorous execution by the King, * Venit ad illud Parliamentum circa festum Cathedræ S. Petri (then translated from Rome in Italy, to Burdeaux in France) quidam Cardinalis Sabinensis, Magister Petrus Ispanus, missus a latere Papæ in Angliam, ad perficiendum ordinatum matrimonium inter primogenitum Regis Angliæ Edwardum, & filiam Regis Francorum Isabellam, secundum quod a Papa Bonifacio, tanquam pacis mediatore, ordinatum fuerat (as was pretended,) Cui per Regem responsum est, Paratum se implere quæ ordinata sunt, dummodo Rex Francie velit ex parte sua, quæ ad ipsum pertinent, adimplere. Dederat enim Rex Francorum, dum Vasconiam tenuerat, Castrũ quod Mali Leonis dicitur, cuidam Militi, qui illud adhuc detinebat, nec ad mandatum Regis Francorum illud curabat restituere. Ob quam causam fertur illud matrimonium hactenus fuisse dilatum. Rediit itaque Cardinalis Londinum, ut super his certitudinem expectaret, et Ecclesias Anglicanas depilaret (his chief design.) Nam per Bullam habere voluit a cunctis Cathedralibus, Conventualibus, Regularibus et irregularibus Ecclesiis et Prioratibus, duodecim marcas sterlingorum: De Rectoriis vero octo denarios de qualibet marca. Contra hanc autem exactionem, appellatum est a Clero Anglie (to the King and his Counsil, as supreme, indifferent Judges in this case.) Et ordinatum est per Consilium Regis (against the Popes expresse Bull) illum Cardinalem non plus debet habere, quam acceperat olim Octobonus Cardinalis, et Legatus in Angliam, scilicet dimidium postulati. A memorable president of the King and his Counsils regulating, retrenching the exorbitant Procurations of the Popes own Legate à latere, against his Papal Bull.

This Parliament was afterwards adjourned to a further day by reason of the arrival of this Legate and Amanenus Lebretto in England, sent thither at the Kings request (as was pretended) about such affairs as concerned the state of Christianity, and the King and kingdom, as this Writ informs us.

Thus as the Pope, his Legates, Nuncioes, Agents uſurped upon the Rights and Prerogatives of the Crown, and Subjects Liberties on the one hand, ſo on the other hand our Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, Officials, and Eccleſiaſtical Courts, from the firſt to the very laſt year of this Kings reign, perpetually encroached, uſurped upon the Temporal Juriſdiction, Crown, Dignity, Courts, and his Subjects Liberties, notwithſtanding all Regal Prohibitions, Attachments, Informations, and Suits againſt them, in higheſt contempt of his Soveraign Authority, Juriſdiction, Parliaments, Counſil, Courts, Judges, by holding Pleas of Chattels, Debts, Treſpaſſes, Advowſons of Churches, Chappels, Lay-fees, and other cauſes peculiar to his Crown and Dignity; frequently Excommunicating his Officers and Subjects who brought Prohibitions to reſtrain their Uſurpations, and Impriſoning them upon Capias Excommunicatums, on purpoſe to vex, diſcourage, or diſable them to proſecute their juſt Actions againſt them, for theſe their diſloyal Uſurpations on the Kings Crown and Royalties, againſt their Oathes and Allegiance to this their Soveraign Lord. Such incorrigible Peſts, grievances and Nuſances were they both to the King and Subjects in that age, and in moſt preceding and ſuc-

With what armed Lay-force and violence ſome Clergymen then kept poſſeſſion of Prebendaries and Houſes thereunto belonging, againſt the Kings Clerks, in affront of his Royal Authority and Title, and how the King proceeded againſt them thereupon, this Writ and the Return thereof will inform us.

Per Petitionem de Conſilio.

A clear evidence of the Kings Eccleſiaſtical Soveraignty, to cauſe Lands, Rents, and Churches granted to religious and charitable uſes, to be imployed accordingly when ſubſtracted, revive the uſes when diſcontinued, to alter the original ſettlement for a more convenient, and force the perſons entruſted to perform the deſigned ſervices, as he ſaw juſt cauſe.

The King this year by his Soveraign Eccleſiaſtical Authority, granted the Advowſons of two Churches whereof he was Patron, to the Priory of Laurecoſt, with power to appropriate them for ever thereunto, when they ſhould fall void; which grant although he at their requeſt writ to the Pope to confirm, yet this his Patent was ſufficient in Law to effect it, without the Popes confirmation or privity.

REverendiſſimo Domino ſuo, & in Chriſto dilectiſſimo, Domino E. Dei gratia Regi Angliæ, Dom. Hiberniæ, & Duci Aquit. Sanctorum minimus, frater R. de Kylewardeby, ſalutem, ſoſpitatem, et proſperitatem continuam. Excellentiæ veſtræ mandatum per Dominum Stephanum de Peneceſtr. ſuſcepi apud Racnlur. feriâ tertiâ Aſſumptionis beatæ Mariæ, per quod evidenter intellexi, quod Comes Warren. & ſui, vos et Conſilium veſtrum contra me ſategerit perturbare, (ignorantes cauſam quare) contra me et Cantuar. Eccleſiam injuſtiſſimè commoventur. Petiviſtis (Domine mi) quod ſententiam quam tuli in Miniſtros dicti Comitis, revocem, et a querela, contra ipſos concepta, ſuperſedeam, et contra ipſum Comitem aut ſuos nihil attemptem, uſque ad Parliamentum; videor enim et judico Regiam dignitatem veſtram contemnere, et quod veſtris Prohibitionibus diſſimulo obedire. Iſta, ni fallor, fuerint mihi ex parte veſtræ Excellentiæ propoſita, quibus ſuppliciter ſicut Domini mei verbis reſpondeo; Quod nullam in dictum Comitem vel ſuos quatinus Miniſtri ſui, ſententiam (promulgavi) nec contra veſtram adhuc aliquid feci Prohibitionem; ſed pro reverentia veſtra ſtatui in hoc ſuperſedere, donec vobiſcum colloquium habuero, ſi hoc conceſſerit Rex æternus. Quid autem egerim contra quoſdam dicti Comitis miniſteriales, inevitabili neceſſitate compulſus, vobis fidenter expono; viz. quod quandam ſententiam Excommunicationis in quoſdam ejus Miniſtros a prædeceſſore meo nominatim exprefſos latam, multis monitionibus et expectatione pluſquam biennali interpoſitis, antequam mihi de hac materia ſcriberetis, mandavi publice denunciari. Ita quod ſic per ſententiam Prædeceſſoris excommunicati denuncientur. Illud, Domine mi, cum conſcientia bona revocare non poſſum; tum quia ſubditi mei ſunt, et rite ligati ſunt, tum quia populus eis communicat cum ſuo periculo; tum quia propriam et aliorum damnationem contemnunt, claves Eccleſiæ contemnendo; quorum nullum, niſi cum proprio periculo, potero ſuſtinere. Expreſſi vobis facti mei veritatem, de cæteris differens, donec (ſi Deus voluerit) veſtro frui colloquio mihi detur. Denique devotè ſupplico, quod non ſitis mihi formidini, qui, ſecundum ſpem meam et veſtrum debitum, mihi debebetis eſſe clypeus et tutamen. Satellites enim Comitis jugiter veſtra terunt limina, & Milites & Conſiliarios veſtros fautores habent, (ut dicitur) qui facilitèr formidant vos contra veſtrum ſacerdotem ſatagunt provocare; quod tamen nec volo de omnibus intelligi, nec pro certa veritate haberi. Veſtram igitur flagito protectionem; cui me, meos, et mea ſubmitto. An. 4 E. 1. illuſtrium Regum Anglie ſibi, Eccleſiæ ſuæ et ſucceſſoribus ſuis imperpetuum tenendo, et per novam confirmationem Domini ſui Regis impoſterum pacificè obſervanda, dabit Archiepiſcopus Quercus.

The King upon this Archbiſhops Petition ſent a Writ to his Chief Juſtice of Ireland, to inquire by an Inqueſt of 12 Jurors, whether it would be to the damage of the Archbiſhop, for the King in his own fee to erect a priſon in Caſſel, or not? which he delivering to him in the preſence of the Counſil with his own hand, the Chief Juſtice cauſed a Jury to be impannelled, who found upon Oath, that it was no damage at all to the Archbiſhop, but a benefit to him, the King and the whole Country, to erect a priſon there, upon receit whereof, the King commanded a Priſon to be there built; At which this inſolent undutifull Archbiſhop was ſo inraged, that he denounced a ſentence of Excommunication againſt the Chief Juſtice, the Kings Eſcheator, the Popes Chaplain, and all others, except the King, Queen, and their Children, who were ayding, aſſiſting, or adviſing in the erection of this Priſon, and likewiſe interdicted his whole Dioceſſe and Province, in high prejudice and contempt of the Kings Crown and Royal dignity, to the great diſturbance of the Peace of Ireland; and withall ſent his Proctors to Rome to procure the Popes ratification of this his Excommunication and Interdict, till the Priſon were demoliſhed. To prevent which, the Chief Juſtice and Popes Chaplein appealed againſt this Sentence and Interdict to the Pope, certifying the Chancellor, Biſhop of Bath and Wells, of theſe proceedings, and adviſing him to ſend Proctors ſpeedily to Rome, to prevent his dangerous proceedings and deſigns againſt the King, as this Letter of the Popes Chaplain to the Chancellor (which I found in the White Tower Chappel) will at large inform us.

*REverentiſſimo in Chriſto Patri, & Domino ſuo (ſi placet) cariſſimo, Domino R. Dei gratia Bathon. & Wellen. Epiſcopo, ſuus humilis & devotus From. le Brun, Domini Papæ Capellanus, ſalutem, & quicquid poteſt & poterit obſequii, reverentiæ & honoris. Uſus & neceſſitas hoc inducunt, ut vel ad Dominos amicos ut conſulant, vel ad medicos ut curent confugiant vulnerati. Ea profecto ratione venerandæ Paternitati veſtræ duxi non ſine cordis anguſtia referenda ea, quæ per Archiepiſcopum Caſſalen. in Regiæ dignitatis grabiſſimam læſionem, et etiam in Domini Juſticiarii Capitalis, et omnium aliorum qui ſunt de Conſilio Domini Regis, diſpendium non modicum et gravamen, ſunt hîc dirtus enormiter attemptata. Sanè veſtram Paternitatem creditur non latere, qualiter præfatus Archiepiſcopus, cum jam ultimo eſſet in Anglia, à Domino Rege quaſdam literas impetrabit, directas Domino Galfrido de Geymull Juſticiario Hiberniæ, et (ſi benè percolo) continentes, ut idem Juſticiarius inquireret, utrum eſſet ad nocumentum et dampnum ipſius Archiepiſcopi & Eccleſiæ ſuæ Caſſalenſis, vel non, ſi Priſona Domini Regis per Dominum Jacobum de Audelegh tunc Juſticiarium Hiberniæ inchoata ſuper Laicum feodum ipſius Domini Regis in Villa de Caſſal. perficeretur? Quas quidem literas cum prædictus Archiepiſcopus præfato Juſticiario in Scaccario Dublin. omnibus de Conſilio tunc præſentibus, liberaſſet propria manu ſua, idem Juſticiarius Domini ſui mandatis obtemperans, prædictam Inquiſitionem, juxta quod habuit in mandatis, fieri fecit per totius Patriæ fidedigniores, & omni exceptione majores; per quam compertum fuit, quod nullum foret nocumentum Dei dampnum ipſi Archiepiſcopo vel Eccleſiæ ſuæ prædictæ, ſi perficeretur Priſona prædicta; ſed quod ejuſdem Priſonæ conſtructio potius cederet ad commodum ipſius Archiepiſcopi et Eccleſiæ ſuæ, et ad profectum et bonum patriæ totius Terræ non modicum. Cum autem idem Dominus Juſticiarius ipſam Inquiſitionem ſub Sigillo ſuo ipſo Domino Regi miſiſſet, et idem Dominus Rex ea audita et intellecta eidem Juſticiario ſuo literatorie remandaſſet, quod eidem Priſonem levari et perfici faceret, ac idem Juſticiarius mandatum illius cenſentiæ executioni debitæ commendaſſet, præfatus Archiepiſcopus cenſuram conſtructionis Priſonæ prædictæ ultimis ſtragis furoribus in præfatum Dominum Juſticiarium, Magiſtrum J. de Sandford Cancellarium, et in me, nemine (exceptis tantummodo ipſo Domino Rege, et Domina Regina, ac eorum liberis) in omnes illos qui ad ipſam Priſonem conſtruendam auſpicium, conſilium et auxilium præbuerunt, excommunicationis nis ſententiam fulminavit; et (quod deterius eſt et gravius) ſuam Diœceſim interdicto ſuppoſuit, decrevitque eidem interdicto cæteras Diœceſes totius ſuæ Provinciæ ſupponendas. Unde cum ab ipſis ſententiis erroneis, et etiam errorem intolerabilem continentibus, antequam latæ fuerant, pro ſtatu Domini Regis, et etiam pro ſtatu ipſius Juſticiarii ſui et omnium aliorum familiarium et miniſtralium ſuorum, necnon pro ſtatu populi ad ſedem Apoſtolicam fuerit appellatum. Placeat Sanctitati veſtræ, ut cum Clericus & Procurator, quem præfatus Dominus Juſticiarius ex parte Domini Regis pro appellatione prædicta proſequenda ad Curiam Romanam deſtinare proponit, ad ipſius Domini Regis præſentiam et veſtram accederit, tale conſilium in præmiſſis procuretis apponi, quod ipſius Archiepiſcopi tam præſumptuoſum et deteſtabile factum non tranſeat impunitum. Nulli ſiquidem dubium, quin idem Archiepiſcopus, quoad dixerit, præfato Domino Regi et omnibus ſuis, ac toti terræ ſuæ Hibernia inferre non deſiſtet dampna et diſpendia quantumcunque machinari poterit gravioria, ni in hoc facto ſuccumbere videatur. Cæterum quia præfatus Archiepiſcopus ſtatim poſtquam tulerat ſententias ſuprædictas, ad impetrandam earum confirmationem, ad Curiam Romanam ſuos Procuratores et Nuncios deſtinavit, multum expediret, quod Procuratores Domini Regis in eadem Curia eſſent per ipſum Dominum Regem ſuper hoc cum omni feſtinantia præmoniti; ne hujuſmodi confirmatio abſque contradictione tranſiret. Pro Deo iſtud negotium, quod arduiſſimum in Hibernia reputatur, tanto diligentius ipſi Domino Regi exponere dignemini, ipſum animantes ut illud exequi faciat cum effectu, quanto majus dampnum et dedecus ipſi Domino Regi et ſuis perpendere poteritis imminere, ſi præfatus Archiepiſcopus ſuum propoſitum in hac parte valeat adimplere, quod Deus avertat. Vix ſiquidem, ut multi referunt, accidit, quin hujuſmodi Interdictum grave diſcidium ſubſequatur, de quo non mediocriter eſt timendum cum jam nonnulli tam Anglici quam Hiberniei occaſione ipſius Interdicti ad malefaciendum efficiantur, ut dicitur proniores. Valeat Paternitas veſtra in Domino per tempora longiora. An. 4 E. 1.

How

How turbulent the Clergymen in Gascony and Aquen were this year, and how they slew the Mayor of Aquen who would have suppressed their tumult, this certificate to King Edward will inform us. An. 4 E. 1.

IMmensæ Excellentiæ vestræ significat Willielmus Remundi Denfrances Civis Aquensis, quod cum in Aquensi Civitate inter Clericos magna esset discordia, Seneschallus Vasconiæ sua propria voluntate statuit, quod omnes laici essent sub incurremento corporum et bonorum, qui de dicta discordia se intromiserint: Et cum quadam die Major Aquensis, volens sepetare brigam dictorum Clericorum fuerit interfectus, & de ipsius morte in villa magnus fuerit rumor, & inter plures ad hujusmodi locum venientes, Petrus de Frances frater dicti Willielmi Remundi, tanquam ille cui more dicti Majoris multum sibi specialius displicuit, accessit ad locum ubi ipsum mortuum fuisse, non tamen ad intromittendum de briga prædicta Clericorum. Post hæc autem dictus Petrus timens sibi occasione statuti prædicti, non occasione alterius accessus, se ab amicis suis absentavit, de cujus absentia dictus Willielmus Remundi & merito multum dolet. Quare vestræ piæ dominationi humiliter supplicat, quatinus à inclito Rege procurare dignemini, ut non obstante statuto prædicto dicto fratri suo miserando hujusmodi adventum remittat; cum dictus Petrus à nemine sit accusatus de hujusmodi eventu, & sit paratus juxta fores & consuetudines patriæ omnibus stare juri; & cum Inquisitio facta fuerit per Præpositum Aquensem, & per ipsam Inquisitionem dictus Petrus de superius narratis non fuerit accusatus nec inculpatus. In eadem Bundela An. 4 E. 1. in Turri London.

In the same bundle I met with this Certificate of the Bishop of Durham to King Edward, of the contest between the Priors and Covents of Pontefract and Bretton about the Election of the Prior of Bretton, and of the Popes definitive sentence given therein, committed to the Bishop of Durham to put in execution, and how he had executed it accordingly.

In the ſame Bundle I found this complaint of the Subprior and Covent of Winchester to the King, of the manifold injuries and oppreſſions done to them by the Biſhop, appealing to him for relief and juſtice therein, as their Founder, Patron, and Soveraign Judge.

In the ſame Bundle, I found this Certificate of the Abbot of Waltham, appointed Conſervator by the Pope of the Priviledges of the Abbey and Monks of St. Albans, of his Excommunication in a ſummary way of certain perſons who had defamed the Abbot and Monks, in obedience to the Popes command, for which obedience he beſeecheth the King, that he would do nothing to the prejudice of the Churches Liberties, which he ought to defend, and that he might ſuffer no prejudice for his proceedings herein.

EXcellentiſſimo Domino ſuo, Domino Edwardo Dei gratia, &c. ſuus ſemper humilis & devotus R. proviſione divina, humilis Miniſter Eccleſiæ Sanctæ Crucis de Waltham, ſalutem in Jeſu Chriſto, ac potenter & glorioſe victoriam. Magnifice Domine, pro conſtanti ſciatis, ſi placet, quod nos per Summum Pontificem Conſervatores Privilegiorum Religioſis viris Abbati et Conventui de Sancto Albano a ſede Apoſtolica indultorum, in virtute ſanctæ obedientiæ, et ſub pœna Excommunicationis ſumus deputati. Quare dictos Religioſos ſecundum tenorem Privilegiorum ſuorum, ne notam inobedientiæ, perjurii et irregularitatis incurrere (quod abſit) videamur, tenemur defendere et tueri. Cum ergo Johannes le Altmonger, et Robertus Colhopper de Sancto Albano dictum Abbatem de Sancto Albano & plures de Conventu ejuſdem loci, verbis probrioſis et ſcandalis non modicis apud Bonos et graves enormiter et publice diffamarunt, et ſtatum eorundem perperam denigrarunt, ſecundum quod coram nobis ſummarie et legitime extitit probatum juris ordine obſervato: licet ——— ſolempnitas et judicialis indago in talibus conſervationibus obſervare non eſt neceſſe, ſecundum quod ſanctorum Patrum voluntinſitum & ſacroſanctæ edocent ſanctiones, ſententiam Excommunicationis monitionibus canonicis præmiſſis ferimus fulminare. Unde unus eorum, videlicet Robertus Colhopper, culpabilem ſe ſentiens in hac parte, reum ſe confitens, nuper cum lacrimis & humilitate veniam petiit, & ſecundum qualitatem et quantitatem ſui delicti dictis Religioſis plenarie ſatisfecit. Unde reverende & magnifice Domine, pro honore filii Dei, et sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ, (vobis supplico) contra obedientiam nobis injunctam aliquod præcipere non velitis, per quod jus Ecclesiasticum retardetur, et super inobedientiæ redargui possumus et merito puniri; quod pro certo scimus vos non velle; qui jura Ecclesiastica illæsa jugiter nitimini conservare, et statum omnium secundum merita eorum Regia clementia secundum tramitem Justitiæ intenditis salvare. In the same Bundle I found this Letter of Mr. Kilwardby to the Chancellor on the behalf of Helias the Jew, who had excommunicated another Jew for several Crimes, who indeavoured that the Kings Lay Judges might hear, reverse and judge of that sentence of Excommunication, which he desired the Chancellor and King to prevent, and that the Bishop of the Diocesse only might do it, for the reasons therein expressed.

REverendo Patri Domino Bathon. suus Kilwardeby, quicquid sibi. Magister Helias Judæus, quem inter cæteros Judæos melioris inveni voluntatis, & magis faventem vobis, intimavit mihi, quidam Judæus, quem pro delictis suis multiplicibus excommunicabit, curiam Regiam nititur decipere, ut sic super Magistrum Heliam devolvat calumpniam, tanquam minus rite ipsum excommunicavit; ut sic a Laicis Christianis judicetur de excommunicatione. Magister Helias petiit sibi auxilium à me, si quid possem in hac parte. Ego autem nesciens ipsum in quo possim adjuvare, nisi interpellando Dominum nostrum Regem, supplico vobis ex animo, quatenus Dominum nostrum ex parte vestra & mea interpellare velitis, quatinus dictum Magistrum Heliam sententiam Excommunicationis, quam in suos subjectos tulerit, absque Christianorum examinatione permittat prosequi, ut solebat; vel si omnino voluerit quod Christiani causam excommunicationis a Magistro Helia latæ examinent, hoc ipsum Diocesano committat inquirendum. Audivi enim quod juste excommunicatus est ille Cok Hagyn a Magistro Helia pro criminibus falsitatis, deceptionis et nequitiæ multiplicis, pro quibus etiam Christianus rite excommunicaretur. Valeat, &c. Dat. apud South Malling Ferr. Scripsi vobis hæc, quia credo, quod fideliter agetis pro eo, & rogo Dominum Regem, quod velit audire in hac parte & exaudire. In Bundela Literarum, &c. By which we may discern how unwilling the Clergy were that the Kings temporal Judges or Laymen, should examine or judge of any Excommunications denounced against others by Jewes or Christians, that they alone might use and abuse it at their pleasure, to the injury and vexation both of Jews and Christians without redresse.

I found theſe two memorable Writs, aſſerting, Firſt, That by the Law and Cuſtom of the Realm in that age, no lapſe incurred againſt Patrons of Churches after Incumbents deaths, untill after ſix months from the day they had notice thereof, and not from the very day of their deaths. 2ly. That the ſix months, or half year, was to be computed by ſix Kalendar months, not 28. dayes to the month, as the Canons and Prelates would interpret it. 3ly. That the Biſhops refuſal to admit a Clerk upon a Judgement given in the Kings Court for the Patron, upon a pretence of a lapſe by the Canon Law, was againſt the Law and Cuſtom of the Realm, yea a manifeſt prejudice to, and contempt againſt the Kings Crown and Dignity. 4ly. That Archbiſhops ought to be moſt zealous ſupporters, not underminers and contemners of the Laws and Cuſtoms of the Realm, and the Kings Royal Dignity.

(made 7. years after them) juſtifie the concurrent reſolution in Catesbyes Caſe, Cookes 6 Report, f. 62. Yea fully refute the common error of later times, that in caſes of Vacancy by death, the 6 moneths ſhall be computed from the day of the Incumbents death, not from the day of the Patrons firſt Notice thereof; which the Writ out of Juſtice Walmeſlyes Book in the reign of King Edward the 2d. recited in Catesbyes Caſe, (concurring with theſe here cited) doth likewiſe refell. * See here, p. 332, 333, 334.

In a Bundle of Petitions to the King, which I reſcued from rubbiſh in the White Tower, I found this Petition of the Dean of Norwich againſt the Conſtable of the Caſtle there, for prohibiting him to exerciſe his Juriſdiction in caſes of adultery and fornication within the fee of the Caſtle, which his predeceſſors exerciſed, and the Conſtables had in time of warre uſurped to themſelves, to the prejudice of the Churches Juriſdiction, and mens ſouls.

HEnricus Sampſon Decanus Norwicen. dicit & proponit, quod Decani dictæ Civitatis pleniam habebant Juriſdictionem Eccleſiaſticam in feodo Caſtri Norwici, uſque ad tempus guerræ Dominus Philippus Marmyun Conſtabularius Caſtri Norwici illam Juriſdictionem tempore guerræ occupabit, et fecit correctiones in Caſtro prædicto de adulteriis et fornicationibus, et certis criminibus. Vic. poſtea dixerunt, quod Dominus Rex eſt in poſſeſſione Juriſdictionis, nec permittunt Decanum debitas facere correctiones et adulterii et fornicarii de Civitate, quando impetuntur in feodo Caſtri immunitatem conſecuntur, in ſuarum periculum animarum, et Eccleſiaſticæ libertatis præjudicium: Unde petit remedium. Bundela Petitionum An 6 E 1. in Turri London.

In the ſame Bundle I met with this Complaint to the King by Hugh Derby Clerk, againſt the Biſhop of Imalac in Ireland, for caſting the Kings Letters in contempt to the ground, which he delivered him, to exempt himſelf from his perſonal reſidence in the ſaid Church, vexing, oppreſſing, and injuring them the more for the Kings Letters; before whom he prayed he might be ſummoned perſonally to appear, to anſwer theſe contempts.

EXponit Excellentiæ veſtræ Hugo de Derby Capellanus Domini A. Beky Rector Eccleſiæ de Martherlath Imalacen. Dioc. Quodcum vos literas veſtras deprecatorias ad Epiſcopum Imalacen. pluries mandaveritis, quod dictum Rectorem ob reverentiam veſtri recommendatum haberet, nec ipſum ad reſidendum compelleret in eadem Eccleſia faciendam, in qua perpetuum Vicarium habet Rector prædictus; Idem Epiſcopus literas veſtras ſibi nomine dicti Rectoris præſentatas projecit in terram; et dixit, quod propter prædictas literas ſuperbe et gravioſe ſibi irrogaret, et faceret irrogare; et multa alia ſtultitia in contemptum veſtri protulit manifeſtum. Et hiis non contentus, quendam Capellanum quibe quandam Capella a prædicta Eccleſia dependente auctoritate ordinaria amotus fuerat (juſtitia mediante) ad eandem Capellam intruſit, in prædicti Rectoris præjudicium et gravamen. Unde ſupplicat, ut ſuper hoc ſibi dignemini competens remedium adhibere, faciendo (ſi placet) Bundela Petitionum An. 6 E 1 in Turri London.

An. 6 E. 1. placet) dictum Epiſcopum coram vobis perſonaliter evocari, ſuper prædictis vobis ſufficienter reſponſur. maxime, cum prædictus Epiſcopus mandata veſtra contemnat, & dictus Rector paratum ſe offerat probare prædicta.

The King upon the Archbiſhop of Ardmaths Petition, iſſued theſe Writs to the Chief Juſtice of Ireland, to aſſign him Juſtices for the delivery and recovery of the rights of his Church, not to grieve him with amerciaments, and to do him ſpeedy Juſtice from month to month.

Bundela Petitionum, An. 6 E 1.

JUſtic. Hiberniæ ſalutem. Quia vobis injunximus, ut cum venerabilis pater Archiepiſcopus Ardmath. Tbernia Primas, Jura Eccleſiæ ſuæ proſequi aut defendere vellet, certos ſibi Juſticiarios aſſignaretis: Vobis mandamus firmiter injungentes, quatinus cum idem Archiepiſcopus, quem cum gratia et favore in ſuis agendis fovere deſideramus, coram vobis vel dictis Juſticiariis ſibi aſſignandis amerciari contigerit, ita ſibi ſitis propitii, quod in exactione amerciamentorum nullatenus ſe ſentiat gravatum; & quæ ab eo fuerint exigenda & accipienda, quouſq; à nobis ſpeciale receperitis mandatum, nullatenus exigi permittatis, &c. Et hoc idem Juſticiariis veſtris Itinerantibus necnon & ſibi aſſignand. præcipiatis. Dat. &c.

E. Illuſtr. Reg. Angliæ Primogen. Juſticiario ſuo Hiberniæ, vel ejus locum tenenti, ſalutem. Venerabilem patrem Archiepiſcopum Ardmath. Hiberniæ Primatem, pro noſtris viribus volentes à gravaminibus præſervare, et Eccleſiæ Ardmath. patrimonii et terrarum alienationem ſatis (ut aſſeritur) injuſtæ miſeriæ lacrimabili compatientes; Vobis mandamus firmiter injungentes, quatenus cum eundem Archiepiſcopum ſuo aut Eccleſiæ ſuæ nomine experire ſeu agere aut defendere contigerit, utiles ac neceſſarios ſibi Juſticiarios ac Judices aſſignetis, aſſignand. ſibi Juſticiariis dantes in mandatis nihilominus, ut celerem eidem Archiepiſcopo Ardmath. juſtitiam ſcilicet de menſe in menſem faciant, cum gratia & favore, providentes, quod in Drocheda vel alias loco competenti ſibi infra limites ſuæ provinciæ occaſione contentionis ortæ ipſum & Archiepiſcopum Dublinenſem et Caſſalen. Juſticiarios hujuſmodi ſibi aſſignetis. Valete. Dat. &c.

The particular Petitions of the Archbiſhop of Ardmath to the King on the behalf of his Church (in the ſame Bundle) were theſe enſuing.

In eadem Bundela Petit. in Turri London, An. 6 E. 1.

LIcet Eccleſia Ardmath. inter omnes Eccleſias Hiberniæ in rebus & poſſeſſionibus ac libertatibus, antiquis temporibus magis fuerit abundans; modo tamen per oppreſſiones malorum, ac per imperitiam quorundam Archiepiſcoporum ad tantam devenit paupertatem, quod qui pro tempore fuerit, vereundetur Archiepiſcopus nuncupari; propter quod etſi placitum detentoribus terrarum dictæ Eccleſiæ movere vellemus, timore tamen amerciamentorum Curiæ veſtræ hoc facere non audemus. Unde ſupplicamus Excellentiæ veſtræ, quatinus ſi contingat nos alios implacitare, vel ab aliis implacitari, & ſubcubuerimus, vel aliquo modo defaltam fecerimus, quod veſtra Dominatio certum amerciamentum nunc velit ſtatuere, ultra quod Juſticiarii veſtri à nobis nil exigere audeant; vel ſaltem eis mandetur, quod à nobis nil exigant, quouſque a vobis aliud receperint in mandatis, Cum facultates Eccleſiæ noſtræ in terra pacis hiis ad Centum libras ſe extendant. Forma vero gratiæ quam feciſtis Prædeceſſori noſtro hic pendet.

Item, cum quædam partes ſint Hyberniæ, ad quas niſi Crucem noſtram bajularemus, ſine præjudicio Juris Primatiæ Eccleſiæ Ardmachanæ accedere nullatenus poſſemus; qua de cauſa nullus prædeceſſorum noſtrorum ad illas partes uſque ad hæc tempora aliquo modo perſonaliter acceſſit, Veſtræ Dominationi ſupplicamus, quatenus mandetur Juſticiariis veſtris, quod non plus ad talia loca vocentur, quam vocaverunt prædeceſſores noſtros; Sed ad ea quæ ſine præjudicio dictæ Eccleſiæ accedere valemus in quibuſcunque negotiis ſeu cauſis perſonaliter velint vocare. Et ſciat Excellentia veſtra (Domine Rex) quod ad quemcunque locum minor nuntius Juſticiariorum veſtrorum nos ad commodum & honorem veſtrum vocaverit, dum tamen ſine præjudicio perpetuo Eccleſiæ noſtræ poſſimus accedere, libenter accedemus. Forma vero gratiæ quam feciſtis prædeceſſori noſtro circa hoc hic pendet, quam gratiam nos ſimiliter petimus nobis fieri (ſi placet) ad voluntatem Regis. An. 6 E. I.

Item, cum ante introitum Anglicorum in Hyberniam, Eccleſia Ardmath fuerit in poſſeſſione recipiendi Temporalia tempore vacationis omnium Epiſcopatuum Provinciæ Ardmath; & licet proceſſu temporis per incuriam & negligentiam quorundam Archiepiſcoporum, ballivi veſtri poſſeſſionem temporalium quorundam Epiſcopatuum ſic vacantium, in præjudicium Eccleſiæ noſtræ ſint ingreſſi; adhuc tamen Eccleſia noſtra Ardmath. eſt in poſſeſſione Temporalium quorundam Epiſcopatuum vacantium, in quorum poſſeſſione fuit dicta Eccleſia non ſolum ante ingreſſum Anglicorum, ſed poſt ingreſſum ipſorum uſque in hunc diem. Quare Excellentiæ veſtræ ſupplicamus, quatenus mandetur Juſticiariis veſtris, ne nos ſeu Eccleſiam noſtram ſaltim ſuper poſſeſſione noſtra in prædictis Eccleſiis, in quarum poſſeſſione fuerunt hactenus Prædeceſſores noſtri, & hodiè ſumus, moleſtent. Et ſciatis, Domine reverende, quod nos peteremus poſſeſſionem noſtram nobis reformari Eccleſiarum, videlicet quas nunc tempore vacationis quo ad temporalia poſſideris, ſi ſperaremus apud Excellentiam veſtram exaudiri. R. Quod Juſtic. ſe ad. &c.

Item, cum Theſaurarius veſter in Hybernia petat quædam amerciamenta à nobis quæ tempore trium Archiepiſcoporum prædeceſſorum noſtrorum nunquam fuerunt petita, nec ipſis viventibus (prout intellexerimus) extiterant taxata. Excellentiæ veſtræ ſupplicamus, quatinus mandetur Juſticiario veſtro vel ejus locum tenenti, quod à talium amerciamentorum exactione deſiſtat: vel ſaltim Dominatio veſtra de gratia ſpeciali nobis dicta amerciamenta velit remittere. R. Scribatur Juſtic. &c. Rex perdonat ei ea que non fuerunt taxata ſuper ſtitibus prædeceſſoribus ſuis, ita quod ea quæ tax. &c.

Item, cum Eccleſia noſtra Ardmath ab antiquis temporibus fuerit in poſſeſſione cujuſdam Libertatis in tenemento de Carmunfechi. quod dicitur Wreck; ac nunc Ballivi veſtri, licet raro talis caſus contingat, ſe intromittant: Excellentiæ veſtræ ſupplicamus, quatinus mandetur Juſticiariis veſtris, quod inquirant, ſi aliquis prædeceſſorum noſtrorum antiquitus habuit dictam Libertatem quæ dicitur Wrek; & ſi invenerint aliquem prædeceſſorum noſtrorum ipſam habuiſſe, nos permittant eadem libertate pacificè gaudere. R. Oſtendit Jus coram Juſtic. Hybernia, & —— Regem.

Item, cum nos quoddam Manerium in medio perverſæ gentis ſitum à quodam Milite ad opus Eccleſiæ noſtræ de novo emerimus, ac ibidem Caſtrum quoddam ad reſiſtendum malitiæ ejuſdem gentis fatis forte conſtituerimus, ratione cujus emptionis pax & concordia in tota marchia illa melius obſervatur; de quo manerio, licet nil valeret dicto Militi, tamen ſervitium et ſectam Comitatui veſtro facere tenebatur. Cum adhuc dictum manerium ad eadem teneatur; Vos rogamus quatenus dictam ſectam Comitatus cum ſervitio de gratia veſtra ſpeciali nobis & Eccleſiæ noſtræ velitis. R. Rex non poteſt relaxare, quia de Corona.

Quia univerſa placita de Catallis ſeu debitis, quæ Teſtamentum vel Patrimonium non contingunt et * Regia dignitate Curiæ Regiæ relinquuntur audienda et terminanda: eo prætextu placita de Debitis ſeu Catallis Patrimonium ſeu Teſtamentum contingentia, Rex et Princeps filius Eccleſiæ Chriſtianiſſimus et fidelis Curiæ Chriſtianitatis dimittere debet, Eccleſiæ libertatem illæſam conſervando, ut tenetur. Cum igitur Parochianus noſter Philippus Marmium de quibuſdam debitis et catallis quæ ſunt de matrimonio coram Baronibus de Scaccario ad inſtantiam Domini Willielmi de Mortein trahitur in placitum diis diebus; petimus, quod Rex eiſdem Baronibus reſcribat; quod ſi ita eſſe invenerint, tunc de placito illo ſe non intromittant, ſit ad Curiam Chriſtianitatis dimittant; vel ſaltem quod dictum placitum coram ipſo Rege ponì faciant; ut de conſilio ſuo, quid inde fieri debeat, ſtatuatur. To which no anſwer was given by the King. * Nota.

William Archbiſhop of Rhoan returning very weary and poor from the Church of Rome, where he had ſpent much money for his confirmation and conſecration, and being loth to croſſe the Seas to come perſonally to King Edward to make his Oath of Fealty to him, addreſſed his own Letters to him, with ſome other great perſons, to receive his Homage by a Proctor, or to ſend one to receive it at Rhoan, and Bundelæ Brevium & Epiſtolarum in Turri London An. 6 E 1.

EXcellentiſſimo Domino ſuo, Edwardo Dei gratia illuſtri Anglia Regi, Gulielmus miſeratione divina Rothomagenſis Archiepiſcopus, ſalutem, &c. Quia gyrat animus in diverſa ſuppoſitus eodem tempore curis diverſorum neceſſariorum, fere æqualium, pro quorum uno corporis & rerum ſubjicitur periculo, pro alio autem rerum timet periculum & ſuperioris offenſam, ſciens, quod dum ad utrumque feſtinat, neutrum benè peragit, viam ſic hæſitanti oportet eligere tutiorem. Ideoque nos qui corporis et rerum timemus periculum, ſi pro faciendo Juramento fidelitatis Magnitudini veſtræ de terra quam a vobis tenemus, in Anglia nos oporteat transfretare, cum de nobo a Curia Romana ad Archiepiſcopatum noſtrum venerimus ſatis leſi, vias itinerandi difficiles et abruptas, et jura ac negotia noſtræ Diœceſis multum invenerimus intricata, ſicut plerunque in illis accidit, qui de nobo curam conſimilem amplectuntur: Undè ſine magno diſpendio, modo ad veſtram Magnitudinem accedere non valemus, pro dicto Juramento fidelitatis debite faciendo; præcipuè cum illuſtris Francia Rex ſit ad præſens in Normannia partibus; cum quo, novitatis hoc tempore, ſuper terris noſtriſque juribus, vacante noſtra Rothomagenſi Eccleſiâ indebitè occupatis tractare, & ipſius implorare ſubſidium nobis oportunum habemus. Mare etiam complexioni noſtræ contrarium, & ipſius abhorremus inundationes inſolitas, et periculum, quod patet in Fannis, cum à modo difficultatem & periculum exhibeat transfretanti. Quapropter manſuetudini Regiæ cauſam & audaciam ſumpſimus ſupplicandi, quatinus dictum juramentum fidelitatis, ad quod vobis tenemur ex debito, de ſpecialis benignitatis veſtræ gratia, et conſueti favoris intuitu, dignemini per Procuratores noſtros recipere, ad hoc ſpecialiter deſtinatos: Sciturí certiſſimus, quod quam cito mare Anglicanum vos transfretare contigerit ad quaſcunque partes Franciæ ſive Gaſcoigna, et auditis de tranſitu veſtro rumoribus, in inſtanti vobis obviam venimus, dictum fidelitatis juramentum, et alia, quæ regni Anglia conſuetudo ejuſdemque terræ qualitas exigit et conditio præſtaturi. Inſuper Magnitudinis veſtræ apertas recognitionis noſtræ tranſmittimus literas, per quas innoteſcimus, quod per factam nobis gratiam vobis veſtriſque ſucceſſoribus nullum præjudicium volumus generari; nec nobis et ſucceſſoribus noſtris quicquam præbere ſubſidium, quo minus teneamur ut ante præſtare ſuper fidelitate prædicta perſonaliter juramentum. Quæ tandem ſi ſic fieri Dominationi veſtræ non placeant, iterum Regiæ Celſitudini ſupplicamus cordis affectione qua poſſumus ampliori, quatinus unum de veſtris, Clericum aut Laicum in Normanniam aut in Franciam, ubi vobis citra mare placuerit, Regia Celſitudo tranſmittat, ad recipiendum a nobis, pro vobis et nomine veſtro, fidelitatis debitæ juramentum. Tantum de prædictis, obtentu noſtrorum precaminum facientes, ſi placet, quod in exauditione evidentis excuſationis noſtræ prædictæ, nobis & arduis noſtris neceſſitatibus, videamini conſuetæ benignitatis veſtræ gratia compati, & ut per hoc in poſterum ad effundendas orationes pro vobis Altiſſimo, & ad alia gratiarum obſequia teneamur. EXcellentissimo Domino suo, E. &c. ut supra. suorum Sacerdotum minimus frater R. de Kylwardeby, salutem, &c. Audito, quod discordia super jurisdictione et obedientiæ debito, inter Monachos Ecclesiæ Christi Cantuar. et quosdam Clericos per me promotos, ut jam exacta, est mea anima contristata. Clerici autem ipsi à me requirunt consilium destituti. Et quia solum interpellare possum ad vos, qui Archiepiscopatum jam tenetis, humiliter confugio, pro eis supplicans, ut cum ad Summum Pontificem pro statu suo appellaverint, vestra Regia potentia eis non deroget, donec vel per pacem vel per judicium constiterit, ad quos vel quem debeat jurisdictio hucusque tempore pertinere. Dico enim vobis in Christo, non desidero in hac parte, nisi quod unicuique tribuatur jus suum, & non opprimatur innocens per potentiam immodestam. Hoc unum vobis dico sicut Domino, quod non detis vos, qui judicatis terram, per favorem partis parti alteri adversari. Justitia enim hoc debet in medio stabilire donec partium disputatio terminetur. His rationibus ſubſcriptis dicunt Cives Dublin. quod non expedit Domino Regi, nec Cibibus prædictis, quod Fratres de Monte Carmeli infra muros Dublin. commorentur.

IMprimis dicunt, quod dicta Civitas infra muros ſatis ſtricta eſt.

Item, ubi dicti fratres oſtendebant Domino Regi et Conſilio ſuo, quod Rogerus Oweyne contulit eiſdem quandam placeam ubi inhabitare volebant, minus inde dicebant, eo quod dictus Rogerus ibidem nunquam aliquam terram habuit, ſed emebant dictam terram de quodam Daniele Clerico, qui ratione dictæ terræ auxiliabatur cum dictis Civibus in tallag. & in aliis auxiliis ſicut cæteri Cives Civitatis.

Item, prædicti fratres duas vacuas placeas quæ captæ fuerunt in manum Domini Regis, et Civium prædictorum pro Arreragiis Landgabuli, ſibi appropriarunt, dictis Civibus ignorantibus et invitis, nulla ſolutione facta adhuc de dictis arreragiis.

Item, dicunt, quod manentes in dictis terris tenentur auxiliari cum dictis Civibus in tallagiis, vigiliis faciend. inde Allewyter, et pluribus aliis ad Civitatem pertinentibus, quod ſi ipſas terras hebuiſſent et in Sanctuarium poſuiſſent, hoc eſſet ad exhæredationem Domini Regis, et prædictorum omnium dampnum non modicum et grabamen.

Item dicunt, quod dictæ terræ pluribus caſibus Domino Regi et Civibus prædictis accedere poſſint in Eſcaetum, quod ſi ipſas habuiſſent ipſi in Sanctuarium tenerent, quod eſſet ad exhæredationem Domini Regis, et in præjudicium prædictorum Civium et dampnum non modicum et grabamen.

Item, dicti Cives habent de dictis terris placita et perquiſita; quare non expedit Domino Regi nec Cibibus quod prædictas terras optineant.

Dicunt, quod ſi Guerra communis exhibita fuerit, ſecundum quod nuper fuerat in Lagen. maximum periculum poſſit eminere Caſtro D. Regis & Civitati, eo quod pauci ſunt circummanentes Portam beatæ Mariæ del Dam. per quod Malivoli privatim vatim infra domos ſuas intrare poſſint, & ſic maximum periculum Caſtro Domini Regis & Civitati poſſit eminere, ut ſupra. An. 6 E 1.

Item, Dicunt, quod ſi dicti fratres Eccleſiam ſuam ſuper dictis terris conſtruerent, et ibidem Sanctuarium feciſſent, maximum dampnum tam Domino Regi quam Civibus prædictis poſſit eminere, eo quod ſi feloues extra Caſtrum Domini Regis evaſiſſent, ſecundum quod ſæpius contigit, vel alii qui aliquam feloniam fecerint ibidem refugium habere poſſent; Et ſic oporteret dictis Civibus ibidem Vigilias facere, et ſi evaſiſſent, darent evaſionem, quod durum eſſet eiſdem Civibus, et ſic ponerentur in ſervitute, ubi modo ſint liberi.

Item dicunt iidem Cives, quod ſi conceſſum fuerit eiſdem fratribus ibidem inhabitare, quod intendunt omnes terras ibidem collaterales ſibi appropriare, et poſtea eas in Sanctuarium convertere, quod eſſet ad exheredationem Domini Regis et dampnum eorundem Civium non modicum et grabamen, et ſic ſibi appropriare tertiam partem totius Civitatis infra muros ex illa parte Villæ.

Item dicunt, quod Communitas nullo modo vult aſſentire quod ibidem inhabitent rationibus prædictis. Such prejudicial and unwelcome gueſts did the Inhabitants of Dublin, even in that age deem theſe greedy Freers to their City, and the King himſelf.

An. 7 E. 1. In the Parliament of 7 E. 1. held at Weſtminſter, (the Memorials whereof I found in the White Tower, and reſcued from corruption and oblivion) I met with this memorable Attachment againſt the Prior and Covent of Carliſle, for electing a Biſhop without the Kings licenſe, and againſt his Prohibition, to his damage of ſixty thouſand pounds, and alſo forty thouſand pounds damage by their reelection.

Parl. apud Weſtm. poſt Paſch. An. 7 E 1. in Turri London.

PRior & Conventus Karliol. attach. fuit ad reſpondendum Regi, quare cum mortuo dudum Roberto Karle Epiſcopo per quoſdam Concanonicos ſuos licentiam eligendi, prout moris eſt, petiviſſent, et optinuiſſent. Et iidem Prior & Conventus *W. Et Prior venit, & dicit, quod ipſe et Conventus ſuus non intellexerunt contemptum nec præjudicium Regi feciſſe, et quo primo licentiam habuerunt; et Electus ſuus electioni diſſentit, per quod res integra fuit, ut credunt, ſed ſi contemptus interfuit, ſubponunt ſe voluntati Regis, &c.

IN Nomine Domini Amen. Hoc eſt exemplum unius literæ, ſigillatæ ſigillo venerabilis patris Wigornienſis Epiſcopi, quod quidem ſigillum erat oblongum, habens ymaginem impreſſam Epiſcopalem ſtantem, benedicentem cum dextra, & cum ſiniſtra retinentem baculum paſtoralem, & à latere ipſius ymaginis erat undique imago quaſi capitis, & ſubtus ipſius capitis ymaginem erant hinc & inde tria Lilia à quolibet latere deſignata, cujus circumferentes literæ ſic dicebant; ſcilicet, Walteri Dei gratia Wigornienſis Epiſcopi. Tenor autem ipſius literæ talis eſt: Univerſis Chriſti fidelibus præſentes literas inſpecturis vel audituris, Walterus miſeratione divina Wigornienſis Eccleſiæ Miniſter humilis, æternam in Domino ſalutem. Noverit univerſitas veſtra, nos literas venerabilis patris Bonifacii Dei gratia Cantuarienſis Archiepiſcopi, totius Angliæ Primatis, non cancellatas, non abolitas, nec in aliqua ſui parte vitiatas, inſpexiſſe in hæc verba. Excellentiſſimo patri ac Domino Alexandro divina providentia Summo Pontifici, Bonifacius Dei gratia Cantuarienſis Archiepiſcopus, totius Angliæ Primas, pedum oſcula beatorum. Noverit veſtræ ſanctitatis excellentia, quod cum ad Diocæſim Coventrenſem & Litchfeld. cauſa viſitationis faciendæ declinaſſem, inter Monaſteria & alias Eccleſias collegiatas ejuſdem Diocæſis, Eccleſiam beatæ Mariæ Stafford. Anno Dom. 1265. Kal. Octobris viſitavi, et in eadem viſitationis officium exercens inveni, quod Epiſcopus Coventr. & Litchf. & Archidiaconus Stafford. qui pro tempore fuerunt, omnimodam juriſdictionem Epiſcopalem et Archidiaconalem in populum et plebem et parochianos ſingulos dictæ Eccleſiæ et aliarum Eccleſiarum ſeu Capellarum eidem Eccleſiæ ſubjectarum exercere libere conſueverunt ab antiquo: quodque Decanus, Canonici, et Miniſtri prædictæ Eccleſiæ, juriſdictionem Epiſcopalem et Archidiaconalem in populum et plebem et parochianos ſuos uſurparunt, non ſine gravi periculo animarum, et ſcandalo plurimorum, ac in Eccleſiæ Coventr. & Litchf. præjudicium non modicum et gravamen. Ut igitur, quæ in eadem Eccleſia corrigenda inveni, per me reformarentur in melius, habitâ ſuper præmiſſis deliberatione plenâ, inhibui diſtrictius Canonicis et Miniſtris quos ibidem inveni, ſub pœna excommunicationis, ne de cætero impedire præſumerent, quominus dicti Epiſcopus et Archidiaconus, ac eorum ſucceſſores juriſdictionem Epiſcopalem et Archidiaconalem in populum et plebem et parochianos prælibatæ Eccleſiæ valeant exercere. Sane ex parte Bogonis de Clare Decani, Canonicorum & Miniſtrorum ejuſdem Eccleſiæ coram me propoſitum extitit, quod iidem privilegia exemptionis ab interdictione Epiſcopali et Archidiaconali, quæ perſonas ſuas habebant a ſede Apoſtolica ſibi dumum indulta; propter quod ſuper præmiſſis plenius deliberare volens, eiſdem terminum peremptorium a die Sancti Michaelis proximo futuro in unum menſem; videlicet, ſexto Kal. Novembris, ad exhibendum London. coram me dicta privilegia, ſi qua haberent, ad inſtantiam venerabilis patris Rogeri Dei gratia Coventr. & Litchf. Epiſcopi, & Magiſtri Richardi tunc Archidiaconi Stafford. aſſignavi; decernendo, quod ſi privilegia non exhiberent, ut extunc procederetur contra eoſdem, prout de jure fuerit procedendum. Partibus igitur coram me ipſo comparentibus London. ſexto Kal. Novembris, cum dicti Decanus, Canonici, & Miniſtri privilegia, quæ ſe habere proponebant, non exhiberent, eiſdem ex habundanti iterato terminum peremptorium ad exhibendum privilegia (ſi qua haberent) videlicet, quarto Idus Februarii legitimè aſſignavi. coram me Lamebeth venerabilis frater Rogerus Dei gratia Coventr. & Litchfeld. Episcopus per Procuratorem legitimè constitutum, & Magister Richardus tunc Archid. Stafford. personaliter, ex parte una; Bogo de Clare Decanus, Canonici, & Ministri Ecclesiæ beatæ Mariæ Stafford. per Magistrum Adam de Fileby Procuratorem eorundem legitimè constitutum, ex altera. Cumque ex parte venerabilis patris Coventrensis & Litchfeld. Episcopi, & Archidiaconi Stafford. coram me, petitum esset instanter, ut dicti Decanus, Canonici, et Ministri privilegia eremptionis, quæ se habere proponebant, exhiberent; Procurator eorundem, privilegia non exhibens, appellavit sub hac forma. Quia vos, reverende pater, Cantuarienſis Archiepiscope, Decanum & Capitulum Ecclesiæ beatæ Mariæ Stafford. a vestra et omni ordinaria jurisdictione penitus eremptos coram vobis fecistis ad judicium evocari, suæ eremptionis privilegia exhibituros, ac moneri fecistis eosdem, ut jurisdictionem quam ex antiqua et approbata consuetudine in plebem et populum dicti Decanatus obtinent, Domino Episcopo Coventr. & Litchfeld. et Archidiacono Stafford. liberarent, et ipsos dicta jurisdictione libere uti permitterent, quamquam judicialiter non constiterit eandem jurisdictionem ad dictos Episcopum et Archidiaconum aliquatinus pertinere: Ego Adam de Fileby Subdecanus Ecclesiæ prædictæ, ac Procurator dictorum Decani & Capituli sentiens Dominos meos ex hoc indebite prægravari, sedem Apostolicam in scriptis appello, et Apostolos peto: appello etiam sedem prædictam prome et Dominis meis prædictis, ne vos aliquam sententiam excommunicationis, aut suspensionis, aut interdicti in nos vel Ministros aut Parochianos nostros, Mon. nostrum aut oratoria sedis Apostolicæ subdita, aut aliquid aliud factatis in præjudicium nostrum et sedis Apostolicæ, cui nos immediate subesse profitemur, et Apostolos peto et supplico, ut ob reverentiam sedis Apostolicæ appellationi meæ deferatis, et mihi nomine dictorum Dominorum meorum et partis adversæ in Curia Summi Pontificis diem assignetis. Venerabili ergo fratri Coventr. & Litchfeld. Episcopo, et Magistro Richardo Archidiacono Stafford. prædictam appellationem et supplicationem acceptantibus, ad postulationem eorundem et partis adversæ supplicationem ob reverentiam sedis Apostolicæ eidem appellationi reverenter duxi deferendum, præfigendo partibus terminum peremptorium, quo se vestræ sanctitatis conspectui representent in crastino Sancti Michaelis proximo futuro, sufficienter instructæ cum omnibus muniments, juribus et rationibus præmissum negotium tangentibus, paratæ in eodem negotio procedere, prout vestræ sanctitati visum fuerit expedire. In præmissorum autem testimonium has literas meas sanctitati vestræ transmitto. Conservet vos altissimus ad regimen Universalis Ecclesiæ Dei per tempora longissima. The Archbishop of Canterbury having thereupon obtained a Writ De excommunicato capiendo against William Boyhough of the Diocesse of Exeter by his premised Letter, who had appealed to the Pope against his unjust Sentence against him, caused him to be attached and kept in iron chains, to prevent the prosecution of his Appeal against him; whereupon a Clerk of the Chancellors and the Bishop of Exeter writ these Letters to the Chancellor in his behalf for his enlargement to prosecute his appeal, which he seconded with another Letter to him on the behalf of others of his Clergy, whom he endeavoured to imprison in like manner, by his Certificates against them, for opposing his Jurisdiction and proceedings in his Visitation.

Suo Domino suus Clericus omnimodam reverentiam & honorem. Rogavit me multum instanter Dominus P. Exoniensis Episcopus, quod cum distante nuper Domino J. Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi Exoniensem Diocesim, idem Archiepiscopus excommunicaverit Willielmum Bloyhough Clericum, et ipsum quidem Ecclesiæ interdixerit, ita quod demum idem Willielmus ab hujusmodi gravamine sedem apostolicam appellavit, et super appellacione illa in Curia impetravit, sicut per bullam quam lator præsencium penes se habet, patere poterit intuenti, et Judices sui ipsum Willielmum ab illa sententia absolverint, sicut patet per literas dicti Exoniensis Episcopi hoc testificantes. Vicecomesque Devon. eundem Willielmum qui ad supplicationem prædicti Archiepiscopi captus et imprisonatus est in nimis dura prisona teneat in vinculis ferreis ad instantiam adversæ partis, et graves redempciones ab eo capit pro allebiacione prisonæ; ita quod idem Willielmus appellacionem suam prosequi non potest: Dominacionem vestram rogarem quod vos super hoc per breve Domini Regis remedium facere dignemini, ut deliberari possit a prisona, ac appellacionem suam prosequi. Maximè, cum à sentencia illa, sicut prædicitur, sit per suos Judices absolutus, set benè scitis quod ad supplicacionem hujusmodi Judicum delegatorum Curia non rescribit. Et quia æquitas & pietas vos movere debet in hac parte, placeat Dominacioni vestræ inde remedium concedere, & vestram præcipere voluntatem. Benè & diu valeat Dominacio vestra. Upon the receipt of all theſe importunate flattering Letters from theſe Cardinals and the Archbiſhop to the King, backed with large promiſes of their favour & aſſiſtance to him in his affairs, the King was content to be courted out of his Royal Prero-

An. 10 E. 1. gative, to approve and preferre a Biſhop duly elected by his ſpecial licenſe to this rich Biſhoprick, and to reſtore the Temporalties to this John de Pontiſera, intruded into it by the Popes and Cardinals Proviſion, whoſe favours and Letters on his behalf were purchaſed at no ſmall rates.

Beſides, theſe Cardinals recommended divers of their own Kinred and Friends to the Kings favour and ſervice, by ſeveral Epiſtles, the Originals whereof are filed in the ſame Bundle with thoſe for this Biſhop, ſome of which I ſhall preſent to your view.

Therefore by this ancient Manuſcript and Sir Robert Cottons Reſolution, it was only a Letter framed upon this Charter and Articuli Cleri to be ſent to the Kings Juſtices and Officers in or after the 10th. year of King Edward the 2. not extant nor enrolled in any Roll I can yet finde in the Tower; therefore not an actual Prohibition under the Kings great Seal; much leſſe a publike Statute made in Parliament, An. 13 E. 1. as Sir Edward Cooke and others moſt groſly miſtake. And that which confirms me farther in this opinion, is an antient Preſentment in Parchment, (without any year or date, made by a Jury of the County of Norfolke to the Kings Juſtices, about the 13 year of King Edward the 2. as I conjecture by the hand, and other Circumſtances) which I found in the White Tower Chappel, againſt the Deans, Officials, and Clergy of the Biſhop of Norwich, for ſeveral encroachments upon the Kings Prerogative, Courts, and peoples Liberties, in holding Plea of Treſpaſſes, Debts and other Temporal Cauſes, and impoſing Oaths, pecuniary mulcts, penalties, exactions on the people, and excommunicating them againſt Law.

Et cum hujuſmodi cauſa mere Brevia Regis, An. 13 E. 1.

An. 13 E. 1. ſit Teſtamentaria, et ad examen Eccleſiaſticum de jure debeat pertinere, ſicut veſtra nobit diſcretio, et nos ſemper parati fuerimus, et ſimus, de dicto Archidiacono noſtro, dicto Militi et aliis de ſe querelantibus plenam juſtitiam exhibere, ad libertatis Eccleſiaſticæ defenſionem et conſervationem, pro qua vos ſemper impendiſtis, ſummo (ſi placet) ſtudio remedium in præmiſſis providere dignamini. Prædicta vero cauſa inter ipſum Militem & dictum Archidiaconum, prout didicimus, in foro Eccleſiaſtico, coram Domino Lechlin. Epiſcopo, in cujus Dioceſi idem Miles dicit ipſum Archidiaconum de bonis dicti defuncti adminiſtraſſe, extitit alias usque ad ſententiæ diffinitivæ calculum ventilata, donec dicto Epiſcopo defuncto, per ipſius Willielmi negligentiam conquiebit. Unde intuitu Dei et Eccleſiæ, taliter in præmiſſis operari et providere veſtra diſcretio dignetur, ut Eccleſiaſtica libertas illæſa cuſtodiatur. Valeat pia Paternitas veſtra ſemper in Domino. Dat. feria ſecunda in Septiman. Pentecoſt. Anno gratiæ, 1285.

Supplicat vobis (Domine Cancellarie) Nicholaus Archidiaconus Fermenſ. (qui vetus eſt, & gravi infirmitate detentus) remedium ſibi fieri de quibuſdam injuriis, libertati Eccleſiaſticæ et ſibi factis; quod, cum quondam extitit Executor Teſtamenti Adæ de Sancto Johanne defuncti, & bona ejuſdem defuncti vice Executoris fideliter diſpoſuit & miniſtravit, & de Bonis & Catallis dictum Teſtamentum tangentibus finalem Compotum reddidit coram ſuo Dioceſano; ſuper hoc venit Dominus Willielmus Waſpayl Miles, ob favorem Juſticiarii Hiberniæ, et implacitat ipſum coram Baronibus de Scaccario Dublin. contra Legem et Juſtitiam, de quaterviginti & ſex libris Argenti, per quoddam Breve de viridi Cera, (quod dicitur Venire fac.) eo quod extitit Executor prædicti defuncti, deficut hujuſmodi placita Teſtamentum tangentia, coram eiſdem de jure non debent placitari; nec idem Willielmus Baro de Scaccario, nec Miniſter Domini Regis eſt. Et nichilominus ipſum cohartant ad reſpondendum coram ipſis de Debito prædicto. Quare petit, caritatis intuitu, remedium ſibi fieri.

The Chancellor writing to the Abbot and Covent of St. Thomas the Martyr by Dublin for a Corody for Almeric de Deneford, received this Negative Anſwer from them for the reaſons therein mentioned.

Moreover the Abbot and general Chapter of the Cistercian Abbots, writ this gratulatory Letter to King Edward, for all the favours received from him and his ancestors, especially for the impropriation of the Church of Scardeburg, conferred on them by their Charters for maintaining their general Chapter; complaining, that since the Freers Minors and Preachers entred into Scardeburg against their Charters, they did not receive above the third part of the profits they did before, desiring the King by his secular power to remove them thence, (so much did these Freers envy and undermine each other) and to renew their Charters; to effect which they certified him what Prayers and Masses their Chapter and Order did continually make to God for him, his Queen, Children, Realm.

In eadem Bundela, An. 13 E. 1.

EXcellentissimo Domino Edwardo divina magnificentia illustri Regi Anglorum, Frater Johannes dictus Abbas Cistercii, totusque Conventus Abbatum Capituli generalis, potentiam invincibilem, & quicquid potest apud Deum humilis & assidua deprecatio peccatorum. Sicut Regalis clementiæ Celsitudinem generosam in nullo diminuit sed commendat, cum se ad ima pauperum per piorum beneficiorum inclinat affluentiam liberalem, sic & ipsi pauperes præsumptuosi vel temerarii jure censeri non possunt, si sublimioribus scribendo principibus quos inter suos benefactores præcipuos recognoscunt, ad debitas & devotas gratiarum actiones assurgunt, ut juxta sapientiam Salamonis ad loca unde exeunt beneficiorum flumina dignis regratiationibus revertantur. Cum igitur ex proventibus Ecclesiæ de Scardeburg, quam de advocatione vestra, & ex dono progenitorum vestrorum in propios usus canonice possidemus, nostrum generale Capitulum quolibet anno consueverit sustentari per triduum nunc sustentetur in parte. Et ferè omnino sustentaretur, si proventus dictæ Ecclesiæ liberè & integrè possemus percipere, sicut in retroactis temporibus solebamus. Ingrati possemus merito judicari si nostrum generale Capitulum sine vestri memoria (quod nunquam factum extitit) pertransiret, unde nos ingratitudinis vicium præcaventes, super hiis & aliis gratiis & beneficiis à magnificentia vestra nostro ordini collatis, ad gratiarum actiones Excellentiæ vestræ dignum duximus assurgendum. Exorantes supplicter Regem Regum, in cujus manu sunt omnium Regum corda, ut personam vestram, et amicos vestros, et regnum vestrum in honore et bona pace stabilat et confirmet, et actus vestros dirigat in suæ beneplacito voluntatis. Et quia super perceptione proventuum prælatæ Ecclesiæ per ingressus Prædicatorum et Minorum in Villa de Scardeburg, contra tenorem Chartarum prædecessorum vestrorum, et Apostolicas inhibitiones quamplurimum perturbamur; in tantum quod ubi solebamus percipere tribunam procurationem nostri Capituli generalis, vix processu temporis sicut experimento cotidiano videmus per unum diem dictum generale Capitulum poterit sustentari, ad vos tanquam ad patronum habemus recurrere: Excellentiam vestram humiliter exorantes, ut factum prædecessorum vestrorum sicut vestr. interest proseqentes, quod contra Chartas et Prohibitiones Regias factum est faciatis per potestatem Regiam annullari, et donationem prælatæ Ecclesiæ à vestris progenitoribus nobis factæ dignemini per Chartas Regias confirmare.

Et licet veſtræ Civitatis et Dioc. et Provinciæ Clerus promiſſum habundanter quod petibimus ſe facturos, ipſi tamen hoc facere poſtmodum non curarunt; unde contigit, quod Clerus Cantuar. Provinciæ, qui in promiſſione inventus fuerat valde durus, in reddendo promiſſum extitit liberalis, et Clerus veſter qui dictis noſtris verbaliter annuit pa[illegible]ta dixit, quod promiſeras poſtmodum ſolvere voluit alio modo. Quocirca vos rogamus, quatinus habito colloquio cum Clero veſtro, eundem ad ſolvendum nobis quod gratis promiſit, cum nos in ea libertatem pro qua promiſſio facta fuit, modis quibus expedire videritis inducatis; ſicut enim bonum a principio gratuitum ſore dinoſcitur, ſic inducit ingratitudinem facta promiſſio non ſerbata. In the Plea Rolls of the ſame year I found theſe Attachments, for ſuing and holding Pleas in Courts Chriſtian againſt the Kings Prohibitions.

Placita Termino Paſchæ An. 15 E. 1.

GErvaſius de Aldermannebir. attach. fuit ad reſpondendum Hamoni de Valoynes, quare traxit eum in placitum in Curia Chriſtianitatis de debitis, quæ non ſunt de Teſtamento, &c. contra Prohibitionem, &c. Et unde idem Hamo quæritur, ritur, quod praditus Gervasius implacitavit eum coram Decano de Suwerc & conjuditibus, de domibus quas Hamo pater ipsius Hamonis asportasse debuit de Cristeshall, & de quibusdam Jocalibus, & de 100 l. Et unde deterioratus & dampnum habet ad valentiam 20 marcarum. Et ideo producit sectam, &c. An. 15 E. 1.

Et Gervasius venit & defendit contra ipsum & sectam, quod nunquam post Prohibitionem nec ante traxit eum in placitum de debitis, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, set verum vult dicere. Quidam Rogerus de Sumery dedit terram de Cristeshall & 100 l. in denariis in maritagio Hamoni patri ipsius Hamonis cum Agnete filia sua. Et postea processu temporis celebrato inter eosdem Hamonem & Agnetam divorcio, reddidit idem Hamo eidem Agnete terram illam ut maritagium suum. Et quia non habuit denarios ad manum unde solveret praditos denarios, obligavit se et hæredes suos ad solvendum eidem Agneti 20 l. singulis annis, donec prædictæ 100 l. plenius solverentur, per Chartam quam profert et hæc hoc testatur. Et postea venit ipse Gervasius & desponsavit dictam Agnetem, & vixerunt simul per longum tempus, & postea in extremis fecit ipsa praditum Gervasium virum suum Executorem testamenti sui, simul cum aliis, & ad executionem illam faciendam, & ad debita perquirenda, & specialiter ad debitum istud perquirendum, & ut inde disponeret sicut de aliis secundum quod viderent expedire. Et unde dicit, quod petit denarios illos ex causa testamentaria, & non alio modo. Et inquisiti per quantum tempus ipsa Agnes vixisset postquam divorcium factum fuit, dicunt quod bene per 30 annos. Et Gervasius dicit quod per 20 annos.

Et Hamo venit & petit judicium de sicut ipsa Agnes vixit per magnum tempus post divorcium per 30 annos & nichil unquam petiit de debito illo quamdiu vixit, nec ab ea, nec a patre suo, nec a Thoma fratre suo, qui per 5. annos fuit in seisina totius hæreditatis patris sui. Et petit judicium, si ipsa potuit legare, et in testamento relinquere debitum, quod non fuit cognitum in vita sua, et quod ipsa unquam petiit in vita sua.

Et quoniam praditus Gervasius nichil ostendit, quod praditta Agnes aliquid peteret de praditto Hamone, nec Thoma filio suo, nec de isto Hamone dum vixit, & vixit per tantum tempus. Et si ipsa in vita sua petiisset debitum illud, non potuit legare clameum suum ad placitandum in Curia Christianitatis cum ipsa si viveret non posset petere debitum illud alibi quam in Curia Domini Regis. Consideratum est, quod Hamo eat inde quietus; Et prohibitum Gervasio, quod de cætero non sequatur in Curia Christianitatis.

RObertus Prior de Werkesslop attach. fuit ad respondendum Adæ de Cretelang, quare secutus est placitum in Curia Christianitatis de laico feodo ipsius Adæ in Hurst, &c. Et unde idem Adam queritur, quod cum ipse distringeret feodum suum, quod Prior tenet pro laicali servicio per captionem ipsius Prioris; Idem Prior statim excommunicat eum, et eum vexat et gravat in Curia Christianitatis; unde deterioratus est, &c. Plac. Term. Pasch. An 15 E. 1. in Turri Londoti.

Et Prior venit & dicit, quod non debet ei respondere, quia * excommunicatus est, et ei sicut excommunicato ——— Et inde profert literas Domini Coventrensis Episcopi patentes: Et in quibus continetur, quod Willielmus quondam Archid. Derb. excommunicavit prædictum Adam meritis suis exigentibus. Et quoniam constat ei de excommunicatione, et non de absolutione, misit literas Justic. patentes. Et Adam nichil ostendit de ejus absolutione. Et ideo Prior inde sine die, & Adam faciat se absolvi. * Littleton sect. 201. Cooks 4 Institutes, f. 133, 134.

The most remarkable Writs of Prohibition and Attachment this year, are those which concern Bogo de Clare, presented by the King to the Treasurership of the Cathedral of York, who yet was vexed, excommunicated, his Churches and the fruits thereof sequestred, interdicted by the Archbishop of York, against the Kings Prohibitions and Writs, for which he was convened before the Kings Counsil, as these Writs inform us.

Teste præfato Comite Cornubiæ Consanguineo nostro apud Westm. 13 die Febr. Anno regni nostri 15. An. 15 E. I.

EDwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, &c. Vicecomiti Ebor. salutem. Cum nuper sede Eboracensis Ecclesiæ vacante, & in custodia nostra existente, dederimus & concesserimus dilecto Clerico nostro Bogoni de Clare Thesaurariam ejusdem Ecclesiæ tunc vacantem, & ad donationem nostram ratione vacationis Archiepiscopatus prædicti spectantem; & idem Bogo in plenam & pacificam possessionem Thesaurariæ prædictæ inductus fuerit, ut est moris; ac venerabilis pater J. Archiepiscopus Ebor. jam (sicut ex quorundam relatu intelleximus, postquam ad partes transmarinas arripuimus iter nostrum) eundem Bogonem super possessione sua Thesaurariæ prædictæ indebite perturbans, Ecclesias eidem Thesaurariæ annexas Interdicto supponens, Excommunicationis sententias in eundem Bogonem et suos Ministros Thesaurariæ prædictæ voluntarie fulminaverit, et ipsum in præmissis multipliciter inquietare fecerit, in nostri juris læsionem, et dictæ concessionis nostræ enervationem, et nostri contemptum manifestum: Propter quod eidem Archiepiscopo amicabiliter scripsimus, ut a talibus gravaminibus cessaret seu desisteret, et Excommunicationes et Interdicta per ipsum in hac parte lata, revocari faceret indilate; cujusmodi scripturæ nostræ seu mandato nostro in hac parte in nullo obtemperare seu parere hactenus curavit, imo inchoatam infestationem suam erga prædictum Clericum nostrum ardentius continuavit, de quo vehementius admiramur: Nos nolentes præmissa, si taliter in nostri præjudicium fuerint attemptata, relinquere impunita, tibi præcipimus, sicut alias tibi præcepimus, quod præfatum Archiepiscopum attachiari facias, ita quod eum habeas coram dilecto Consanguineo et fideli nostro Edmundo Comite Cornubiæ, locum nostrum tenente in Anglia, et cæteris de Consilio nostro, apud Westm. à die Paschæ in unum mensem, ad respondendum nobis de præmissis, et ad faciendum et recipiendum ulterius in hac parte, quod Curia nostra nomine nostro duxerit ordinandum. Et unde tu mandasti præfatis Comiti et Concilio nostro, quod Breve nostrum quod tibi venit de attachiando prædictum Archiepiscopum, quod esset coram præfatis Comite et Consilio nostro in Octabis Purificationis beatæ Mariæ proximo præteritis, adeo tarde tibi venit, quod illud exequi non potuisti. Et habeas ibi hoc breve. Teste R. de Hengham apud Westm. 13 die Februarii, Anno regni nostri 15. Ibidem.

The like Writ verbatim issued to the Sheriff of Buckingham, with the same date and Teste, against Oliver Bishop of Lincoln, who had Interdicted all the Churches belonging to the Treasurership in his Diocesse, fulminated an Excommunication against Bogo, and vexed him in the same manner as the Archbishop had done. And this Writ to the Kings Lieutenant.

EDwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, &c. dilecto Consanguineo & fideli suo Edmundo Comiti Cornubiæ, tenenti locum suum in Anglia, salutem. Quia datum est nobis intelligi, quod super gravaminibus et molestiis quæ dilectus Clericus noster Bogo de Clare venerabilem patrem J. Archiepiscopum Ebor. de Thesauraria Ebor. quam eidem Bogoni contulimus sibi asseruit, in nostræ collationis præjudicium intulisse, dedistis diem eidem Archiepiscopo coram vobis apud Westm. à die Paschæ proximo præterito in unum mensem, ad respondendum nobis de gravaminibus et molestiis supradictis; mandando præfato Archiepiscopo, ut sequestra, interdicta, excommunicationum sententias, et alias coherciones Ecclesiasticas contra prædictum Bogonem occasione hujusmodi facta seu lata omnino relaxet, et hoc sub pœna forisfacturæ Baroniæ suæ, et omnium quæ de nobis tenet in regno nostro nequaquam omittat; nos licet jura nostra per vos et alios conservari Ibidem.

An. 15 E. 1. ſerbari belimus illæſa, nolentes tamen aliis ſuper jure ſibi debito injuriam aliquam irrogari, Vobis mandamus, quatinus convocato ad diem Conſilio noſtro, et habita ſuper negocio illo deliberacione melliori, in eodem negocio taliter procedatis, quod jus noſtrum ſit ſalvum in omnibus, et neutra parcium contra juſticiam ſenciat ſe grabatam, per quod ad querelam ullius vobis quicquam imputare poſſimus ad culpam. The Archbiſhop after he had put in Sureties to appear before the Council endorſed on the Writ, to prevent the ſtorm and penalties threatned to him by theſe Writs, for theſe his high contempts and extravagances, was enforced at laſt to obey the Kings commands, and make his peace with Bogo de Clare, before the cauſe came to be heard before the Kings Counſil, as theſe inderſements on three of theſe Writs inform us, Concordati ſunt prædicti Archiepiſcopus et Bogo. Archiepiſcopus vocatus fuit in Curiam, et concordatus eſt cum Bogone de Clare. Habuerunt diem coram Concilio, et poſtea concordati ſunt.

Philip de Staunton being elected Biſhop of Landaff, and his election certified to the King by the Archdeacon and others under their own Seals, but not under the Common Seal of the Chapter, kept from them by the practiſe of Bogo de Clare Chancellor of that Church, who oppoſed the election; he repairing therewith to the King in France, the King though he approved his perſon, yet he refuſed to confirm his election, becauſe not certified under the Chapters Seal; whereupon the Chancellor ſent this Letter to the Earl of Cornwall concerning this buſineſſe, and the Kings Writ to redreſſe this fraudulent practiſe, and ſave the expence of a ſecond journey to him, to grant a Writ to the Archbiſhop to confirm him, then to receive his Oath of Fealty, and reſtore his temporalties with all expedition.

King Edward out of his devotion to that Archtraytor Thomas Becket upon the Petition of the Prior and Covent of Chriſtchurch Monaſtery in Canterbury, granted them this new Charter, confirming unto them the forfeitures and amerciaments of all their Tenants goods condemned, or flying, before any of his Juſtices; which I found in a Bundle of Writs of Privy Seal and Petitions in the White Tower Chappel. An. 22 E. 1.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, & Dux Aquitaniæ, Archiepiſcopis, &c. In the same Bundle of Writs and Petitions, there is this memorable Petition of the Prior and Covent of St. Martyns in Dover to King Edward the 2. and his Council, reciting a Judgement given for King Edward the 1. his father, against the Archbishop of Canterbury for abusing his power, contrary to the Charters of that Priory, and against the usurpations and encroachments of the Prior & Covent of Trinity in Canterbury, against whom they prayed relief, and restitution to their antient Privileges, against their restless oppressions and vexations, according to that Judgement.

A Nostre Seigniour le Roy Dengleterre, & a sun Conseil, mostrount sez devouz Chapeleyns Priour & Convent de sa Eglise de S. Martyn de Doure, Com Henry jadis Roy Dengleterre Progenitour nostre Seignour le Roy qui ore est, que Dieu gard, dona sa dite Eglise de Seint Martin de Douvre, ove totes les appurtenaunces ausi fraunchement, com il la tynt a Thebaud adounk Erceveſque de Cantenbire, & a ses successours Erceveſques, en certein fourme qe le dit Erceveſque fest ordre de Moigne en la dite Eglise, solonc la Reule S. Beneyt a vivre, perdurablement adurer, e qe james autre sey entremeyst, mes qe le dit Erceveſque & les Erceveſques de Cant. avenir. Apres quel establissement del dit ordre, solonc la fourme susdite, le dit Thibaud ordeina, qe en checune voidance de la Priorite de Douvre fust fait un Moigne de la Trinite de Cant. Prior a la dite Eglise de Douvre, & remuable a la volunte du dit Prior de la Trinite: issint en cel temps le dit Priour de la Trinite usurpa et acrocha a lui et sa Seigneury touz les poinz qe apendeient a les Moignes de la dite Priorite de Douvre; Cestassavoir, prælectioun de Priour, com sus est dite, profession, et examination des Cleres qe dussent estre resceu a lur abit en la dite Priorite de Douvre, et autres oppressions et grebaunces et blemissements encountre la fourme e la volunte du primer foundeur, en grant errisement et prejudice de la dite Eglise S. Martin de Douvre et a les persones ileoseqes demouranz, dount nostre Seignour le Roi Edward pere nostre Seignour le Roi qe ore est, qe Die gard, veiaunt les oppressions et blemissements a sa fraunche Chapele & a les Moignes ileoseqes demouranz estre fait grevouses & meyns dreiturels en une voidance de la Priorite de Douvre, le Roy porta sun bref de droit devers le Priour de la Trinite qe ore est, et recevera labourie devers lui de la dite Eglise de Seint Martin, et le dit Priour soriuge pur toutes jours compirrt plus pleinement par record et proces de ceo fait en le Court nostre Seignour le Roi. E coment qe ceo Jugement oghsta le dit Priour del avorie avantdite, le dit Priour apres la mort Erceveſque de Canterbire myst chalench a clame, demaundant obedience manuele et autres subjections du dit Priour & Moignes de Douvre. E pur ce quil ne firunt point, com faire ne devoient, il les fist estumencher et autres duresses grevances, et apres la mort del Priour en cel temps, le dit Priour de la Trinite, clama prælection de Priour ileoseqes com avaunt fist, et destourba les ditz Moignes de Douvre deinz aunz et demi e plus qil ne poient avoir Priour de leur com avant avoient. Taunt qe nostre Seignour le Roy qe ore est, qe Dieu gard, de pyte meu qe la destruction des ses Moignes de Douvre, commanda par son bref de la Chancelerie, qil surseist et cessat des grevances et de demandes tortsinouses qe il fist a sa Fraunche Chapele de Douvre et a les Moignes ileoseqes demourantz, encontre la Jugement et la gard de sa Court, et de

WHere by divers ſundry old autentike Hiſtories and Chronicles, it is manifeſtly declared and expreſſed, THAT THIS REALM OF ENGLAND IS AN IMPIRE, and ſo hath been accepted in the World, governed by ONE SUPREME HEAD AND KING, having the Dignity and Regal Eſtate of the IMPERIAL CROWN of the ſame; Unto whom a body politike, compact of all ſorts and degrees of people, divided in termes and by names of Spiritualty and Temporalty, been bounden and owen to bear, next to God, a natural and humble obedience: He being alſo furniſhed and furniſhed by the goodneſſe and ſufferance of Almighty God, WITH PLENARY, WHOLE AND INTIRE POWER, PREEMINENCE, AUCTORITY AND JURISDICTION, TO RENDER AND YEELD JUSTICE AND FINAL DETERMINATION TO ALL MANNER OF FOLKE RESIAUNTS OR SUBJECTS WITHIN THIS HIS REALM, IN ALL CAUSES, MATTERS, DEBATES AND CONTENTIONS HAPPENING TO OCCURRE, INSURGE OR BEGIN WITHIN THE LIMITS THEREOF, WITHOUT RESTRAINT OR PROVOCATION TO ANY FOREIN PRINCES OR POTENTATES IN THE WORLD, &c. The Kings moſt Noble Progenitours, and the Nobility and Commons of this Realm at divers and ſundry Parliaments, as well in the time of King Edward the Firſt, &c. as in other Noble Kings of this Realm, made ſundry Ordinances, Laws, Statutes, and Proviſions, for the entire and ſure conſervation of the Prerogatives, Liberties, and Preheminences of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and of the Juriſdiction ſpiritual and temporal of the ſame, to keep it from the annoyance as well of the See of Rome, as from the authority of other Soveraign Potentates attempting the diminution or violation thereof, as often and from time to time as any ſuch annoyance or attempt might be known or eſpied. All which the premiſed Statutes, Edicts, Writs and Records in this Tome abundantly evidence.

FINIS.

To the Reader.

FOr thy easier, speedier investigation and survey of all Matters comprised in this Third Tome, I have thought fit to make 14. several Tables to it, in an Alphabetical and Chronological method, according to the subject matter.

The 1. Of the Authors cited, explained, rectified, or refuted in this Tome.

The 2. Of the Abbies, Abbots, Abbesses, Priories, Priors, Nunneries, Religious Houses and Orders therein mentioned, and what concerns them.

The 3. Of all our English and Welsh; The 4. Of all our Irish; The 5. Of some French, Scottish, and Foreign Archbishops, Bishops; And of their respective Elections, Confirmations, Successions, Actions, Contumacies, Schisms, Treasons, Deaths, and what else concerns them, or the Temporalties, Priviledges of their Bishopricks or Dioceses. Which will make some usefull Additions to Francis Godwins Catalogue of English Bishops, and Sir James Wares his Treatise, De Præsulibus Hybernia.

The 6. Of the English, Welsh, Irish, Scottish, and other Archdeacons, Deans and Chapters herein mentioned, and the matters relating to them.

The 7. Of our English, and other Dukes, Earls herein named, and what concerns them.
